Welcome! I'm Rion Kati and I'm VERY excited to release this new Charisma-Allure Power Report about discovering and leveraging organic Power, Beauty and Social INFLUENCE to THRIVE in an attention economy with billions of online users.

This Charisma book is both a meta-marketing resource on the future of social media and beauty influence (as well as WHY and where it thrives NOW)...It is indeed about scalable success in an attention economy and it also serves many other purposes from starting to 'read' charisma to examples of who ARE charismatic influencers and celebs who are thriving and why...

*("Wait-WTF, Rion...over 700 PAGES?!"...hold that thought..
..for it shall be addressed shortly...)*

But before you might disconnect you may want to BROWSE the hundreds of IMAGE examples here first? ;)

Whether you're in business as your own brand online and want to maximize your visual impact and growth - or you're an Instagram influencer growing a larger following and becoming a cultural ICON;

This book will start revealing how YOU as an INFLUENCER - can start cultivating your super-natural ability to have HOLOGRAPHIC mesmerizing influence and maximal engagement with your visual and social media (literally like a star/let)!

Being the brand of you + CHARISMA = more subscribers, viewers, likes, comments, referrals with MORE organic talc of deeper and longer super-fan, super-client traction and engagement. Amongst many insights;

I'm going to reveal the hidden secret to BILLIONS OF YOUTUBE VIEWS, viral dance videos and nut-rageous subscriber & like ratios.

(I will be using 'charisma' and 'allure' inter-changeably throughout)

This is attention-getting MOJO....or to mix analogies; with allure you can be like honey to the bees where YOU stand out and get real social attention and interest consistently.

I'll give you a simple secret formula to DANCE VIDEO SUCCESS. It's in one sentence but you have to look for that Easter Egg yourself ;)

And actually, we're going to reveal what the HONEY IS as 'the currency' itself with powerful social media attraction (without an expensive PR campaign).

We're talking...YOU with more respect, more recognition, more status, more primal and spiritual attraction – like a magnetic star/let in your expanding media empire. Sound good?

I think that you'll find this to be an invaluable resource for Beauty Influence...maybe a once in a generation, Image Consulting BIBLE-level event.

I know that all of the VISUALS and hidden hyper-links are going to help you immensely – there may even be some of your favorite celebs in her so scroll down to get a preview at anytime.

I want you to KNOW and SEE what charisma FINALLY IS b/c social media, entertainment and beauty influence WITHOUT IT is MUCH flatter and superficial...far less engaging and clickable.

You're going to start sensing, feeling and KNOWING this b/c

Charisma and Allure are ORGANIC CLICKBAIT.

I predict; The GAME ITSELF is going to change, b/c we live in an ATTENTION ECONOMY and social media is here to stay. Social media is future proof. BILLIONS of dollars are spent on paid advertising yearly and although I'm not against it - there is an organic way that is at the core of it.

There are so many things vying for ATTENTION; so we're going to delve into all of this...b/c is it really 'CONTENT' that people are seeking when it comes to BEAUTY and social influence? Or is it something deeper related to something 'else'?....

BTW; My shortcode to reference this book will be 'SCA' (Social Currency Allure). Although this IS about the social currency, I'm going to focus more specifically on social MEDIA and the power of charisma. It also gives us a shorter title. Thus; You can also refer to this book as the 'Social Media Currency Charisma report', etc.

Many people (your future subscribers and customers) are sick and tired of superficial, manipulative advertising and are seeking something deeper – someone and something REAL that can not only engage them to become your SUPER-FANS...but even TRANSFORM them just from your Beauty effortlessly...drawing them in to deeper levels of follower-ship or paid work with you.

Imagine having TRANSFORMATIONAL BEAUTY and presence that leaps off of the pixels on the screen to COMPEL them and start changing their lives?! That's what charisma/allure can do for you.

If you're a Beauty influencer, this is THE EVOLUTION...it's with ALLURE. And yes; we're going to DEFINE IT and go through MANY VISUAL EXAMPLES ;)!

Transmutational (alchemical) levels of Beauty are FAR more POWERFUL and influential than merely looking good.

This book (and getting into your own charisma transformation) will give YOU authentic, organic market advantage. So get ready to start seeing RESPONSE increases from your people (I myself have this thriving on Facebook where I'm currently choosing to be most active).

I'm going to go into why CHARISMA is the next big mega-trend - as well as seeing how you can thrive by implementing more allure and SWAG in the visual media you're already producing to get more results - magically.

This book is about what exists as the CURRENCY of allure and charisma in the world of social media success today as an ATTENTION ECONOMY.

AND it's about the future of where things are headed to live your BEST LIFE in fullest soul expression and deep impact. There are many more influencers arising now that in a sense you are competing with for 'attention' but they may miss out for YEARS on having the 'real' tangible currency that is being exchanged within social media.

You may have heard the saying that 'Image is everything'....but, now we're really starting to REALLY understand it and why...this is b/c Beauty has always been more than skin-deep. Videos and visual content FILL the internet.

An average of 694,000 hours of video are streamed by YouTuber users each and every minute and if you're in video marketing for your business, you've got the WORLD potentially as your oyster.

If you're wanting to MASTER being the BRAND of you as an influencer, this is a must-read resource.

It may be a relief that we're sticking to PROFESSIONAL VISUALS here; not vague references to wellness tips and positive thinking. There is a lot of UNIFICATION in this power report that bridges many seemingly disparate world's together FOR pro image consulting, so that you can thrive.

I want you to have a ridiculously long yet VISUAL REFERENCE that you may refer to as the 'Charisma Bible', 'Sam's happy time' or what have you – that you can keep coming back to get more insights out of.

So today is a special day indeed - because whatever scale of social influence you're at, CHARISMA and vibe and light-maxxing YOUR charisma is THE META-KEY and I want to prove it 2u.

You will understand WHY some people you don't feel ANYTHING for and yet others have 100,000x the attraction power (and that previously in-definable 'x-factor')...you'll be reconfirmed all along you KNEW it couldn't just be their 'mindset', luck, workaholism, or wearing a specific designer brand.

There are different pieces to the puzzle of social media success and I'm here to present that (for non-famous people already) CHARISMA is THE core component.

It's not just about creating 'content' when it comes to beauty influence. We're talking about SOCIAL POWER AND INFLUENCE; not merely 'content marketing' but these inter-weave.

So keep on reading (b/c charisma is also central to most famous people as well but I don't think that you can't rely on fame first).

Charisma MAGNETICALLY ATTRACTS even when the person is DOING NOTHING. Powerful magnetism DOING NOTHING...effortlessly.

And it's not just about your 'character' or 'personality'...NO!
Expanding character to what I'll be covering later is more accurate.
And if you're shy, that's ok too b/c your charisma and allure can tell people MORE THAN WORDS.

This might even be embarrassing for charisma coaches 1.0 to read this b/c of what I see as their backwards behavioral modeling approach (that of which I'll be calling out more).

I'll reveal that 'personal growth' (and even 'talent' or 'character' in some cases) is actually a MAIN thing holding you back from superstar influence like a rockstar (and countless other gems for YOU to discover FROM YOUR VISUALS ALONE).

Skin-deep beauty mastery doesn't lead to the deeper influence we're talking about. The thing is, you cannot fake allure or charisma and there's no eyeliner 3000 or aloe vera conditioner for this that will get you there.

We're going to go into the REAL power game in multiple dimensions that isn't merely about copying this years trends and 'looking the part'.

If you are your brand you want people to FEEL you and not be seen as a poser right?

Now...One of my challenges over many, many fortnights hath been translating the conscious competence of allure, working with archetypes (their beauty and power), allure consulting and transformation to a wider audience (outside of my awakening circle and clients who are already on the forefront).

Yes; I've been working with allure transformation and makeovers for years now, but this is a special time b/c I've got NEW CODES to share that will help translate allure and charisma like never before.

I'm going to introduce you to the CORE visual secret responsible for driving literally BILLIONS of youtube views and hyper-rabid fan-ship amongst certain influencers that are already out there now (and it's not just 'fame'). We're also talking OBSCENE like ratios and inter-activity (upwards of 10% en masse).

After all you don't want to have to put your followers into a virtual chokehold to get them to like do you? To 'force' clicks 'or else'? Nah...

Wouldn't it be better if they were INSPIRED to be there with you TIL THE END? (Or something like that)? Charisma can do that...HYPNOTICALLY LURE IN YOUR SOUL TRIBE CLIENTS.

"Isn't it really CONTENT and algorithm social media marketing 'hacking' What I should be focused on?"

Well, that may be PART of the puzzle of social media marketing and success but keep reading! We want to focus in on the VISUAL component of YOU on camera with all of this.

You're going to see more about exploding your own following and scalability FROM YOUR VISUALS with social media or an online business (with you at the center as 'brand')! This isn't about copywriting tips or 'headlines that get people to click' in your emails.

You might start seeing HOW and WHY some influencers are getting lion's share of attention and scalability. And if you're into VIDEO MARKETING, charisma is also critical to be aware of (unless it's HYPER niche-content specific but we'll talk more).

Even Vishen Lakhiani (MindValley) and Brendon Burchard (as successful influencer-entrepreneurs and best-selling authors) have a form of infectious charisma that is ‘theirs’ and it’s an INTEGRAL part of their entire branding, marketing, communication and client attraction success.

This gets more people engaged with their video ads and touch points ALL THE TIME to have higher response ratios.

Now; 1 of the tools I use to measure charisma is what I call the Charisma Factor or Allure Factor (for women/feminine).

Charisma Factor here (out of his potential 10):

That's higher than it sounds btw. Brendon has a lot of infectious 'vibe' or 'energy' and it helps to effect the people he is training and speaking to online and in person.

Charisma IS VITAL for public speakers, entertainers and performers as well...life-blood stuff really (and critical to REALLY selling and influencing). I may speak more to the Charisma Factor (and Allure Ratio later).

We'll be going into charisma further of course, but I'll say 2 things right now; 1: I may not do many A/F or Charisma Factor readings in THIS report b/c of the AMOUNT of data we're otherwise covering – you can find those readings elsewhere as well - but know that I can do them on anyone at any point in time to gauge their charisma from visuals or remotely. The Allure/Charisma Factor is a universal tool and can always be used.

And 2: We tend to overlook the charisma aspect as a FUNDAMENTAL component of someone's branded influence and marketing strategy...this book changes that. The variable of Charisma WAS HERE ALL ALONG with humans and social influence!

...but not everyone has it! MOST adults have charisma as flat as a seltzer water left on the kitchen counter for 2 and a half days.

I'm Rion Kati and after studying and attuning with the most alluring women in the world for over 2 decades and being a go-to market leader of charisma and allure consulting and transformation, I'm making a BOLD prediction that I already see is accurate:

Allure is the future CURRENCY of Social Media & Beauty Influence

I use the 'phi' ϕ in place of 'f' intentionally and we'll go into why.

So, if you value growing your social media engagement, this is a tsunami like mega-trend that I foresee is coming - and I think you might wanna be in on it (even if you're not a beauty influencer). This is because social media is already so MASSIVE and people are vying for ATTENTION.

Not only is it encoded in our future socially; charisma is ALREADY a core component of the social media success (and virality) of those who DO have it (even though most people can't otherwise see, explain or figure out this hidden 'x-factor' component out)!

Without understanding 'charisma', you might think that it's luck or based on figuring out how to reactively copy new hot dance trends, hashtags or key terms. You might think it's making 100s of videos with no idea of how you're coming across on camera.

By focusing on it directly we can SAVE YOU YEARS OF TIME of just 'not knowing' and suffering lackluster engagement.

CHARISMA IS THE TREND and the TANGIBLE currency underneath it all that compels behavioral response and INFLUENCE...and it can help ENSURE your maximal success as an influencer or business-person online (unless you're a marketer hiding behind things).

"Tangible currency Rion?" YEP....keep reading to get into such social media sorcery!

WITHOUT MASCULINE CHARISMA (or Feminine Allure) and its organic influence, you might end up closer to (choosing to or) being 'forced' to manipulate people and their emotions just to 'get attention'...hmm, that sounds familiar (in direct response online/advertising and marketing).

But REAL PEOPLE relating socially are touchy...they're not going to respond to 'hard sells' and direct response marketing. So this could be a world paradigm re-frame for direct marketers into social media marketing success. And the thing is; charisma isn't something that expert social media marketeers can simply 'hack' either b/c it cannot be faked.

We've heard of it a lot; charisma and allure; BUT NOW you're really gonna get to get some powerful insight around all of it as well as see the greater, lucrative-attention thirst-trap market drive going on (and it's not as simple as what you might be thinking it is, but we'll make it very clear throughout).

This is like Grand Union Station to your LEGACY as being the brand yourself and visually communicating those values in LESS THAN A SECOND even on first impressions so people are more likely to ACT on following you without being told.

THE HONEY OF ALLURE COMPELS PEOPLE 2U.

Now we're simply becoming more aware of ALLURE and charisma as a variable of visual INFLUENCE; the how and why. One of my Tiktok astrology clients has gone viral since she started working with me (testimonial later), but MANY of my clients are thriving with intimate engagement with their soul-tribe and increased conversion and response rates.

As we continue; you'll be able to start sensing how charisma IS different than our entire paradigm of skin-deep color-spectrum focused beauty or direct-response marketing.

ONCE YOU CAN BUILD TRUST with your followers and subscribers, they can be there for you and take your recommendations as an influencer.

Sure; you don't want to betray that trust but it's really how to get that first impression and touch-points of ORGANIC trust that compels them to believe you, follow you and work with you.

That's also what allure/charisma can do 4u. Wouldn't you rather have TRUST from your soul tribe fans and clients immediately where their entire body just RESTS into a somatic relief of 'FINALLY'...I MUST follow?!

Social media success being so visually based....It's not just looking good, video production value, good lighting, post-production and content marketing anymore. CHARISMA is a core factor of ensuring social media success and engagement ORGANICALLY.

Especially if you're a Beauty influencer, this is critical stuff to know and maximize. You could also call it 'vibe-maxing' or 'light-maxing' (you heard these terms here first ;).

Think of just how much competition there is for what we value as 'ATTENTION' online and on our smart phones with social media.

It might seem like 'attention' is the currency that is valued, but I like to view social media rather as an 'Attention Economy' (and although there are Instagram ads; in general, this is also where upfront hard sales marketing is different ESP. if you are a 'real person' influencer).

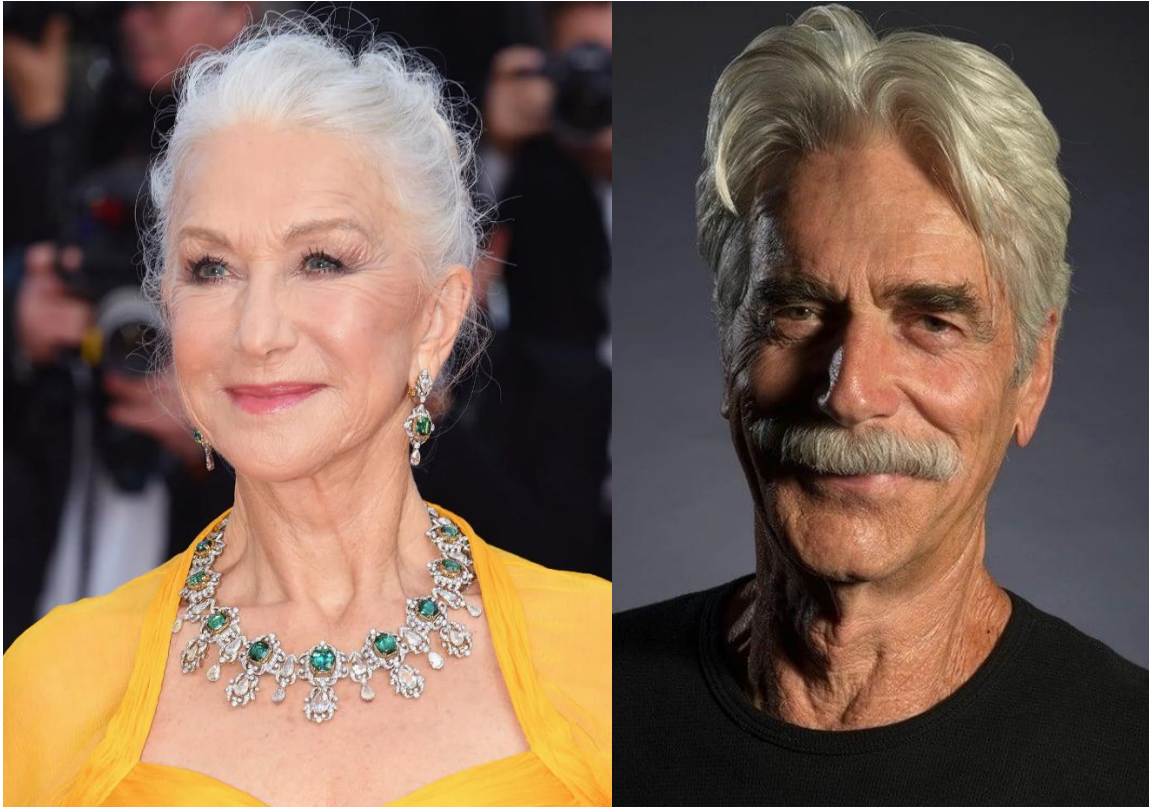

Want that special MAGIC and 'it factor' that stars and starlets have in becoming your OWN social media star as you build an in-self empire and scalable following?

You're in the right place. And yes, I'm going to DEFINE these and other key terms.

Concerned about aging and how you're coming across (and how that might affect your confidence)?

Charisma/allure can make that a NON-ISSUE. We'll speak to this (especially for post-menopausal women).

(There are plenty of older people whose charisma carries them like Sam Elliott or Helen Mirren.)

Charisma also BENDS LIGHT so people can see the real you (and if THAT is daunting, then you may really have some work to do at this crossroads). Charisma is also related to your health, wellness and vitality; but we're focusing more just on the pro VISUAL and influence components here.

Charisma (and its feminine aspect/version of 'allure') translates the whole concept of 'inner beauty' ON-CAMERA and you might find that for years or decades - you've been focused on the wrong or indirect things.

You might just want to have MORE RESPONSE and authentic engagement without having to trick anyone into anything; a more ORGANIC and natural way of HAVING TRUE SOCIAL POWER of real people (both live in person socially and professionally as well as with social media).

And isn't there something more than just 'looking good', adjusting your posture, teeth whitening and 'psyching yourself up before getting on camera?’ Something more than doing thousands of videos without knowing how you’re being received?

Yes!

We can now work COMPETENTLY in this realm of allure/charisma consulting and transformation rather than it being ambiguous or based on posture corrections and so forth.

Even for my own circle of social and professional influence, I've been working on translating the power and magic of allure for years; but this represents a new era.

Now; with this meteor shower of Charisma codes (and oodles of visual examples!)...we’re on the cusp of what could be THE NEXT BIG MEGA-TREND after the inception of popular AI.

I know that you're in for a 'gift-that-keeps-on-giving' treat whether you've been following me for years or are entirely new to this report and me.

SO....Whether you're already an influencer or in business online with YOU being the center of your brand, I'm sure that you know that your image MATTERS and that it's not just about looking good.

BEAUTY IS MORE THAN SKIN DEEP.

You know it, I know it, we know it but most of us have forgot – b/c there is a LOT of conditioning out there that never really reaches to the DEPTHS of the POWER of Beauty and how it CAN TRANSFORM lives and have an effect on consciousness and BENDING REALITY itself.

This is about increasing your FELT influence and engagement from your visuals and live presence with the previously ‘ambiguous’ concept of charisma and allure. So feel free to share this resource and send it to others or follow me on FB.

Thusly; before you might get overwhelmed so much so that you never even start to read this; let me address the pink elephant in the room. The overwhelming SIZE of this resource.

It's meant to be ‘easy-readin’...very digestible like a smoothie on a hot late summer’s day; (just that it's 100s of gallons of it)...Hopefully without too much laxative - but hey; that might happen to help clean out your conditioning around a constricted view of Beauty and Image.

Please do not be dismayed that is 1/2 the length of 'War & Peace'. You might even secretly hate me for the length. I know you're busy and your time is valuable; but I think this is high enough of value for you to make it worth it.

Ironically, I wrote it in about 2 weeks part-time + image research.
TAKE YOUR TIME WITH IT.

You probably wouldn't finish it in one go anyways. You might want to sprint instead of marathon. How about being the tortoise AND the hare?...be like water...whatever...

As long as you're into the idea of having influence with badass integrity to the real you and your highest self-expression.

ALLURE IS BEAUTY THAT PEOPLE CAN FEEL

...even DIGITALLY. Yeah; sorcery so keep listening!

This book could cut YEARS of trial and error out of your life to get to the good stuff FAST to increase your social media legacy from wherever it's at right now – or to catapult it from the start.

My recommendation is to have the right mindset around using this book immediately that supports your (good) indoctrination into the world of greater visual, social power and beauty influence directly.

Because in a way; masculine charisma and feminine allure are like SORCERY. Attention-getting' MAGIC and without force or manipulation.

If you already know that you VALUE charisma, allure, beauty influence, more followers OR increasing your social influence then you are in the RIGHT PLACE.

I'd best view it as a goldmine then...or perhaps a treasure cove.

And realistically...this is now yours, so you can go in and out of the gold-mine here to get more take-away treasures, nuggets and goblets out of it on your own pacing.

When the Count of Monte Cristo and his scribe found the treasure, they had to do multiple trips down into the water cave.

As much as you think you might know about professional image consulting, I would daresay that there's more here than you can stuff into your over-flowing pockets in one go (and without ever being a thief b/c like healthy stars and starlets and the 'currency' they give; you can't actually take 'from' them in a detrimental way).

Or if you're skeptical of viewing it as treasure itself, you could view this book as a 'map' to the treasure itself..and start realizing the insights and value for yourself...b/c in a way charisma has always been with us and in front of us.

I would EMPTY YOUR POCKETS and get ready to be in the wonder of discovery and POSSIBILITY.

Because I tell you that in spite of sometimes mixing analogies and questionable editing; this is the DREAM book and reveal that I was always looking for in understanding charisma as well as the hopes of finding a deeper worthiness to relate with true Beauty and in wanting that authentic masculine power.

“So...charisma is about non-verbals?”

Or practicing a smile”

NO! Non-verbals are a smaller portion of INFLUENCE ITSELF. PLUS; we're not talking about VERBAL influence here either...we have to go deeper into the Truth of Power, Beauty and Light itself which is mostly 'something else' but mixes with non-verbals.

For decades, I've wanted to know "What IS it about some people?" How do THEY stand out? How could I have THAT charisma without fake-acting it? Was it just working on my 'style' and 'mindset'? 007 was a part of that...the charisma of a Sean Connery.

Oops...

There we go...

But it's also the alluring, transcendent and timeless beauty of a Marilyn Monroe.

So keep readin' b/c the good news is that (although most adults do not at all have charisma or allure), it is possible that you can have star-like real allure b/c it IS potentially accessible to ALL humans.

Me, myself and Irene had to let go of what I 'thought' I knew about 'charisma' so that I could be a student TO and from the most alluring in the world. And I had to draw in connection points from Eastern wisdom as well.

Have you thought such things about certain people (and maybe they weren't even the best-looking);

...How they had a GRAVITAS about them and everyone in the room veered towards them with real power and beauty. There was a 'cool' factor that you couldn't put a price on.

They didn't have to seek attention, they GOT IT ANYWAYS – even though you couldn't verbalize it – but you just knew? Yeah....that's what we want to value discovering and FOCUSING ON.

And you've noticed that it sometimes gave them JAW-DROPPING attention? I've got that on different occasions and maybe you have too when you were 'at your best', but didn't quite know how...well, how about being able to be like that even more and as often as you want to LIVE like the star/let version of yourself?!

I think your STYLE should SUPPORT your fuller expression and vibe-truth (and the qualities of it) which is with your charisma/allure.

And you probably also noticed how much of the time those people were not the prettiest or best-looking, genetically gifted person in the room...it was a different 'x-factor' right?...AND it actually and literally made them BETTER-LOOKING ANYWAYS.

Charisma is magical; it's like light sorcery...unfortunately, if you're SO self-image conscious, that could easily throw off your charisma (which includes vibe-truth).

IT MIGHT EVEN FEEL LIKE YOU'RE LIVING UNDER A MASQUE OF MAKE-UP but don't have the 'inner beauty' to back it up. Hmm...(maybe, maybe not)...b/c truly powerful and beautiful people will TEST YOU to see if you are the real thing socially.

I wanted to understand that TRUE, speechless 'power dynamic' of attraction and influence itself. That quality that people couldn't ever define; WHAT WAS THAT!? (And how it relates to SEXUAL attraction and choice).

After years of actively clarity, seeking and working with it;

I'm confident that you're now going to get insights, answers and reveals that may literally CHANGE YOUR LIFE and trajectory from here forward to one of ALIGNED power and INFLUENCE.

The social media game and doing business online as your OWN BRAND is getting DEEPER. People want to know, sense and feel you are the REAL THING instead of just putting on an image front (and then sensing you don't live up to it).

More than just your looks; CHARISMA IS THE CURRENCY of social power. This goes deeper than non-verbal.

I want to help you to 'see', 'feel' and know it more clearly than ever before in this ridiculously long-ass power report (with lots of pretty pictures btw).

It's so clear to me that NOTHING OUT THERE gave me those answers other than INDIRECT backwards clues. Image consulting as we knew it was always too superficial to me; it just didn't give THE ANSWERS I sought-eth.

Immersing with Grandmasters of Chi Kung, Tao and Tantra didn't even do it; however, that was part of piecing the map together itself over years and years.

And that concept of 'chi'...ever hearda that? How does THAT fit into the picture (keep reading)!?

I was on a journey to crack the code on charisma...the deeper truth itself related with BEAUTY, POWER AND INFLUENCE...and how image was so powerful and how things related to spirituality even.

I knew it went deeper than just 'non-verbal' behavior, mannerisms and 'body language' too.

(And boy, does it!...Psychological models don't cover it either - and for that we require an entire new PARADIGM of viewing, interpreting and valuing things).

So we have to LITERALLY reference STARS in this reveal.

THIS BOOK and the years before this in 'decoding power' hath led to this Image-Biblical moment now. This is more than just pixels we're talking about but the key to social influence itself (whether online or off)...and KEY to attraction with people (throughout any industry and socially in general).

Stars get MILLIONS OF TIMES the attention in some cases but if we extract their fame and talent, what's left? Charisma (and their TRUE power and/or Beauty).

Their looks will change (in and through the 'light' of their image)...even in live presence!

When I had 2 alpha guys ask today at the gym if I was using the chest fly machine when I was at the pull-down bar, I realized something; that you cannot put a price on real respect if you're a man.

It's not something you can buy...other men respecting you for free. It's non-verbal but it's also 'energetic'...this underlying behavioral truth.

You could even go as far as to say that you can't actually buy true respect.

Think about it; if people are liking you and respecting you for your material possessions and the social status that affords; that may be NICE, but is that the deepest, realest form of respect?

WHAT HAPPENS IF ALL THOSE THINGS ARE GONE?

...How would people view and value you then? (And we're not even talking about the respect of a woman for you).

So what is your foundation founded upon? Charisma and allure cues us into true, deeper power and beauty and the attraction and EXCHANGE of that.

We are also on the precipice of what could be called the R:evolution of Beauty itself, social media influence AND performance Arts & Entertainment...breaking the glass ceiling of skin-deep beauty mastery (and the multi-billion dollar industry) into the realms of TRUE POWER and influence.

This is the future of Image Consulting and Transformation as well.

There are many women btw in my Facebook circle who have their own businesses and are great examples (if you just browse around) of being a testament of their brand visually and kinesthetically. So you're on the right road.

I simply got fed up of image related consulting always covering skin-deep beauty mastering and avoiding the real juicy stuff.

Since they generally valued it but couldn't ever even DEFINE 'allure' and 'charisma' to my standards (let alone consciously work with it); I had to find the deeper truths to satisfy my restless soul.

I mean; how could a Midwest boy be worthing of talking to a real goddess or angel anyways? THAT has everything to do with all of this as well.

So welcome!...I'd go ahead and leverage this as a treasure cove or goldmine for on-demand usage. I wouldn't even plan to read it all in one go. It may be code-overload.

This resource is kinda MASSIVE...so I recommend that before you might entirely discard it; do yourself a favor and at least BROWSE THROUGH to the bottom to reference some of the images that may stand out to you before you give up just being overwhelmed.

If you're non-committal right now still and daunted by the size; I think THAT may pique your interest enough – even if you're already a celebrity b/c this is taking the game of influence itself deeper and into MASTERY levels.

You may want to read entirely randomly picking up different things here and there or JUST following the images that stand out 2u.

I had no intention it would end up being this big, but it is. Fortunately, there are 200+ VISUAL EXAMPLES...so when you scroll down or skip around to read...just find places that inspire you and maybe read around them.

Yes; you can skip around entirely and don't have to read it linearly...also b/c there are many reiterations of the same theme.

So...If you value charisma, beauty and allure; I think you will find this to be that treasured resource maybe of your dreams as well. Let me know in FB dm or on my wall!

I'm choosing to release it in this intentional 'unabridged format'.

This isn't about just getting more superficial attention and social media success; it's about being seen more deeply, attracting soul tribe level fans and clients to you LIKE A STAR/LET with the FUTURE of where things are headed - NOW....and having more social media engagement in general that you cannot put a price on.

For men, it's going to lead you into the stuff of your dreams including receiving more recognition and RESPECT from other people...just from your presence and charisma (I'll be defining these later).

In a thousand years you may never feel worthy of being a Prince; you can never 'believe' that you have the 'inner game' to BE him.

As one of the top natural dating coaches online under a slightly different name years ago (who personally knew all the men in the book 'The Game'; I blew apart the limiting belief system of 'inner game' and that it's just about psychology...no, it's about the POWER GAME of real power, status and beauty...and that is IMPERSONAL.

WE ADDRESS or ANSWER THAT IN THIS REPORT...b/c I always wondered about that myself. Sexual POWER, status, gravitas at star and starlet levels? Yep...included in this report. Personal growth can be a major thing in your way.

There's a LOT AT STAKE if you're serious and professional about expanding your social media influence esp. if you are TUNED INTO YOUR SOUL and wanting INTEGRAL influence to attract your ideal soul-tribe fans and clients.

B/c really; personal growth, mindset, affirmations and faking self-confidence may not be doing it for you. The split with superficial Beauty mastery may seem too limiting.

...Social media marketing might be too yang and scientific for you and is missing the heart and other qualities.

ALLURE CAN DRIVE AN UNQUENCHABLE FIRE

...and we're going into WHY and without concerns of using or manipulating people; rather coming from your fullest expression AND the multi-dimensional reasons TO DO SO. The world; your people WANT YOU AS YOUR BEST SELF and seeing and feeling that gives THEM permission as well.

We're going to go deep into some heavy stuff later that I know my current followers are going to love – b/c they're used to DEEEEEP insight from me. For now, I'm playing around with translating more of the value to early adopters here...

Hint: If you're into 'Divine Union'...yes...we go into that as well so you can use the 'find' or search feature to skip down to such areas if you're a Rion follower or client ;)

Some people will seek FAME FIRST (or hire a top publicist to help socially engineer a strategy), without realizing they don't have 'the real currency itself' and then it could all CRUMBLE beneath them as they scale their social media empire. I don't want that 4u.

Instagram, facebook, tiktok and other platforms give you the power to REACH THE WORLD and become your own star outside of traditional models. In a sense, there are now more and more independent stars and starlets rising...this is also for them.

THIS IS ABOUT REAL POWER, BEAUTY AND INFLUENCE b/c there's an EVEN BIGGER GAME being played with and through the construct of our social media constructivism with Facebook, Instagram, tiktok and online branding (even in the movies, MV's and advertising).

It's SUCH a big game that (I daresay) most top marketers aren't even aware of the scope of it although movies and MV's (music videos) in some ways represent it (as you'll see).

You can actually access the SAME QUALITIES as your favorite, deepest celeb crush and the effect they had on you (BEFORE you're famous!)

Yeah; the stuff that you cannot put a price on. THE X-FACTOR ITSELF and YOUR unique signature version of it! This book will help to expand your possibilities and the sexiness about what that could look like...

This is a maelstrom of Light codes...and really, it's about the LIGHT of your power and influence b/c digital media visually is about Light (and Light-POWER)...so we're going deeper into the Truth of that and how 'image' can have so much POWER (and how you can harness it in alignment with your highest timelines).

NORMALLY, the sex transmutation of consciousness I have (with my Beloved) has led to unlimited practical creativity and such...and one of the prime outlets is charisma itself and understanding this aspect of influence itself at an unprecedented level - which is what I feel this is (u can determine for yourself).

I'm also on the charisma transformation journey myself in living as a testament to this work.

During and after you read this, you may wonder how we ever could have had beauty influence WITHOUT knowing about allure/charisma?

How could we only value image as ROYGBIV while over-looking the LITERAL power and beauty itself!?

It may be such a mind-shock to you that your whole energy body may start transfiguring to show your truth just from being EXPOSED

TO THE TRUTH OF LIGHT that can be encoded as Power and Beauty within visual media.

If you were curious about ‘vibes’, ‘aura’, ‘archetypes’, and ‘allure’...this is THE PLACE.

I'd like to think of Sexy Chi and this report as your Grand Central Station for all things charisma and allure consulting and transformation.

There is a language and science to all of this now; TO charisma.

The good news is, you're going to understand it much better now AND allure/charisma is already thriving in many influencers lives as a prime secret to their social media success, even fame.

CHARISMA IS A CORE KEY TO VISUAL INFLUENCE ITSELF

Always has been...and minus the factor of fame – from visuals alone- it's what sets some light years ahead and with the lion's share of attention that the populous gravitates towards.

And you'll see more why throughout as well as how to start sensing those who 'have it'...

Charisma is the stuff you can't put a price on b/c it can EXPONENTIATE rabid fan attraction and behavior without 'trying to socially engineer or hack it'. And again; without charisma but GREAT CONTENT, your results could remain lackluster while you spin your wheels for YEARS not having the legacy you dream of. Do you have that kind of time to waste or risk when your ideal super-fans and clients are literally already out there RIGHT NOW?

Don't they want the HOMING BEACON bat-signal that can bring them to you?

And think back to the posters you had on your wall as a teen... Just looking at them you could fall deeply in love and it stirred your Heart, Sex and Soul even awakening you. So was it just fantasy or is there something else related to true power and beauty associated with it and their god-like qualities?

What did those bands or stars they have besides talent? Fame? Great music?

Ok...but that's not the same variable as charisma from their presence itself.

An Italian plumber in Rome on a Vespa could have more charisma than a former starlet for example. Just viewing them stand-alone without music or fame; they most likely had the 'it factor' that Mick Jagger, Matthew McConaughey in many movies (but you want to learn to differentiate it from his good looks), Prince the Artist and early Britney Spears had for some examples. A unique swagger but where people could feel their vibes.

So, are you ready to get into what can catapult YOUR attention into the stratosphere with even more of a magnetron effect?

Then we have to understand that with the MULTIPLICIATION variable of video and visual media, you can REPLICATE YOURSELF millions of times (ie. 1 video to millions of people).

We have to view things from that dynamic and that with social media's potential - you have more of a dynamic than just being a physical human being Barney Rubble. So we don't want to 'downplay reality' down to the human level...no, we want to understand the SUPER-HUMAN and literally super-natural GAME going on – LIKE NEVER BEFORE. Then you can work with integrating your human self and your divine self (if there is one ;)

I just had a client who is hanging out with celebrities and fit right in; people saying she belongs and thinking she's a starlet. We've been working on her allure in direct sessions.

It's not just about changing your LOOKS, but your LIGHT itself and HOW people feel you and your expanded power and beauty (which relates with others kings, goddesses, divas, etc.)

First a Note: There ended up being SO many visual examples (used under fair use copyright guidelines) that there may be funKy page breaks here and there in this unpublished, unabridged super-flow v1st edition version - thanks for your understanding.

This intro is likely WAY too extended leading up to the good-er stuff; but I would actually leverage that for yourself to start getting your feet wet into how relevant this is and start warming up for an entire paradigm shift around beauty, power, influence and social media.

I'd lasso my different inflection points around the same themes as a way to more rapidly indoctrinate (the good indoctrinate) into understanding and integrating allure as part of your value system...b/c for you this may be entirely new.

Eagerly, this is for the early adopters (like maybe you are or already are); I don't think the mainstream isn't ready for it yet BECAUSE they are too conditioned with the Beauty-as-we-know-it paradigm and are responsive to the market and other influencers.

My not-so-secret-now general strategy is to get beauty influencers (or those into online business who are visual) sold on charisma and allure awareness and transformation (you) and then THEY will then influence the rest of mainstream and evolve the Beauty industry and social media itself.

Who I'm working with now is mostly conscious women who to me are the co-founders of sorts of this new revolution. Without them, this work wouldn't be off the ground b/c they already RECOGNIZE the value of this work (and how it ties in spiritually and with consciousness).

Now; remember that much of this is reiterative from different inflection points and I'm not trying to edit it down into a publishable version yet. I have to have the room to just flow even if it drives you banananananas Gwen-y.

Could this book even end up *changing the game?! Who knows...*but we are on the PRECIPICE of a MEGA-TREND b/c social media is already MASSIVE.

Ok!

If you're ready to be FULLY EXPRESSED and have MAGICAL engagement and powerful attraction from your social media ORGANICALLY...this might be a dream come true 4u.

Tired of people objectifying you just for your body - or don't want to show as much skin to get attention (or the wrong types of attention)?

WELCOME TO HEAVEN ON EARTH b/c allure can constellate MULTI-DIMENSIONAL influence and engagement from your people communicating FAR more than words or 'work' (even with MORE clothes on; even in full arctic gear with moon boots).

Why? BECAUSE OF THE GOLD itself underneath and when you 'have it' and have 'more of it', you're going to stand out LIKE that starlet version of yourself.

If you are your own ONLINE BRAND...and the brand is YOU and you KNOW the value of that...an extended welcome to this report.

You can thrive in online business with your visuals in attracting the right soul-tribe clients faster and with simple integrity more than ever.

SO I would best focus on core charisma/allure awareness itself instead of just doing more of what you've been doing if you're not satisfied with your social media growth...and even if you are a successful influencer; this is the future for you too!

Maybe you are an OnlyFans influencer or a celebrity...But if you don't HAVE the power of charisma/allure, then people will inherently be more focused just on your looks b/c they can't feel you...more open to just scrolling and judging you.

Maybe you want to grow your beauty influence platform into something richer and more meaningful with the rest of who you really are. (We'll dig into 'inner beauty' more).

Charisma/allure fortunately tends to hide and mask old age anyways as you'll see - so people can see and feel the 'real you'; you'll find that it magically matters less.

Are you ready for deeper and greater influence from all of your visual social media from here forward? Would you like to live in your soul-STARLET self and building a scalable, felt orbit of your LEGACY online and in person? Want to play and dance with the stars?

What if you could MULTIPLY the response people have to your content ORGANICALLY even with your same workflow on Facebook or Instagram? More clicks, likes, subscribes, views, engagements, referrals and clients?! You could even make less content but start watching them get higher response rates.

Or if you're a man; would you like to have that rockstar charisma that people are just affected by and sometimes drop their jaws or if you're single have a new girl at the gym fluster herself with selfies, sports bra adjustments and fidgeting on the treadmill next 2u?

A presence whom everyone looks up to in the room in the true power dynamic (whether you're 'in the game' itself or not)?

That's the PRICELESS stuff for all the other reasons people try to gain higher status, you can't put a price on true power. MONEY and wealth are one form of power but we're talking about a deeper CURRENCY here.

There are many ways to 'stand out' online and some of it may seem too weird, gaudy, loud or markety for you. You're in the right place reading this power report because we're talking about YOU but with MORE INFLUENCE and star-like power to grow your orbit, business and social following.

Don't want to rely on becoming the next 'hawk tuah' viral anomaly for assuring your social success?

You're also in the right place! Social media success can be more RELIABLE instead of just waiting for 15 minutes of fame (which was with our OLD models).

Hawktuah is smartly leveraging her virality making appearances to have more stable social media coverage and following - but again; can you rely on being that rare anomaly?

I assume that you already have your reasons for valuing social media and good news – I hope I've sold you in being in the right place at the right time in history b/c this isn't popular yet.

Even if you are 'personality' based or a video podcaster, charisma is going to boost everything and make you more watchable and engaging (more examples in the loot).

(Aga; I will be using allure and charisma interchange-ably and I will be defining them further down)

We cannot over-look that social media is practically ATTENTION based.

We'll talk about this more coming up - b/c it's not really 'money' that's being exchanged upfront; it's views, time, clicks, subscribers and conversions.

It is ATTENTION based.

Social Media is like an ATTENTION ECONOMY (and entertainment is a factor in that) and you could build your ultimate lifestyle as an influencer. This is something I'm doing long-term.

So if you want more attention WITHOUT 'having to' do paid advertising and the fortune you could spend on it (and ensure you're getting more results anyways); cultivating your allure will allow your current and future followers to ENGAGE and respond to you far more. The Daily Nas guy and Vishen have examples of sending out a message to their followers and always getting invites from people in the local city for them to stay for free there.

With Instagram and facebook (although limited to 5000 friends for personal accounts); you can scale organically and for free B/C THE CURRENCY itself is something you cannot put a price on.

It's not just 'beauty' or 'niche content' as we know it.

I'm going to show you influencers with millions of followers who have this gold so that you can tune into that STREAM of social success (b/c it's not just about who is the prettiest).

So with this (and I'll give a disclaimer shortly); I want to cover some deeper marketing aspects of 'the game' as well as go deeper into the power and truth of social influence (online) as well as allure itself.

It's taken 21.6 years up until now and even within that many years of continuing to get clarity. My Chinese Grandmasters couldn't even fully explain it to the level of clarity that I was seeking in connecting it to Western Science and so forth.

...And this (I think you'll discover) is profound b/c we're viewing the practical attention economy from an angle that isn't often covered. This gets into the HEART of WHY allure is THE most valuable currency socially. I think it's gonna blow your mind.

It's not just the words you say, with SOCIAL INFLUENCE it's how people FEEL and without understand charisma, people are left to often kind of manipulate those words and intentions. But real power and beauty HAS INFLUENCE.

CHARISMA INCLUDES PRESENCE & PRESENCE COMMUNICATES POWER.

...And self-expression.

It's kind of like asking the under-current question of 'who is the most powerful in the room'?

Well, although Al Pacino has the status power position; here's an example of silent power in the movie 'Any Given Sunday' with the other coach on the wall:

Presence is PART of the equation of charisma (e3 we'll go into later) and presence (or 'embodiment' of 'something' tangible we'll cover later) is about POWER. Not extrinsic financial power or physical power per se, but embodied power.

Power flows through charisma and there are different forms and types of power specifically.

Al Pacino's character has self-expressed charisma too; but I want to highlight this under-current of things b/c women famously are known to respond to what in a man? PRESENCE.

And not all men HAVE THAT; esp. to remain present with her level of beauty, beauty consciousness or social status. Some people can literally embody more POWER (or Beauty) and forms of power; signatures of power than others.

We're talking about presenced Power that doesn't have to over-sell itself...but real power; power of presence...who we would turn to in a room or gravitate around. Power that relates to other forms of power and beauty as WORTHY (and this comes across visually).

Not just 'strength of character' or physical power, but power that we're going to DEFINE and get into more.

Thanks for giving me room to get snippets of things in here and there and move around...we'll be talking about power more deeply and increasing the POWER of your visuals to magically engage and INFLUENCE people socially and with social media. PRESENCE is part of that equation b/c disempowered people cannot hold presence comfortably around other people of power and beauty.

In a vibrational universe, power is both within and without. Power is relational.

Let me switch it up again as we move forward...

Obviously, social media is here to stay; facebook, youtube, instagram, tiktok and so forth. Growing a business WITHOUT social media and connection to users is kinda weird now (and quite corporatey).

Social media is FUTURE-PROOF with billions of users (hey; we're a social species) and I want this power report to give you the awareness to THRIVE in growing your following and business being your BEST, most influential soul-star self.

My intention is that you'll be 'sold' on cultivating allure/charisma FOR LIFE b/c it ALLOWS YOU to communicate with more ORGANIC power and influence from your multi-dimensional self without relying on superficial mastery...a more fulfilling and integratively SATISFYING path of power and influence communicating from ALL aspects of your truth.

A path that you can RELISH in Beauty itself as practically spiritual at advanced and powerful levels of visual expression that drives starlet levels of attention and attraction.

Sure you might be a 'local' starlet for starters but look at the size of different followers and how you can GROW your influence...Kim Kardashian and other influencers have a populous the size of entire countries following them....that's a LOT of social and cultural POWER.

ALLURE HAS & IS COMMUNICATED & FELT BEAUTY

There will be many examples throughout...but we have to THINK DIFFERENTLY.

Because to have INFLUENCE from your VISUALs with power and beauty; we're not going to focus on extrinsic beauty, social media 'marketing' or algorithm hacking and content creation tips, but the missing component itself of mega social INFLUENCE and success: CHARISMA (and 'allure' which again - I will be using interchangeably as the masculine and feminine versions of the same concept).

After all, BILLIONS of views and 100 millions of users are engaging with social influencers who have CHARISMA (aka 'real power' not just fame per se)...and basically up until now it's not been as CLEAR of a core component to even see (how critical it is for helping ensure social media success) - until now.

I want you to START seeing it for yourself and the select examples I give should help you to attune your sight to it.

Charisma cues into DIVINE MASCULINE POWER which is above and through SOCIAL POWER (and yet it's integrated into it; that's why we treat some like gods, starlets and divas b/c they accept that about themselves).

Allure gives us an authentic taste of DIVINE FEMININE BEAUTY which is beyond socially constructed beauty standards and conditioning...which is also why we inherently RESPOND TO IT when we are NEAR IT. (Oh we go deep into this around mid-book).

Consider if you dare that we are not only humans with physical body, booty and physical beauty. Egads?! What if our 'light' was something more than just the vessel of our body?...hmmm....

Sure; AI is a 'hot thing' right now. And Artificial Intelligence will continue to grow, but we're talking about something beyond that which is primed to EXPLODE into the mainstream starting with beauty influencers and other early adopters (hint; it's the allure transformation work).

So I want to highlight in this power report what allure is and WHY it is the currency that is INVALUABLE to all future social media use (and already thrives now with those who have it).

Then throughout; you can start getting an idea of how to increase your own user, subscriber, client and fan following LIKE a star or starlet!

Because allure is more than 'physical' photonic light; allure is also connected to #fomo inducing DIVINE beauty and allows you to simply have MORE INFLUENCE from your visuals.

I mean if you're a beauty influencer, this report could very well change your life and trajectory. Yes; we're talking GODDESS BEAUTY literally.

(Remember, b/c of this format...many things will be re-iterated b/c I just had to FLOW with things and not have a nightmare to edit).

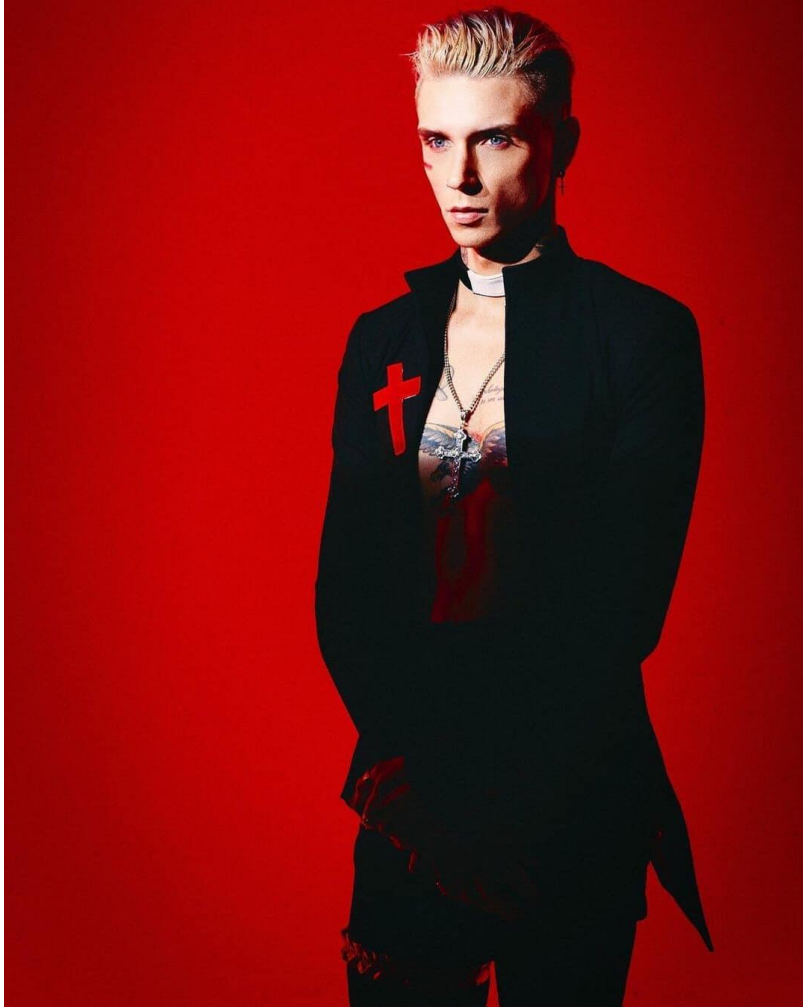

So let's get more of a treadstone grip of our tires into the metaphorical dirt.

Here's one modern example of presence and charisma;

Andy Black; lead singer of the Black Veil Brides

ALL Images used throughout are used (as cultural critique) under Fair Use Copyright Guidelines. Copyrights belong to respective copyright holders.

He has solid embodied presence and charisma. Key to realize is that it's not 'personal' or 'egoic' power but it's archetypal and somatic POWER. We don't only communicate as evolved mammals logically but also sexually, spiritually, psychically, emotionally and such so we have to expand what 'character' and even 'image' includes.

Skin-deep physique is only part of the equation...there's MUCH more information here that speaks more than words...so we want to tune into that.

When you realize that certain people have 'it' and we isolate that from their talent and genetics, we end up with charisma itself... THAT has fascinated me.

“How can I have that before I’m famous? (b/c wouldn’t that help attract fame organically)?” (Keep reading)

So we can talk about tattoos and style mastery as part of the equation of his image; but that's really SECONDARY to the REAL power and influence which is PRICELESS and gets literally into divine, impersonal powers and magic.

(I mean TSWIFT a decade ago has had more Princess POWER than most of the 'actual' princesses in history before her).

This report will help to open you up to HOW you can have more of that access to POWER and BEAUTY.

CHARISMA is a power and influence component of social media; it always has and will be and it's especially invaluable in such an attention-deficit era.

Really; we're finally just becoming conscious of it as a major piece of the puzzle (and in how it relates to organically INSPIRING people to buy, share, subscribe, refer, follow and work YOU).

Some people have KNOWN about it but didn't know enough to CLAIM it as a major piece of the puzzle of not just image consulting, beauty, performance entertainment, social influence, mating attraction, star and starlet followings, professional influence, manifestation, law of attraction, status and power in general..

However; I'm claiming it IS a core component of INFLUENCE itself and it will set you far ahead while being TRUE to yourself.

YOU CANNOT FAKE ALLURE or CHARISMA.

There's only so much 'fronting' before someone of GREATER POWER OR BEAUTY WILL CALL YOUR BLUFF...and then you'll be exposed as a fraud by other intuitive or powerful people.

“Mirror mirror on the wall...who is ‘actually’ the highest status, most beautiful one of them all?”

“The Divine One...the one who integrates such immortal power and beauty as part of their identity.”

(I'm answering as the mirror...see what I did there?)

Even for men, the potential with charisma transformation is mind-boggling ONCE more can understand what's at stake and that we can actually work on it now.

I'll give a hint; it has to do with your DIVINE MASCULINE INHERITANCE. B/c MORTAL MEN cannot actually relate to DIVINE BEAUTY.

That's what's implicated here. Her social power can be 10,000,000x greater than you ALREADY.

So we have to understand the REAL GAME.

I've had SOME men who were WAY ahead of the curve on this by realizing some IMPERSONAL things like this – that it wasn't their egoic personal self...and now is the time for it to start taking on more early adopters (b/c what we're doing isn't just behavioral modeling).

We're not talking about ego power here or 'personality power'... we're talking the kind of true power and beauty that people RESPOND TO (and in some cases would literally live and DIE FOR).

With that said and I may say it again;

NOT EVERYONE HAS ALLURE OR CHARISMA...most adults are as inspiring as drying paint charismatically; however, if YOU want to maximize YOUR visual influence, influence and engagement FROM your visuals whether you're a beauty influencer or not, this is for you to at least be aware of. Once you can start seeing it CONSCIOUSLY; where and when it DOES occur...You can be far ahead of the big wave that's coming with this (like my current clients).

We've got a LOT of examples coming up.

Again; I predict that allure and charisma transformation is going to be the NEXT big thing (or the thing after the thing after AI)...it's all based on recognition. This is the hot shit.

Why? Because charisma MAXIMIZES visual influence and social media engagement for potentially 10s of millions of users to grow deeper and wider fan, customer and client followings and I know the BEST ways to cultivate it authentically the fastest without having to be famous or even talented.

In a sense, it's the secret of many stars who have to affect millions of people from their image.

Oh - AND if you're NOT the best-looking person in the world like me, charisma is THE ONE THING WE'VE GOT. Charisma (and some extrinsic soft-maxing) can take you from a socially agreed '5' to a '10' (I've had literally those ratings many years ago when I was 'testing' out hotornot . com)

Charisma allows people to also literally SEE the more accurate you (it bends light) b/c you're communicating on more levels than just projecting a flat image to the world.

If you're concerned about aging and your looks, CHARISMA/allure makes it a NON-ISSUE (and there are DEEPER reasons for this - oh AND it can literally biologically anti-age you to look and be younger anyways).

So even if your momma "say you fugly",

..allure is probably for you, because it allows what we call 'inner beauty' to be RELEVANT to show up practically ON-CAMERA and in your visuals as well (including your youtube thumbnails to get people to magnetically and organically click more often).

Allure gets you to stand out in a world where everyone else is focusing on superficial mastery, but people can't FEEL them and thus aren't as inspired to get engaged.

There's only so much extrinsic beautification you can do (and body transformation) anyways (minus plastic surgery and body transformation) which might leave you feeling superficially unfulfilled thinking that Beauty was more than skin-deep. (It IS and has everything to do with your visual influence as well as your ability to attract and 'command a crowd'!)

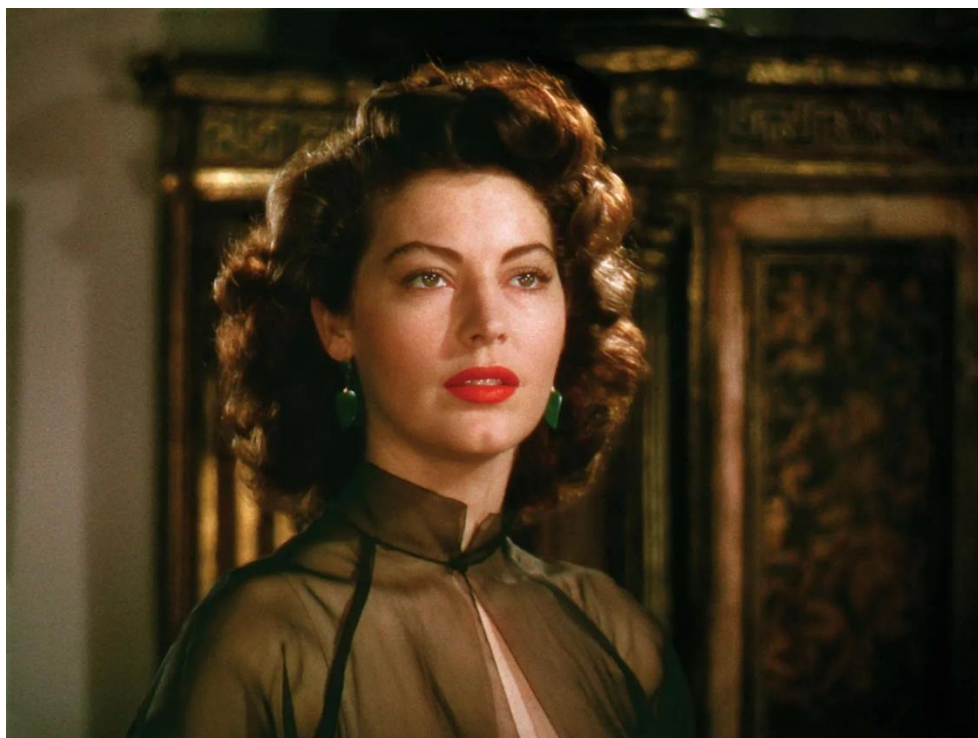

Cultivating feelable Allure is your Goddess-send.

And allure IS feelable already btw but it's related to your allure factor which I'll reference again. We can measure the LITERAL DISTANCE in metric or inches of how far your aura extends which is a key component of your allure.

Reference Frank Sinatra....if we learn to 'see' charisma and then 'remove it' from his visual communication, we start to see that actually he's only an average looking guy but we experience, feel and perceive him different BECAUSE of his charisma in stillness (which then ANIMATES all his movement to be far more enthralling and dynamic).

Allure is beauty you can feel. Here's an example of an alluring woman

Hey - it's legendary silver screen actress Ava Gardner and we'll reference her again...what we 'see' is more than just the 2D 'flat' pixels..her LEGACY is encoded IMMORTALLY b/c of the cloud.

She's not merely a retro hairstyle reference (that lateral, lower truth can also exist though like this AI Hair trend thing you may have seen but I'm not posting here).

I'm going to help you differentiate allure as beauty that BREATHES in this book more from the flat 'styling' that you're used to and its myopic and constrictive view on the Light of Beauty.

And the allure itself; THAT is the social currency of the future (yes; we're going to go into this a lot more so buckle up buckaroos).

With allure, you'll be able to DO LESS and get more results with your social media strategy. How does that sound?

Maybe you've been speaking too much in places your Beauty can do most of the effortless work? Maybe you've been over-functioning and stressing out instead of hypnotically magnetizing your subscribers and clients in...

And what could happen when you work on your embodiment and allure and then your voice transmits the sourced 'e' qualities and signatures of your soul's beauty?

What happens when She/you starts to move or dance from that place?

NOW; we're closer to viral inducing inspired influence.

What makes some photos more valuable than others?

What does that one woman have even if she's not as pretty?

What is the hidden ingredient that helps things to go viral that we've been UNCONSCIOUS of for years!?

Are digital photos and instagram posts of beauty influencers just 2D pixels?...or is there some secret currency that clues us in to the TRUE power of the influence of Beauty (oh Mouseketeers)?

We'll be diving in 'mucho mas'...

-The Fifth Element

A higher level dynamic of literal power and influence is ALREADY going on (while in the meanwhile we were focusing on other things).

This is the more advanced power of VISUAL communication and social media.

If you're single and 'in the market', visuals are a major part of your communication and attraction;

Instead of over-constructing the right words;

An alluring photograph (of you) could even tell him all he has to know (while meanwhile you were over-thinking everything). He values visual beauty and beauty that can pull him in...(it gets juicier btw with Big Red freshness).

Allure can pull the RIGHT MEN IN based on what you are visually communicating and even repel the men who just want you for your body (ok; maybe not entirely but it can massively shift the equation and I know women who LIVE this)

How'd you like your fans, subscribers and customers to FEEL the beauty of your soul effectively communicating effortlessly?

The more intuitive of us (which is becoming more and more the consumer public who will become apt psychic B.S. detectors) will feel what's real.

Are you a poser or THE REAL DEAL?

Ooh...not a normal question. But how are you coming across to your people ero-somatically in THEIR senses and intuition? Can you just 'hide behind' the routers forever?

And with where business integrity is going with more transparency and LESS SCAMMY shift, that means everything. Being the authentic brand of you.

The more psychic or intuitive of us are able to even be enraptured by the evident TRUTH emanating from someone's light more than their words because we FEEL their power or beauty and its qualities where who they are is more than their words.

Here's an image of Psy-chic (we'll be mentioning him later royal ranger). He's wearing a chic outfit and has great stage charisma.

Imagine not having to 'sell' people by relying on master-mental copywriting fatigue instead of just being relaxed in your beauty that people can feel; soaring and evocative light-truth vibes of heaven on earth that highlight different soul qualities like your Gene Key siddhis or favorite archetypes?... (just sowing some early seeds here that we may revisit).

Because with allure, we've got the world of the ARCHETYPES and archetypes are CENTRAL to POWER and INFLUENCE itself.

I think you're going to love us going into more of this b/c much of the power game itself playing out in all dimensions (THROUGH social influence and economies) are archetypal. They MAGNIFY your power and influence alone.

MOST CONSUMER-CITIZEN ADULTS do not have access to archetypal power, consciousness and beauty however...not in any way that affects others and stirs their heart, sex and soul at least.

What we don't want to do is just have a psychological seminary on archetypes where they are 'out there' and inaccessible...wouldn't you rather be able to access the POWER and BEAUTY of the archetypes for your own soul-embodied identified MAGNIFIED?! That's more interesting to me...but we still want to see and 'read them'.

So we want to THINK, VALUE AND OPERATE pro allure consulting from a foundational component of ARCHETYPAL BEAUTY. (This is different than archetypal STYLING).

And there are 100's of known archetypes (a few dozen primes and then many others); King, Lover, Eros, Queen, Magician, Villain, Vixen, Vagabond, Daka Priest, Earth Goddess and more...

Archetypal Beauty (as a prime secret of the starlets) is beyond all culture and skin-deep beauty mastery. Looking and styling like an archetype like a goddess is one thing. The thing is, the most powerful and beautiful people would sense if you're just a poser.

Ewww....no one wants to be just a poser.

However...BEING an embodied goddess that people FEEL her beauty and breath-taking presence from however is something else and THAT is the real currency.

Allure and the ARCHETYPES help you to effectively and effortlessly communicate your MYTHOS and WEAVE your intoxicating spell.

Live in person and through your digital media (plenty of examples coming up Pippy Longstocking).

And this isn't a 'personal', 'inner game' or psychological thing.,.we're talking about the real embodied POWER and BEAUTY here and radiating it.

Think of the brand value and integrity of BEING the truth that people can sense, know and feel about hiring or working with you or not just from your visuals – of someone like Elizabeth Seraphine who has Priestess-Goddess embodiment.

Think of the value of your people being live with you 'in presence' and what their experience would be like...would they have an experience of you that FEELS like you are this goddess or starlet version of yourself?

Charisma and allure includes PRESENCE; so if you've valued and/or found yourself valuing a person's 'presence' that spoke more than words; now we're getting into mastery levels of UNDERSTANDING of why and how-to. You can cultivate your own unique vibe-truth swagger but without posturing or fronting.

So; I'll be covering a lot and it might seem overwhelming...take your time to process as we go along - at your own pace.

Do know however that to get direct results the FASTEST (b/c it is literally related to your auric design, embodiment and charisma dynamics); it's best to get session work on your field.

You could spend months or years in indirectly in goddess retreat cultivation (for example) on a spiritual path to also get (indirect-direct) visual felt-presence results, but you might not have that kind of TIME to invest.

That's where this form of image consulting and transformation like my Allure Makeover comes in (the brand is 'Sexy Chi').

Most of what we'll do is archetypal embodiment work and since beauty consciousness is encoded WITH alluring beauty, you're doing spiritual work AND professional image work simultaneously as we cultivate your embodiment and expression (allure).

The divine feminine spectrum of archetypes alone yield most of the Beauty in the universe AND on social media. There are MANY influencers who are leveraging archetypal power and beauty as part of their influencer-ship with millions of followers.

And you don't have to be famous to have allure or charisma!

So yes; we can now look professionally at your aura, chakras and signature frequency bands (ALL OF which are showing up in your visual media while the world was just focused on skin-deep mastery).

In otw, there's the physical beauty of your body and it's skin-deep surface and there's your higher dimensional beauty (vibe and light-truth qualities).

The maya (constructed illusion preventing us from seeing the greater truth) is to live your whole life believing and acting that Beauty IS skin-deep but never fully expressing the VISUAL Beauty of your soul and the archetypal transcendence of the egoic self into boundless beauty and Her signatures of Light-truth

...for richer spiritual and human experience, love, celebration, influence and multi-dimensional satisfaction.

Inner beauty' and 'allure' is no longer some 'out there' ethereal thing or general platitude when it comes to professional image consulting and transformation.

It's the SAME THING lack of breakthrough for decades; pro beauty magazines stick to the comfortable realm of skin-deep beauty mastery with indirect references to health, wellness, astrology and 'inner' beauty but things which don't DIRECTLY relate to being ON-CAMERA.

It's all indirect wildcards at very best. If you want BREAKTHROUGH, transcendent beauty and more INFLUENCE it's with allure (or 'fotonic / photonic beauty' as I also call it).

It's easier to have beauty influence and influence from your social media when people can FEEL engaged and responsive to your visual transmission (and then when your words energetically align from that source).

This organic and divine impact reality is like the opposite of the IN-organic AI evolution.

See; allure (when emanating past the camera's lens especially) isn't just about a flat 2D representation of your physical body. How'd you like people to feel your SOUL and inner beauty multi-dimensionally and then finding themselves being ENGAGED to follow you and be around you?

Allure captured in your photographic and video media is HOLOGRAPHIC b/c the LIGHT that it is sourced in is not merely the EMF spectrum of the sun and artificial lighting. (We'll talk more about this so consider it a preview).

Your radiant allure is literally Light quanta that is sourced in the multi-dimensional sentience of Spirit (which includes GODDESS and all the power and ancient truth of divine feminine archetypes and siddhic qualities). If that's too much to process right now, we'll cover more...

But what if you've only focused on superficial beauty, masking up with make-up and have secretive deeper insecurities about if you really are that beautiful? Isn't it also hard to get 'personality' across from your physical beauty?

Hmm...

You can look pretty but not have inner beauty for many reasons including focusing your whole life ON outer beauty. You may have self-esteem blocks and issues that have prevented you from being embodied like a goddess or maiden.

Maybe you have a lifetime of conditioning that has blocked or distorted your energetic innocence and qualities LIKE Princess or Vixen to come through your presence as vibe and light-truth.

Maybe beauty or allure is performative and 'masking' to you. Maybe it's actually founded (oh shit) on we daresay; a foundation of Vanity and maybe that's why something feels like it's missing.

For better or worse; what you may discover is that your pro image is entwined with beauty CONSCIOUSNESS 'aka' inner beauty translated to on-camera Light. That's why this is such high value work (b/c remember; you cannot fake the real deal).

Again; Would you rather LOOK and be styled like a goddess or BE a goddess and have people respond to you like a goddess and have the styling support it?

Because here's the thing again;

You CANNOT FAKE ALLURE or CHARISMA.

That's also why the real power and beauty is so influential. There's no room for posers amongst the truly powerful and beautiful. They will suss you out fast and instinctively KNOW.

Even super-fans are becoming more discerning and value the currency of their icons being 'the real thing' vs. just 'looking like it'.

Embodied powerful and beautiful people are likely to SNIFF YOU OUT as a fraud OR the relational thread between you two may be more tenuous.

No amount of make-up can create a truly stable (inner beaut) foundation...with the concept of allure - you simply have to work directly on your Divine Feminine siddhic and archetypal consciousness to cultivate those signature qualities of your soul's beauty to come across in live presence and on-camera.

To really emanate allure SOMEHOW, you'll have to indirectly, luckily or directly clear up blocks to shift how you're coming across in your felt presence to have that real inner power; but it's not psychological...that's just PART of it...it's eros-somatic, it's energetic, soulful and spiritual 'divine' power.

But this is related to how you can become a starlet because the PRESENCE of a true goddess cannot be faked – a transformation of identity consciousness.

Can they still feel you when the fame is gone or removed from the equation? What is your 'power' and inner beauty founded upon?

Or is your 'fame' entwined with people's shallower recognition of you and likely to COLLAPSE and reveal you as insecure or a fraud?

ALLURE (which includes embodiment work) can resolve this dilemma b/c it includes a strength of inner beauty that is STABLE and not centered in extrinsic, tenable recognition.

To have influence LIKE a starlet in the orbit around you;

It's going to require sacrifice of who you were to make more SPACE for a certain kind of 'Light' to radiant. I like to value it as identity and identity consciousness work; not merely egoic or psychological.

Allure transformation requires a shift in mind, heart, body, sex, erossoma, spirit and soul.

Starlets like Amber Heard a decade ago serve millions of people so they have a reason to take on a greater self-identity and consciousness which allows them to have this special kind of influence that can be felt.

Talking about your fans and clients;

Allure (as we'll continue to discover) engages their somatic body to be responsive and even activated in their psyche centers around you b/c you are communicating power and value on ALL CYLINDERS.

It's like if there was a really bright studio light in the room, it'd be the darndest thing to ignore it.

Even just from your 2D photos, such 'Light' COMPELS them to care for you and be involved. We're going more into WHAT THAT IS, why and how it has sorcery like influence when you have charisma.

Your videos become holographic and touching at transmission levels of EXPERIENCE.

Bring them an instant EXPERIENCE that engages their senses around you, perking up their Heart, Mind, Body, Sex, Spirit and Soul. Charisma does that.

This is priceless in an attention era....would you want to bring them a more engaged experience with your same 'visual' workflow? This will amplify all of that critical x-factor while creating a #fomo like buzz around you.

In this deeper secret of beauty influence (with those that have it); your radiance literally connects with their aura and chakras. They cannot help but notice you in how they respond.

I know I'm not obviously representing 'everyone' who is charismatic or alluring, but how could we NOT include the rockstar and icon; Lenny Kravitz?...a King of Cool.

With our valuation – you want to shift your eyesight off of his style and the photographic (photonic/inorganic) pixels that are 'at' or 'on' his body; with fashion sense, etc. and to tune in to the energetic connection/response with your soma. How does his presence leap off of his skin?

BTW; this is actually a more advanced example but I'm putting it here intentionally. I encourage you to come back to this image later b/c he is SOOOO styled that it might be 'clouding' your ability to discern his presence (or the difference between the 2D and 3D/4D/5D impact).

Coming back later after dozens of other examples, can help you to tune in and differentiate his charisma from his style. And you can sense even without words he has POWER. Our 'science of charisma' goes into what KINDS of power more specifically!

Do you think this is about 'personality' or 'positive thinking here' that he can engage primal senses in your soma? No...we have to understand power and what kinds of power Light can convey.

Of course the light of his image conveys status; but not just from behavioral conditioning, fame and so forth but archetypal power which is DIVINE status as a rock god - rockstar.

You can still be styled and 'cool' in your 2D pixelated images even with great lighting; but remember it's about people still being able to FEEL your presence which is NOT 2-Dimensional...

Felt holographic power and influence is less so an internal emotional response from 'separation' or through historical association emotionally with for example his music; but the ability to IN THE MOMENT feel presence at any time.

So the sooner you can still your voice from conditioning, fame, past emotional associations and be 'in the moment' to sense and discern feelings and sensations you are more clearly able to tune into the current of charisma.

Top performers should still be mastering their charisma and 'on' when they want to be in public (generally speaking). It's also worth mentioning that the vibe 'cool' is related with the Gift of Detachment; Gene Key 42 and is encoded in the Star, Starlet and Rockstar archetypes.

He is 'detached' from expectations around other people of power which makes him ultra-high status. He can relate with power around the most powerful people in the world.

Btw; we could work on all of this with your Gene Keys and allure transformation in something like the Allure Makeover.

(It's not just about 'mindset' on the mental plane, charisma is SOMATIC and you want transformation on all levels of self-identity consciousness related to your light body).

Power and Beauty have INFLUENCE but it's not just from disconnectively viewing a new fashion trend; sure that's a FORM of influence open to interpretation and judgment; but it's driving a more superficial layer of the market that values such skin-deep mastery.

ALLURE IS THE MISSING SECRET (and it is used non-consciously in advertising in places but we're just going to stick more to social media, entertainment and online influence rather than advertising).

How'd you like that deeper engagement working for your social media 24/7 instead of just looking good and having to master one-sided pony tricks to 'stand out' from the competition (I'm not sure what those are, but you know what I'm saying)?

Maybe being the next RAYGUN isn't the exact kind of attention you're looking for.

Speaking of that; Here's a clip of a break-dancer who not only has the skillz but she also has feelable ALLURE. Without even knowing who she is, she's on a path to success and continued virality. Here's the clickable clip (which includes the Raygun Olympic breaking meme-source):

She also has the archetypal (Pre-)Muse as well.

With online social media and having an online business;

YOU ARE YOUR BRAND and your VISUAL qualities should convey and do most of the selling (but this isn't actually spoken to other than superficially). Yeah, you want to 'look the part' but you want others to feel and know you ARE the real deal. Charisma fills that gap.

Otherwise you have to 'work' more at it (yuck). If you LOOK great but they don't literally FEEL you, they're less likely to engage and are more likely to feel separate and disconnected from you.

Here's an example where you can start to 'sense' she has a presence about her that is alluring and what you may not know is that it can inspire men to start CARING for protecting and providing for her, not merely just primal attraction.

19yr old BRIGITTE BARDOT in 1953

It's clarifying to understand that real Power and Beauty don't have to 'do' much for they already wield the cosmos.

THE ATTENTION AND THE ROOM GRAVITATES TOWARDS THEM (and who is the MOST powerful and highest status). Those who can be the most FELT from their presence have practical SUPER-powers socially.

Charisma lets you showcase who you are more effortlessly which is GREAT if you are more of an introvert (and yes - your Human Auric Design for those who already know; is part of your overall allure equation).

Are you even maxing your vibe and light truth though? (This is another way to describe working with your allure; the REAL glow work). Or are you trying to get more 'glow-up' from make-up mastery alone? (B/c now we have better tools for affecting your FELT-INFLUENCE).

If you're on a path of Beauty yet feel constricted by skin-deep everything and the freedom of your soul seems separate from expression; then it's about awakening to this greater Truth itself (which is fortunately spiritual and it ALL ties together with allure).

Allure or charisma alone INCREASES your looks factor AND (of central importance to social media influence); IT GIVES YOU MORE INFLUENCE on others from your soul-self (without having to spend a dime more on publicity too)...keep reading to find more of WHY.

In other words, you can become the star/let you wanted to be and without having to ONLY focus on style mastery, endless content generation or social marketing hacks. This is that hidden GRAVITAS component of MAGNETISM.

Increase your charisma on camera and you will be getting magical results, more referability, more client conversions and deeper following than ever before. People will want to be CLOSER to you and won't want to 'miss out'. And it's not like there's a LIMIT either.

The profound depth at which we're going into or at least introduce this report may shock you (just keep reading if you want to really improve your visual influence from here forward with every impression and interaction with your social media content)!

So allure is the current future CURRENCY of social power and social communication and influence - and I'll continue speaking around this and sub themes throughout the report (soak it in!)

Likewise;

With all the online world and realms vying for attention; I predict that charisma is the future prime currency and under-current of masculine social media influence. Yeah; subject matter expertise in certain areas are important but (I think you're following my thought-flow).

Charisma a CORE component of social media mastery and scaling your social network anyways; now we have the practical SCIENCE of it for YOU to maximize your influence organically.

Working with your own allure transformation is the power to have influence LIKE a star or starlet - even if you're not famous yet. We're getting into WHY (and how but this is a slow burn b/c I want to explore different inflection points in beginning to translate it to a more pop audience).

Yes - There is a DEEPER market drive going on which is related to sex, status, power, beauty and divinity which we'll go into...it also has to do with the secret 'thing' that is really being exchanged beneath the surface of 'content' or 'superficial beauty' (that's REALLY gonna blow your mind even if you're already into all of this b/c it clarifies something you probably already knew as TRUE but maybe didn't have the exact words and puzzles pieces together).

As long as you value greater in-self influence and fuller self-expression - you're in the right place kind of like if you wanted to be at 'the' DisneyWorld but ended up at the world's largest ball of mud attraction...except that this is the metaphorical DisneyWorld and that feeling of KNOWING you're in the right place.

THAT'S WHAT YOUR FOLLOWERS CAN FEEL about you – even instantly when you cultivate your charisma!

If you're a dance-toker, having more allure can make or break your success. Remember, there are actually now millions of other dancers and singers out there online in a 'competition for attention' sense (so keep reading b/c I've got some mind-opening examples too).

Heck; charisma is actually a valued component OF talent shows and beauty pageants; but they're just not consciously speaking to and about it yet (and yes, I can 'read' charisma and allure on a scale of 1-10 for anyone at any point).

Charisma on-stage (or lack thereof) can make or break your success no matter what field you're in; ESP. if you're in performance entertainment.

If you're a conscious female entrepreneur who wants people to FEEL your brand integrity and have that do most of the selling to your soul tribe to deeply and intuitively KNOW they're in the right place and that means EVERYTHING; I don't think you can afford to just hide behind the scene and emotionally manipulate words like so many marketeers do.

Well; allure is definitely for you - b/c it's authentic, organic FEELABLE beauty and the power of its real influence without faking it; YOUR FULLEST EXPRESSION.

And I don't mind repeating that it's also the practical bridge of 'inner beauty' as it relates to PROFESSIONAL on-camera results and Light. You'll probably hear me say that one again b/c the editing on this could otherwise be two cans of baked beans when you just wanted one cup.

With your visual content, cultivating your allure gives you FULL IMAGE BRAND INTEGRITY and congruity so that your people KNOW, sense and FEEL that you are the real deal with whatever social media platform you're on. That means making great first impressions so people are more likely to follow you from first point of contact.

And that inherent and somatic TRUST people have about you is antidote to all the marketeery advertising and semi-fraudulent clickbait going on out there. Consumers are waking up to sense, feel and know within seconds if you are the 'real deal' or just a poser (or are manipulating them for likes).

The currency of charisma gives them a secret tangible value that can be more important than your 'content' or words. Keep reading!

Allure lets you organically weave your spell BEFORE (and through) any words are spoken. What if they could fluorescently light up within WHILE you are otherwise speaking about eggplant dirt b/c there's this quality about you that they just want to BE with (ie. Gardening in eden)?

Remember; in a sense Beauty already wields the cosmos and filters down to lower dimensions. This isn't about 'being enthusiastic' or 'passionate' about your niche...this goes deeper than that or having to 'get excited' when you're not feeling like it. Charisma is deeper.

With all the endless tiktoks, surface oriented content; fails and sharter videos out there (ok there's always a market for everything however); people are going to more and more want authenticity from real influencers; esp. with the ICONS that they are following.

The VALUE YOU ADD (and can add) isn't just about your 'niche' content specialty esp; if there are competitors...it's the underlying CURRENT and currency itself that you really want to be delivering.

We are now on the CUSP of allure becoming known for what it is and yes; there are already some early adopters like in my circle who are ALL about allure and authentic self-expression and influence with their social media and businesses; reaping rewards of rich engagement, attraction and growth.

In fact; they can't have it any other way b/c they know that it's the future - far more than superficial beauty maximization alone; the *φ*otonic beauty of allure and its FELT influence allows them to be their fuller, more influential and liberated, effective self effortlessly and magically.

They don't have to over-burden themselves and be stressing out or 'screaming for attention' to stand out.

LESS IS MORE....much more in a sense. Charisma is POWER even in STILLNESS and we'll go into WHY (so have a breath of relief!)

Beauty has ALWAYS been more than skin-deep and the LIGHT of professional image and visual media has been misunderstood b/c we've only been focusing on a smaller spectrum of it.

Allure is a powerful factor that hits the X-SPOT with digital media because people cannot otherwise FEEL you physically in your digital media and 'pixels'.

"But me like rocks" -Thorg.

Well, Thorg...so you like things you can touch and feel...have you at least met crystals yet?

Ok...well we're now in an age of DIGITAL power and influence with META-physical reality (we're not even going into how AI and AI porn is going to create further fracture and fantasy).

This dynamic allows someone to REACH THE WORLD Thorg...they can influence millions of people on youtube or instagram essentially replicating yourself and having a power dynamic of ie. 10,000,000 to 1. We can send messages half-way around the world in milliseconds and affect someone else's life (and consciousness).

Charisma is what gives today's meta-physical social media and video creators additional POWER and influence (b/c actually it gets into ALCHEMICAL TRANSFORMATION which is my background).

So maybe just go back to your rocks Thorg unless you're ready for this and the super-human power that defies just being physical in your meat-suit, hunter-gatherer body.

And for you the reader; keep reading b/c we'll dig into the science of charisma enough BEHIND power and influence itself (ESP. if you're relying more on speechless visuals than niche content generation; but even then it will amplify your engagement and growth).

What's also good is that it gives you more POWER and even intimacy FOR the one on one 'live' person, natural, social world dynamics of influence as well.

We're talking about mastery of visual influence WITHOUT SPEECH, without 'content generation' even without talent. (For best success, you want ALL cylinders and elements firing).

Yes;

ALLURE is literally Beauty that people can FEEL from across the room like 30 feet away (or whatever that is in meters); so if you don't have it (most modern women don't have it even if they value 'beauty')...

If you don't have any allure; you're simply not having the influence and attention that you could be having LIKE A STARLET b/c your auric radiance is not engaging them holographically THROUGH THE SCREEN they're on (laptop or smart phone for example).

So; do you really want to ONLY do social media marketeering and yang style 'work'? Blech. (How about No.)

But increase your allure and you're going to see increases in subscribers and engagement organically.

“But you're not supposed to start sentences with 'but' Rion.”

Butte, there's always a way to bend the rules.

There's always a higher level of ability for people to feel your beauty and unique qualities in stillness - this literally gets transformational b/c the highest levels of allure are alchemical.

There's always a higher level of power or beauty to be embodied and expressed....humanity is AWAKENING.

I could help even Kim Kardashian to become more alluring and even HER fan following would get going wilder (clues further down will be revealed b/c I'm working with the practicality of this DAILY).

Want to have your instagram, reels, videos and photos working MAGICALLY for you 24/7 even if you're on a small scale right now?

It'd be better if they could magically FEEL you through the screen of their smart phone, wouldn't it?

In a sense that could be a magic pill; however, it's not something you can just 'fake' either b/c people will eventually call you out as a fraud...say that if you have generated all kinds of fake, trendy buzz and haven't earned it. (Was 'tickle me elmo' foundationally sound?)

Or if you have a propaganda wing of media on your side and could just mass psychosis style program people to respond to certain things making an air of perceived value out of not much; ehh...not what we're going for here with authentic social influence of integrity.

This isn't about 'mass control'...this is about organically inspiring people to gravitate towards you. MARKETING IS CHANGING and there are more people waking up to manipulation FROM advertising and propaganda.

WHICH BRINGS US BACK to the value proposition of LEVERAGING the 'CURRENCY' of allure for your own hypergrowth.

It allows the current of your SOUL to visually communicate YOUR integrity – and that is priceless.

All sizzle and no steak?

Allure INCLUDES embodiment of beauty that people can feel so it's both; sizzle AND the steak for your visuals (nothing wrong with thirst-trapping them into ascension is there?)

Dare to directly improve your allure and watch as your social media response and network starts scaling organically.

You can even start mastering the QUALITIES of vibe-Beauty that you want to come across for photo shoots and videos...this is the EVOLUTION of Beauty itself as I see it in music video, photo shoots, advertising, tv and movies.

So yes; we'll be going into what this is and more of the science of charisma and visual influence itself (revealed throughout this power report). If you're not already following me on Facebook you can at <https://facebook.com/rion.kati/>

So lettuce reference again our ATTENTION ECONOMY - the vibe and light mastery of ALLURE to organically engage influence is INEVITABLY where the peppercorn ranch markets are headed... and when fans and clients think its THEIR spanking idea to add you, follow, you, comment or buy - this salad is priceless.

Of course you can remind them (or twist their virtual arm) to subscribe, but there's something MUCH deeper driving all of this if you desire true mastery of visual influence and performance.

INFLUENCE is best when it's organic and compelled. You don't want to have force OVER people, but rather influence and persuade FROM a gravitas of real power (even if you're not a subject matter expert).

You might think that it's just PIXELS that are being communicated in your photos and videos - but no!; there is real POWER with visual media amongst us humans and there are hidden 'market war' drivers going on which we'll uncover (from angles that advertising psychologists can't quite grasp).

And it's interesting b/c I met one of the grand marketeers and legends of direct response ad copywriting; I can't remember his name (my psyche blocked it) but he often used yang 'salesy' language and marketeery 'tactics' often in a yellow-flag shadowy kind of way and there was a photo opp and both of us felt to not get our picture taken together at the same time.

Do you want to come across as an in your face used car salesman even if you're saying the right direct response words to compel part of you to consider the offer or do you want to throwing all of that crap out the window and have your words EFFORTLESSLY SELL B/C of who you ARE as an influencer?

After all your Human Design may literally repel the right people away from you anyways if you're trying to 'get attention' and be someone you're not (but you can grow into YOUR version of soul-star).

I think that you would want ALL of you aligned visually and from your words so your people get a congruent experience that compels them to work with you or get closer.

I worked in a call center in Madison WI doing telemarketer work and my soul couldn't stand more than a week of it.

IT'S TIME FOR ORGANIC MARKETING PROWESS and allure is your ticket.

Being in this business; I am working sensitively with women and their auras; it's radically DISCERNING and I also CRINGE at AI generated content and crap like that for people who are supposed to be organic (although in other ways it can serve conditionally).

From my image and charisma alone, past clients have been sensing if they can TRUST ME to work with them on such a profound level. My congruent visual legacy (centered on Facebook up until now) has helped sell many many sessions over the years; it's integral into who I am.

There's good news b/c...we have to be aware that marketeers are going to want to capitalize and distort things when this mega-trend of charisma consulting takes off.

In a way we are PROTECTED from lower conscious market engineering, programming and marketeering BECAUSE ALLURE and CHARISMA CANNOT BE FAKED (even when they realize it's the new hottest thing).

Sure, they'll try and find ways to capitalize on the mega-trend of charisma transformation coming up but they don't have the foundation to actually 'bring it'.

"Bring what Priscilla?"

"It!...it's just what they bring".

Without the organic influence of 'it' (charisma); a legion of marketeers are likely to keep manipulating the markets and emotions from lower consciousness; so my prediction is that they're not going to be able to authentically keep up as more influencers GO ORGANIC with charisma.

CHARISMA organically communicates the TRUTH OF YOU. And that's 'real' to people even if it's not the Pure Light and Dark that I'm more referring to. It may have your shadows but at least it's believable and feelable communication.

I'm not entirely against 'direct response' marketing...it's just that by and large it can easily be misused to cross lines of ethics as 'grayscale' and just doesn't fit in the realm of authentic influence for most 'real' influencers.

People are gonna want ORGANIC and real (and that can INCLUDE all of the glitz and glamour btw).

Fortunately, allure and the divine beauty that flows through it (which can also be styled up) - IS organic communication and as more people evolve WITH awakening and their own communication it could help SHIFT MARKETS away from a lot of the lower conscious, masculine led semi-fraudulent click-bait era to bring more organic realism and ascension to markets.

Visual influence with integrity...and ALL the sexiness too. But really, it's self-integrity – even if you're not accessing the purer archetypes of Power and Beauty it still allows soul and shadow qualities to come across (and I had to edit/adjust this to bring that reminder out).

Anyways;

Social influence as an organic social influencer (or influencer is your own branded business) is about being REAL for large part; and sure, some influencer will then bring in sponsored posts. etc. as part of their model and that's part of the game that is available once you have more attention.

You can do with it what you want...you don't have to evolve with the archetypes and THEIR power and influence mixed with magnifying your soul qualities...you could just be more the weird, quirky you but more feelable as well if you want...charisma allows that.

Consider that if you are your brand, you want your people into you for the BEST you, TRUSTING YOU, taking on your recommendations and not necessarily for manipulating them or getting them to believe you're someone you're not.

You may or may not be for them but when they can FEEL you and your vibe-truth, it'll be more clear whether to follow you or not. (And actually you might be playing to too safe anyways).

Charisma/Allure is authentic self-expression and ANTI-marketeting in a sense for real influencers.

How you USE your allure is up to you b/c for sure, commercial advertising models and others are going to be getting more into charisma mastery too.

There's something about the organic integrity to authentic self communication that comes through the channel of allure/charisma...with allure it's very feminine communication that is authentic to wherever it is sourced from. But that can range from a character of a female serial killer to an enlightened priestess – all can flow through an individual's CHANNEL of allure/charisma.

The qualities of power and beauty that can run through your channel of charisma; we'll more specifically get into but they may include your shadows and past traumas and stuff like that too that are psychically communicating data to people visually.

ATTUNED to the integrity of raw self-expression and a SOPHISTICATE market of people who value 'real' - that is where things are headed. You can look glamorous but is your soul actually glamorous?

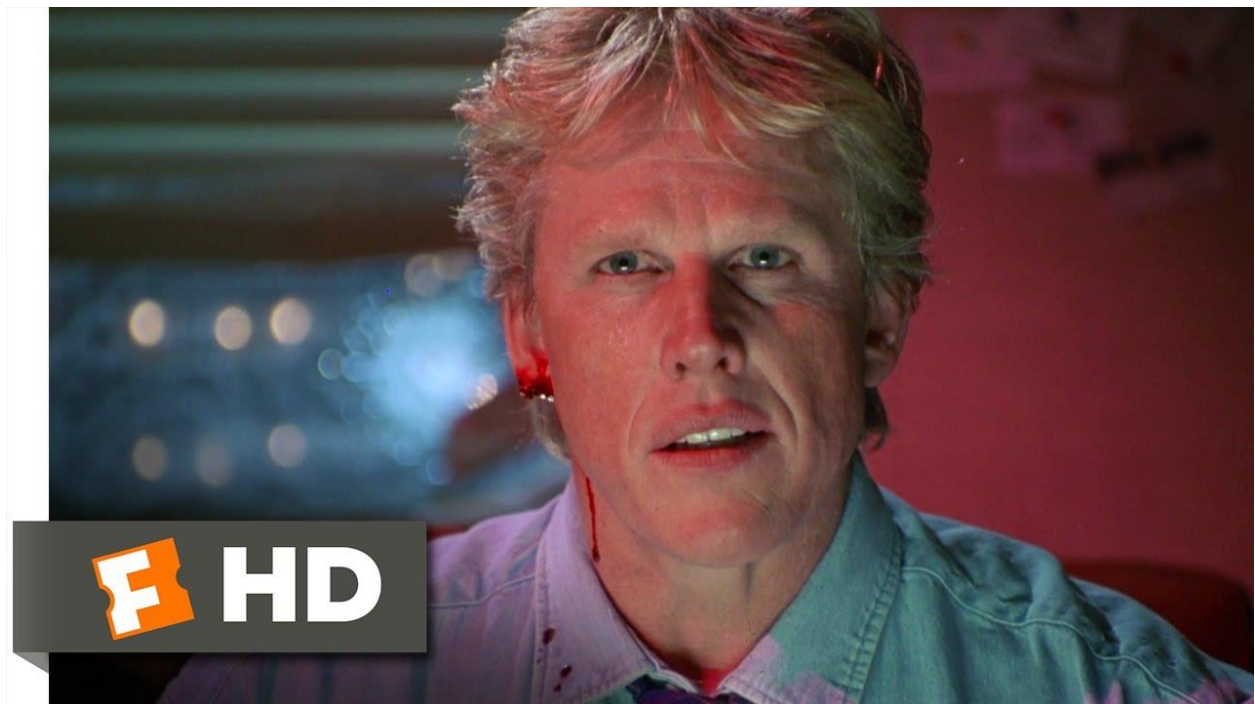

Mainstream consumers/followers are also responding hyper-actively TO real, alluring and charismatic influencers. (This is market evolution across multiple industries here).

YOUR CHARISMA and ALLURE just has to be INTEGRAL TO YOU....even if it has some shadows and manipulation. There are used car salesman with their own FORM of charisma...what I'm referring mostly to is the pure Light and Dark aspects of power and the archetypes.

I'm rewatching the 90's movie 'The Firm' with Tom Cruise and the character that Gary Busey plays is this perfectly seedy private investigator who just really fits the part. He inhabits the character (or vice versa ;)

P.I. Lomax has CHARISMA, but his vibe truth is also filled with the characters flaws and shadows...at least you know what you're getting'.

Most of the time, I'm defaulting to charisma and allure as a vehicle for ascension of human consciousness. I may practically see it with rose-colored glasses b/c it's literally the work I do...HOWEVER, I tend to forget that some people aren't interested in actual more power or beauty like with the archetypes and awakening of spiritual consciousness and just do want to bring out more of their CURRENT inherent soul or 'character' qualities instead...and we can work on that as well. Again; how you use or evolve your charisma is up to you...it may not be becoming more beautiful, but just being felt more with where you are at with your current tribe. If that's you, you may want to just get a charisma activation with me instead of archetype work.

When I do charisma consulting; I just help bring in the experience component for you and can get you on the direct path the fastest...you MIGHT even want a makeover where we work on cultivating and bringing in and out more of the archetypal power (or not).

Media can POWERFUL b/c of reasons we are now becoming very clear on; not just to influence our emotions, but how can you influence people to go to the ends of the earth for you FROM ONE PHOTO?!

I had a coach who told me that "when I first saw that photo of you and 'x' my whole body went into relief – FINALLY...I've been waiting years (for someone like that)".

Your visuals can even giving them SOMETHING TO BELIEVE in and inspiring them to TRANSFORM THEIR LIVES. I'm mean we're talking a version of relief-influence-godsend like King Aragorn in 'Return of the King' poster (but your qualities).

And THAT was a successful, Academy-award winning film and he has King presence and charisma...kinda important in 'selling' things believably? Yep.

See...THAT'S the power of true beauty and what we're getting clear on now and we see it all throughout the RABID fan bases in K-Pop and with other star-artists from around the world.

How could 'just pixels' have so much power and influence over the consciousness of millions of people? Maybe because they're NOT just pixels!?

Porn and its power is just one example related to all of this; the POWER of visual media.

That's because the light encoded within our human media, it's not just pixels or EMF light...there's 'something else' being communicated.

At a deeper scientific truth, we value it as PHOTONIC Light...there's around 6000 photons required to make up 1 pixel, but how can just that have POWER?

Or is there another spectrum of Light entirely?!

What Heresy!

WE would just have to view and value it from a higher dimensional perspective to see how the whole thing is running.

Maybe visual social media; photos, instagram posts, videos and reels aren't 'just pixels' and maybe Science has been missing out on the Science of PRACTICAL charisma and influence itself?! Such heresy!

To help understand how radiance can have influence 'in stillness' we once again refer to how solar photonic radiation has influence. For a deeper study, again I recommend my Theory of Fotonic Quanta report.

Basically; the sun emits EMF radiation (through space plasma); this Light has photo-chemical influence in different ways upon our earth, atmosphere, plant life and human life (with UV rays). The sun is a source of great power and thus, great influence (obvs).

Our sun-star looks like it is still and yet it is GENERATING and emanating influential EMF radiation that we can literally feel even though it is 6.5 minutes away at light speed in distance.

You and plants can literally FEEL the sun's radiation on a nice sunny day. It's not concerned about it's body language.

Vitamin D is one of the alchemical effects not to mention uhh; supporting life itself on earth. The sun is like God's sacral chakra to us on Mother earth.

The photonic RADIATION (through space plasma) from the EMF Light-energy photons gives life to plants in the great balance of things.

Solar collectors can transmute that photonic energy into electric power. Other forms of (EMF spectrum; non-sentient) light also have power and practicality like photonic medical equipment, lasers, etc. But this isn't the same kind of power WE'RE talking about is it in exploding your subscriber rates? No...

So when we reference; how can a still image have POWER? We go to the concept of RADIATION or more specifically RADIANCE which is sourced in the DIVINE sentient spectrum of frequency emission.

It has power to affect consciousness. (Now I'm starting to introduce this in snippets, so you can soak things in here and there throughout).

This is how Beauty can COMMAND and INSPIRE the cosmos and all things to it EFFORTLESSLY and in STILLNESS; in parallel it's like the POWER of RADIANCE like the sun.

And what do starlets do?

Radiate! They emanate...just like the nuclear stars like our sun do. This means it must be something more than just the physical body.

Radiance is the parallel to radiation; they're just sourced in the EMF and the sentient spectrums of Light respectively (which I'll introduce here more).

Like the 'body' of the Earth is PHYSICAL and 'material'....Radiance is the FORM of Beauty influence like and from your atmosphere/aura.

WHY would we ONLY see and value the earth when there is ALSO the Science that is geared towards the atmosphere, skies, air, meteorology, space, etc.?

Isn't it more accurate with photos and representation of the earth to qualify BOTH the material terra AND the exosphere?

That's essentially the differential with the obsessive focus ONLY on the BODY in Beauty as we know it vs. the Science of the auric/atmosphere (b/c this is what allure and felt beauty influence entails LIKE a starlet's radiance). You can even feel the earth's MAGNETIC vibrational influence without having to be 'feet on the ground'.

THERE IS MORE THAN JUST MATTER-BODY

So yes; we'll talk more about your AURA which is a key practical component OF your allure and the LIGHT (higher frequency) of your MATTER itself.

And what does the light of your aura affect?

CONSCIOUSNESS as we are all (well, most of us) sentient. It affects the aura and chakras of others.

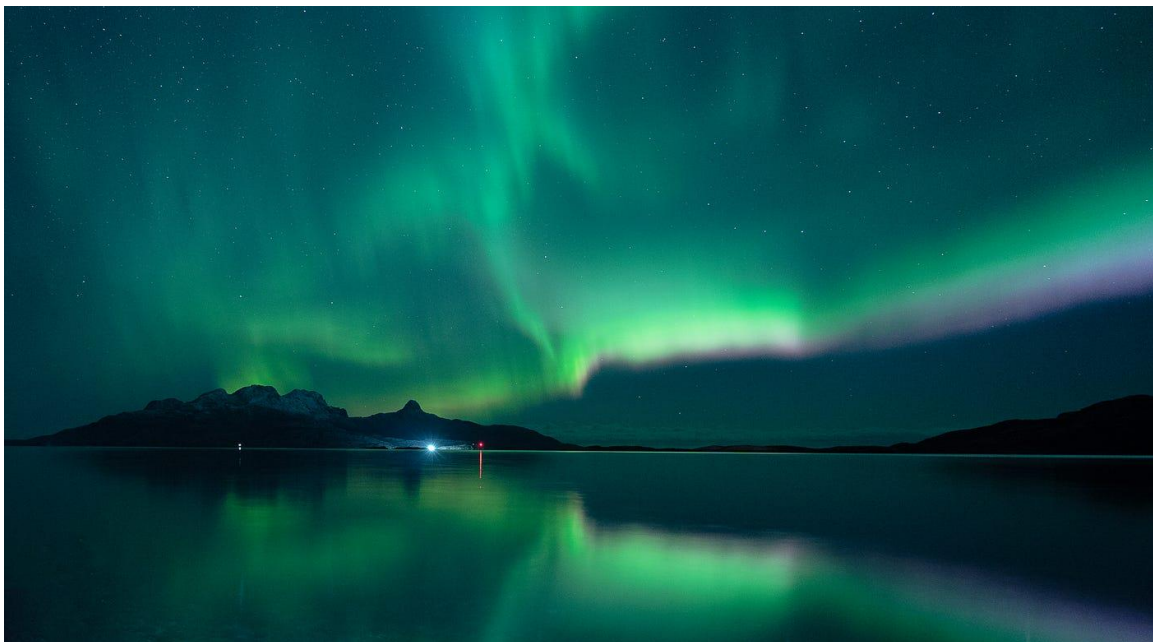

So the light from the sun-star has a different effect than the human to human light which affects our consciousness.

Allure is this higher-body, higher-frequency radiance itself and again; most Westernized adult people don't really have it or much of it at all. They have the energy body; but it's not necessarily LIT UP like a Disney 4th of July fireworks showcase.

Or aurora borealis...

Allure is the radiant emanation of this 'other' form of Light (and the spectrum of plasmic-sentient 'e' word).

How could there be the earth and life on earth WITHOUT our atmosphere?

For the human light-body; there are 100s of known and named qualities of this Sentient-sourced Light specifically as signatures of light and vibe truth emanation.

Gene Keys highlights 128 of them alone. Then you have the entire spectrum of elemental and archetypal 'e's.

So I started warming things up a bit to ease you into the concept of Beauty being this 'other' Light source and spectrum that has the POWER to INFLUENCE people like we can FEEL the sun's LIGHT radiation.

To accept the reality of this, you may have to delve deeper into accepting the concept that 'chi' 'qi' or prana actually exists.

Millions of chi kung and tai chi practitioners (as well as reiki) already KNOW and feel this is real. Western science just cannot keep up with it or accept it. This is where I recommend deeper study into my Uniphied Theory if you are called to it.

Shortly I'll be reconnecting with 'chi' but I wanted to seed it for now.

Science after all cannot explain literally HUNDREDS of phenomena anyways (that I list in the UT Report) so are you going to wait for THEM to catch up to practical spirituality, beauty and allure transformation? I wouldn't. You could be waiting the rest of your life in hopes of that - literally.

And would you want to take fashion advice from 'Revenge of the Nerds'? J/K...I dunno, maybe ;)

'Media' programmers have always known media is powerful in its affect on consciousness and how to 'manipulate' or sway the masses and I would say that KNOWING more about the truth of the Light gives us more power than ever as our OWN marketers and influencers to be able to maximize our influence (for good).

But even the MOST aware of advertising manipulators and 'programmers' may not understand the levels of clarity that we now are awakening to (and the power beneath it all with this and disclosure in general OF the tyranny)...the difference is we don't want to use it to sneakily manipulate people and condition them or control them but rather to LIBERATE, inspire and attract the healthy, rabid following of dream clients and fans that you desire in adding beauty and richness to the world in your highest expression.

I mean SOME people might get into charisma work to have more sketchy ways of influence in how they're already working with their values and I can't stop that. There is an entire spectrum of consciousness and shadow masculine and feminine can also have charisma.

Anyways;

Charisma and the ability to emanate feelable photonic influence cannot really be bought;

You can't put a price on authentically being the highest status person in the room FROM POWER (not just 'personal power' but spiritual power) when OTHER people of power, evolution, status and beauty are verifying you as the real deal and without having to 'buy' your way in.

Power and beauty influences and it's not just with having money or looking great and styled (there are different forms of power and influence); this can be part of how people normally 'read' people, but it's deeper than that.

We're talking SOUL, SPIRIT, SEX, BODY, MIND and HEART influencing power...FROM STILLNESS.

One of the shortcuts here is that you want your CHAKRAS projecting a FEELABLE distance so that other people feel your presence in THEIR chakras (and where your aura reaches far enough literally to touch their aura).

The world can be your oyster when you start harnessing and reclaiming divine feminine allure vibe and light-truth radiance. That's allure.

Smart and future-thinking influencers are looking for ways to stand out ORGANICALLY; not just with search engine marketeering, click-bait trickery or today's equivalent of stupid pet tricks or hacks to get attention.

With allure, less can be MUCH more (esp. if you're not the prettiest per se).

You might not like the idea of 'over'-sexualizing yourself either just to get more attention (if that's not where you are).

Allure (which I also call photonic beauty)...having more photonic radiance (which has to do with the aura and is separate from just how good you look) gives you fuller influence to reach people with the content you're already making to maximize social media response and results...of really building a LOYAL FOLLOWING of die-hards, client prospects and other interested people.

If you get into allure transformation and have these qualities show up in your visual media...imagine cultivating more of your soul-starlet beauty and allure being MORE of true self that your tribe can feel as your social empire grows!

It gives them something to respond to more somatically when they can feel your radiance. We live in a vibrational universe and that has everything to do with this and attracting the right opportunities and people to you.

So yes;

It's time for something DEEPER than the current superficial model and frame-work of visual influence; beauty and image consulting. That's what this report will introduce as well; more depth.

ALLURE and becoming more alluring visually yourself is here to ENGAGE your followers and COMPEL them to follow you, join you, refer you and become healthily obsessed with you with LESS EFFORT on your part; esp. if you're honestly not that talented or a great content creator.

Imagine having #fomo inducing beauty that people MUST subscribe themselves, comment, post, share and want to engage with you AND stand up for you when others aren't around - and doing it organically without having to 'sell' them. Invaluable.

K-Pop stans for their favorite groups (like BTS 'Army') will defend individual idols all the time online b/c they feel invested in them; not just b/c of their music but b/c their allure is EMBEDDED in the entire EXPERIENCE of them.

Most marketers could only dream of an organic, deep soul tribe following b/c they're too busy 'manipulating' or optimizing things to have influence instead of it being organic at a FOUNDATIONAL level.

As the world awakens and becomes more conscious and market savvy (to sniff out the posers), the future is headed this direction.

Influencers are going to have more VIBE influence and their own signature brand ecosphere that people can FEEL a part of that COMPELS.

...Like a real brand ATMOSPHERE that creates an EXPERIENCE affecting their people within seconds on all dimensional levels of heart, mind, body, sex, soul and spirit. Imagine that! Bringing them closer to Source itself...beauty can do that.

It's going to be more like; what is the vibe I want to create and have people FEEL in this next product promotion or instagram post?

And having real mastery visually to affect their mood not just with production design or music support but so they FEEL the vibe-truth of your intention...

(Say like having a SIREN shoot where they feel like Vic Deangelis ; 4.3M followers with the allure + styling OF a siren) >>

(All images used under Fair Use Copyright Guidelines)

You can be the BEST brand of you and have YOUR signatures of a starlet aura and the actual truth-based consciousness underneath it (the divine street cred) - which you can then bring to live events.

Fortunately; this social media success with allure is ALREADY happening and I'll give some great examples. We usually see it as 'fame' or 'style' instead of being able to differentiate and discern actually allure from physical beauty as really - they are 2 separate (yet interdependent) components of your pro image.

I mean the 'actual' secret of K-Beauty isn't even Beauty as we know it, it's allure. So we have to see things from a different paradigm; focusing more on the SKY instead of the BODY of the overall picture of earth (in parallel).

Like with Adam Black of Black Veil Brides you'd think it's his styling, make-up/eyeliner, 'confidence', fame (which does help if you're already there)

...or other things like PR agency, algorithm hacking, video production quality, choreography itself, keyword tagging or something else for other influencers...but again;

Charisma is already A CORE COMPONENT of not only social media influence success but of PERFORMANCE ENTERTAINMENT success.

It helps psycho-activate their experience of you; their heart, mind and soma ON...and I think that you would want that fine-tuned and honed to YOUR truth, right?

I want you to start seeing this b/c it's the stuff of VALUE in an attention hungry economy, that you cannot put a price on; when people FEEL that you are powerful or beautiful as the 'real deal' and not just b/c you look good or look the part - you want them to FEEL it (and deeply if possible)...and with most people they don't FEEL anything as a response to their image or presence.

Allure is also the EVOLUTION of Beauty for several reasons we'll be delving into. It's the stable, platform and universal, worldwide ability to as well to have FEELABLE influence from your presence and images.

And if you're specifically a beauty influencer; your content is less niche content or 'subject matter' focused generation anyways.

So...VISUAL INFLUENCE is something you probably really want to master and take your own beauty into the IMMORTAL realms like Hollywood starlets of yore;

Ava Gardner, Hedy Lamarr and Audrey Hepburn, etc. They had allure...

They have UNIVERSAL qualities of divine feminine consciousness and flavors of beauty.

Interested in discovering more about what 'allure' REALLY IS?
(Literal definition is further down).

Good.

And again; in this attention economy of social media, you know that there's a LOT of things vying for people's time and attention out there to keep them distracted and away from YOU. Charisma helps you build a real following to any scale!

I'm going to say something that you probably won't be able to fully grasp right now (and we'll bring it up again); but Allure is one of the prime components of K-Pop MV's youtube and shorts success. It truly is (as well as their live performances of course).

You might think it's the production machine of catchy sounds, k-beauty styling, korea-graphy, expensive production design, talent, intensive training and so forth,...and it is. There are multiple components.

But they've consistently got REAL allure which is a PRIME component of all the ingredients of success.

FEELING THEIR PRESENCE from the stage means EVERYTHING and if you can't 'feel' an artist from the stage or from video; you feel disconnected and they're like flat 2D pixels, but when you feel a live artist's charisma engaging in your heart, sex and soul as an organic response?

THAT'S THE MONEY. THAT'S the excitement, connection and superfan engagement. That's where visual influence creates an exponential increase in value and experience.

With K-pop; we're talking WILD fan followings, SUPER stardom and BILLIONS and BILLIONS of views. The rest of the world hasn't quite caught up with WHY it's become such a phenomenon and now there are more and more collaborations with Western artists.

Yes; Gangnam style was a HIT that hit the sweet spot, but what's overlooked? His charisma which embodies a few archetypes that are medicine including The Fool and counter-cultural Light and Dark Jester.

Psy allowed people to LET LOOSE with his infectious stage charisma.

BTS? Swaggy charisma and with certain qualities that are more towards the heavens with a lot of Air, Aether (not as grounded as other elements and earthier archetypes).

Allure and Charisma is THRIVING in K-Pop and it's a CORE secret of their success AND how you ; (if you really get into allure transformation) can experience star-like social influence as well (and scale it).

Granted, you may have to sacrifice and invest in SOMETHING to experience and undergo and AUTHENTIC transformation to become the 'real deal', so how big IS your vision? How many people do you want to influence with your social (media) empire or business?

Because that's a component to be able to take on and embody more power/light in order to serve so many people.

And with K-Pop, we can strip away the production value and so forth and I can show you in one image; in 1 image I could give a masterclass on what transformational, alchemical and alluring beauty IS and you'll start realizing that it TRANSMUTES CONSCIOUSNESS; it's alchemical and changes lives. That's a power of true beauty.

And there are many examples but here's just one from EVERGLOW with a smaller scale fan performance event.

Keep reading because there is something more specific with this which is the MOST VALUABLE THING IN THE UNIVERSE and it flows THROUGH allure. You're going to want to know what that is. So (aside from culture), reference how much you can start sensing and feeling their impact and it starts jumping off of the screen. They don't just have PHYSICAL beauty, they have holographic sentient-impacting INFLUENCE....as you tune into it you can start discerning the difference between 2D and 3D/4D/5D all together.

If you find yourself having instant ego thought chatter....Instead of viewing the typical projection of 'yeah but they're Asian or 'k-pop' and remaining in the shadow of judgment like "I don't like that genre", "They do plastic surgery and they're too thin", etc. (which is a normal consumer response, we want to think beyond that to HIGHER truths).

Could you try to fade those egoic projections (whether they're true or not on a lower level of reality; to tune into just their allure itself and how it can engage the audience and then start valuing the universal ATTENTION and ENGAGEMENT factor?

Can you tune into the consciousness behind it and how their energy is reaching forward instead of remaining 'flat' on their body?

If and when you can start to see it; that could be a profound shift.

And could you use some more of that x-factor for how it would look 4 u?

I wouldn't worry about the lower truths, it's the higher truth that we are valuing here...archetypes are accessible to ALL cultures and extend beyond genres.

Like the sun radiates photons, allure is (chi) radiance that you can FEEL so it's great to look at clear examples of allure and charisma b/c most people don't have it.

Remember with K-pop; it's not that they're 'Asian' or 'pop genre' or anything like that. You want to get PAST your personal preferences with all of this and your rockabilly myopia to see the bigger picture.

Charisma and Allure is available to potentially EVERYONE and in all cultures; for YOU to be more self-expressed.

We're even BORN WITH IT...babies are INCREDIBLY radiant and charismatic. They get people to do EVERYTHING for them. That's a lot of powerful influence idn't it? ;)

And MGK also has palpable star power or 'charisma' as well (look for visuals).

And the thing is; it's not actually about 'inner game' or 'personal growth'...it's more about POWER AND BEAUTY ITSELF and HOW to access and embody it so that others can feel you. Most charisma coaching works backwards with behavioral modeling or repeating affirmations without trapping into the true power which is IMPERSONAL.

If you want to be a STAR or STARLET of your industry; allure and charisma (esp. in today's attention age and with social media) should not be looked at as anything else than FOUNDATIONAL.

K-Pop labels unconsciously get it, value it and thrive with it (and Sexy Chi and I are there to serve them at the highest levels of performance).

I would say that right now, they're not consciously competent with what they're working with, but they've ended up with the 'real thing'.

Some haters will complain that K-Pop is a factor and things are engineered or 'manufactured' in certain ways; they've got a 'formula' down. There can even be a personal TO archetypal transition to make that brings them instant confidence, glamour and so forth as part of the deal.

That may be accurate AND YET they're also the REAL DEAL with archetypal BEAUTY influence (allure) and Sex Icon Power which is with the real power game.

MOST of social power and influence is archetypal anyways.

Especially with first impressions (and longevity) before you know about anyone's personality.

My brand of Sexy Chi brings the conscious competence and mastery to allure consulting and transformation (including how to make the TOP PERFORMERS and social influencers in the world even MORE alluring and impactful).

So you're gonna wanna work on your archetypes that best match your SOUL'S DESIRES for fullest expression. So you can walk it like u talk it.

K-Pop trainees know what they're getting into and yeah there's shadow aspects of the industry, but that's not for any conversation we're having today.

So for you;

Consider that other influencers might be prettier or more talented than you even (God forbid!) and that could be a concern...but they might not have allure and the MAGIC it can do to INSPIRE their followers to become rabid fans for you.

They're operating from 2D, flat, pixel-aspect ratio valuing influence.

So whether you're an instagram influencer, beauty influencer, starlet with a social media following, start-up influencer growing your following and brand, it's organic ATTENTION and natural engagement that you want. This way it feels real instead of forced.

Even the Daily Nas guy has engaging charisma and he has a massive following:

But being hyper-active infectious (over-achiever style) like a Gary V might not be for you. But he still has infectious charismatic SELF-expression energetically and vibe-wise esp. if you're into his subject matter.

Fortunately, charisma covers bringing out YOUR best aspects including your Human Design aura itself and how you're meant to react and be met by the world.

If you're ONLY focused on the usual stuff; setting up a video camera, decent lighting, posting every so often and maximizing your extrinsic beauty switching between different styles yet overlooking allure, you're just not going to be as influential as you could be (you're not even aware of your own charisma or not!).

It's going to be a LOT harder work AND people might not be COMPELLED to work with you while you wonder why on earth people just aren't responding (so you go back to the drawing board again or change your look up).

Even if you're a conscious female entrepreneur who wants to attract more soul tribe CLIENTS and raving customers TO you and your brand/IP from being in your most aligned self-expression; INFLUENCE is where it's at.

By cultivating real, authentic allure you will have more VISUAL influence from what you are already doing and more results. This is the advanced VISUAL COMMUNICATION mastery path (and more than that; it's spiritual).

Often, we'll just focus on the 'marketing', social media marketing or content generation while overlooking the real science of visual influence itself; but now that's finally here (and proven), we don't have to 'guess' anymore!

And in ways, everyone is different - but there are fundamental principles of RADIANCE like star-sun radiation...I can help you bring out YOUR planetary and atmospheric mood-truth.

BTW; I can literally READ anyone's allure factor on a scale of 1-10 and that's just one of my tools from 2 decades of psychically reading and attuning with the world's most alluring women.

Before we move forward, let me address this again b/c it's what social media marketers will really focus on.

"What about CONTENT Rion?"

...If the internet was in an 'information' age and social media is in a 'content' age, aren't we in a CONTENT type economy with social media?:”

Yes and no.

Content is the surface-level 'obvious' thing for much of influencer based media. Videos, youtube videos and instagram posts are 'content', but there's more to it (and there's more to it that's organically driving attraction and attention).

If you're a beauty influencer, is it 'CONTENT' that people want when they see images of you? Kinda funny to think of it like that marketing-speak right?

"Let me see some content of her at that beach in Tulum again"hmmm....so we'll have to get deeper into what's driving not just the market psychology of beauty influence, but the HIDDEN drivers and the POWER OF BEAUTY itself to influence.

With beauty influence and visual social media influence (including to convert new subscribers and clients) it may not be explicitly that you're in a 'niche'.

You might just be your own brand as an influencer and you already know that your visuals are basically EVERYTHING. There's even the generic statement that MOST of communication is non-verbal...MORE ACCURATELY the 'energetic' is MOST of the non-verbal 90% that they're referring to.

So I'd that say most of communication is 80% energetic (including allure), 10% non-verbal and then 10% verbal communication. THAT'S THE REALM WE'RE IN (the 80% of communication itself and what's being conveyed with it and whether you have DIVINE power or beauty).

So while 'content' is king used to be a saying, I'll say this about the future with allure (not just 'beauty') being the gold currency of social media:

Charisma is King.

Allure is Queen.

...Of social media. Long-term.

That stable foundation COULD lead to fame but there are no promises.

With the 'currency itself' through your charisma; it allows you to communicate not just far more information but in a compelling way WITHOUT words to accelerate your influence and growth with subscribers, clients and so forth.

Let's watch as this all unfolds (but I wouldn't wait for it to become the hottest thing if you're called to it all NOW).

WHY? Because becoming an influencer in today's open social media attention-based economy allows anyone to become their own star and starlet without having to through the old school means and methods! The world is wide open for INFLUENCE and maybe even fame.

We know that Beauty sells.

'Sex sells' and we have to go more into WHY esp. if you're not relying on personality, talent or character to influence and sell (and even if you are, allure is going to have even MORE influence).

Think of beauty in stillness; when you have allure and THEN start to animate it with expressions, facial expressions, movement, dance...magic and enchantment starts to happen. But if you're just moving WITHOUT embodiment and charisma, then it's more just like drywood movement.

So what happens is that there's more PSYCHE influencing RICH 'information' in one single freeze-frame of an alluring woman and then you start adding up 29 of those freeze-frames per second in video (24 in film) and you've got INFINITELY more influential data (or could we daresay 'quanta'?) that's coming across.

THAT'S the hidden (previously unaware) secret of K-pop visual influence, which I'll refer to more. Without being able to have allure in ONE PHOTO, the scalability of things is meek...can you scale that? Does your allure fluctuate?

Imagine FULL-ON ALLURE in every freeze-frame for a full Music Video that people can't keep up with b/c it's just heaven on earth beauty overload (I'll link some of those).

I mean can you put a PRICE on it when you understand that they are literally monetizing videos that have millions of views? Transverting the secret currency to actual $ currency AND social power.

We're talking a quantum differential between holding someone's attention with engagement where they can't get enough of the beauty-light that's SATURATING THEIR SOMA and psyche vs. someone who just 'looks pretty' but they don't feel anything for 3.5 minutes other than whatever logical processing OR emotional experience IF it's good music that's going on.

You don't want to miss out on maximizing your visual influence without charisma. Well; maybe you do I dunno.

There's an 'e' word that I want you to look out for coming up that is at the CORE of this market-driving dynamic.

With beauty influence and social media VISUAL influence; we have think outside of just 'content generation' and skin-deep beauty maximization including hair, make-up and styling. There's an art and science to allure and maximizing beauty influence which we're not consciously in the realm of yet in the collective.

Outside of niche markets where people are looking for 'content' advice like 'organic gardening tips' or 'smart phone reviews', being your own brand and maximizing your IMPACT relies on something else; not even just how 'good you look' or wearing a frickin' question suit like this guy to get attention in the 90's:

In becoming your own ICON of fully embodied and expressed avatar self getting the recognition and satisfaction you dream; there's other dynamics to be aware of that are driving organic and scalable behavior.

...and if you know the depth of this, you're going to be ahead of Madison Avenue advertisers in many ways b/c we now have the working Science of Charisma, power and influence as well as HOW to directly maximize it.

(Remember, I'm intentionally reiterating certain things to allow these codes to just get out, trying on different ways to translate it and being fluent in that to later see what sticks and to help you good-indoctrinate into the world of allure and thinking correctly about it).

With this attention economy;

THE ABILITY OF PEOPLE TO RESPOND TO YOU is central. (I mean google makes BILLIONS of dollars in paid advertising which is literally 'buying attention').

There's nothing 'wrong' per se with 'optimizing' funnels and pumping in ad revenue...it's a very YANG way to work but that isn't the only way to succeed online and with social media at all. There's a more feminine influence and attuned way to market with integrity throughout (whether you do more of those yang analytical things, spreadsheets or what not).

That's what we're going to maximize without you becoming a jumping monkey to get their attention and grow your following (or even doing paid ads although that may still be part of your strategy).

In fact, with allure you can literally DO LESS and IMPACT MORE (much of the masculine cannot comprehend this at all); because why?

BECAUSE TRUE BEAUTY ALREADY WIELDS THE COSMOS (and is its own inherent value).

Beauty super-naturally and magnetically attracts everything to it and....as we know - beauty is more than skin-deep.

After all image is LIGHT ITSELF and we've just been focused on the planetary body instead of the atmosphere and weather (b/c the truth and dynamic of earth and life is both).

And we're not just talking about 'body language' here...no; allure and the e-word 'thing of substance' with it (which we'll get to) is something more foundationally its OWN thing. It's the deeper truer thing from which body language is sourced.

This goes back to that 90% decades old statement of where communication is non-verbal and 10% verbal. This INCLUDES that energetic is I'd say around 80% and 10% is more of the physical, non-verbal signs and cues; 10% verbal.

And when you're NOT verbally communicating we're talking 100% right? So that puts it around 90% energetic; allure, chakras, auras, archetypes, gifts and siddhic-truth frequencies, karma, energy blocks, implants, vibrational agreements, demons or not, higher dimensional beauty, divine status and self-esteem, etc.

THAT'S what to work on.

Body language (non-verbals) can give clues, but it's not the depth of what we're valuing here; we want to start reading these signature qualities (including archetypal) of charisma and allure.

Other places are on my blog with Celebrity readings or my FB wall.

The sun doesn't give off 'body language' but it does RADIATE...and that photonic light radiation has a form of power and influence.

SO even when you're POSING or doing moves with your 'body'; what you want is the OVERFLOWING radiance to come out of your higher dimensional body (atmosphere/aura) so the movement (technical/yang) itself FEELS right and effortless; otherwise your body language can come across as too postured.

This ESP. goes for dance mastery.

Again; we can think that social media influence and marketing it's all about content', 'content' 'content', marketing and algorithms, but there's something deeper and more exciting underneath that is DRIVING the markets esp; related with Beauty, popularity and social INFLUENCE. I'm not saying NOT to do those things also as part of your overall strategy but...yeah..

This has been a wildcard to marketers for eons. And it's charisma; something they've not yet been able to define or really explain (let alone grasp the science of visual influence).

They think it has to do with your posture, body language, soft-maxing, hyping yourself up before going on camera, acting confident, etc. but (not that those things wouldn't help) nope.

Yet you can be 'faking' the actions and someone who has more POWER can be looking at an apple and women will swoon (remember Edward in 'Twilight?').

That's why I always wanted to get to the deeper truth of things. INFLUENCE FROM STILLNESS and how it can SAY EVERYTHING without words or 'talking someone into it'.

A woman could be SO ALLURINGLY beautiful (even if she's not the prettiest per se in the room) and men will be drawn to her like bees to honey b/c they FEEL, sense and see her differently but SHE is actually causing that different experience b/c of her allure.

This is also because she has the most valuable resource in the universe (which we'll get to but it's THROUGH allure).

(Yes; I'll be defining charisma and allure and continuing to use them interchangeably).

Yes, you could create a lot of relevant 'content' for a niche market and thrive without charisma as dry as after-market worm-wood; BUT as markets become more and more saturated with 'content' creators, people are going to be less forgiving as other sexy people are vying for their attention who might be more talented and experienced than you are.

If you are the brand or brand designer, charisma work is CENTRAL I'd say.

YOUR USERS, fans, followers, clients and customers want something to believe in - YOU. It could be YOU and what you represent; the deeper feelings you evoke just from an image which cues into deeper POWER and truth.

Don't you owe it to them to be your BEST and magically influential self so they have more of an experience and miss you?

...Where they can't get enough and look forward to seeing and hearing you again? That's different than being a nuisance to people.

Allure photo-chemically jumps off of their computer or smart phone screen and ENGAGES them to respond organically to you; to CARE...to be drawn in through enchantment to your beauty-spell.

They can even BELIEVE in what you represent as you SELL them on who you're being, what you're doing and how you're living, but it's not just in your values - it's how they visually experience and FEEL your truth and all of the qualities as an experience. It's not merely just what you say (as if it was made up in a corporate boardroom meeting).

YOU CAN'T PUT A PRICE ON THAT VARIABLE.

WHO YOU ARE as an influencer is CENTRALE.

And it should always include charisma/allure to maximize all of your visual engagement and impact.

THEY WANT CONNECTION, brand integrity (instead of manipulation) and they want to FEEL..they want to feel seen, connected and engaged and you can do this effortlessly with allure. It can tell them all they have to know in their heart, body-soma, spirit, soul INSTANTANEOUSLY and they can be like 'FINALLY...

I know I'm meant to follow or work with them'...and THEN the words you say can entirely screw it up. Ok...hopefully rather the words to be CONGRUENT with who you are being and how they're experiencing you.

If you're a content creator; of course you should focus on the known core fundamentals of production value, quality content, engagement, social media marketing and optimization AND you should consider getting into the REAL currency itself of working on your allure/charisma to have more star impact in your ecosphere.

It'll add more VALUE to each and every transmission piece that you send. Sometimes people will follow you and want to be closer because it just FEELS right to them and their body in ways they can't explain.

Charisma can do MOST of the selling and energetic, non-verbal communication and influence.

THAT'S what yang marketers are decades behind still on ever figuring out. It's not about emotional MANIPULATION...allure and authentic charisma brings compelling integrity organically to marketing response.

Let's go to an example of someone who jumps off of the screen without having to 'sell you' otherwise.

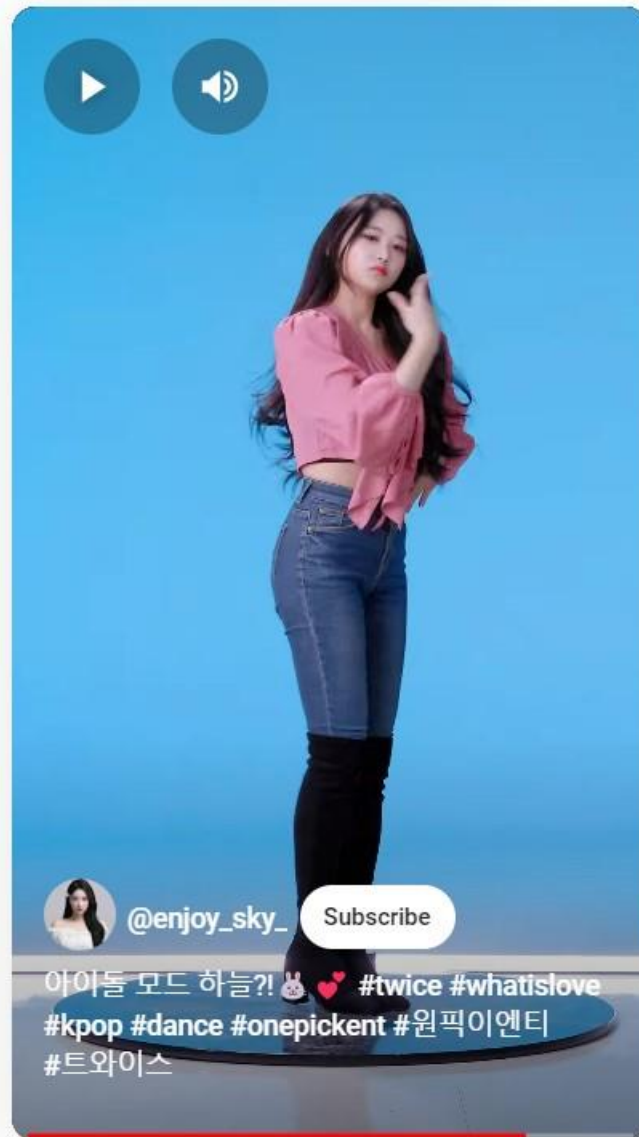

I'll give right now is this youtuber who is doing dance videos who has k-pop level allure. (Sorry that I don't have the URL anymore to her channel).

In fact, you can't even tell if she's in a k-pop group or not because her allure is that fire - but she's doing her solo work. SHE'S TAPPED INTO 'THE CURRENT' and currency.

(Sorry I lost her channel URL)

So while everyone and their 2nd aunt is focused on her LOOKS, korea-graphy or dance moves (I renamed it a decade ago) and styling...it's actually her ALLURE (and the secret core thing within that) which is THE CAPTIVATING (I can't get enough) MAGIC and elemental factor.

(not all links are clickable btw)

She's has the 'it factor' and has optimized the radiant expression of her allure to be FLOWING in service so that others FEEL her (rather than being constricted in, blocked, shameful, reserved, etc.).

Her allure itself as an elemental component is on-part with K-Pop girl groups and THAT is the money.

That's what compels people. Other people can have the same dance moves but her vibe and light-truth energy ENGAGES you and is so damn clickable.

That's the real secret and people will keep coming back for more....yes, even if you're SHYER. This is HOW you don't have to be a boisterous not-self person or 'Tony Robbins' to pump people up, etc. (and btw; of course he has powerful charisma ANYWAYS).

Fortunately; you can start cultivating your OWN signature vibe and light truth qualities of beauty mastery with something like my Allure Makeover Package where we work together consulting and transformation your visual and felt allure itself for a significant 'before' and 'after'. (This isn't normal image consulting and fashion makeover stuff although in the future I may team with other Beauty professionals to put a more comprehensive style makeover package together as well, etc.)

If you're ever going to become an ICON like Lisa (BLACKPINK), you're going to have to have all kinds of things DIALED as well as really fit together in a SIGNATURE format visually and energetically. Working professionally on your allure is going to help curate towards that level (and take things into more versatility if you're already at master-y levels of image). MOST of her beyond next-level image here is with her signature ALLURE. That's what takes this 1000x beyond someone else with the same style (it's archetypal mostly but mixed with her unique soul expression and emanation).

Mucho Vixen-Muse Starlet Showgirl here in great radiance!

I'll throw this one in the mix as well...this is one you can keep coming back to refer to practicing 'seeing' and 'sensing' allure itself...her body literally is emanating and you can start to tune in to feel the electric warmth-charge of her Eros.

With a staggering 104Million IG followers

Keep in mind that media consumers and fans want engagement, but they also want entertainment as well - and in an attention deficit age; if you don't somehow 'stand out', it's going to be harder to get noticed as millions (yes millions) more people become INFLUENCERS.

Almost everyone and their Uncle Milty has a podcast now anyways, right?

As an influencer having allure as feelable authentic self-expression from your light-body and vibe-truth gives you relatability as well. They can somatically help FEEL your rapport and go along with you emotionally for the ride and make emotional agreements out of resonance without even being conscious of it when you have that kind of power of influence.

Their logical mind might be engaged with your 'content' if you're speaking, but without a more holistic engagement on their part where their sex, heart and soul is ALSO listening - there's entropy where they can start losing attention.

This cues us into the deeper reality that attention itself is MULTI-DIMENSIONAL...it's not merely with the logical channel of conscious process. You want to engage and activate ALL CHANNELS of their attention...not from manipulation but effortlessly from your radiant vibe and light-truth emanation that hits THEIR field; their heart and sacral chakras for example.

THAT'S A DIFFERENT LEVEL OF LISTENING and engagement...undoubtedly which you yourself have felt before around someone who was SO alluring or charismatic; your cels were listening to them!

With charisma ON and emanating past the camera however; their soma-eros body, heart, spirit, sex and soul can be LISTENING and ENGAGED making it less likely for them to 'zone out'.

This isn't NLP word-hacking or things like that; you want your visual presence to do that magic organically...POWER instead of force or trickery.

And you yourself have probably followed someone just b/c they had 'that quality' you couldn't explain...you know 'je ne sais quois' (aka 'allure').

We're not even talking about 'fake it til u make it'...cultivating your allure helps you to be FLOWING like the River Jordan with the CURRENCY itself and THEN shifts your body language, physiology, attitude, beliefs, etc.

Women tell me this fairly often in different ways; that they're drawn to me and they can't even always understand the words I'm speaking - but they're compelled to follow me B/C my charisma is engaging other aspects of their total self (not just ego self) and the messaging transmissions are aligned; coming from a deep place.

(I have a VERY high percentage of return clients btw; well above any industry average).

Are you BEING the fullness of your brand visually?

If you want more ATTENTION from your social media and scalable beauty influence, social influence and deeper engagement, response, impact and conversion from your visual, social media (and to sculpt it more to YOUR eros-sphere), this is a power report made for you - so keep on readin' while the good ol boys keep drinkin' whiskey 'n rye!

Yes; a lot of these variables can be measure...the youtube Studio has got quite good with inherent analytics; but we're also talking not just about stats but about HEART, sex, spirit and soul engagement and drive to follow you and be closer with you (things they can't quite measure).

You can just benefit from an increase in the core linear-logic stats as well but can you put a price on having people follow you at a soul level?

A lot of this should be coming through in your testimonials and the spirit of how you true fans and clients relate with you...that's a deeper level of scalable satisfaction isn't it? That heart and soul DEEP influence on people? Yeah...

Men would also be wise to take on those other multi-facet areas of influence as well with charisma. It's not just social influence but that the influence spectrum ON an individual (and then multiple that to xmillionsx) is PSYCHIC, SEXUAL, SPIRITUAL, MENTAL, EMOTIONAL (HEART), EROS-SOMA, AND...that it can be done in an ALCHEMICAL way of TRANSMUTING THEIR CONSCIOUSNESS, DNA and field itself just by being ENTRAINED being in the Presence of your transmission.

Most muggles cannot comprehend this consciously; but have also experienced it around some powerful people they've met if they tune back into it. This is b/c you are more than just mind (ego), body and soul (of which many markets ARE becoming more accepting and conscious of).

This is what's going on with masters anyways; you or I are entraining to their field moreso than just the words they're saying...like when I went to Meeting of the Masters at the Tao Garden.

It's spiritual and soulful influence FROM THEIR FIELD a la 'charisma' and 'allure' radiance that changes your CONSCIOUSNESS and energy body itself to BE more enlightened and less in depressive shadows-grids, and stuck suckiness.

There are terms for it also known as 'shaktipat' or 'darshan'; alchemical transmission from the field of a master to a disciple. I've experienced this on different occasions with my masters.

That's entirely different levels of COMMUNICATION and influence. Who they are being is ALCHEMICAL (and most people don't at all reach these levels of self-actualization).

Being near my tantra master at a meal in 2023, his field was attuning mine alchemically and I was having flashbacks of tantric dreams through the years and receiving new codes.

AGAIN; this is the REAL power and influence we're talking about; alchemically on their field and psycho-activating these other areas of being impacted.

The divine feminine POWER of Muse and the radiance of Her Beauty single-handedly has the power to re-awaken the ENTIRE WORLD into a Creative Renaissance of Reunification (maybe more on that later;)...and MIRACLES of transformation JUST from her visuals. Literally.

It's transformational beauty we're talking about so you could develop your allure to archetypal STARLET levels of SOUL-self expression and have DNA-Bending properties on people's experience whether they're conscious of it or just saying they're 'into your words' or what have u.

I will say that just reading this can be transformative indeed - HOWEVER, you will most likely have to work directly on your charisma in ways that actually create change...b/c it's the real deal, conditioned masses are not likely to evolve until the culture itself evolves (ironically THIS IS HAPPENING IN S.KOREA but that's another discush).

K-pop starlets (who are actually alluring Muse fractals or 'muses') put THOUSANDS of hours into training (and pro styling support) to indirectly end up with starlet ALLURE and other signature qualities of beauty influence.

K-Pop now generates over $5billion in annual revenue as an industry!

We can get down the same road in presence/identity transformation FASTER by working directly on your allure personally and directly, so it's something to keep in mind (like the 'Allure Makeover' ;).

Just reading about allure (as the rest of your LIGHT communication in tandem with your physical looks) can be enlightening, BUT it doesn't mean that all of a sudden you'll be more alluring and energetically self-expressed yourself. Your old habits and such may die hard.

These new codes may require more NURTURING esp. b/c it's your entire subconscious psyche itself that would have to shift for you to dissolve or integrate your blocks and shadows to allow more beauty codes in your chakric psyche to be able to be FELT at the purer, divine frequencies.

So let this book work its magic how it's meant to HOWEVER I would be aware of your own values and timing. How important IS it for you to expand your INFLUENCE organically in your online and live presence?

Without doing 'something' unless the codes are really meant to mature for years;

You might just go back to focusing on the baseline more superficial things like content creation, external beauty maximization and social media marketing/hacking and continue to overlook the ability to influence and get people to respond organically FROM your visuals which allure does and like my clients enjoy. You know MORE now and that's transformational information...but it might not be near enough to actually transform you.

Also; everyone is at a different place even with their foundational energetic health which is necessary to have if you're going to ever reclaim and cultivate divine feminine radiance.

So let's zoom out a bit again b/c allure is actually a SEPARATE component than 'just' your skin-deep beauty.

It's important to note that (similarly to the movie 'Shallow Hal') there are the 2 components;

Your physical, skin-deep beautification and 'looks' maximization and also your higher dimensional LIGHT and VIBE truth communication which is also showing up in ALL visual media (and live presence) of you (that which we're now more accepting and conscious of).

This means that there are people who LOOK GREAT like society would call them a '10 out of 10' (on the utilitarian social-pop scale)... 'a dime'; yet remember, allure is a separate variable which could be translated to how 'inner beauty' shows up practically on camera. Someone could have high physical looks but LOW ALLURE and you won't be able to feel them.

Their looks could be 10 but their allure factor a '4'.

And you can have a woman who isn't classically beautiful by pop standards and yet who has BEAUTIFUL, feelable radiance of allure.

Marie Diamond is a great example of this inner beauty that can be felt 'on camera'.

You can feel her truth and beauty qualities which are an integral part of her brand and communication...and she is THRIVING in her feng shui business and known to millions as an expert and influencer. She works with celebrities.

Her entire business ecosphere is PAINTED and coated with this intoxicating brand-signature eros of HER soul truth and qualities - expressed.

It's imbued in every word, every little detail (and yes; production design is part of this but in her case it has that special magic allure integrity throughout it all).

That creates a brand integrity and immersive experience and it's something to reference and learn from. (Any of these references you can further explore on your own online).

Your soul (when tuned in) can FEEL she's in alignment and living who she says she is – even if you can't consciously access or process it.

Remember; consumers are AWAKENING to be better bullshit detectors.

I would think that you would want to work on and master BOTH your skin-deep maxxng as well as your allure factor is my reckoning...b/c otherwise you might look good, but more people would be likely to keep scrolling and are more likely to 'judge' you from disconnection instead of rooting for you.

If you're relying just on your WORDS to capture them or a catchy tagline or keyword - sure that's PART of the game; but if you're not holographically engaging something BEYOND just their ego desire to specific content, they're more likely to disconnect AND YOU'LL NEVER FIGURE OUT WHY. You might want to PUSH HARDER, manipulate their emotions, be louder and bolder in your, optimize your key tags, etc. but come on.

MARKETING IS EVOLVING. The yang, pushy yesteryear of 'coffee is for closers' is dwindling down to be a smaller segment of overall market-space.

And yes, men can greatly benefit from this more holistic ENGAGEMENT that pre-activates and gets the heart, soma, sex, spirit, soul and psyche LISTENING and attentive to your message.

Humanity is awakening and there are the deeper desires which we're still getting to.

If you're already a celebrity or Beauty influencer you may have even got BORED with the glass ceiling on Beauty and are seeking a deeper expansion with it...it's officially here now!

Who you are emanating with allure allows you to maxx influence somatically, erotically, psychically (so much to say here and it's all psychic in effect), soulfully, emotionally, spiritually... and the words and message THEN supports things logically. That's the order it SHOULD be in! Many yang style marketers and influencers ONLY generally focus on the messaging and logic of things...which is great if you're a video game reviewer I guess.

"Be positive" "Pump yourself up" "Think positive" "Repeat affirmations" "More cowbell!"

...this 'push through anyways' mindset doesn't hold all the answers and may in fact TURN OFF who you're really meant to influence in your soul-truth communication, right? It may even be a bypass or gaslight for your deeper issues.

It may be grating to your feminine soma (and btw, I'm obviously switching between masculine and feminine here so I think you can adapt and understand).

Ok; sometimes more cowbell has a place, but what is your FOUNDATION (esp. if ~85% of your communication is energetic!?)

When your HEART chakra is activated and radiant in STILLNESS it's more psycho-activating to the fan or customers heart chakra not just b/c of mirror neurons but b/c of the nature of the uniphied field of consciousness that such radiance AFFECTS.

Want more EMOTIONAL, HEART-INFLUENCE ON PEOPLE? IS YOUR HEART CHAKRA EVEN HEALED AND OPEN?

(boom)

Isn't it better to have POWER of influence (including very feminine influence) rather than force-manipulation of influence? This isn't Force Recon here.

Marketing's evolving from 'gotcha' and scammy yester-years (although in certain segments that still exists but we're talking about SOCIAL MEDIA influence with influencers and in online businesses with integrity).

ALLURE;

It mixes WITH your physical beauty; your atmospheric qualities AND your physical body in your overall image.

It's also where the magic and mysticism is anyways; engaging holotropic COMMUNICATION. The truth of you, more fully expressed.

In one of the Beauty Powerliminals there is the line: “(Beauty as) a commitment to your highest soul expression and truth”.

So...here's something to see about b/c you might be sabotaging yourself in numerous ways (not just in marketing but in 'showing up').

COULD YOU HANDLE THE EXTRA ATTENTION? That's good problem stuff that I assume you can manage if you're an influencer! But to what scale? Where do you stop? Does being a star/let trigger you?

Where do you not fully express yourself (and in which chakra even)? There's a lot of women that PERSONALIZE their alluring sexual energy for their partner only without realizing that they can impersonally share that warmth SAFELY like a professional entertainer in HAVING more influence; they don't even realize they're coming across as colder and people don't feel any eros connection around them so it becomes more like stuck in their logic-channel.

ALL OF YOU CAN WARM UP and thaw with allure transformational work. (I can easily tell which chakras are blocked, etc.)

I have female clients who then have men end up tripping over themselves and going crazy over them after archetype activations and allure cultivation work.

But if you change TOO MUCH that might threaten the comfort and security of how close people in your life view you. So does your MISSION and your vision matter big enough to grow into and change?

Then keep reading! B/c if you're meant to influence MANY PEOPLE being in service (and even surrender), this will help the magic that can be done in a faster amount of time of presence transformation (which isn't linear).

So, if you do embrace the concept of cultivating your allure as part of your overall light communication;

This will likely open you up to a high value path of authentic visual self and beauty maximization for something as invaluable as having greater embodied influence. Your consciousness shifts with it.

It's actually practically spiritual as well b/c when you are embodied with more 'meta'-physical archetypal beauty in PRESENCE like goddess, vixen, diva, maiden, etc. people can FEEL the influence of the authentic Beauty which bends DNA and sways the room b/c they are feeling who you are is far louder than words.

"All eyes on me" -Many star/let pop songs

Styling covers physical archetypal beauty but allure work is in the realm of the consciousness, vibe and light-truth of archetype beauty. Your image is both the body-planet and the atmosphere-aura.

Allure is the emanation of consciousness-truth and the spirit-matter of it from your field; Beauty people can FEEL and respond to in their own soma (whether they're conscious of the process or not).

Legendarily we're all aware of Elvis in his prime.

Ok...maybe not Thorg. Thorg, Elvis. Elvis, Thorg.

The previously 'indefinable' quality...if you didn't know this was Elvis, you'd still say "Damn...there's something about him."

And even Austin Butler HAD to get things down to also have charisma in the movie 'Elvis'. Could you imagine if neither had any charisma? How there would be far less INFLUENCE (that actively interacts with everyone)?!

Well, not only did Elvis have powerful Star-King CHARISMA (which not only attracted but just being near it AWAKENED feminine consciousness and Beauty)...

But we can go into more detail about HOW and WHERE he has charisma in more detail; his Human Design (aura and archetypal profile numbers), his elements, his archetypes and so forth.

You might even have the same I-Ching related behavioral profile of him as a Martyr-Heretic (also a major key to his success mixed with his charisma).

As a martyr personality, he was supposed to 'shake things up'.

THAT'S the stuff we get to work on directly in the Charisma or Allure Makeover...and then you can calibrate and re-integrate things socially around people to validate it as real (b/c people will TEST)

YOU energetically to see if you're really who you are presenting yourself as).

So;

I think that it's by far best to work on your allure directly b/c you may have your own blockages and armoring to radiate feelable beauty itself in presence (live) and in media. You can't always see or work on your own blocks when you are stuck in the experience of it.

MANY people have energetic issues that I see instantly every time I take a walk; and most of them are entirely oblivious that it's aging them faster and putting stress in their system and on their organs b/c they're not getting proper energy flow. We can work on ALL of this.

In other words (keeping in mind the invaluable pay off AND brand integrity); you may very well have to INVEST in yourself to end up with what people feel ORGANICALLY (and without trick marketing) that is the REAL you communicating visually. YOUR energetic health is just part of the equation.

Hey; I do heavy metal detoxing and celery juice shakes but I'm also doing years of energy work on my body which is why I'm many years biologically younger (and look it and have tests to prove it) than my age. I went to a class reunion and a lot of them are looking a decade older even.

Reading this power report can help you become more aware of the general dynamics and then I can make some recommendations later for allure transformation itself. In working with me, I can work with consulting on your field with where you are at b/c that's where we're starting from. You may have lost aspects that are meant to be reclaimed or you may have years of spiritual growth that aren't yet showing up visually - so in this, you can get even FASTER RESULTS than many people. Usually, I work with people who are already quite advanced on their consciousness path of awakening or reunification. I also work on extreme energy health issues as well.

In any case; I would professionally (from here forward) value your ALLURE (and energetic health underneath and with it) as a CORE component of your social media marketing strategy in addition to the other basics.

You want people to FEEL that you're right for the job other than the 2023 California Secretary of Health where there's a somatic or cognitive dissonance.

Eating healthy is just PART of the equation of your 'general' wellness but with an ALLURE/CHARISMA centric transformational strategy we also get to work on your underlying energetic health and literal biological anti-aging.

What's also going to be happening is that PROFESSIONAL performance artists are going to become more aware and conscious of this variable to also start working on it more directly for MORE mastery and wild influence.

There are 'some' signs in pop culture here and there of awakening including in Lisa BLACKPINK's latest release 'New Woman' MV with Rosalia she says the keyword 'aura':

Charisma is absolutely a prime component of K-Pop for the men (and allure for women) with their heavy visual focus and LEGENDARY, phenomenal social media influence.

They're astoundingly epic with it and there are some places here and there who have started referring to their 'onstage' charisma in their writings. "stage presence", "undeniable charisma"

#IVE Shines at #Lollapalooza, Silencing Haters

IVE has proven their undeniable talent and stage presence with a captivating performance at the 2024 Lollapalooza:

https://youtu.be/OJ_kjBq3r18

The group faced significant skepticism leading up to the event, particularly in the wake of #LESSERAFIM's performance at Coachella. Online communities were abuzz with comparisons and predictions of IVE's potential downfall.

However, the young group swiftly silenced their critics with a powerful and energetic stage show. Their performance showcased exceptional vocals, synchronized choreography, and an undeniable charisma that captivated the audience. IVE's ability to connect with fans and deliver a memorable performance has solidified their position as one of the leading fourth-generation K-pop groups.

#Reactions:

- "When LE SSERAFIM bombed Coachella and IVE was set to perform at Lollapalooza, Koreans were like, 'Let's see how good you are, IVE,' and started criticizing them heavily. LE SSERAFIM fans were probably expecting IVE to mess up their live performance badly and then say, 'See, LE SSERAFIM was like an angel in comparison. LE SSERAFIM did well,' anticipating such reactions."
- "When I look at IVE and LE SSERAFIM, I can't tell which group is from a smaller company and which is from a bigger one. IVE is prettier, taller, has better figures, more talent, and their star quality, especially Jang Wonyoung and An Yujin, is on another level... hmm, haha. Starship got lucky with the members, but if their planning and production were at HYBE's level, they would truly be unbeatable."
- "I can't help but wonder how much they must have practiced... It's ENGAGING people from your live stage presence (or on camera, film) is CRITICAL for true success, generally speaking - and definitely pop success. MOST ALL of the great performers had it.

Michael Jackson (King of Pop) had legendary charisma as well; LOTS of Light and sparkly Luminescence (and actually we can go deeper into his Gene Keys and which SPECIFIC signatures of charisma he was emanating which then has an alchemical influence on the audience in his presence AND STILL DOES b/c it's encoded in his media decades later immortally).

So yeah; it's something you'll have to work on and HOW you work on it isn't going to come directly from soft-maxing your looks, body transformation, body language hacks and other social media tactics.

Having a big path to SERVE others helps you to SACRIFICE lower aspects and lower conscious aspects of self to make room for more of the power and beauty codes themselves to be painted through the signature of your soul and light body.

There's no hair-dryer 3000 for this work (ok maybe the equivalent, but not literally).

Any Beauty brands or products advertising a 'revolution' is B.S.

They're all under the glass ceiling of their own market paradigm and conditioning to serve skin-deep beauty mastery.

The only real Beauty revolution is with Allure. This is the final frontier and it's the entire other HALF of professional image and LIGHT.

Allure and charisma cultivation is its own world with different tools than the Beauty professional world as we know it has - which will fortunately amplify and pull everything together to BECOME THE MORE INFLUENTIAL SOUL-STARLET or STAR VERSION OF YOU.

You're further getting opened to that entire concept here. We simply use different tools but it all relates to your professional image.

I've been helping men and women with this for YEARS (with 100s of testimonials on-site)!

Vibe and Light-maxing yourself will help your users, fans, superfans, customers and clients to FEEL YOU and be more DEEPLY engaged and following you.

And in an attention economy THAT kind of deeper user engagement and even ride-or-die super-fans is INVALUABLE and priceless.
(Don't forget making FEELABLE first impressions before people keep scrolling).

I love Momo's

NAYEON "ABCD"

Nayeon with infectious light radiant allure.

Don't you want allure embedded into your visual legacy from the start?!

CHARISMA IS MAGNETIC b/c it also inspires people to be LIKE THAT themselves (and closer to source - which we're getting too ;).

Emanating light radiance FROM your chakras; sacral, solar plexus, womb, psychic, center ie. GETS THEM SOLD ON YOU.

And sold from THAT aspect within them vs. just being stuck in their ego channel of logic (or being creepily aware there's all these manipulative yellow-flag advertisers doing sketchy stuff to trick them into clicking)...

Plus, the more POWERFUL your amplitude (like a star/let) the more generally powerful the response and influence. Again; this is where the archetypes come in as well; to be mindful of.

We're going to talk more about aspiration throughout.

The more power the more influence. The more influence, the more there's SOME kind of power to return back to.

Here's Elvis at the comeback special;

Star-Showman at god-like levels that transcends decades and genres; it stands the test of time as a form of divine masculine incarnated through his soul in presence.

Not only that but in the astral realm (4D) of vibrational, Elvis has HURRICANE level wind/air power which does what energetically? IT STIRES UP A tizzy and frenzy in the soma-eros bodies, minds and hearts of legions of women...why? Because it's the DIVINE MASCULINE communicating to the awakening divine feminine (archetypal consciousness) within them!

(Mic drop)

Oh - and we can speak to his hairstyle and styling. (Oh). (picking mic back up)

Serving MILLIONS of people allows someone to cultivate more of that iconic, impersonal power and the universal qualities of it. We work on this in the Allure/Charisma package or in a smaller 3-pack of sessions directly.

You don't have to have THAT big of a vision in order to start reclaiming some of your lost aspects and cultivating new divine feminine feelable good vibrations in your visuals.

So;

If you desire to be a HOMING BEACON that bat signals your soul tribe clients with rapidly increasing engagement to you like a soul starlet where you THRIVE with rich visual media, this report is for you (so keep reading to pick out gold nuggets for yourself!).

If you're already a starlet-like beauty influencer at the peak of your game with a following, this (I daresay) is the evolution that will break the glass ceiling that you feel still exists with beauty (b/c it's always been more than skin-deep). It's what brings SPIRITUALITY into the picture as well and your divine feminine LIBERATION.

Cultivating your allure will take you into immortal levels of beauty expression that people can feel and be inspired by (even transformed by). This can give you comfort and legacy that will continue to live on (esp. b/c of 'the cloud' now).

After all;

ALLURE is organic clickbait!

Charisma is organic clickbait!

Clickbait with authenticity and integrity.

Here's 1 example of allure on youtube shorts that organically compels people to click. It's not just she has a cute retro-style, she's got allure that you can sense...she's actually what I call pre-Muse (archetype).

And that's with the CURRENCY, yes currency of allure (which includes the practical, feelable light spectrum of immortal and archetypal feminine beauty).

Could you benefit from having more 'gold' to exchange to soul-thirsty, heart-thirsty and beauty-thirsty consumers who want to be closer to the inspired beauty in you?

Once allure awareness takes off with other beauty influencers (look; Beauty as we know it is still going to thrive with new celebs and make-up lines, tequila brands, etc.) - I think people are going to be like 'FINALLY!'

Because all of it is directly relevant to instantaneous increase in user response with all media...and b/c beauty finally isn't just skin-deep and built on something closer to a house of cards.

So is it that I and Sexy Chi would 'change the game' per se?

Well, possibly in some ways yeah....however keep in mind that ALLURE and CHARISMA ALREADY IS CHANGING THE GAME and has for decades and decades...

We're just beginning to SEE it and value it more clearly for what it really is. Sexy Chi, Rion Kati (me) and the Muse Priestesses as well as some women I recommend in my circle with their own businesses, we're just kinda on the actual forefront OF WHAT I PREDICT will become a mega-trend.

I also predict there's going to be a growing demand for allure CONSULTANTS once this takes off! I mean the REAL THING...not image consultants 1.0 (and I respect it but this is something else).

Remember; I (myself) DO value fashion, style, designer brands (seriously; I have a healthy Italian footwear addiction) and such but there's more.

Charisma is my other half of image and I'm working on that professionally myself as well (I'm literally doing a few activations a month too).

Now - with allure...your BEAUTY BECOMES SOUL DEEP as the 'real thing' and it's an opportunity to express all of those other inner beauty qualities LIKE the most advanced starlets and performers in history.

The movie star version of yourself that captivates, enthralls and weaves HER enchantment effortlessly throughout your media - building an empire in alignment with your deepest and fullest expression.

That's allure.

Here's a golden age of cinema starlet who has some allure; Hedy Lamarr.

Allure Factor: 6.5

It's decent allure, but could be more expressed and 'lit' in her aura..her aura could be more transparent and breathable like having more particles in it that reach forward.

It's not her most 'brilliant' per se. You'll start to get a sense of this the more you reference other starlets who have it LIT. I've just assessed thousands of images over 2 decades so have more of a range-fan to know.

She has good embodiment here however (we can work on all of this and the BEST WAY is directly energetically with the chakras and aura).

You know that Ava Gardner not only has allure but we can go into SPECIFICS about her allure?

Her (and your) Human Design is part of that as well as her Gene Keys. It's all related to your ALLURE or CHARISMA directly.

She has the SAME energetic and auric (I-Ching based) profile as I do and there's a certain collective 'vibe' to her profile which affects HOW people relate to you.

Seriously, if you're not into Human Design or Gene Keys yet (AND how it is an elemental part of your allure) you'd be blown away.

I do readings, but we don't go into that now other than I'll say that Superman and Neo in the movies had the EXACT Human Design profile of their written character ARCHETYPALLY which helped make them a success. YEP. That's pro charisma shit and they weren't even aware of it!

If Christopher Reeve didn't 'embody' the character believably, it all would have failed.

That's charisma mastery stuff that we're now AWARE OF that we can work with. And that shit's archetypal. The 5/1 archetype is related to lines of the hexagram from the I-Ching as energetic behavioral imprint archetypes. I could write a BOOK on the 5/1 who is projected onto as the HERO.

When you are living IN alignment with your unique design, people will respond to your charisma more optimally.

Same with the Heroine archetype of Jennifer Lawrence's character embodiment and allure.

She's a 5/1 Human Design profile and her character is a 5/2 or 5/1 (Heretical, Investigator). The more experienced you get at reading auras, the more you will start to 'sense' the similar qualities of allure or charisma. The 5 line heretic comes with ADVANTAGES charismatically and disadvantages; but that's far too much to go into in this report.

I've done Facebook posts on stuff like this (following me yet? <https://facebook.com/rion.kati/> Ok enough for now; we work on all of this in the Allure Makeover package which also gets your custom reading.

If you dare to start becoming more feelable in your visuals with allure and working on it directly with a professional like me; you're going to see those who already love and follow you have even more compelling, excited ORGANIC engagement on your instagram posts, photos and videos!

You could risk working on it indirectly, but then your results would be more non-conscious and variable. Also you probably wouldn't know what to look for or what you're doing...that's ok, classic Beauty professionals have their areas of mastery and expertise but allure is something else.

With direct allure transformation work (literally on YOUR energy body); your ability and unique 'inner beauty' will be coming across like never before. There's no blow-out hairstylist master who is going to be able to do that. Respect the different tools for the different job, I say.

And remember; if you've done spiritual growth, it'll be a way to finally TRANSLATE it on camera without having to say words or speak about it (unless you want to).

Wanna hear something weird?

Even Napoleon Dynamite has charisma which is BRILLIANT b/c the character is anti-charismatic but this is also what gets you to feel 'sold' and engaged with his character and rooting for him.

Charisma is all about the vibes

Allure = #fomo inducing beauty in part b/c people feel holographically connected to you (your aura touches theirs)...you're connected to more powerful collective energies and yes, we're going deeper into why - I just wanted an extended intro/warm-up here to set the stage.

There's even an 'insatiability' light and vibe-truth that certain starlets give off like Wonyoung and Tiffany from SNSD that creates an ultimate thirst trap for hungry hearts and souls. Don't u want to leave 'em wanting more? Instead of growing tired of you?

Be mindful again that youtube and google GAUGE the metrics of user engagement and interactivity so in that sense it's measurable stuff; more subscribers, longer view times, more often revisiting but you can't put a price on organically inspiring your fans and clients to CARE about follow you without having to always remind them to 'take action'. When their hearts, minds and even sex are energetically SOLD on the gold that you value in your VISUALS alone, that's invaluable.

We can now work with your allure DIRECTLY to help you curate your holographic, feelable beauty that unleashes thirst-trap heart and soul desire to be connected with you whether you're the prettiest or not b/c people want AUTHENTICITY and they want to feel - connected.

Social media is a different beauty and the beast; to really thrive with facebook, instagram, tiktok and youtube where it's more challenging to 'sell' something upfront in a direct marketing sense...people are wary.

Yes, it's about ATTENTION...more viewers, subscribers which you can then potentially convert into customers based on your working models...Is it really 'information' you're marketing?

Well; just keep these other variables in mind if you're doing social media where VISUALS are central to communication and influence. They want to sense you're the real deal in most cases.

To get there to STAR like buzz (authentic; not manufactured); it's more than just algorithms, content creation and social media marketing to really thrive as an influencer before you're famous. It's more than just a hot 'pr' agency (of which you might self-sabotage anyways if you're not 'ready' for it which is also related with your current allure).

Allure is the ORGANIC, hidden variable that not only can you 'exploit' rightfully, but you SHOULD b/c it's actually your divine inheritance to COMMUNICATE your most AUTHENTIC self to influence others (even if you're on a budget or starting out). PLUS, the more allure rich content you put out there, the more it starts to build its own higher timeline LEGACY of influence that keeps working 24/7 for you. (That's also why I've held off on starting my instagram using FB as testing grounds until my charisma is mastered enough to be at a high starter standard).

YOUR SOUL TRIBE and SUPER-FANS want you to become the BEST version of yourself and FULLY EXPRESSED; they might REQUIRE YOU TO BE in order to be THE one who inspires and instigates them to have an effect on THEIR life change...even if it's just from a still photo with a caption from years ago; it can set them on the path (I've heard things like this a lot from past clients and people in my field).

I don't think you can go back from NOT getting into charisma transformation work if this is you from here forward. Just be mindful that 'regular' charisma coaches who are speaking to shifting your 'behavior', 'posture' and 'attitude' who can't even define charisma themselves, may not actually be the foundation you're looking for.

In gaining more attention; consider that you probably don't have $100ks or millions of dollars to spend producing a click-friendly Mr. Beast style video in order to get attention, you just have to have a smart phone camera or video camera to get going.

And it's not that he's not charismatic; he focused on other aspects like - from what I understand philanthropy was actually his core 'marketing' strategy or technique...but producing these expensive challenges may not be your thing.

You may not have the money to hire a PR firm to create a manufactured or semi-superficial buzz around your name and image and honestly; WITHOUT authentic allure to back-it up it's all more likely to fail anyways. The Logans are kind of a phenomenon as influencers and yet they got into actual boxing to give them more stability.

Think of how much possibility there is to live your ultimate lifestyle as an influencer on youtube! Passion is one of the key terms that charisma coaches might say and they're not wrong about it.

Think of pro comedians and an example like Gabriel Iglesias...put his WORDS aside and just focus on his presence...it's a presence that ALREADY ALLEVIATES tension. His vibe-truth is already doing magic so yes; his CHARISMA is central to his entire 'act' and career...his INFLUENCE. And he has that embedded through WHO HE IS and how/where he communicates.

His 'ATMOSPHERE' is like planet comedy in his presence so if you were just near him it'd start having a healing charismatic quality.

Mark Wiens does food vlogging and lives his best lifestyle...10.7M subscribers. He has (not only) passion, but actual charisma...he gets lit up around food so it feels like you're there with him and almost tasting things...he creates an experience. His charisma is infectious b/c his heart is in it and you can feel his vibe.

Even if you're already a celebrity looking for the NEXT LEVEL (I don't think you should feel shame about not having 'a real job' or being famous);

People want to FEEL and know you are who you are so you might actually have to grow INTO being that soul-starlet to let them confirm you're it.

That's with this concept of allure as well b/c it's important to know that real allure cannot be faked.

That's also why it's valuable and stands out when allure is really obvious like this K-pop idol (Jihyo);

Once you can see it 'so clearly' from 'alpha models' of charisma or allure, then it helps you to know what's possible (no matter your personal thoughts about them).

When you have it (to a minimum level); it's the stuff of star/lets and as we know - most everyone doesn't have it. Just look around at normal adults walking around; very personalized.

Allure is this 'larger than life' beauty and yet at the same time can be very intimate...that's also why you may want to get into the archetypes with your charisma transformation journey.

When they can FEEL your vibe and truth qualities (and your qualities magnified by collective archetypes; then they can decide (fast) if they're into you or not). They might not like your vibe-truth and that's fine too, but don't you owe it to yourself and your people to live into your FULLEST possible expression?

Having the values of your ideal soul tribe clients is important, but you should energetically represent that VISUALLY to them – so that everything FEELS in alignment to them and there's more of a magnetic gumption for them to follow you and engage.

Allure is where it's at to BE more influential visually (and live in person) and in this power report, I want you to continue discovering that for yourself. You have heart and soul qualities that you can now EXPRESS VISUALLY...this is that art and science form and it's all in the realm of visual anyways!

Yes; allure includes the world of archetypal beauty-influence that people can feel; starlet, queen, vixen, goddess, maiden, peace, majesty and other light-truth and vibe-truth qualities. If there are allure consultants out there who are NOT conscious of this nor working with the aura and energy body, I would daresay they're not actually full-fledge allure consultants (yet).

Charisma includes the immortal masculine qualities of Rockstar, King, Warrior, Eros, Dark Eros, Father, Lover, Magician, Jester, Valour, Honour, Majesty, Veneration, etc.

These are some of the QUALITIES of vibe and light truth you can embody and express.

Having the holographic and engaging effect of charisma ironically also makes them people feel CONNECTED to you vs. being a superstar that LOOKS the part but is energetically in their own world you feel disconnect and that they have higher status sure, but you don't feel like you could relate with them.

The mega-attention of fame itself people can look up to, aspire to and be envious of - but it doesn't mean you're going to CARE for your favorite stars and starlets intimately; but a phenomenon has already been occurring that has led to billions of views and rabid fan followings. That secret ingredient is allure b/c it gets people to energetically CARE for who they are following (on any scale). It lends relatability.

TSWIFT'S music is relatable and has a user-empowered 'heart-ownership' of the songs (but you may not have that).

Technically, there are k-pop starlets who are FAR more relatable somatically just from pure presence if we take away the song conditioning, emotional attribution and past history. (Remember; we value PRESENCE here).

Want people feeling like they're along for the ride? Emanate allure!

So, I know that it's kind of heretical to say that allure is the (future) CURRENCY itself of social media influence, but what if I'm right?

Can you afford to miss out on the wave; especially if it means having more influence starting NOW from your visuals (with responses you can gauge)?

I had one client with whom we did a Gene Key 35 Activation for her Evolution and she had by far the best response the next day from her prospects on a live zoom webinar she did. Her business was thriving.

I think that you may know this is true; charisma is the hidden secret reliably amongst the MOST influential people, stars and starlets anyways (b/c we couldn't clearly qualify charisma for what it is).

It's a more solid foundation than fame itself b/c it also relies on you being the best, authentic YOU vs. extrinsic masking, soft-maxing or fickle fame/attention dynamics. If attention is your foundation like fame, that can lead to all kinds of shadows and a downward spiral b/c you're relying on the attention itself to validate you.

That's not what allure is...allure rather gives you a more stable and scalable foundation to expand your visual and social media empire and brand mixed with the rest of your image, branding, etc.

I know for myself that my charisma allows the testament of who I really am to communicate FAR MORE words and literally 'sell' more in terms of influence AND literal selling with less work (in the photos and videos I release).

People want to know and feel YOU are the real deal esp. if you are in high-end client servicing. Not just LOOKING the part, but having THEM feel like you ARE the real deal on all levels b/c with people becoming more psychic, they'll sense if something is 'off' or incongruent and that can mean lost customer-ship or a lost sale even if it's just 'selling' the subscription button.

Socially....

When your IMAGE is everything (and this isn't just merely superficial), it's invaluable to finally be able to professionally work on cultivating your charisma.

If we could get into what the REAL thing of value is underneath it all so that you could start being RICH and viral-friendly (and without selling out your soul), would that be of interest to you? To START OUT with gold or introduce it into your visual media ASAP?

Good. Because we want to understand that as part of this science of visual influence.

Sure;

It's ATTENTION that you want with your online business or influencer-ship and the key is that instead of money; something else is being exchanged (deeper than just merely 'content') that is of the HIGHEST value (in all dimensions; sexually, socially, cosmically).

That is what we're exploring here and WHY. This report just might entirely change your paradigm and life from here forward.

We really want to know WHY some people have far greater INFLUENCE from their live presence and visuals. I did. How could they DO NOTHING even if they weren't famous and yet magnetize attention and attraction of people, sex, resources to them.

1Direction in their group prime is a great example of charisma. Take away the music, fame, styling and such and you'll still notice that they have FEELABLE PRESENCE that leaps off of the screen; charisma.

Not just good looks...And more specifically it's actually a signature of light called PRINCE.

They each have a lot of Prince charisma.

It's an impersonal, immortal and signature archetypal masculine power; and what do you think that's doing with millions of fangirls?

Attuning and awakening their Princess with how they FEEL around them...and then it amplifies around other princesses b/c the CONSCIOUSNESS and then self image, body language and confidence with it is sourced in the TRUTH of Prince. And that is a form of true POWER that weaves into mythic proportions and fantasies in the collective.

WHAT ARCHETYPES IS YOUR SOUL DRAWN TO EXPRESS?

Because that's with all of this allure work that will significantly increase your influence!

(If you're NOT communicating charisma/allure in your visual media; you may end up over-focusing on all these other areas and getting frustrated that people aren't naturally responding to you more).

Don't you owe it to your people to bring your BEST self forward whether it's highlighting more of Queen, Magician, Warrior or Starlet mixed with YOUR unique soul signature? ...so it can touch upon those aspects of your ideal clients b/c they FEEL it within?

This is the stuff BEYOND personal growth and 'positive thinking' by the way.

ARCHETYPES (which we're only touching upon here) are a core part of BEAUTY and POWER itself in the collective.

By cultivating YOUR feelability from images and video with more archetypal and siddhic allure; this way you'll be able to become directly rich in the GOLD of social media itself before the rest of the world has a clue.

Soon they're going to also realize that charisma is exactly where it's at. I think other beauty influencers are going to have that larger impact so we'll see who the first beauty influencers and celebs are to smartily (;) pick up on this future mega-trend.

Maybe it's time to scale your social, beauty and professional media influence NOW (like my clients who start reaping the rewards of soul tribe clients, higher priced program conversions, increased subscriber-ship and even getting recognized by celebrities).

There are many influencers who are THRIVING with allure, but don't 'consciously' realize that is the 'x-factor' itself...even different ASMR influencers I've seen have allure.

They just 'have it' and got there indirectly; partly b/c of being in serious and committed service to influence MANY people online, their own energy will tend to expand to be a source of radiance and nurturance FOR their people (indirectly).

I would think that indirectly is far too unreliable (I mean don't you want your OWN energy reading and to see what your current prime archetypes are?!;)

Not knowing how you're coming across from a professional perspective of where you're at right now even may be too much of a wildcard for you. Now we can work on it with allure consulting and transformation.

You might go about it from trying to adjust your body language or 'act' more confident when the secret to the BEST acting in the world is actually BEING it; where they EMBODY the character energetically and its believable. THAT'S the level we work on.

THAT'S CHARISMA work. REAL POWER INFLUENCES without TRYING to. And you want people feeling and believing you're who you say you are in a time where people are getting more intuitive and discerning.

Real power and beauty has transmutational impact IN STILLNESS.

And you know you've felt who was the most 'powerful' or highest status person in a room even though people weren't talking about it, right? People would look to that person to see what they thought about things. Status is tied into all of this and we're going to go deeper.

Often it comes with serving millions of people like how in talent competitions, a performer's charisma will open up more as they keep performing through closer to the end of the season like on America's Got Talent, The Voice, etc.

Their presence will start to come out to 'fill the space' so people are more engaged and feeling them in the audience.

Another example is with Dove Cameron, we'll traditionally focus on her physical beauty while bypassing that she also has the other component called 'allure' (although it could be improved to be more radiant and feelable).

Here she has an Allure Factor (on her possible scale of 10) of;

This allure breakthrough is also related to what I see as the inevitable evolution of Beauty and the Beauty industry; BIG money and also b/c we're becoming more consciously aware of the deeper, spiritual reality of power and influence: Beauty as a path of spiritual growth and reunification of inner beauty with outer beauty professionally.

THIS IS ABOUT THE PROFESSIONAL LIGHT OF YOUR VISUALS.
And that isn't merely skin-deep b/c you are more than your pruned hedges and trimmed body.

The air, weather, atmosphere and conditions of the meta-physical earth's aura are critically important to creating experience, not merely the physical body itself.

You might even start seeing more clearly there's a difference between 'pretty' and 'beautiful' which should embrace the visual-feelable component of allure itself (as radiance).

Think of skin-deep beauty (which you can't feel unless you TOUCH someone which is difficult online) as staying AT the person's body and allure as holographically reaching out THROUGH THE SCREEN to touch YOUR aura and chakras. YEP, MAGIC.

You can increase your sensitivity to tune into this other dynamic of communication that already exists; sentience to sentience whether all of you is conscious of it or not. Being more intuitive or psychic (not in the 1-900 future predictionary sense but in sensing the truth that already is) – can be invaluable.

There's plenty of other research and examples on the Sexy Chi blog.

The influencers who HAVE (influential) allure right now anyways often have massive followings and rabid fan bases. Having charisma/allure is part of what it usually means to be a starlet b/c you have to have energy to INFLUENCE more people socially (and emotionally, spiritually even on an individual at scale basis).

Beauty itself (and the Beauty industry) is too prime of a value to remain stuck under the glass ceiling of the current limits anymore because it IS entwined with ascension consciousness and the Divine Feminine.

You'll see how this connects together b/c as I've said for years, the current Beauty industry still can't even define 'allure' and 'charisma' accurately, while meanwhile on Knot's Landing, I've been doing allure makeover work for women for over 6 years).

The traditional approach to beauty influence is still coming at it from skin-deep mastery (incl. from beauty magazines); yet they don't necessarily understand the greater concept that not all light is literally visible in media; so we're going into this enough to make it all clear for you to leverage the 'currency' of allure from here forward.

Some of my clients have been smartly cultivating their allure for YEARS and reaping the aligned and embodied rewards of richer satisfaction, deeper attraction, intimacy and relationships, greater influence, fuller soul expression and satisfaction and in-self success (both live, in-person as well as in their social media online and overall visuals).

Radiating allure 'live' and in visual media gets people to feel not only closer to you but even to FEEL closer to Source. This aspirational value called 'the impression' of increase related to higher status and immortality is also what allure/charisma is all about.

It's also about TRANSCENDANT BEAUTY POWER AND INFLUENCE that reaches far beyond your personality quirks, degrees, stupid pet tricks or other talents.

After all; I would argue that allure (and not fame itself) is the secret of the most influential starlets - so we want to understand what it is and its place in the 'game' of the attention economy of social media.

Some people might hate beauty influencers for being famous for the sake of being famous or beautiful but remember; beauty is its own inherent value and yes, Kim Kardashian has some real allure; but her average 'Allure Factor' of around 7.0 could be improved (she has a lot of Goddess-Starlet embodiment however but her aura could 'breathe more').

So, we're going to talk about allure as the CURRENCY of beauty and social influence whether you're a beauty influencer or a conscious business-woman who realizes that communicating your SOUL signature alignment and embodiment in your visual communication is NECESSARY for authentic success, satisfaction, growth and recognition living your best life; you're in the right place.

You can cross-reference that charisma/allure is also the future MASTERY of performance arts entertainment as well (and engaging performances).

This is the real power game going on underneath everything; driving MARKETS and rabid consumer behavior (that many influencers and salesy marketeers DON'T authentically psycho-active in them - at least without subtle forms of manipulation) and we're finally waking up to it....this is b/c it goes deeper than we ever thought.

After all; Beauty is the highest status thing in the Cosmos.

Much of it all comes down to power and beauty, so we have to understand more of what power is and what is DRIVING HUMAN BEHAVIOR and things beneath demographic and psychographic algorithms or superficial beauty trends.

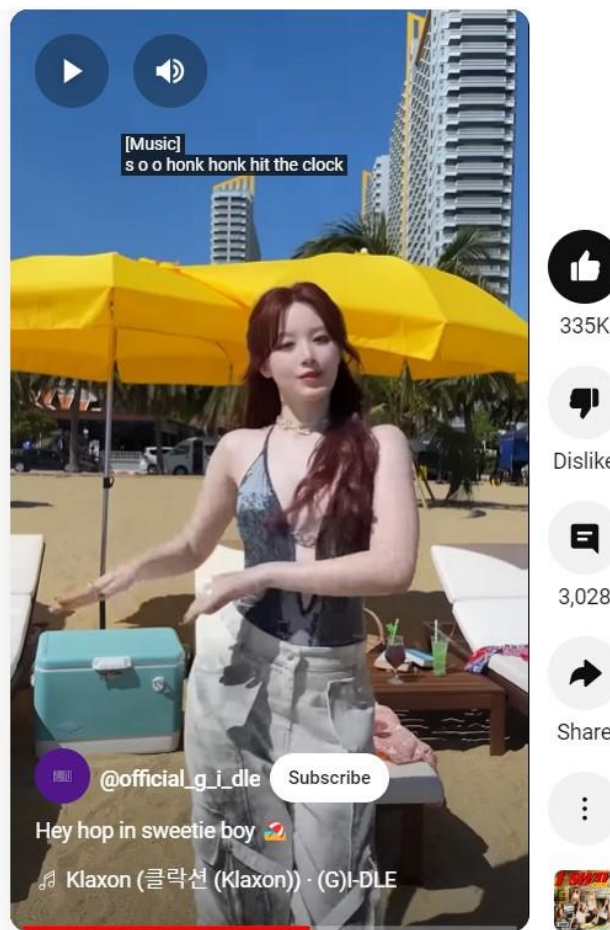

As far as Beauty; we've just had a lower dimensional and material understanding of it without consciously realizing its true spiritual, creative, transformational and sexual power OF allure. We valued it socially without bringing spiritual truth and dynamics INTO the social filter.

*"Baby, this is what you came for Lightning strikes every time she moves
And everybody's watchin' her" -Rihanna*

That's allure. It affects the sentient ATMOSPHERE and environment.

We're talking about if you make dance videos, getting FAR greater response and viewership b/c allure is actually the CURRENCY of consistent dance video success (meanwhile people were focused just on the trend).

I'll give more examples throughout so you can tune into it. There are youtube shorts videos getting 100,000's of LIKES and it's not just b/c some of the groups are famous, it's b/c of a stable component of the 'gold' itself that is being exchanged that you can also leverage LIKE a starlet to magnify your viewership as well.

(Not the exact same video link; it's hard to re-find sometimes)

Shuhua has a lot of spring-like water and air energy on just a quick note.

We're talking about exploding your engagement and viewership on facebook, youtube and instagram with your soul tribe and fam being in your orbit while being MORE of yourself without having to be a performing monkey or 'selling your soul'.

And if you don't know what's going on with K-Pop and their social media dominance - well, that's where much of my research is centered on because they are LEADING with allure and thriving like craZy with BILLIONS of video views.

Allure and the gold WITHIN IT is the main ingredient that we're not aware of collectively (as its own component).

Yes; there is talent and koreagraphy and such but you can't rely on that if you don't have 'it'. But you can develop the 'it' factor itself with cultivating your ALLURE (as separate but supportive to your skin-deep beauty maxing); the true secret of Beauty influence and even transformational beauty.

With Beauty in general socially; women are in a sense competing with each other for more of it (and status) while men are competing to connect with Beauty without realizing it. Most of this has been happening with a lower dimensional, superficial lens.

Thing is; when beauty is relegated to just how good you can look, it feels like there is a certain cap on things, doesn't it?

How about 'no cap' instead?! How about integrating archetypal feminine consciousness-truth into your live appearances, videos and transmissions to magnify your soul's expression vs. there being a split between looking good and running from your egoic intention? How about getting your dancing eros involved somatically!?

Meanwhile; corporate advertisers have been playing a lower conscious game, but some are arguably starting to catch on that allure is the highest value current and currency (and I'd argue the future currency itself).

Because 'going viral' has hidden aspects that marketers will never be able to reverse engineer because they're not aware of the real ENERGETIC (CURRENT) GAME that is being played and the underlying power dynamics beneath it. They're caught up in the superficiality.

This ties in to how I predict allure will be the CURRENCY of social media (not merely 'content'). Eventually people are going to get 'content-ed' out and all kinds of areas are going to be so saturated in so many market niches with competition - but you know what will ALWAYS BE VALUABLE?

BEAUTY. And Ascension. Allure raises people's experience closer to the Truth (of Source).

Because mortal beauty withers, IMMORTAL Beauty (with allure) weaves in and out of our lower social constructivism and its matrix to pierce through the Maya itself to lead coax them into coming home (we'll talk about this more).

Beauty is practically spiritual and DIVINE status weaved INTO the matrix of social status is why we feel there are stars and starlets b/c there ARE. (And how does a mortal man relate to such Beauty? HE CANNOT...from his mortal self).

And just to be clear, for the masculine; my prediction is that 'charisma' will be the prime social media currency not just to 'stand out' - but to have more influence (and benevolent POWER vs. force).

POWER THAT THE FEMININE RIGHTFULLY MISSES & CRAVES.

That is what ascensionary charisma work can do b/c it includes divine masculine reclamation (for those who want to work with that).

Once people start realizing this consciously and valuing it, I think that things are going to go crazy with the attention focused on pro allure and charisma consulting.

I've been preparing for years (and serving for years) leading the field. Behavioral charisma coaches may not be attracting the more serious clients who understand that the aura is practically part of allure.

I may have mentioned it but MOST charisma advice that is out there (imho) anyways is working backwards.

It's taking a reverse behavioral modeling approach kind of like how pick up artists would logically 'reverse engineer' what 'naturals' did with meeting single women and then teach it looking in.

It's not that there isn't good general advice out there that can really help a man with 'glow-up', posture or 'looks-maxing'. As we know, beauty magazines value allure and 'e', but similarly - they skirt around it by always coming at it from a skin-deep beauty maximization lens.

What's missing is the actual conscious competence and Science of Charisma (which we're likely to NEVER hear from classical scientists).

It's a different language really; because we're talking about the photonic LANGUAGE OF LIGHT, power and beauty itself; that which isn't limited to just physical power and influence. Vibe truth has KINETIC and spatial influence differently than just the world's heaviest deadlift record holder.

Charisma is like the hidden POWER of influence that we haven't been exactly as aware of so we just speak 'around' it and non-consciously...well that AND it's kind of been hard to measure for marketers or advertisers (but it still represents the PINNACLE of influence in performance entertainment like acting and live music as well as advertising).

Marketers will look at other components in measuring an ad or posts response online or in commercials for example; matching demographics and psychographics and yet they instinctively know that they still want to get the 'feel' and 'vibe' right...just think of cruise line commercials.

It's not just about 'looking the part', it's about capturing a vibe, toning the experience and getting consumers to feel it. That's the realm we are now consciously into mastering with charisma consulting and transformation. (Hey; I'm available even for commercial hire and am positioning myself as the world #1 charisma/allure consultant)

In image related industries; beauty, image consulting, commercial and video marketing, charisma/allure is the secret wildcard variable that can help make or break success. It just wasn't recognized as THE (or 'a') key variable.

Most importantly; it will be invaluable in the long-run for influence and legacy.

Why do you think people are still into Marilyn Monroe and Eva Gardner, etc.? Because they had timeless and CAPTIVATING beauty that didn't seem human; not just fame for the sake of fame and not just 'talent'. They had allure and allure is IMMORTAL b/c it's not limited to the physical body fading; it's the ATMOSPHERE remember? ;)

THE BEAUTY OF YOUR SOUL...

So your path to reclaim and express allure may include getting the energetic alignment, believability and congruency all together as well as getting people to FEEL those mirror emotions and sensations within their somatic experience and excitability in real time.

Mostly; if you are your own brand, you don't have to think exactly like an ad agency...mostly you might just want to be your truest authentic self and living your highest timelines.

With allure, your people will be able to be more responsive and engaged with you naturalistically.

If you're in a form of business, you may still want to know who your ideal customer is but by simply improving your allure, you will notice deeper and greater response from everything you are doing.

More clicks, likes, engagement, subscribers, referability, viral-friendliness, conversion/sales and growth.

Here's a statement from one of my clients who has done more than several sessions with me and had a long-standing TikTok account:

"(I've Gone Viral!)...My Channel's Multiplied All Of A Sudden Since Working With You (Like It's Correcting Previous Timelines)"
-Female Tiktoker 3 Package Client, 2023

As far as visual expression; we're talking about the ENTIRE realm of divine feminine qualities...so to MASTER expression without words, allure is where it's at too. Let's not even get into 'eye smiles' or

'Aegyo'; 애교

“Aegyo in Korean is a normalized gendered performance that involves a cute display of (ALLURING) affection often expressed through a cute voice, changes to speech, facial expressions, or gestures. A similar expression is Gyotae.”

Sunny (Girls' Generation); masteress of aegyo

As I'll go into (in this extended warm-up);

We'll have to uncover WHAT allure is, what power is, what beauty is and what's driving markets in a most truthful way yet. There may even be moments that trigger you.

(I've taught on this for years btw and yet there are entirely new codes I'm transmitting here for this report that bring extra clarity and powerful awareness in a cross-over sense to the public).

As we'll discover more; beauty is more than skin-deep and if we just rely on fashion trends and things like that, it feels like something closer to a collapsible house of cards in a time where people are seeking deeper connection (and yes; you can look great too).

Trends (like the Stanley cups)

..and FAME can be fickle and you'd ideally want a more solid foundation that is scalable to be your TRUEST and yet most beautiful, influential self anyways.

I ain't even gonna get a 'tickle me elmo' visual...u can picture that instead.

Remember; we're talking about a 'thing of value' (and actual 'substance') as the currency here.

ALSO; can you really rely on something unpredictable and viral like becoming the flash in the pan 'hawk tuah' or 'raygun' meme girls? Sure, they can leverage their insta-fame BUT can you beat the odds with being an anomaly like them?

It's better to work on the stable foundational elements that you can control I'd say.

And in addition to what you KNOW about as a social media influencer; we're talking about allure/charisma which allows your unique signature SOUL qualities to come across VISUALLY so people can get a feel for you and get engaged organically.

In discovering and realizing that allure is the stable, foundational KEY and future-proof CURRENCY to maximizing your beauty influence from your content in an attention economy; you won't have to rely on being famous and instead you can start leveraging the real secrets of beauty influence itself right away to become a star/let in your own right....and then SCALE it to the stars!

You could soon be 'exchanging' the real, secret thing of value in otherwise 'digital social media' that will reap infinite rewards. It has to do with that 'e' word coming up (that to me the Beauty magazines, blogs and brands could NEVER actually describe).

So let's explore this more because we are now in a future-proof era of social media. Social media connects the world and if you're just working hard to create more content, that alone may not be the MAGIC SAUCE that's missing to COMPEL people who are enthralled and responsive to your effortless beauty, spiritual sex appeal and magnetism.

'Marketing' itself in an ATTENTION ECONOMY has to be re-thought in many ways; especially the visual marketing of social media influence and business.

We've heard that Beauty isn't merely skin-deep. Physical beauty (and the fitness industry as well) is half of the equation.

And Beauty (in general) is its OWN INHERENT VALUE.

As much as it will piss off some envious red pill bros; beauty doesn't have to 'do' anything or agree to 'coffee is for closers' work-a-holicism in order to have influence.

Beauty is basically the most valuable thing in the cosmos and on earth as we're going into things more profoundly.

We're going to go into WHY - and the core of it may shock you b/c it's basically the highest value concept that is possible throughout all of time and this is what is largely driving the markets. Sex is part of it however it's more profound than that.

Now;

It's not that I'm in favor of what some would say a superficial market of talentless hacks as far 'beauty influencers'.

No. Beauty influencers can be beauty influencers b/c beauty IS valued. (I think it's time to evolve the game however).

Social media allows people to be influencers even without talents or skills per se and that's the beauty of this frontier...BUT WHY?...well...

It's even less about 'what you do' and more about who you ARE that radiates and emanates. So I can't ever hate on beauty influencers who many people would say should 'get a real job'. Social media allows many people to become influencers and live their DREAM LIFESTYLES.

I respect anyone that thinks like an entrepreneur and brings real value (beauty in all forms is inherently valuable).

Don't ever be ashamed of being an influencer for people value role models, icons and those that can INSPIRE them along their own path of growth, status and spiritual evolution.

I'm working on levels with TRANSFORMATIONAL BEAUTY and helping women even develop alchemical priestess level radiance or rockstar charisma of their OWN signature. I can help anyone improve their charisma or allure DIRECTLY and in blazing fast time.

Beauty can inspire and awaken something within others that wants to be closer to you. OH - AND IT'S SPIRITUAL. Light itself is metaphysical (both in EMF and in 'the other spectrum').

As your allure grows, your beauty consciousness and enlightenment itself grows, not just the pleasing-ness of the light of your visuals.

It's the energy of that which is part of all of this.

Charisma itself isn't about 'personality' (or talent) per se; it's about your ability to be FELT from your presence and visuals.

It's about the light radiation of signatures of Beauty and POWER that are mostly impersonal.

(Remember I'm taking open space here to try on translating things more to the public and you're part of this alpha-test experiment so thanks for giving me the room)

Talented artists have a reason to have a social media following. If you don't have talent, skillz to pay the bills or great looks and you're not into 'content generation', you're also in the right place b/c we're getting into WHY beauty has power and influence that you can rightfully maximize.

So if charisma and allure are the CURRENCY of the future of beauty and social media (and other influencers are starting to become AWARE of this like skynet coming online) - and is already active NOW, let's refocus on that. This is the good skynet that we want; charisma and allure having deeper impact and awesomeness in the world and heavens.

Currency is usually known as the tangible medium of exchange like money.

While; with social media it's not directly 'money' as the medium of exchange between the person, you or a starlet, the content and the follower, fan or customer.

We could still think of ATTENTION as the currency - and that's fair (and paid ads literally pays for attention - but again; I'd rather view it as an attention ECONOMY).

What is the deeper thing of value being exchanged on a deep subconscious level?

We might also THINK that (esp. with beauty influence and virality) CONTENT could be the currency, but that doesn't directly apply to BEAUTY INFLUENCE (and influencing from fullest soul visual expression to soul tribe clients).

So if the meta-dynamic of social media is attention; how can you help DRIVE attention by maximizing your INFLUENCE effortlessly? Sure, there are marketing gimmicks and strategies to more explicitly acquire 'attention' from within the platform but again; we're focused on the CURRENCY throughout and beneath it all that can help make you rich.

We're talking about you attracting DEVOTED followers and soul tribe fans even if you have NO TALENT or niche marketed content!

How can you have powerful, deeper influence in your social empire by doing nothing? THAT'S WHAT STARS DO. They have the it factor that people just KNOW and FEEL about them and how they are 'styled' is an after-thought to how people FEEL them. The styling was never the prime thing itself.

And if you think you have to be famous in order to have that kind of influence, I can dispel that myth right here. You know that you've FELT someone who had charisma or allure when they walked into a room.

You felt them in your body, maybe even in your bones or your womb and got all tingly around their power right? And you wondered "WHO ARE THEY?!" But you couldn't label them as anyone famous.

They simply had 'it'. What did they have?

No... ;) they had...

CHARISMA. (Or allure).

It's a variable most stars have.

And you can too HOWEVER, it's going to take some specialized work. Doing the same extrinsic beautification could actually create more of a 'mask' or barrier between people being able to feel you.

You might even have imposter syndrome in insecurity with what we could the difference between 'inner beauty radiance' and how you look.

I want to help evolve that understanding of what it really is to finally embrace the magical KEY within allure that is of inherent value and also because it gets YOU closer to Source and can bring you riches, resources, provision, freedom and spiritual liberation living your best timelines in your FULLEST expression.

Really bringing and living as heaven on earth even.

I'll include a few more obvious examples of influencers who have the GOLD itself now and wild success so you can start to tune into it. A reminder that this is the first edition and I might have to update it more often.

(I'll mention it again but I, myself have things thriving on Facebook in business and leveraging charismatic photos of myself - but have still chosen to wait to start Instagram until I'm more fully prepared for debut (soon). I've been working on my own charisma actively for years btw).

To think smart as an influencer realizes that investing in yourself and your ability TO influence people is really meant to be part of 'the game'. But we're talking INFLUENCE on all dimensions; more influence in the same video or photo workflow you already have - and really, like the movie star version of you.

Why wait for 3D holograms when you could still be FLAT in your aura emanation and when you can have 3D, 4D, 5D+ communication now?!

Keep your styling products and fashion sense, but when you realize more about allure, you'll see that you have the entire HALF of Beauty to keep curating (AND you can get instant response from your current social network).

You also want to start viewing and valuing allure and seeing it everywhere (clues to this are throughout)...even in movies like another scene in 'The Firm' where he's walking on a beach and then an incident happens...you (er, rather 'I') could FEEL their presence and the quanta between them...the chemistry which made it a very believable and engaging scene. I won't even put a picture or youtube clip here; it's just if/when you see that movie to look for that scene.

So you can improve YOUR ability to experience reality holographically (more psychically accurate, emotionally and spiritually implicated).

Remember; superficial beauty is like FLAT on the person separate from you that you project your thoughts and judgments upon and make assumptions, etc. whereas allure holographically leaps off of the screen forward into affecting your energy body itself.

Knowing all of this and cultivating your own you-as-brand and intellectual property (IP) market value can set you far ahead in an era of scrolling and swiping for attention - with the ability to have people open up and be compelled to follow you without manipulation.

After all you don't want to come across as desperate or 'efforting' for attention do you? That ain't cool anyway. I see semi-fraudulent click-baity headlines on youtube more often even on channels I used to respect and that lower dimension isn't where we want to go....I want your beauty to INSPIRE and compel your people to be on the journey WITH YOU!

ALLURE LETS YOU ORGANICALLY, soulfully, and gently have greater influence without having to be the loudest or most annoying attention-seeker in the room. If you're an introvert, this is good news anyways.

Imagine; having your own starlet ecosphere around YOUR vibe truth, image and branding!

So let's revisit that one point...

I think that it's best that we look at social media influence as an influencer (or maximizing your soul-aligned business) with your visuals as an economy; an attention economy.

BILLIONS of people are on Facebook, youtube, tiktok and instagram; and yet, it's not explicitly MONEY that is being exchanged UPFRONT. Consumers and fans are sensitive to explicit advertising from people they don't trust.

Joe Rogan built his following of ATTENTION for years and then got a massive multi-million dollar pay day from spotify. His thing was long-form interviews...that may not be your thing but I'm just highlighting that he has a lot of power as a culture taste-maker by having so much attention.

Social media and building a you-brand following can LEAD to money through brand sponsorships, ambassadorships, affiliates and client conversion for your business. It can be central to marketing a soul-centered business or for a star to reach their fans, etc., but it's not money being explicitly exchanged.

So I'm just going to assume that you want to grow your followership and engagement with however you may or may not be monetizing.

As you know; you can really cultivate your own brand AS an influencer...you may already be one (and your visuals are everything).

So if allure is the currency itself of Beauty and social influence (and charisma for men); just how much of it could you have, hold, give or exchange?

(For money, followers, status, aligned business success all from being your TRUE authentic self)

And this has to do with the concept literally of star and starlet. THEIR POWER IS magnified beyond the power of uno. We think they're 'one' person but when MILLIONS of people are interacting with a star's field they have all kinds of influence and can even affect culture.

TWICE is a perfect example with it seems at least 1000 different videos where every single one they're styled differently but every FREEZE-FRAME is over-flowing in allure and each video averages say 4 minutes long of live or MV studio performances x 1000s of frames x 1000 VIDEOS x 9 members = an amount of divine feminine transformational Beauty that is STAGGERING in quanta.

Their active success and legacy is encoded with allure since they debuted.

So the concept of meta-physical influence here; influence from stillness with allure or charisma has to do with RADIATION (really, 'radiance').

It's just that the sun's radiation is sourced in our EMF (electromagnetic frequency) spectrum and YOUR light-radiance is sourced in a different spectrum entirely. It's the same concept when you view your light body (not just your physical body b/c you are a soul in a human vessel) as like a star...you actually can emit RADIANCE itself that people can FEEL. (Again; this comes FROM your chakras which are energy centers in the body and your aura or light-body field atmosphere around your physical body).

Instead of the 'e' word coming up, you might actually be emitting 'creepy vibes'. Haven't we all FELT that before?

That's 4D/astral communication (vibes are '4D'); we just don't normally focus on it as that b/c of our focus on the physical. But I think you want to master your vibe-truth b/c digital media itself; your visuals (even when PRINTED) are meta-physical light and include encoded astral vibe-truth (which can be kinetic).

Charisma is when and where people FEEL your vibes and light. It's how they're reacting and affected by your energetic and non-verbal communication (mostly energetic).

You know this is true b/c you've been around unsafe people with weird vibes...maybe a homeless person yelling at a bird (no judgment here, just an assessment) and you could sense their 'vibe'.

Maybe you found yourself saying 'I like her vibe' or found someone with a peaceful vibe. Ariana Grande uses the word 'vibe' in different songs.

Well, that's the 4D 'astral' layer of energetic communication we have. It's your ability to influence people vibrationally from your presence. It's more of a kinetic feeling.

Often times, you'll catch a strong 'vibe' from male prisoners for example. A lot is being communicated without words...and no; it's not just 'body language' or 'posture' (eye roll).

(Again; we don't always be 'consciously' aware of this underlying energetic truth dynamic...and they do have a certain FORM of power btw). The more psychic you get, the more you can feel what groups of people are thinking even (not explicitly in a compromising way, but to tune into the general flow and stuff like that).

It's just easier to see with extreme examples to start tuning into things...I could post a picture of a female domestic abuse mother in her mugshot or a serial killer but I'll just have YOU visualize that and know that you can sense something 'vibe'-wise from them.

It doesn't mean it's the highest frequency if you can feel someone; but it can still be strong in amplitude and also mixed with shadows (still I generally refer to allure as HEALTHY with something higher-self behind it).

Or like when someone gets really angry and then is silent, you can feel the heaviness 'vibe' in the room (like if you walk in after). We're not even going to talk about egregores in this report as psychic aggregates in the astral realm.

Think of the atmospheric vibe of a funeral for example. (I'll let you visualize that – but how often do we live from more of those psychic-truth senses?)

Your aura has these different layers of light and vibrational emanation...we're just not used to sensing and experiencing these other realms and frequencies that already exist all around us (but psychics, intuitives and lightworkers do – more often).

And there's also your 5D+ Light-body which also radiates frequency. The multi-dimensional subtle energy body around you is usually called your aura.

YOU ARE ALWAYS COMMUNICATING whether you know it or not...why not master all of this! (Check out 'e3' later for 'how' we structure pro charisma consulting).

Your aura and chakras (which are multi-dimensional) are related to supporting and inter-weaving with your physical body. Without going TOO deep into it here;

This is COMMON knowledge in spiritual and Eastern circles (although it's not very accepted in Western science which doesn't believe we are souls in a human body but); this is what allows you to RADIATE. (I mentioned before there are different auric designs throughout the human population which we can actually 'read' and work with, not just vaguely refer to).

Authentic allure consulting MUST really include conscious work with the aura.

That's how you know someone MIGHT be the real deal or not; otherwise, they're just working around the real work itself to hopefully have an effect imo.

More powerful stars have more powerful influence from RADIATION (or radiance in our case), b/c what we're talking about isn't limited to your skin deep beauty or 2" of bio-photons that science says you have...it's something else. How else could you FEEL people from across the room? It's from their aura and chakras which are the platform and channels OF charisma and allure.

So as we go deeper; I want to highlight that social media is META-physical media.

All visual beauty converted to digital media is also non-physical or meta-physical, but still has power and influence without having to be 'in person' locally. THIS DOESN'T MAKE SENSE from a technical photographic perspective of working with light, so we have to see the bigger picture.

Visual media we're talking about is essentially image and light; but there's a deeper POWER dynamic underneath it (when we remove words and 'sales copy').

So we'll have to go deeper into the truth of 'Light' itself, b/c it's not merely 2D pixels, aspect ratios, outdoor or studio lighting and good looks that people are responding to and organically 'buying' or being influenced from.

It's not nuclear photonic EMF radiation that you're emitting; it's something else that has power and influence on the CONSCIOUSNESS or sentience of others and HOW it affects them (it's just easier to see with POWERFUL, clear examples).

There is (I submit); another spectrum of Light entirely and it is that of DIVINE SENTIENCE; the eye of God and Goddess as the Witnesser with and through us all.

See;

As aforementioned; looking and POSING like a goddess isn't the same as RADIATING like one where people feel and KNOW you are an embodied and integrated goddess (with Her qualities accepted); to feel it in their bones, blood and cells that you are a goddess is an entirely different level of power.

I don't think you want to be known as a poser do you?

Because the REAL power and beauty is with the obvious. STYLING was really only SECONDARY the whole time is what I propose (and it's important too; I love style myself).

You will after all be tested by other truly powerful and beautiful people to know if you really are what you're presenting yourself as...and that's what will open NEW doors and opportunities to you being authentically powerful and beautiful.

That's where presence and allure comes in as the 'real deal' and high status currency itself; not just of our social reality but literally of the divine. For people to FEEL the Sage-Queen Medicine Woman for example or Eros-Lover TRUTH around your presence and the ATMOSPHERIC conditions it creates in other people's experience.

So we're getting to that 'e' word which is the core of allure which is what is being valued, sought after and 'exchanged'. It is the currency of allure. Do you have an idea what it might be?

Etcha-gram? Echo-tronics?

E.coli? Envelopes? Encaphalographics?

Keep reading to find out!

So we're talking about the CURRENCY that is being EXCHANGED that ISN'T money, it's something else in an attention economy. And you know what there's a CURRENT like an electric flow with things.

Allure and charisma are a CURRENT and currency that are running throughout social media.

It's bringing the BANDWIDTH of power and beauty itself (sourced) into COMMUNICATION and social interactions.

And we talked about cousin it being related to your energy body and that light-radiation (radiance) as being sourced in something other than EMF light.

That's why there's a difference between photonic (emf) non-sentient light and what I call sentient-light (photonic).

But let's hold THAT thought for a while to help you process. This actually GETS DEEP into a different worldview of SCIENCE VS. PRACTICAL SPIRITUALITY BTW.

Let's take a breather in a different direction.

"Ok; so allure and maximizing beauty influence has something to do with 'sex' b/c 'sex sells' though right? And that's related with my energy body?"

Absolutely, although not explicitly; 'sex sells' indeed for mainstream pop. 'Sex' and ideas, feelings, associations around it has powerful emotional and sexual influence...it's not always explicit or even necessarily erotic in order to have 'sex sell' with allure.

It's something more profound and yet nuanced than explicitly as sex sells (I mean that's porn); but it is within it indeed.

How'd you like to be MORE sensual and sexual while being LESS visually provocative? That's some advanced, sophisticated communication all available with feminine allure.

This comes across (when it does) as the 'e' word in your allure or charisma NOT just how other people are projecting of how 'hot' or 'pretty' you are physically.

Remember; we're talking about INFLUENCE and really, 'attraction'...magnetism, inspiration that compels ATTENTION. ALLURE is light radiance that people can FEEL emanating from you like a starlet (WITHOUT having to rely on talking at all).

So is allure related to sex and sexiness? Well...

We know that in advertising beauty and 'sex sells'...it has conversion power and influence (aside from more obvious examples like strip clubs and porn); but we may not be tuned into the more conservative or elegant forms of that...or on what BANDWIDTHS of communication and influence they're occurring...OOoooh...yeah, juicy. Most aren't conscious of that, they're just RESPONDING.

Non-explicitly 'sex' and 'sexual energy' has sold BILLIONS through product advertising of the core psycho-spiritual drive of the masculine to 'mate' we'll say for now.

Inherently; there is a core drive to have higher status, to procure more beautiful offspring and ensure their security and survival to thrive....ok, but is there something more conscious to it all that you can (not manipulate per se) but fall in alignment with of the grand currency itself with?

(I have to warm you up to a bigger 'reveal' here)

So yes; charisma and allure is CONNECTED TO SEX, magnetism and attraction.

But the currency isn't just sex or 'sex sells'...it's something more, well SPECIFIC...we're getting there...it's not as 'crude' as you might think either b/c it's about the ENERGY (and these other bandwidths of communication and current-value that are outside of ROYGBIV that we're focused on).

So how can you leverage 'what sells' to have more SOCIAL power and influence? Does it mean all of a sudden getting extra sexual to a point where you feel uncomfortable or selling a piece of your soul just to gain attention?

No!

(Keep reading)!

Aaaaahhh.....

And btw; yes I work on people's crown chakras in every transformational appointment session!

Ok....The way I'm doing this is so that you can start to piece different elements of the puzzle together for yourself in a discovery sort of way.

After introducing that allure is radiance (and higher dimensional light) of your energy body (not just physical body) and that light is also always in your visual media representing your 'vibe' and light-truth...

Let's boil down the SIMPLICITY of the drivers of BEAUTY and beauty influence. This will help pull together the more advanced and nuanced understanding of 'sex sells' and to new dimensions.

Advertisers after all manipulate emotion to 'get response' maybe TOO much (that we can often see the PROGRAMMING influence esp. with politics going on) and a lot of people aren't aware of their programming relationship with it; but what we're talking about is giving you Morpheus level powers of awareness to be Neo or Trinity in the matrix with Divine Beauty and sovereignty.

So...with Power and Beauty - much of it has to do with STATUS and the bio-urge to procreate and ensure expansion of life. For simplicity's sake let's just remove MONEY or Wealth as a form of power and keep focusing on your visual central image itself.

Men psycho-sexually want to sleep with beauty.

(Men being visually oriented has something to do with this all as well)

In general;

Women (subconsciously are driven to) want more status and beauty to have choice with the most powerful, high status men...to ensure survivability, resources and thrive.

And I wouldn't call men psycho or guilt them for that psycho-sexual, social and biological drive.

Here's the thing;

It's not only a biological, primal urge but also spiritual and SOULFUL...there's a key concept we're getting into with this b/c it's actually PROFOUNDLY spiritual and this isn't the awareness that we've properly had around the game of (marketing and) influence yet.

But more realistically, instead of sleeping with women explicitly; it's the ENERGY of sex and beauty that is with the CURRENT of exchange and value (which exists ABOVE THE VISIBLE FREQUENCIES OF ROYGBIV)...

It's this non-visible yet REAL higher frequency bandwidth (like gamma raves instead of ROYGBIV) of powerful attraction and CONNECTION....it's these other areas of CONNECTION that hold some honey-baked golden crispfried breadcrumbs.

Remember that as a soul you exist in multiple dimensions (also common spiritual knowledge but not to common folk). You have access to higher bandwidths of information/data, power and beauty but aren't always CONSCIOUS of it.

HUMAN IMAGES ALSO RELAYS THOSE HIGHER BANDWIDTHS.

And in photos of dead people (hey, it's out there); that 'higher information is gone' and you REALLY are only seeing the PHYSICAL body. OH shit...yeah, I told you this is deep and pulls a lot together.

B/c it's the greater energy (or higher bandwidth) current of 'sex' (and meta-physical); that means it can be safe for married men and women to sometimes secretly fantasize, be affected by or be inspired by the energy of others 'meta-physically' (like with entertainment and social media).

SEXUAL ENERGY IS CREATIVE ENERGY.

This isn't just about sex ed week and reproductive, biological capabilities here.

But when he's VIEWING your body and not FEELING your radiance, it's more of a personalized dis-connective projection that goes well with objectification (and it's pro's and cons at the level of the current - mass conscious - game).

However; when he can FEEL your radiance emanation of your higher dimensional (4D Vibe) and 5D+ Light radiance, he's more likely to FEEL connected and care for you b/c now you're in the SENTIENCE GAME of the DIVINE itself AND ITS REALMS OF POWER, ATTRACTION & INFLUENCE.

You're in the higher band-width of REAL BEAUTY which is the alchemical language of Sentient-Light. (Maybe re-read that one again!)

With your spiritual beauty and ITS sexual dynamic, you're communicating SPIRITUALLY to the HIGHER SELFS/SELVES/elves ABOVE ROYGBIV frequencies - of people through your media SPEAKING and appealing to their higher aspects and divinity without words. Yeah.

VISUAL Communication is on higher levels simultaneously.

The pizza's done in the oven.

Ok...we've got more to go through, fine... ;)

Maybe another Corona first...

So (b/c of these higher aspects of 'live' communication which are also encoded visually - which would be IN an intimate relationship ANYWAYS with your communication); your allure itself actually TEMPLATIZES YOUR RELATIONSHIP and constellates it with the masculine (and the markets) more than you ever thought.

This is because YOU are communicating on levels more than just physically. Also why we can FEEL light and vibe-truth power from people who really have it and it can take our breath away or heart skip a beat.

(space to process sum of that)

And having allure allows you to communicate psychically, soulfully, spiritually and META-SEXUALLY...archetypally sexually to your soul tribe AND THEIR HIGHER AWAKENING ASPECTS in micro-seconds FAR more information and value than just how you look and determining status from there.

The quanta in your crown could be OVERLOADING people with ascension heavenly rich value that they cannot explain but are just DRAWN to (ascend) and/with you b/c you hold CODES to their own ascension.

Don't you want that accessible in your visual communications?!

They may not be conscious of it, but there's a spiritual and sexual gravitron attraction and attention TO YOU (when you have this higher dimensional 'substance' which can include archetypal power and beauty).

If you have value conflicts around sex and beauty (and really the higher truth of them which gets spiritual); chances are you aren't maximizing the level of influence you could have unless maybe you're running the crochet and cats club of the month and just don't even care to.

There can be MANY blocks to the HIGHER levels of spiritual beauty and power play that is simultaneously happening amongst the collective consciousness.

If you already feel too objectified and/but are playing the game, well...allure brings in all the depth of heart, sex, mind, body, spirit and soul COMMUNICATION and influence on THOSE COMPONENTS of your soul tribe, followers and prospective soul mate.

ALLURE GIVES YOU another level and dimensions of COMMUNICATION entirely. It psycho-activates people on THOSE respective levels that YOU are activated in. (And this includes influencing from your heart, sacral, etc.)

Communication is not merely logical or on a mental channel...we've again – just not been conscious of the sexual, spirit-sexual, eros-soma, psychic and spiritual levels of communication.

(Don't worry; we can still 'READ' these qualities visually like from the archetypes and even gauge them on a 1-10 scale for power and beauty embodiment).

Fortunately; with cultivating your allure, you can directing and through time resolve a lot of your blockages around transmitting your AUTHENTIC soul and archetypal beauty and radiance (and the influence of your consciousness in Heart, Mind, Sex and Spirit).

It's just going to take some work b/c you'll hear me say this again - you cannot fake real allure...people will know especially the more often they have felt people who really do have 'the power'.

Why would you just want to communicate to their logical channel and keep them OUT of their soma/body from here forward?!

So let me state the drivers in another way for the new pledges out there gathering at Dean Pritchard's former residence.

Men want to REUNIFY with Beauty (this word means far more than it might seem).

They want to connect, be worthy to relate with, sleep with and energetically penetrate or impregnate Beauty itself (but not merely or 'only' physically)...this may not be 'literally' but it's more the CREATIVE ENERGY itself; the deeper SOULFUL and even SPIRITUAL drive which we're going to talk about more.

It's his HIGHER SELF whether he's in touch with it or not that is COMPELLED. (Most modern men aren't yet awakened to this).

It's related with this concept of 'sex transmutation' that Napoleon Hill in 'Think & Grow Rich' talks about.

Sure;

Just looking good can inspire people in a superficial way but when they can FEEL your radiant beauty they have something TANGIBLE to them in consciousness that is bending and twisting, awakening good things WITHIN them around you. They've got more heart, sex-energy and skin in the game b/c they FEEL YOU just from your visuals or live presence (rather than only relying on your words).

For straight men;

It's not just the desire to 'bang' women physically with primal urges (cue eye rolls); there are DEEPER aspects to the collective masculine psyche sexually, spiritually, soulfully, emotionally and psychically that are PART of this greater 'game' of attraction, power, status, sex and influence. That INFORMATION is also being shared about you in your visuals.

When we REMOVE the physical and the aspect of your male followers ever having a chance with you (for argument's sake), the rest of influence is non-physical anyways.

YOUR ALLURE HELPS TO ACTIVATE AND ENGAGE ALL OF THOSE QUALITIES in masculine and in other women (and sometimes even in woodland creatures of habitat).

The more ALLURING YOU ARE and really ACTIVATED in your spiritual, psychic, sexual, archetypal and soulful radiance; the higher frequency, the closer to heaven on earth you are...and people want THAT in all levels of conscious experience.

They want to BE YOU or F*CK in all dimensions but not in the physical understanding of it...it's coming from a plane of our higher selves. (whoah, right?!)

It's another lens on the multi-dimensional drivers of status which are more than just evo-bio.

Let me just throw a golden nugget right at you if you're a man right now; you want to purify and cultivate your Dark Eros if you want natural, organic sexual impact on potential mate/s. You want to develop your sexual presence to relate with (her archetypal) beauty; otherwise so many women will remain OFF YOUR RADAR even for an LTR b/c they want you to meet them in presence and relate to THEIR beauty and consciousness.

Back to our regularly scheduled programming...

It might even make other women jealous b/c you're having more INFLUENCE on men and people in general EVEN IF YOU'RE NOT AS PRETTY. Their soul could be drawn to the authentic QUALITIES that the divine feminine has for his awakening masculine with and through you.

OH AND IT CAN INSPIRE LONG-TERM soul mate and beyond partnership as well.

So the 'image' of sexiness isn't merely superficial as 'body'; it's the soulful, spiritual CONSCIOUS, enlightened aspects of SENTIENT COMMUNICATION with and through others from the vibe and truth-light of your radiance that is felt.

Sexuality is being redefined to embrace your soulful and spiritual qualities that are appealing to ALL small farm animal life and humanity; to sentience. Ok; most all...except that muddy pig named Orson.

Sex and SENTIENT-Beauty (felt with allure) inspires men to be higher status in hopes of REUNIFICATION (hold that thought b/c I mentioned a key word here) with Beauty.

To prove to themselves and the world that they are worthy. They can rise to the occasion to MEET you in Presence rather than simply objectify your physical beauty (body, booty) and remain disconnected (which leads to an inherent dynamic OF objectification).

All of this allows you to have GODDESS CONSCIOUSNESS b/c it's not limited to physically having the body of a goddess.

ALLURE TRIGGERS THEIR LIGHT & DARK PSYCHO-SEXUAL DRIVE DIRECTLY and not just on a physical level; so this has to do with HOW you are communicating FROM your chakric psyche and how it is felt; in Heart, in Sex and so forth from the energetic sub-communication (not merely non-verbal body language but really the palpable photonic (ϕ = phi-‘ff’), photo-chemical radiance itself).

This is also why many men are secretly scared of the Divine Feminine b/c their mortal self is NOT actually worthy to be present or Commune with her so they’ll make fun of before and after make-up photos to bring the humanity of woman down to their mortal level.

It’s both...fully mortal and that world of beauty AND the immortal which is the realm of gods, queens and goddesses. LIGHT is how God-spark with and through us communicates; the light of sentience (plasmic chi or ‘prana’).

The Law of Resonance is worth mentioning as well (and is a deeper study with social power and influence) b/c it allows things to attune into coherence with a dominant frequency. This means your beauty could potentially become ALCHEMICAL and raise the EXPERIENCE of others.

This is what's going on all throughout K-Pop MV's and concerts btw (put aside their styling, K-Beauty 1.0 and talent).

Almost all of them have ALCHEMICAL levels of radiant, photonic beauty just in stillness.

So, when you can carry the most embodied power or beauty in the room; other people can feel it and are drawn to it. Essentially you can have sentient-light allure that is at Priestess levels of influence that can have a healing effect on others just by being in your presence and that is VERY powerful.

What we're really (thenceforth) dealing with (if we boil it all down) are the PRIMORDIAL COSMIC FORCES related with sex, status, power and influence obviously of which are related to pop social media influence which then manifest into humanity.

Before that, let's actually define power and influence so you can see how it starts to pull together with your aura and allure b/c we're soon going to introduce a major piece of the puzzle.

Power;

Power; A-B Reality version

(noun) Oxford Languages

1. the ability to do something or act in a particular way, especially as a faculty or quality.

2. the capacity or ability to direct or influence the behavior of others or the course of events. "she had me under her power"

My definition 2023 (aka 'Uniphied Theory' defines power as);

Power; (in the world of photonic beauty refers to) embodied power as quality and quantity of chi quanta in ones Presence; generally the masculine quality of embodied spirit life-force (chi) whereas 'beauty' is the more feminine embodiment of spirit-sentience light and vibrational quanta (spirit-matter plasma)

Now let's look at 'Influence'...b/c remember we're valuing beauty influence, social media INFLUENCE, influence FROM your visuals (no matter how good-looking you are or not), gaining your own following like a soul-starlet living your BEST lifestyle and highest timelines, right?

Let's look at influence.

Influence

in·flu·ence

the capacity to have an effect on the character, development, or behavior of someone or something, or the effect itself.

The greater the POWER, the greater the INFLUENCE. Yes; there are different forms of power like horsepower in a car engine effects greater performance and speed or hydro-electric power but here we're talking about CORE power and influence which at source IS chi when it comes to humanity + divinity (b/c we are both fully mortal and divine as souls).

Aha; did you catch the 'new thing' here?

IT'S CHI!!

You might've heard of it so far sparsely b/c I've been intentionally skirting around the issue sharing breadcrumbs so as not to overwhelm.

Not to get too ahead of ourselves too much, but it's the divine, meta-physical self of the soul and your auric layers (related to dimensions of consciousness) where your higher dimensional beauty lies.

This is also always part of your vibe and light truth communication in ALL visual media; we're just OBSESSANTLY (new word) focused on the physical reflection of light off of the body (which is still energy but vibrating at lower density) within the ROYGBIViolet color spectrum.

Ok.....so POWER is essentially masculine CHI and BEAUTY is essentially feminine CHI which is what RADIATES out of stars and starlets or those who have open channels of chakric and auric emanation (allure).

We've mostly been focused on the VISIBLE light spectrum of the body, but LIGHT of Sentience is at the Immortal Source that then manifests into lower dimensions. Thus, Beauty is quite literally DIVINE.

The more embodied chi ('qi', 'ki', 'orgone' or 'prana') you have (of different signatures) in your light body (even your physical body is vibrating energy but denser); the more POWER/Beauty you have for people to FEEL you, respect you, look up to you, want to be near you and so forth (yeah; the 'f' word...'friend' you).

That's where embodiment comes from; your temple holding more chi (and it doesn't matter what size you are!).

True power and beauty COMMANDS attention effortlessly. You can always sense or ask yourself "Who is the most powerful (embodied) person in the room?" And your intuition should guide you to the answer. ...they may not be the biggest physically nor even have the 'best posture'.

So; allure is essentially this CIRCULATION of chi quanta with and through your energy body of power/masculine chi or beauty/feminine chi. Your 'energy body' or 'light body' includes your chakras and aura (which you may have also heard of before) and these are practically real, not just a woo-woo term.

Now we've got some new awareness-seas to work with, ey?

SO REALLY; beauty should be the mastery and curation of ALL of your light; not merely skin-deep beauty; but your allure and the signatures of chi that are in your aura (atmosphere) as well that sensitive and normal people can feel.

Here's who I personally think is one of the most beautiful women on the planet, not just b/c she's physically pretty but b/c she has ADVANCED radiance allure that is highly alchemical. It's priestess level Beauty.

She's last year's #6 Top Muse: (Yiren)

글로우) - LA DI DA _ KMDF 2020

You could sit her in front of any man with me as a guide and his life would change...she would heal him without doing anything; maybe moving a few fingers b/c of the POWER of true beauty and Her ability to attune the awakening divine masculine soul power and archetypal remembrance within him. ALL WITHOUT WORDS.

Anyways, so I'm still leaving that key 'e' word out intentionally for another power puzzle piece to pull together on your accord b/c beauty magazines infer it, but can't speak consciously to it just yet (that I've ever seen).

Stars and starlets are great examples of people who have social media POWER and influence and people with true charisma or allure with whom you don't know are famous; if you strip away their styling and any record of any fame, you still FEEL like they are famous or someone ("Who IS that?").

Pick any random K-Pop boy band member who you don't know from the lexicon of them and he's got the x-factor of 'charisma'.

But again; YOU...I don't think that you rely on being FAMOUS FIRST. Not usually how it works...so how can you have charisma BEFORE being famous? (Was a question I wanted the answer to!)

What DO they have? In most cases; charisma and allure and it's THAT variable that we're digging into (which you want to have stabilized and projecting) b/c you can still have it before you are famous to have great, magnetic INFLUENCE and attraction (even in STILLNESS) for your success.

K-pop trainees KNOW that they're stepping into a largely archetypal and iconic role so their energy field opens up like this non-consciously as they sacrifice their lower self to serve on a greater level...they access more Beauty quanta (packets of chi).

And most photographs of human beauty are STILL 'freeze-frames' of course right? So having more INFLUENCE from stillness sounds kinda important.

I always wondered myself how a Midwest-raised boy like myself could have the charisma and charm of a 007 James Bond?! I just couldn't figure out how I could have that kind of confidence back then. Positive affirmations didn't seem to really help.

So...how can you have more INFLUENCE from visual media? By just looking prettier and higher status indirectly with styling to look like certain stars and finding your style expression? Hmm...

Is it just maximizing your style, 'glow up' and superficial beauty or is there something else going on that would allow people to FEEL YOU and hyper-drive your following and their attraction to you (and where your styling and soft-maxing is SUPPORTIVE of the deepest authentic inner beauty radiance)?

Is it really about fixing your posture and body language alone or are these tertiary when a powerful man can be eating from a spork (God forbid and yet) - you're entirely captivated by him without words?

If an image of a person says a thousand words, an alluring image says 10,000....even a million.

So in order to grasp HOW to truly have more INFLUENCE, we have to dig deeper b/c the current superficial model is cloaking the real game of what's going on. Sure; you might realize that status is power and has something to do with it (esp. in the social power realm); but it's DEEPER than even that - and WHY it is.

So if beauty is limited to just how good you look in meta-physical media where people can't actually TOUCH you (and you probably wouldn't want them to even in person)...this isn't actually helping us (this current framework we have). Many Instagram models are out there looking great and sure; that's aspirational on its own but you may not feel ENGAGEMENT to their content or really care for them.

How can you have power if you just LOOK good? What is that founded upon if you're not having 'THE CURRENCY itself' running and its value in those higher bandwidths of communication from your presence and image? What if they're DEPLETED?

Ok...it cues into social status with trends and cultural conditions around what we associate as 'beautiful' and have socio-cultural status or value; but doesn't this actually seem like a collapsible fad-friendly foundation (while we secretly hate or envy them)?

Yeah.

WHAT ABOUT IMMORTAL FEMININE BEAUTY that transcends TIME ITSELF?

Or the presence of ancient warrior-kings and heroes (and their charisma)?

So we have to go deeper than just the skin-deep awareness of beauty esp; in order to UNDERSTAND why there is true power and influence with it; let alone mastering more of it for YOU to become one of the RICHEST in the world with the CURRENCY of allure itself; the gold in our global attention economy.

The archetypes already HAVE this Power and Beauty btw in that higher bandwidth. Shit; what if your soul really WAS immortal and consciousness only transmuted at death?!

SO to have more influence as a beauty influencer (or from your visuals), it makes sense to have more power or beauty...yet that's limited. What if you're NOT gifted genetically and what if it sometimes feels semi-fraudulent that you're masking up for the world and don't have the inner beauty to match it?

...And if beauty is skin deep and people can't FEEL you from meta-physical (non-physical) media...and if it's merely photonic 'digital flat 2d pixels'...well, come on! We're not really getting anywhere with the current framework. Get even BETTER lighting or more optimal frame rates or aspect ratios? Huh?...

What if you're NOT gifted physically to look beautiful in the way the current game is played? Is it all just some superficial game where the most physically beautiful win with the highest status and attention?

Well, if that's NOT you then you're more S.O.L. (shit out of luck which should spell S.O.O.L.). There is no Dina, only SZool...

Fortunately, MEDIA USERS are looking for something DEEPER and more engaging (even though they're hella distracted); they want icons they can follow like you who can even transform their lives or make it better. They also value experience. Are people just glued to their smart phones so often (non-gaming wise we'll say) and NOT wanting an engaged, immersive experience? Sure, sometimes it's JUST gardening tips for eggplants or peaches, who knows..

So beyond skin-deep beauty ; there's something ELSE going on b/c we have a very limited awareness of what Beauty truly is. We've been focused on a lower dimensional reality of it and MADE THAT EVERYTHING.

Beauty has always been more than skin-deep and this is where the POWER TO INFLUENCE really comes in to the equation here so you can start getting RICH in deeper attention (like a soul-starlet) while living your BEST life.

And as I've been teasing and introduced; CHARISMA/allure is THAT 'thing itself' but we'll also have to go into the deeper reality of the 'thing of value itself' that's being exchanged that can allow you to THRIVE in social media power without having to 'sell yourself' out in any way.

So...what are they; what are the TWO primordial forces if we boil it all down?

Power (Masculine) + Beauty (Feminine)

It's the POWERFUL MAGNETISM that is both sexual, social, psychological, emotional, psychic and spiritual between them...Power and Beauty INTERACT AND COMMUNICATE on multiple planes and dimensions OF REALITY.

They didn't tell you THAT at hairstyling academy pinky (or what'shername) from Grease did they? How about at image consulting school? Nope.

This information (or lack thereof) is ALSO encoded in ALL your videos and images of you (to the extent that it is). People like me can 'read' it.

THESE FORCES of POWER AND BEAUTY...

(POWERS REALLY BUT FORCES SOUNDS GOOD; Oh let me type that without caps); these forces play out on multiple levels of energetic communication between each other within the consciousness of humanity socially and collectively and as individuals; soul, oversoul, atmic, buddhic, emotional, eros-soma sexual, psychic and more.

Much of the 'power' is with the NON-EGOIC lower self identity which gets into the SOUL and archetypal realms OF the bandwidths of currency that can be communicated visually and in live presence.

So you might have 'hotness' physically on the physical plane in the visible color spectrum but you could be bankrupt in BEAUTY or POWER on the higher band-widths of your communication.

Let's go back to Power and Beauty...

These 2 primordial forces play out in different ways and in different dimensions and we are starting to see that it's actually the CHI itself that is at the CORE of the Power and Beauty game b/c it's HOW YOU WOULD FEEL SOMEONE if you were ever to sleep with them or be really close.

CHI IS THE multi-band plasmic PLATFORM of sentience or sentient-matter (of communication).

"Whoah... wait a minute Rion....let me marinate with that a bit more...."

We often usually see lower conscious role-plays of power and beauty play out. One example are Sugar Daddies and Sugar Babies; financial exchange for physical time with beauty. Escorting as well.

(It also doesn't mean that HIGHER levels of intimacy are being 'exchanged'; they could be 'flat' and entirely disconnected from soul and everything else).

I think you're starting to see how you want your MEDIA to be visually rich in this other, higher band-width 'substance' of Beauty and Power itself, right?...catch where this is going?

How about powerful men of high status in industry attracting beautiful women (some of whom people call 'gold-diggers').

It's more complicated than that in a sense; however, this is a form of the same dynamic of the primordial forces of attraction itself playing out.

Power and Beauty are attracted to each other IMMORTALLY...we just view it from a more narrow bandwidth of how they play out (including within the individual subconscious psyche of modern man, but we're referring more to the 'meta').

(Even these ubiquitous game ads are thriving with Hero Wars and other ones that have Level 1 status guy vs. Level 10 who comes and takes his girl or where the archetypal Princess spits out the 'good guy'; they're playing into this greater psyche role play).

Ok...we have to go there b/c we're 'getting to' the most valuable thing in the universe, right?

Another example is power misuse or even abuse with beauty like with Harvey Weinstein and all of the 'gray areas' that he still stepped over the line with many times with SO many women who came forward (and you know it's in his energy field too; those shadows and tendencies).

So is it just 'physical', 'emotional' and 'sexual' abuse or misuse that has occurred in such situations or are there even higher levels of bandwidth in the primordial play of masculine power and feminine beauty that are also individually and collectively HARMED, influenced or affected? Hmmmm...

Having greater beauty 'in general' means higher status and better attraction of resources and choice of high quality men/man. From a biological perspective; sure, it means more survival and thriving likelihood but we have to look beyond JUST evolutionary biology (or a religious lens of 'family planning') to see 'the game itself' more fully.

Remember; we're talking about BEAUTY (not puppy mom of the month club here) and if you want social influence, you want some form of POWER or ability TO influence.

If you're puppy of the mom month club influencer btw; you'd probably want warm, passionate, dog-friendly vibes and probably already have them with your passion.

ANYWAYS;

Beauty is eternally high status and again; is an inherent value of its own. (Also consider that the masculine and men are VISUAL).

Beauty has that power, but it's with allure you get the divine power and influence of the feminine and more specifically FEMININE CONSCIOUSNESS; not merely superficial fashion trends (which have their place).

ALLURE PSYCHO-ACTIVATES all aspects of man-kind (and affects other sentience), kind of like how you've responded to charismatic men you could feel in your solar plexus or womb (and that's NATURAL)...but it's really this higher dimensional meta-force dynamic that we never get to see at play and how it affects our higher soul avatar self and ITS dynamics. So it's sexual,,...name all of 'em (you get it) BUT FROM the SOUL and SPIRIT plane, bandwidth or perspective (with spirit being your individual soul's connectivity to larger impersonal, archetypal and cosmic power, beauty and consciousness).

That's what we want to be tuned into (as well as reading these qualities and signatures of allure and charisma).

WE're not opening up to FARRR FARR more Beauty and Power awareness that will take your breath away.

I'm talking beyond the mere superficial status and power games, fads and trends but the DIVINE GAME-PLAN itself; immortality, love, queen, king and Sex of the Gods. This is the gateway of true power; charisma and allure...DIVINE POWER. The HIGHER GAME playing out on a Soul, Inter-soul, Cosmic and Spiritual level.

And how THAT communication is also simultaneously occurring in social communication, power and influence AT ALL TIMES (even if we weren't tuned into it...the secret radio channel still existed, we're dialing in ;)

We want to focus on that and then process, decode, understand, receive and harness communication...and FEELING the impact of someone with charisma or allure. When your own higher self is turned on, you become more sensitive to TRUE BEAUTY and POWER and being in AWE of the Divine.

Fortunately; cultivating your allure and charisma and ascension consciousness with all of this, you can give that quanta/value to your people IN your visual communication-transmissions as well.

This is Power and Beauty on a higher level which will continue unfolding here with the concept that pulls it together. You'll then see how it relates to the CURRENCY of allure in the larger 'game' of influence itself and stardom.

So yeah; cultivating your STARLET but soul-starlet self in full alignment and amplification of your desired qualities from the SPECTRUM OF THE DIVINE...with SPIRIT-ACCESS – bandwidth frequency access to channel, embody and express the LIGHT OF the God-fractals (archetypes) and qualities of Holy Father and Mother even as a soul fractal of the divine.

The practical channels and CURRENT of Power and Beauty (and their COMMUNICATION) are charisma and allure.

You might want to re-read that sentence.

The GOLD itself is the substance-matter of allure which we're getting to yet. (I also have something called 'Love channel' and 'Sex channel' as a more distinct thing WITHIN the overall charisma 'channel' of pro consulting but that doesn't have to get confused).

Your charisma and allure allow you to communicate the higher bandwidth (and lower bandwidth including shadow) plasmic-truth.

This emanation or radiance (from stillness) allows people to FEEL your power or beauty without words. So if your chakras are blocked or only extend a few inches, they're not going to feel you in the corresponding one.

Allure is radiance like the sun except that is the SENTIENT-LIGHT of 'chi' rather than solar photons...the chi platform of Light covers ALL FREQUENCIES of the multi-dimensional sentience itself (aka 'God', 'Spirit' or 'consciousness').

Essentially, even a blind person could actually FEEL beauty and power radiance (allure and power) kind of like how we can FEEL the sun's photo-chemical effect. If you've ever had a lover; you've probably FELT their energy body when in front of you a few inches right?

Take away all other perceptions and that's what we're talking about except focusing on it (and how you've felt around charismatic people) alone (and from further literal distances).

You can learn to develop this skill like energy healers/workers have. Or you can also reference if you've felt static electricity and it's that concept of non-physical influence.

It's not enough that you merely LOOK high status (leveraging cultural trends) or have the behavior and posture, but that you simply ARE high status and divine like an embodied queen for example when you have access to these frequency bands of buddhic, atmic, monadic, causal (soul) that can potentially run the unique qualities of power and beauty like King, Warrior, Mermaid, Faery, etc..

The best 'acting' is BEING it. Styling is supportive to fuller integration but was always a focus on the lower dimensional spectrum of communication itself. Remember; the higher one already exists and more consumers are waking up to become aware of it more consciously but either way; it's what can drive people CRAZY...Beauty to DIE FOR. Literally (and metaphorically) even.

But keep reading b/c we're going into 'why' more..

When you're the real thing emanating power and beauty on the causal, buddhic and emotional planes in your aura and through those dimensions of your chakras, people will FEEL IT in the corresponding levels (conscious of it or not)...THAT'S the BIG game going on (as much as we're focused on social and financial power otherwise).

The best actors and actresses also strive to attain this and you what advantage they have? THEY GIVE THEMSELVES PERMISSION to flex their consciousness and embody the codes of archetypes and radiate it! MOST normal people don't b/c it is the stuff of God and Goddess-fractal Light and Beauty.

I think that styling, make-up, hair mastery and so forth (for acting and outside of it) is secondary to this which has to do with your IDENTITY and consciousness itself. Yes; your inner beauty but more specifically how people are able to feel your vibe and light truth qualities of allure.

Do you really think that it's just her 'style' that has the effect and influence on how we feel?

(Or is it something closer to arriving at Planet Vixen-Muse's atmosphere?)

Btw;

If you're single and wanting to attract a partner or DIVINE UNION partner...your allure is the CENTRAL thing I would be working on b/c it's also a reflection of your consciousness and energetic capability for him to meet you in deeper love (RADIATING TANGIBLE VALUE for him to unlock in HIS causal, buddhic and emotional layers of true self-consciousness).

Think of the opportunity of 'meeting him'...the one.

And if you're NOT in your most radiant self (with these auric layers DE-ACTIVATED); that would otherwise pre-constellate the relationship and trigger enchantment in his heart, mind, body and soul - he may not even SEE you or be ready to care in those areas of love. You likely wouldn't be on his RADAR. YOU DON'T HAVE VALUE in the other areas to grow into deeper love and intimacy with.

And speaking of love and becoming a greater lover...

B/c this is about Power and Beauty; primordial forces of attraction including Sex and Love; what about the POWER of Love?

The ability to experience deeper love is directly related with your alluring Beauty, archetypal consciousness and the ability of your body to receive more power (for his body to alchemize with your beauty quanta intimately). The more alluring you are, the more elemental chi there is for example of your Water-Goddess to melt with his Fire-King between your bodies and purify, refine and cultivate your higher dimensional bodies towards heaven on earth (with after-life benefits!).

Would you rather have goddess to god love or inter-personal intimacy (or just 'borking')?

There's worlds of difference and it all has to do with the tangible 'substance' ('e' word we're getting to) that can be communicated and EXCHANGED from your multi-D Light-body.

Hey ; I STILL wouldn't throw out your make-up kits, etc...they have a place.

So if you value deeper love in relationship (and not only attraction), allure work and the growth of consciousness with it to be more radiant actually allows you to literally experience more ecstasy, bliss and union (on more than just inter-personal and inter-physical levels of connection).

Another power concept coming up will highlight this more with your allure that pulls it all together (you'll see).

It's such alluring beauty we're referring to that actually inspires and awakens the divine masculine spirit within men; including deeper love if that's one of your highest values.

Your light from the energy body of your temple, becomes the sentient enchanting pied piper of awakening to CALL HIM HOME. More on this later.

In any case if you're single;

I would treat yourself like a professional to work on your allure so that he has the most option of SEEING and FEELING you when you are going out and about your life.

You/we can have FUN with it, but I'd otherwise take it seriously like an award-winning actor who MUST embody their character and their qualities to be believable...this is YOUR LIFE and influence here we're talking about! Your legacy in real-time and onwards.

This is different than just maximizing your skin-deep beauty to stylistically express yourself and be beautified. You could do good grounds-keeping in your house and yard and have permanently shitty weather atmospherically and it'll not be a pleasant experience for those you are hosting for example.

To have inner and outer beauty is being more of a 'catch'...it's not even about 'having a good hair day' or 'feeling good', it's about more spirit life-force running through of FEELABLE beauty qualities that THEN f/x your consciousness. It's in a sense about BECOMING the goddess, king or starlet.

Back to dating visuals though...

Are you even 'getting out there' being seen (including on social media, etc.) is another question. But how many of those opportunities are you missing? What if you're not ready when he shows up? Then maybe you're going to have to over-function and try and persuade him instead of letting your allure do all of the speaking for you.

Allure is what can drive him crazy and not stop thinking about you. I've been in that scenario where Cupid's bow shoots somewhere out of her aura and strikes him/me in the heart.

Who you are in these other dimensions and layers of self is communicating value to HIS HIGHER SELF more than words. That is what his SOUL and spirit is picking up on. ALLURE IS THAT

CHANNEL of (non-physical yet true-radiant) expression...not just visually but that which he can feel in person.

But if your chakras are closed off...uh-oh...he's probably not going to be emotionally 'engaged' off of your somatic guidance. And maybe you have a masculinized shell that's feels more antagonistic to him rather than supportive to a lover polarity (of receiving his power and masculine gifts). ALL OF THIS is centrally related to your ALLURE itself and how you are visually and energetically communicating.

Gillian Pothier is brilliant at this and talks about how the animus tyrannical masculine aspect (instead of enlightened lover-king) ends up psychically possessing many Western women and ends up wreaking havoc on their attraction and love life. ALL RELATED to your allure which is a testament of your consciousness and receptivity as a lover.

It's worth considering if he is even getting ANY SOMATIC reason to pursue you (or sign to go in for the sacred hunt)?

A lot of high quality men just cannot READ women b/c they've lost touch with NATURAL abilities to flirt and communicate not just non-verbally with flirting signs but energetically...this can be resolved when you work on cultivating your feminine allure and deeper feminine consciousness, but if you're just focusing on your skin-deep beauty and personality wondering why men aren't responding or only valuing you for your looks - well....> allure.

You can gracefully has your light body pull in his light body.

Many women complain he only wants them for their body without realizing that their (lack of) allure was what was ALREADY templatizing the relationship to begin with. Yep. She wasn't communicate eros, heart, soul or spirit to begin with so he just valued her for her body.

It's a co-creation more than you ever thought. Her own heart was closed, she was focused on her physical looks, waiting for him to do everything without communicating any energetic and non-verbal signals. High quality guys just don't want to risk rejection if they're not getting signs FROM YOU first.

Want to revive the LOVE and depth in a current relationship? ALLURE CAN DO ALL OF THAT MAGIC but YOU'RE going to have to energetically be the change yourself first. I have women in my circle who are brilliant at living and teaching this.

So let's go back to our more general thought-flow.

True power and beauty stands up to tests against its true worth and wins every time. It makes you the HIGHEST STATUS person in the room.

After all, it is the divine inheritance (and mystical beauty) of millennia of your foremothers and women before you; it is legacy that has passed through generations.

Ironically allure is more about the VULNERABILITY of allowing the 'x-factor' to flow through the channel of beauty emanation and influence which is allure; moreso than masque-ing up or putting on a posture (this is why many women come across as more charismatic through an armored front chakra channel).

Let me say a little bit more about visual sexiness.

Many Western performers and artists are more explicitly sexual than Eastern artists but are often missing 'the deeper secret'. This can be because they're trying to make up for what's missing by putting on more of a 'front', performance or masque. This is largely stemmed from the shadow of superficiality of only focusing on physical looks and the social conditioning around it which can desensitize us to experiencing and communicating real intimacy.

As Gillian says (paraphrase):

“You cannot really perform allure”.

Allure is effortless radiance (and you may have MANY blocks to unravel to start revealing and then working with it).

Yes; many Western women will come across as more charismatic (powerful) than alluring. Tina Turner is a great reference point for that.

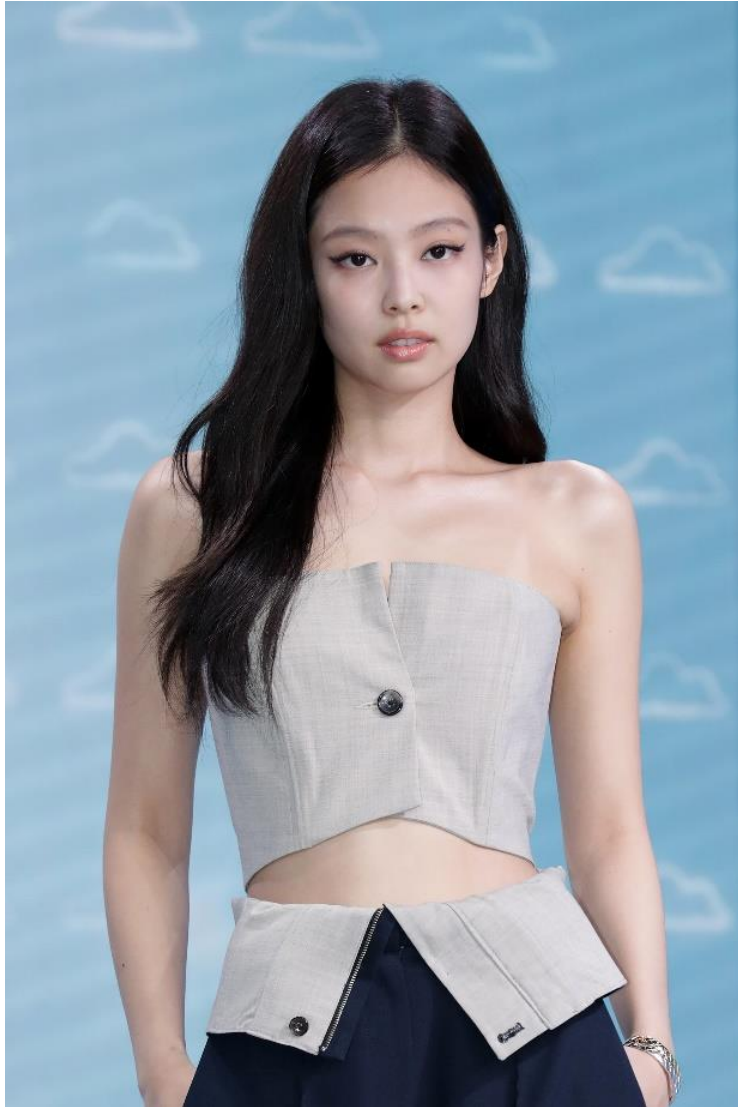

Taylor Swift can be alluring and deeply magical in her face with all of that alluring Light but more charismatic in her body as a Diva (we'll probably see more of her in the report).

And speaking of aura; in the BLACKPINK Coachella reading on the site (here:)

I referred to how Jennie Kim has a VERY clean and pure aura as well as clean chakric health. (She is very stable and OFTEN with this allure quality whereas someone like Grimes is far more de-stable).

This is related to how people experience you...they're also attracted b/c such purity helps to wipe away their own sins...it's like being around her aura is going to a day spa.

Even if you're not yet aware of it, you can train yourself to sense and feel the truth that exists (b/c others can also verify this as accurate, not just me).

In general; many performers or influencers will default to the 'sex sells' and get into the flow of that for attention and status; but there's something DEEPER of a drive that it is entwined with which is the SUBSTANCE of the CURRENCY itself.

(I'll also say that seeking attention is not necessarily a bad thing. 22% of the population are designed for recognition on a deep level; not merely superficial attention seeking; however, that's another conversation for a different rainy day).

We're still getting to the 'e' word that is related with allure and the 'substance' of what is being valued and exchanged in an attention economy; so we're starting to understand more deeply about POWERFUL attraction and magnetism for you by getting more in alignment with the stream of this currency itself - allure; which is driving most social power, influence and attention organically.

Remember; FAME attracts attention superficially; but charisma is a more stable attraction mechanism b/c it psycho-actively engages a consumers response in multiple areas as well as the drive to be connected and like them.

Again; sex is VERY connected to it, but this is a different lens.

What we're talking about is both more primordial with the attractive and selling power of 'sex', but also more sophisticated.

It's kinda big because religions have historically suppressed it for millennia and it has to do with feminine consciousness and vibrational emanation (vibe-truth). If you've been following me for a while, you'll already have more an idea what we're talking about there...What I'm alluding to (and this is the Divine Feminine).

As far as being 'sexual'; you'll just have to find what's right for you and your image, brand and identity whether you're a spiritual entrepreneur into Divine Union, a professional woman, an actress, an only fans model, an escort, a social influencer, a trad-wife, dancer or whatever.

I'm saying that it's not just in defaulting to being sexual or 'showing skin'. It might be; but ideally it should be in integrity with where you are at and who you are as well as taking into account the future.

Again; some women 'try to hard' to be sexual and if that isn't you, that may not be 'it' either (plus it can detract your ideal clients or fans).

(This is just another aegyo breather)

There's a way to be LESS SEXUAL and get more response and it's with allure (without ever having to get into aegyo extremes).

You can't perform allure, but you can perform WITH allure.

That's one of those zen koans that you don't have to figure out..we're moving on.

Feminine allure is what's missing largely in Western culture anyways amongst most normal people - so it will give you great advantage.

Allure (and having a more powerful energy field like a star/let) will AMPLIFY things if you are already sexual (when it's done properly).

Thinking you have to be sexual to 'get attention' (can also connect to other self-esteem and worthiness, validation issues but); often, it's women who aren't connected to their inner beauty anyways, so they feel they have to 'perform' louder or put on a mask of performative allure instead of being effortlessly feminine in their signature radiance or for example their dancing Eros-Siren where the movement and performance is FELT.

Just having good dance moves and looks doesn't necessarily make people FEEL you more - if you're all masqued up. Looks can bring culturally pre-conditioned high status people can admire (and be jealous of), BUT it doesn't necessarily ENGAGE users, fans, customers and clients.

Hmm...is your foundation stable enough? What if...

Well at this point, if you want more ATTENTION (b/c that's the obvious thing with social media)... and you want it with undeniable INTEGRITY and not having to be overtly sexual (or at least have your authority over it), keep reading (b/c this can get very eros-sexual anyways if you want it to).

Plus, you probably don't want to be desperate for attention and you don't want to only be focused on yang marketeering style things and you want to be IN YOUR BEAUTY and have greater influence growing your following and business from the depth of who you are with visuals maximized, then - after that long run-on sentence - then we want to understand allure more.

It's time for feminine influencers to have ORGANIC sway (even just to counter-act all of the inorganic AI out there but really) for all the reasons!

And it may be time for you to tap into your FULLEST expression capability sourced in your soul's desires that can constellate stronger magnetism, love, resources, influence, bliss and satisfaction.

We have to go deeper into what allure really is and what is behind it as this potential primordial FORCE of attraction driving markets that has a lot to do with sex (and is also this alleged, proposed CURRENCY of exchange itself).

As I've heretically proclaimed;

Allure is the future currency of beauty influence and social influence....and it's a hot under-current throughout much of viral social media RIGHT NOW that we've not been conscious of (it for what it really is).

As we'll discover, it's the SUBSTANCE of allure is what is being EXCHANGED essentially for attention (and is what sells at the deepest level).

Annie Lennox has the lyrics

*"Some of them want to use you
Some of them want to get used by you
Some of them want to abuse you
Some of them want to be abused"*

From 'Sweet Dreams'

It's related to this...

That means this 'substance' of allure MUST be valuable; a resource so valuable that people are HISTORICALLY trying to control, exploit or profit off of it (from a lower conscious lens). Yes.

NOW, we're getting somewhere closer to Solomon's Goldmine because this is BIG-big (with that 'e'); but you have to consider that what we're talking about are not just psychological, social and primal-sexual drivers but also emotional, soulful, spiritual and psychic drivers of the markets when it comes to POP influence (and maxing your social media power).

It's also not merely about sexual or physical 'control' or oppression...

The higher aspects are often over-looked and what we'll really pull together coming up.

Now; in the bigger picture of your overall image and branding - it isn't always or ONLY about this core element itself of allure; there are pieces to the puzzle...sometimes it IS about client sales, content and subscribers of course so we focus on the obvious deliverable variables, but what can help DRIVE that?

Allure and the substance beneath it that is the thing of REAL value sexually, socially, spiritually, emotionally, cosmically, psycho-graphically and psychically. It's going to start maximizing your social media results and engagement with your people fast and organically.

It's the real gold, the real currency and what drives connection in all ways and in all DIMENSIONS (including vibrationally and spiritually); it's the deeper reasoning WHY behind the social...and we're going to discover more specifically what 'it' is so people can be DRAWN TO YOU without knowing why and sensing "There's something about him/her".

"You said - It"

It is my hope that you are inspired to value charisma as a permanent and CORE component of your professional visual and social media from here forward; to value it as a professional working area and component of your professional image and social media strategy EVEN IF most of the Beauty industry and social media marketers aren't caught up with it yet at the time of this 1st Ed: release in Sept. 2024.

You can just start getting growth results (that CAN be measured statistically if you want them to be) by cultivating YOUR charisma. And really, it's people and how the world will respond to you differently as you change and evolve. I've had men start getting treated like rockstars, all kinds of attraction, new gf's, etc. (when that was what they wanted, more confidence, charisma, social status, etc.).

Remember; I've got 100s of testimonials that I'm barely putting any in here b/c we're covering so much.

When you can awaken your allure (most adult Western women don't have it btw); it would be instantly encoded in your visual media then anyways bring new dimensions and depth to your communication...

And Beauty without it is simply less substantial in affecting others (unless we're talking about propping up the house of cards of fickle beauty trends for example).

We're talking about the deeper 'thing' of value that people are really seeking; from ALL adults basically.

We just haven't clearly understood it and seen how it is a/the primary driver of much of exchange (esp. with social exchange).

So I've been talking about it in this way intentionally to warm you up. You could even say that 'charisma buys or affords free attention'.

But more specifically;

What IS allure in more of this understanding lens of being THE unit of value in the exchange itself?

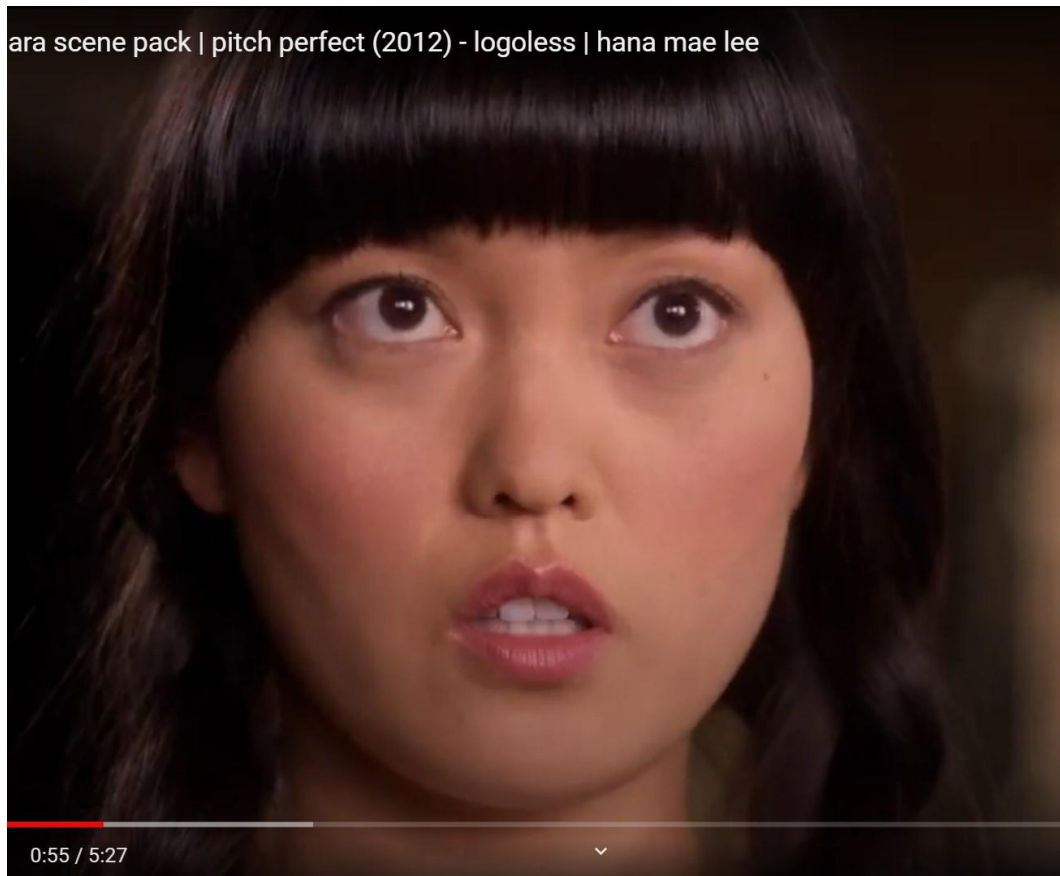

This 'thing' of apparent substance encoded in some media that gets WILD attraction?

What is this deeper understanding of the currency that helps to compellingly (sometimes miraculously) BUY attention, engagement and forms of fame (including when that which is being exchanged directly isn't money, but attention and the other benefits and side or indirect profitability).

What is this currency?

If you want more attention and social media or beauty influence; what can help drive it and WHY?

Well...first, let me finally (yes, finally) DEFINE ALLURE.

(“Thank you Rion I had to pee an hour ago”)

What IS 'allure' more specifically?

First; a dictionary definition:

'al·lure'

1. the quality of being powerfully and mysteriously attractive or fascinating.
2. powerfully attract or charm; tempt.

Or as my Mystical Beauty and Cosmic Muse co-host Gillian Pothier of Feminine Eros says:

“Allure is the energetic capacity for women to captivate, magnetize, spell-cast and wield influence REGARDLESS of their “extrinsic beauty”.

Now...let's go with my latest, updated 2024 definition:

Allure;

'the radiant and engaging emanation of feminine 'e'; plasmic sentient-spirit quanta (chi) with and through the human aura (usually female)'

Btw; the 'e' word (substance of allure) itself IS alluring by default...so once you have access, embodiment and expression OF allure, you're already going to be more alluring b/c we're drawing FROM immortal feminine sentient light emanation and consciousness (sourced in the uniphied field of Spirit).

In otw; the divine feminine archetypes already HAVE alluring and powerful influence...you're tapping into that flow with and through your star-body.

And here's a slightly earlier Rion definition...

Allure; (2021 definition)

“The circulation and expression of multi-dimensional feminine beauty 'e' in, with and through (her) image and presence”

(And for charisma, just replace feminine with masculine).

If this definition seems a little ahead of you that's ok.

Remember, we want the MOST truthful, clear and conscious definition whether the rest of the world has caught up to the language of light yet or not.

(Why would we settle for a less truthful, vague definition anyways?!)

The more you are immersed in conscious awareness of Beauty-Truth, the more this definition will make sense to you (and it brings a PARADIGM SHIFT with it).

BTW; I'm intentionally not sharing the 'e' word yet, but you might have an idea what it is b/c it's still REFERENCED, valued and alluded to in the skin-deep Beauty mastery world.

Will this definition of allure be simplified and improved in the future?

Sure, but it can't be dumbed down to be any less truthful. Will I whittle this book down to be shorter and more power-point focused with improved exercises on how people start sensing allure for themselves? Sure.

So let's proceed...

"But don't you have to be in person to 'feel' someone's allure or charisma?" Nope! This is because it's not simply EMF light!

Basically, allure and charisma cannot be faked b/c you cannot manipulate or fake the organic INFLUENCE of how MANY PEOPLE consistently respond to certain stimuli (like that Elvis Comeback special for example). You don't just 'watch' it, you multi-dimensionally can ENGAGE and be ACTIVATED BY IT b/c the real POWER is there b/c Elvis was activated himself in those areas and bandwidths of it flowing through his channel of charisma (through his light body).

Consumers are becoming more psychically sensitive, intuitive and their own B.S. detectors to gauge if someone is the real deal they're presenting (or posing) themselves as to be (or not). BUT WHEN THEY FEEL YOUR POWER AND BEAUTY in their body...it's GAME ON (attention-wise)!

Remember that we introduced that EMF light is sourced differently than SENTIENT light of beauty and power which is CHI. My PHQ (Theory of photonic Quanta) goes deeper into this.

Generally; Chinese history has known about yin and yang chi for millennia; however, it's actually more refined than those two baseline realities. They never connected chi to charisma for me, let alone professional image and beauty – and my goodness, the archetypes (as deific god-fractals in the collective)?!

So...With allure (again);

What we're talking about here is the RADIANCE that emanates from the divine human aura b/c you are a meta-physical soul in a human body (virtually all religion and spirituality accepts this as Truth and the more experience and research you go into, the more you realize it for yourself so we're going with that precept).

Photonic EMF radiation isn't sentient light and yet our radiance IS...it's a different light spectrum that we call 'chi' sourced from higher dimensional consciousness.

Again; MILLIONS of people already know and verify that chi is real - even though Western science hasn't yet accepted it. It's just that even my Grandmasters didn't make the connection for me with chi also being the Light of sentient-Beauty.

(For a deeper study, reference Unified Theory or PHQ 'photonic Quanta Theory' available on the blog or on fotonicbeauty.com).

Alluring Beauty just RADIATES and has photo-chemical effect 'like' the sun (but differently; so we have to understand radiation and radiance itself more clearly like this.

Again; Chi is a different spectrum of radiation or light (spirit-sentient life force) than EMF (electro-magnetic frequencies).

Stars like our sun are photonic and have photo-chemical influence on us including with light rays that are outside of the spectrum of visible light; yet they still exist as EMF radiation.

There is more than what they eye can see; the same goes with what is outside of our visible spectrum in photographs; more data (parallel to gamma and x-rays but in our spectrum of sentience).

CHI is sentient light plasma-matter (high frequency) and therefore it affects consciousness in different ways b/c we are more than just our physical bodies. Sentience can also affect things in astro-bio nature like Dr. Emoto's water crystalization experiments.

It's also how energy healers (not all) can do QUANTUM work on someone half-way around the world. This isn't possible in the physical model of the Universe; and yet it is with the Sentient, Unified Field which is where impersonal Beauty and Power is sourced from.

This is because we are all spiritually connected on higher planes of reality (including to the realms of gods and goddesses, kings, heroes, heroines, priestesses, magii, etc.).

People who have charisma have a not just 3D but 4D and 5D effect on people from simple 2D images and videos. CHARISMA = HOLOGRAPHIC INFLUENCE from 2D media.

Now THAT is kinda priceless isn't it (in an attention economy instead of burning through the family farm in paid ads as 'the only way' for example)?

Fotonic light radiance from simple Instagram photos has POWER to INFLUENCE consciousness and DNA itself. It has the power to ATTUNE or entrain fields to its frequency. This is also why you can FEEL people who have allure and charisma just from an image.

The simple rule of thumb is to have your allure reach PAST the camera lens itself to have people more likely to feel your presence from a digital image or video of you. I can work with people to learn how to feel their own chi/qi and project it. In mere seconds I can get someone's chakra of choice to at least project the overall quality of distance further for a time being (environmental and other factors may close it down); speaking nothing to how much detox has to be done).

Fortunately, there's no LIMIT to the amount of chi sourced Beauty or Power that you could potentially embody but you may have to start valuing yourself as more than JUST a 1 to 1 physical being (ahem; Thorg) b/c social media IS and allows impersonal power and influence; to multiply yourself x millions. This isn't about amplifying EGO power but about embodying divine consciousness at a soul level of identity which can properly and potentially hold that in your energy body b/c you are more than just a body and your ego.

Some stars are more powerful than others and the power someone could embody vs. another person can be RADICALLY different. We have to work on the SOUL identity level for this type of charisma transformation work to really stick, integrating archetypal aspects to allow your soul to express more power and beauty through your light body.

Here ; we want to value beauty and power that people can FEEL around and from you; from their aura's field being touched by your atmosphere/aura (like if Jupiter and Saturn got close enough to interact with their atmospheres).

That's going to give you more INFLUENCE whether live in person or throughout all of your media.

The further your allure literally and measurably emanates through your extended aura (yes which could fill a stadium), the more you are influencing people energetically in real time whether they're aware of it or not.

We live in a vibrational universe; and that's not just of EMF vibrations but of SENTIENT vibrations.

Like a Sarah Brightman in her heyday on stage emanating DIVA-Goddess archetypal radiance.

A powerful vibe can sway the room. A powerful Light (with the siddhic or enlightened high-frequency sentient-radiant quality of Peace and Grace) can transfigure the room.

And if it's encoded in a music video or tiktok reel, it can KEEP giving TRANSFORMATIONAL value to people.

In other words; BEAUTY as light-radiance truth can be MEDICINE to other sentient life including animals. This is because of the alchemical and photo-chemical nature of Light and powerful light (similar to photonic power and applications in traditional Science like laser power).

This power is because it is the PRESENCE as spirit-matter plasmic chi of Divinity itself (including all God and Goddess fractals).

YEARS ago, I realized that stars and starlets are like the spiritual gurus of Heart and Sex. And this is after meeting an enlightened guru and having him activate my crown chakra. What do they have in common?

PALPABLE charisma; vibe and light truth that you can literally feel.

And the CLOSER you are to their bodies, the more your eros-soma, solar plexus and heart can 'feel the power'. We're just not usually tuned in consciously to THAT dynamic of power and influence.

Again; the entire principle here is that b/c we are all connected IN the plasmic-sentient field of Spirit as chi, the POWER of alluring beauty is to be able to INFLUENCE through otherwise flat, 2D pixels. This is because that information is holographically stored in the Akashic records and is technically psychically accessible to be 'read-only'.

Visual media of humans has ALWAYS carried more information than we were aware of. It's not merely body language, non-verbals or generic 'mood' sensing; rather, it's more accurately the alchemical language of Light itself (5D+) and the vibe-truth spectrum (4D/Astral) reality of radiance (and HOW it interacts with our sentience)...not merely skin-deep body beautification that then may causally trigger a mental body only response of judgment.

It's just easier to see and feel allure with people who really have it b/c most adults don't have it. Many women will focus on mastering their extrinsic beautification but without people being able to feel their charisma even reach far enough to connect with their field (or reach the camera lens to then allow them to feel them).

So I introduced something that's more advanced...let's explore this 'light' some more, because that's really what all of your visual media IS. I daresay we've been 'viewing' it from a constricted 'lens' however.

::

Sometimes it is useful to think about electromagnetic radiation as though it came in packets. These packets of EM radiation are called "photons".

...visible light is indeed one form of electromagnetic (EM) radiation. X-rays, radio waves, gamma rays, and infrared and ultraviolet "light" are the other main types of electromagnetic radiation

When we think of light as particles, we call those particles of light "photons".

Photons are the carriers of all forms of electromagnetic (EM) radiation, not just light. The different types of EM radiation correspond to different amounts of energy per photon

Because we are dealing with Light for your professional image and the power of beauty influence; it can help to understand where things are sourced for true mastery. In line with my PhQ Theory, we can roughly define light radiation and radiance like this:

Radiation; non-sentient EMF emanation as invisible and visible photons (mostly sent through astro-bio plasma and from non-sentient light sources like the sun, studio lighting, etc.) These can have different frequencies like x-ray, ultra-violet and visible ROYGBIV frequencies, ie.

Radiance; Spirit-plasmic Light-sentient emanation of chi with and through life forms of which humans have full spectrum access to the radiant Language of Light called 'Beauty'. These also have different frequencies.

To re-state;

We've merely been valuing the one half of total communication by looking at the physical/terra/body and the light reflecting off of it instead of the atmosphere as well (higher frequency, non-physical and its qualities and the thing is Science itself is AWARE of the earth's auric qualities!).

Again; there IS a science in the astro-bio realm that is aware of the atmospheric, weather, elements and conditions of earth's aura. Sciences that look into the non-physical, chemical and immaterial and not merely just physical matter. Heck; even radio and TV waves can be transmitted and they are non-physical.

Now; because we value blasting open the glass ceiling on beauty to have greater power (divinity embodied and expressed);

I recommend to value your meta-physical beauty as ϕ otonic rather than photonic because the light of SENTIENCE (which has POWER to influence other sentience) is sourced differently (and yet mixes with photonic, non-sentient lighting).

This profoundly gets you access on a foundational level to the spectrum of alchemical Light itself which is Beauty itself; rather than merely our superficial 3D to 2D lighting and 'body' beautification reality we live in now without valuing the rest of communication, power and influence consciously.

In photographs we would have a mix of natural or artificial lighting (photons) and divine-sentient light through a human's multi-d light body (fotons).

This unaltered image of me presents this fusion or mix of both photonic-inorganic and ϕ otonic-sentient Light...focus on the upper part of the image; mixing the light bulb with my crown and auric light. I swear, it's unedited...didn't even adjust the color.

Can you sense there's obviously something more going on even if you can't yet accept the concept of a different spectrum of Light entirely?

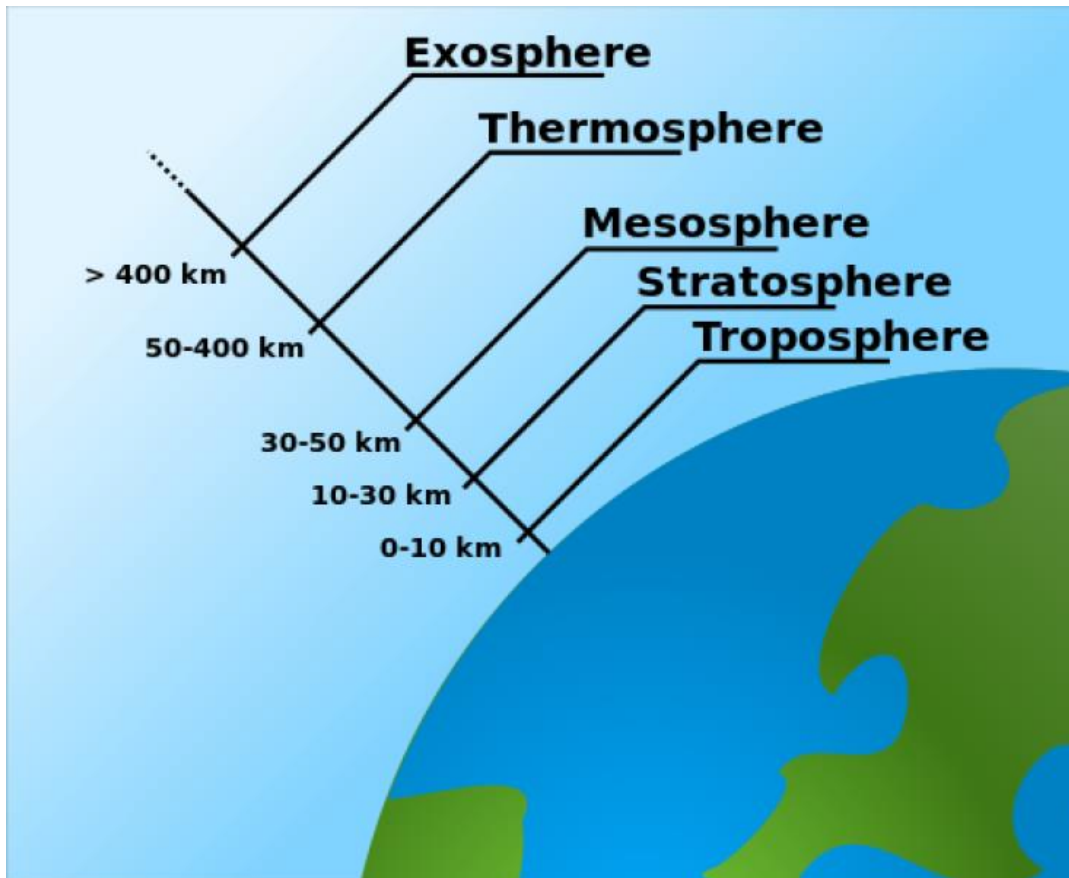

With charisma or allure, YOU have potential RADIANCE that to the skin-deep beauty professional would be grossly over-looked because of the focus on the photonic light reflecting off of the physical body and yet you are a soul in a human body.

IMAGES AREN'T EVEN PHYSICAL...THEY ARE LIGHT...

So how much of that are we QUALIFYING? Frequencies exist OUTSIDE OF our color spectrum...even in the EMF spectrum...science knows this.

You are more than just limited to the color spectrum but the MOOD, vibrational and light spectrum itself, soul qualities and archetypal flavors, etc. are also part of your overall communication.

Similarly to the layers of the earth's atmosphere;

You also have a 4D astral body and layers of higher dimensional light bodies and associated consciousness (mental, emotional, causal, buddhic, atmic, monadic). You can CULTIVATE these to be more light-bodied and stronger in their higher dimensional truth (like Elvis at his prime).

You are MORE than just physical 'information' being communicated visually; the LIGHT is there whether it's in our visible ROYGBIV (red, orange...etc.) spectrum. The 'atmosphere' - it's in all photographs and videos of humans and always will be.

"Hey Gilligan..."

..there's a storm a brewin', but all I can see is the physical material boat and these plants and the ground is wet somehow" - without realizing the bigger experience is also atmospheric WITH the physical-material.

(I think you get that underpar analogy).

How much sense does it make to not see the bigger picture of 'light' and frequency even when SCIENCE ITSELF DOES; they KNOW that there are invisible frequencies that have influence outside the ROYGBIV spectrum.

When we expand our perception; we start awakening to the greater Truth of Beauty that Beauty is this alchemical language of Light FREQUENCY sourced in multi-dimensional (and immortal) sentience of consciousness that is feelable as plasmic-radiance....and that there ARE these signature qualities of sentient vibration and light with the platform-spectrum itself of the Presence of Spirit/Beauty.

Again; all of this is coming across in VISUAL media of humans anyways as radiative Light (including radiant-truth beyond the ROYGBIV color visible spectrum). Your physical body is just lower density and within the visible range. THAT'S BEAUTY 1.0

Beauty 2.0 with Charisma and Allure embraces the entirety of your radiance practically (and again; yes we can learn to 'see' and know the truth of these frequencies accurately like Vixen, Crone, Prince, etc.).

Now we can work with expressing the BEAUTY of your SOUL and Divine Feminine Archetypes with this Language of Light.

(Make sure to read the 'e3' portion coming up later if this interests you).

Yes, you can effectively embody the same consciousness vibe-truth as Cleopatra did (which THEN affects your non-verbal behavior, beliefs, body language, social communication, self-esteem, status, etc.).

It just takes some practice but you can also start to more consciously 'read' the archetypal allure of different women. We can learn to sense and 'see' their signatures of allure in their photos.

It just takes some practice and seeing differently than what you're used to (ie. what brands or conditioner she's using).

Keep using the examples I have throughout this report (all used under fair use copyright guidelines as cultural critique; copyrights belong to respective copyright holders)...use them to start tuning in, sensing and 'seeing' things yourself!

Robin Williams had EPIC charisma...omg could we FEEL him (and did HE have influence)! People loved him (with their hearts) – b/c he HAD Heart and communicated it (on all dimensions so their SOUL could feel his Heart).

How can you put a price on having people organically have THEIR HEARTS into you? Heart radiant charisma can do that (and that's priceless). Just think of his legacy (not just from comedy and acting but distill it down to just his charisma and you can feel him and it's a complete whole-hearted experience).

It's worth mentioning briefly that there is a HEALING and medicinal quality with Alluring Beauty; not so with skin-deep beauty, which we can still admire and aspire to (and it has its own shadows and cultural conditioning); but with RADIANCE which brings a more direct impact, personal influence to people foto-chemically.

It's the same concept as the guru in the ashram who had superstar charisma in stillness; PALPABLE RADIANCE...

Anyone can potentially cultivate this level of spiritual-divine embodiment and emanation as well so now; beauty meets spirituality!

Others will focus on the meditation techniques but there is value in entraining to a master's field (and 'shaktipat') BECAUSE of the vibrational truth and frequency. He didn't even have to speak (and my Chinese Grandmaster only knew a few words of English).

Stars and Starlets are like the Heart & Sex 'gurus' of enlightenment.

Much of the influence we're talking about (with foto-chemical radiation like a starlet) works through the Law of Resonance and attunement.

The most (spiritually and cloaked-socially) powerful and beautiful (like enlightened guru's and actual soul-cultivated starlets with strong light-bodies) ARE alchemical.

When you are in presence of such high frequency (like if you've met a celebrity) it activates and stirs things up in your own light body; lower frequencies that are stored start breaking up to be released b/c their consciousness is 'closer to source' (many souls are immortal after all). You can be like that tuning fork for others to attune to your frequency.

It's not just 'state of mind' but state of 'being' spiritually, psychically, emotionally and all coherently with the vibe-truth and embodied consciousness of whatever archetype for example like; Eros or Maiden. It's BEING-NESS...being em-BODY-ed with power/beauty.

I have a concept called 'Beauty Priestessing' (while Muse does actually); where Beauty influencers who have cultivated allure can simply SIT in silence with (paid) men or clients and essentially they start attuning to their energy field and it becomes a TRANSFORMATIONAL even life-changing experience. (An evolution of 'fan events' as well).

(This is getting closer to that experience as a shaktipat or 'dharshan' level event).

It's something of high value that starlets could do with superfans as well; but for now, I'm merely mentioning it here. Imagine getting closer to a powerful source of radiance like that and you feel your DNA start tingling and twitching into higher vibration just to associate to that level of radiant power/beauty.

I'll also say that the Muse Priestesses have alchemical, healing beauty.

So, if and when you can cultivate your beauty consciousness and allure to hold more of the divine feminine archetypal and siddhic truth, you can have the power to heal, move and transfigure people not merely attract, magnetize and influence.

(Would that be of value; to have TRANSFORMATIONAL alchemical VISUALS in your social media?!)

Dove Cameron has an 'alchemical' tattoo and I have a sense she might be one of the early celebrity adopters of all of this; she seems to already value what we're talking about...but we'll see.

We can always speak on the 'style' levels, but it's time for the R:Evolution (with Allure/Charisma!). This affects Beauty, performance arts and entertainment, image consulting and other image related industries as well as social media and marketing.

So, there's a ftonic and photo-chemical nature of ALLURE and charisma (masculine power expressed through the light body) because of how it is sourced as multi-dimensional and immortal sentient-light of universal Spirit (chi); regardless of your religion.

This is IMPERSONAL moreso than about your 'personality' or quirky character.

I go deep into more of this science of charisma in the 'Theory of Ftonic Quanta'.

That means there is QUEEN allure, Maiden allure, Prince charisma and so forth as VIBE and Light-Truth POWER (chi) that you can feel is REAL. It's kind of like if you visited Planet Prince or the late Prince the Artist (who obviously embodied a lot of Prince archetypal power/presence).

If you were on Planet Prince and in his orbit (or at a concert) you would be FEELING the transmutational vibe-truth on your consciousness and energy body. The entire aura/atmosphere would be affecting your somatic experience. EXPERIENCE...It's not just the background, his Dark Eros IS live and the purple atmos helps to expand it all..

It would be speaking somatically to deeper parts of your psyche; permeating into your heart, your thoughts, even your sacral chakra and stirring things up creatively.

That is power. (And weather and atmosphere CAN affect our entire mood and experience).

And it's power that is speaking to your awakening divine feminine in the greater 'game' being played in the Grand Mythos of Time (and through reincarnations).

...And you're awakening the power to be able to cultivate your VIBE-Truth to be what your soul desires to exude. Yes; we now work on it directly in my sessions and packages.

Again; the BEST actors really get this down to where they are EMBODYING the impersonal, archetypal POWER or beauty itself which is what makes it believable; YOU as an influencer get to do it for your own life forward if you embrace cultivating your allure and expanding your ORGANIC capacity to wield influence!

Here's an example of the latest Princess Jasmine from Disney's 'Aladdin' who has mixed Princess-Goddess qualities.

Here's a clearer example of more stand-alone, pure Princess and the qualities with it (Jessica from SNSD); they also called her the 'Ice Princess'

JESSICA (제시카) (Feat. Fabolous) - FLY Live Performance

Independent of her physical body itself (visualize as a 2D cutout); can you sense and feel that signature quality of auric sentient-Light-Truth as if you were in the presence of a Princess (early T.Swift had a lot of this too)?

This is alchemical levels (transformational on sentient-consciousness) of Beauty influence. It's essentially MEDICINE and it could single-handedly attune millions of men into worthy, embodied PRINCE consciousness, status, self-acceptance and image. Yeah. That's a power of Allure.

Can you discern it as different from her physical styling? Can you sense that princess wardrobe and styling could help support the vibe and light itself? Can you start to differentiate the physical from the higher frequency non-physical matter?

And the Princess archetype speaks and relates to Prince. I'd say there are FAR more princesses than princes in the world and it's related to the imbalance.

Most men will never believe they're worthy of being a Prince and that's why people won't feel PRINCE TRUTH and the prevalent confidence and divine self-esteem to move in and out of social circles that a true Prince carries.

You don't have to be in a family lineage like Prince William to have Prince qualities. (Prince the artist and Prince Royce claimed it for their identity anyways).

Understandably; most men don't give themselves permission and yet it is still possible with permission and a way (like actors do) to EMBODY such archetypal POWER to then affect their entire reality. You don't have to wait for extrinsic approval; you can CHOOSE it for your soul-based true identity.

Again; the archetypes and their authentic power and beauty (as impersonal, accessible chi quanta) run much of the real game of POWER, BEAUTY and influence. Diva, Starlet, Queen, Vixen, etc. They all have their own 'chi' signatures and quanta that you can embody in your chakric psyche and aura, thus your consciousness which THEN affects how you think, walk, talk, act.

It's not just Vixen STYLING (I hope this is starting to make sense); but it's Vixen CONSCIOUSNESS and Presence-Truth...THAT'S why it has so much POWER.

Again; K-Pop and much entertainment media is so powerful BECAUSE of the archetypes and alchemical levels of Allure (through which archetypal radiance runs individually through them).

It gives them beyond personal power and fortunately this isn't just a psychological discourse of studying archetypes, but we can now directly EMBODY THEM (which then f/x behavior and your image itself).

Even Alice Cooper plays a Dark archetype; villain on stages...earlier in his career he would have had a lot more shadow consciousness in his field before he became Christian ("wait; what?!" yup...but we ain't gettin' sidetracked here).

Light and Dark Archetypes have IM-personal power, beauty and influence on the collective that transcend the personalized self.

So to AMPLIFY your power and soul expression; you can essentially take an ARCHETYPAL approach to DESIGNING your fullest soul-centric expression and then embodying the IMMORTAL codes from the collective that others can feel as real through your allure (chakras and auric emanation).

Archetypes have great IDENTITY level life-change leverage to get your life on track to the life of your soul's desires...and of course to have that authentic, priceless vibe and light-truth to BE as your soul-self expressed with those magnified authentic qualities and visual influence.

I can help with all of this like in the Allure or Charisma Makeover Packages where you and I work on it directly for fastest results and transformation.

Anyways; so;

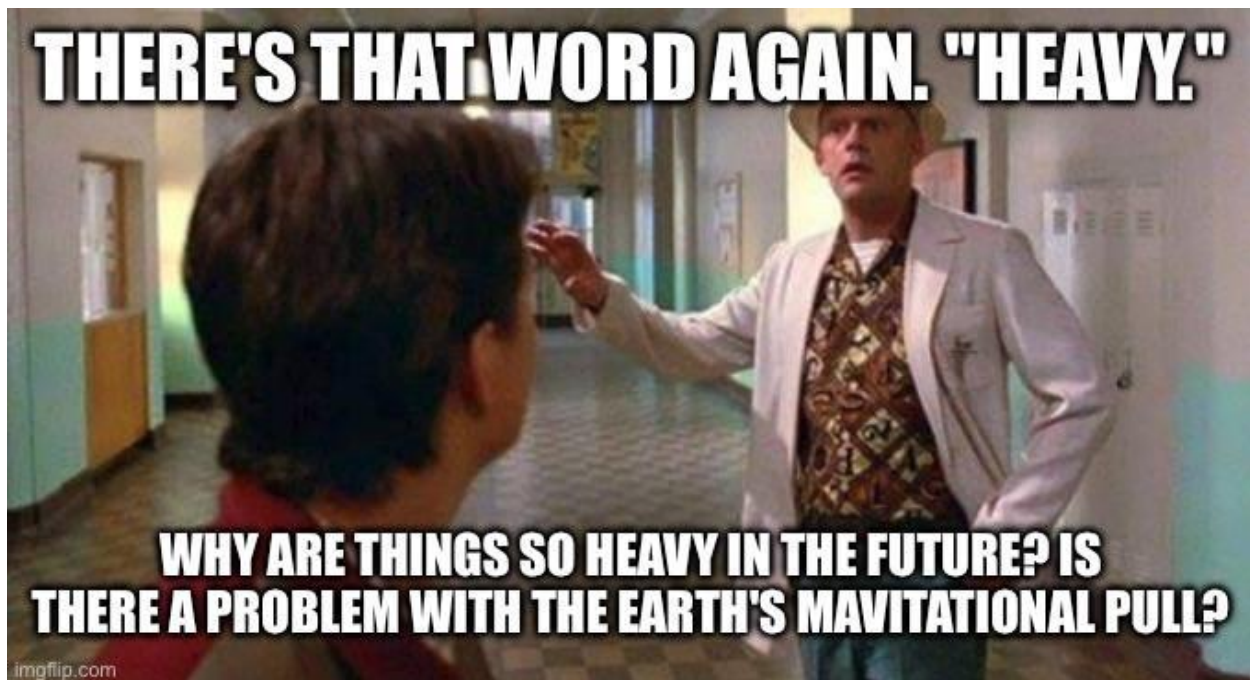

In order to go DEEPER into the Truth of 'the game' that's being played (historically as well); we have to look behind the veil of the typical machinery...we have to look beyond 'sex sells', algorithms, search engines, conscious manipulation and deeper into the Power and Truth of the Currency itself (and how it fx the game), ok?

It's best that you keep an open mind, and I think you'll start realizing and confirming that this is what it's always been. This is b/c COMMUNICATION (visual communication) isn't just psychological, it's also spiritual, sexual, psycho-sexual and psychic and we've been overlooking those variables as well as the power dynamic of radiant influence (like the sun) in STILLNESS.

I might even be as bold as to say that advertisers and behavioral scientists kinda forgot to look at the spiritual, psychic, psycho-sexual (from a higher perspective than primal) and the soulful drives and desires behind marketing and behavior (not merely psychological, emotional, sociological and biological).

First a disclaimer as we go into the core 'thing of value' that's driving basically everything and markets; s

It may not seem this is going to get heavy, but it kinda is.

This insight may be quite triggering and it has its pro's and cons. THE 'substance' of the 'currency' which comprises allure (and is another word for 'qi' or 'chi') has it's Lights, Darks and SHADOW dynamics b/c what we're talking about is essentially the most valuable thing in the Universe.

It's the GOLD itself not just for social media success but for living your MOST thriving and satisfying, love-filled, successful life - and with this awareness, you can start to find your place within it all (from a higher and then lower perspective).

(It has everything to do with your potential alchemical beauty and unlimited social influence and legacy).

My intention isn't to bring something really negative into the equation to sidetrack you or get angry about other misgivings, rather it's to reveal the sensitive deeper truth itself of HOW VALUABLE OF A 'COMMODITY' this 'substance' within allure is.

We simply want its healthy Light and Dark aspects in sovereignty, liberty and interdependence (and full expression and service to your people and the world) rather than shadow reality of oppression, harvesting and control.

"Wait - did you say 'harvesting'?"

Yeah.....

Generally, as an influencer who has your own social media, you should now have authority over all that you are doing in sovereignty...so that helps us (different than record contracts, etc. per se or darker soul contract agreements that may exist).

Now...

I've been INTENTIONALLY holding off on something here. This is where it starts getting even deeper with that big 'e' word reveal, WHAT IT REALLY IS and something else that will blow your mind about how the markets are really driven in these other prime aspects of multi-dimensional behavior and attraction.

Also keep in mind that Beauty and Power recognizes itself in others; so when you start cultivating this radiant inner beauty that people can feel (the divine 'street cred'), you're going to be more accepted amongst high status influencers and industry leaders.

You can view it as what levels you have power or beauty and value ON. (We're expanding the spectrum of the bandwidth of your communication here to give value to others on those more hidden levels that mean EVERYTHING).

So, we're talking about Beauty, but more specifically ALLURE as 'the (feminine) currency'; your higher dimensional light-matter radiance in all of your visual media. (Remember; I can read anyone's 'allure factor' effectively on a scale of 0-10 b/c of my experience of seeing so many people with allure and the spectrum of it).

The masculine form of this social media currency would be 'charisma', but as we know by now it's not at all just about pumping yourself up and being a confident 'go-getter' (eye roll).

So, as we do this big reveal, remember you can customize all of this to YOU and I think you're going to want these embedded, encoded in ALL of your upcoming future media also b/c it allows you to express like a SOUL-STARLET that innovates her own way in HER TRUTH rather than merely following fickle trends. And then you can keep GROWING your allure b/c there's no limit!

You may have been affected BY shadow dynamics or maybe are oppressed under them right now related with this and shining your allure, so this is quite sensitive here.

And yet it's also how Goddess and Diva or Maiden impersonal, iconic BEAUTY and influence can be on your side to AMPLIFY your personalized self and magnify your response. (What would the STARLET version of yourself be felt like with your soul tribe?)

Ok, Ok...so here we go ...now it's time.

Related to the 2 primordial forces of Power and Beauty (the highest status things in all dimensions)....

"What on earth (or heavens) IS allure comprised of?"

....You were saying it's the most valuable substance in the Universe?!"

Well, I did say that it is the plasmic, meta-physical spirit-matter 'substance' of chi, however there's another term for it that might sound VERY familiar.

Remember; we're talking about HUMAN power and influence (beyond physical or muscular power) as embodied (rather than geo-thermal or German engineering mechanical forms of power); so power and beauty related to human, social influence.

The qualities of influence are psychic, eros-somatic, emotional, sexual, spiritual, mental/psychological and can have kinetic, vibrational influence (4D) or 5D radiative light-felt influence as allure/charisma.

AS you develop more chi-centric power or beauty you're going to have more influence on people socially in these ways.

So WHAT is this allure or charisma comprised of (as another term for 'chi')?

What is this most valuable, sought after 'substance', 'high frequency matter' or 'thing' in the Universe (and online socially from a higher perspective)?

Here's that 'e' word:

It's ESSENCE.

Essence....sound familiar?

Aha! Yeah.....but now we KNOW WHAT IT ACTUALLY IS.

It's not just some esoteric, vague 'concept'.

For Beauty, it's 'Feminine Essence' and for Charisma we could call it generally 'Masculine ESSENCE'... a.k.a. spirit-sentient light-plasma matter and its vibrational and light RADIANCE that can be EMBODIED (Presence) and expressed through the channels of (allure/charisma).

Allure and charisma are generally the feminine and masculine channels of flowing essences (and their photonic nature) which can be masculine, feminine or neutral.

Generally feminine women will have more feminine essence/s.

(Yes; you can have mixtures of more masculine or feminine essences no matter your biological sex), but this isn't merely psychological personality traits, rather the energetic-truth qualities of the light-body or eros-soma.

And essences essentially are qualities within the spectrum and platform of chi/qi/ki/prana/orgone.

See...'chi' is essentially spirit-MATTER and life force.

It's just that there are more qualities than 'general' life force kind of like with 'oil' there are 'essential' oils; a whole spectrum of them.

This is a UNIVERSAL and yet human truth b/c we are more than just meat suits. Spirit life-force essence is our SOULFUL and spiritual INHERITANCE as human which gives us practical access and embodiment of the divine.

Essence or chi (and I'll keep using things inter-changeably) is sentient light plasma and are the qualities and different frequencies of light emanation encoded in the collective sub and supra-conscious.

Like there's a spectrum of the color frequency range; there is also a multi-band spectrum of different essences of consciousness and their corresponding vibe and light-truth qualities.

So as an example of archetypal Vixen 'essence' there's Vixen Light and there's Vixen Vibe-truth (4D) which is lower density.

And then there's styling like a Vixen (3D) for example. To be the complete package you would want BOTH the consciousness and self-esteem vibe-truth integration and embodiment as well as the styling.

This way we FEEL her as a Vixen and THAT'S where the money is; being the real deal instead of just looking like it.

Lalisa switches between Muse-Vixen and Vixen-Muse allure in the Pink Venom MV. And we can start being aware of WHICH archetype light signature and presence she carries in different performances for example. (MUSE IS THE GODDESS of Celebration, the Arts & Entertainment btw).

This may be a STRANGE concept to understand at first; to really differentiate between the essenced 'atmosphere' and the physical body; because we are so conditioned into our PHYSICAL WORLD and our PHYSICAL bodies that it seems out there and impractical (even woo-woo) - that something 'subtle' that you may not have felt directly yet yourself could actually be a thing of SUBSTANCE.

(And actually I bet that you HAVE felt it as in our references, examples and any exercises).

We're USED to physical contact, physical sports, touching and so forth Barney Rubble, so it just takes a shift in awareness to focus on the 'subtle' non-physical influence but this is where the real game is played of power and influence BECAUSE you aren't physically going to be in contact with millions of fans anyways.

WE are high talking high-frequency truth kinda like how the gamma waves are real on that sunken nuclear sub that you dove to in Lake Michigan as a teen.

Just b/c it's higher frequency doesn't mean that it doesn't exist. We can feel the sun's rays even when they're multi-band outside of the color spectrum; just like you can FEEL someone's presence who has King embodied for example in front of you.

We take our physical, 'body' values over into the meta-physical realm of light; images and video and still aren't seeing the bigger picture and yet still; it's all represented in the truth of your LIGHT.

Remember Thorga, it doesn't have to be physical to affect you (and it affects you/us in different ways). Telekinesis is a side subject but one of the things trad-sci also cannot explain b/c they can't prove it with THEIR models as well as 100s of other things that DO exist they cannot prove (referenced in the U.T. book of mine).

Trad-science still can't accept the reality of Chi and what it means whereas millions of experienced people around the world already do. It would change the model of reality but this is WHY charisma has such quantum power and you KNOW that we're more than just meat-suits...ok, maybe if you're hardcore atheist not-so but I'd explore more into it b/c then you cannot answer those 100s of phenomenae either.

I always sought a higher truth and am open to always more clarity.

Media IS meta-physical light and 'information'...different realms of influence in which we want to tune into how we and people respond and the subtle yet powerful energies.

This is key to understand that just b/c it's higher frequency or 'photonic' doesn't mean that it's not there. Just because a lot of consumers can't consciously 'see' and name the archetypes like I can, doesn't mean they're not there.

The kind of power (meta-physical and light) we're valuing here;

It's not meant to compare to 'horse power'; we're talking meta-physical influence. There are different forms of power (here; allure that that affects, heart, spirit, mind, eros-soma, soul...).

Yet ironically, chi/essence is a thing of 'matter', just higher vibrational matter that has a photonic nature. But it still has power to do things like my Grandmaster could turn wet mud into dry dirt-dust with his hands in 30 seconds...and scald your body with his hands and a tin foil. So this may be a whole new world to you...we have the deeper and open 'Science of Charisma' which unifies 'chi' and even spirituality with all of this...we DO exist in more than one dimension.

So if you're in the presence of Jennie Kim with such a clean aura;

Her field is going to start actually cleaning YOUR aura and wiping away debris while you're meanwhile focusing on her hairstyling and so forth (understandably). We're just being more aware of this other dynamic of communication and power.

Remember that visual images of humans are LIGHT and that includes Light or radiation outside of the ROYGBIV visible spectrum range. THE SUN RAYS are still there even behind the clouds as its own 'force' or power.

The same thing exists in the EMF spectrum that is outside of the visible range like with gamma or x-rays.

They're invisible to OUR naked eye, but they still exist. Even if you can't see an X-man in your hometown, they still exist in their own cinematic universe. Maybe not the best example.

We're used to normal reality but even bio-chemists are taking precautions b/c they are in different worlds and frequencies..it's kinda like that.

As you increase your embodiment (presence) and expression (charisma) of these universal essences and cultivate your light body; you will notice that people everyone start being affected by your field and noticing you...this is b/c we are communicating on these other dimensions or frequencies of band-width. (Psychics and intuitives are just generally more aware of those dimensions to 'read' them accurately).

ESSENCE/chi is higher frequency (faster) than denser physical energy of your corporeal body.

This is because we are souls and have consciousness and multi-layered, multi-dimensional light-body outside of being an amoeba or just a meat suit. BOTH mortal-bio and higher frequency.

Now; essence connects us practically to the realm of spirituality and consciousness itself. It's the spirit matter of 'presence'. 1 angle is simply about how developed, beautiful or powerful your SOUL is and then communicating those qualities.

And this is where things get ultra-spiritual and yet ultra-practical. If you've ever felt 'the Presence of God' or the Holy Spirit...or literal ghosts even...this is all related to the multi-dimensional life force which gives all sentience life (in tandem with biological life).

Western scientists can't measure chi (which obviously exists and I can get anyone to feel it) but my grandmaster (R.I.P.) and I can; we just have different tools and ways to do it.

We as human are both fully mortal (physical) and generally speaking immortal (meta-physical). There is MUCHO spiritual research on all of this including thousands of NDEs reported (near-death experiences). NDE research is its own side-study rabbit hole that will expand your mind.

You don't have to believe God or Spirit (or other religious lenses) on it is real in order to get into allure transformation; I'm just saying, there are deeper truths founding and backing all of this (magic) up.

Plant medicine is a way in which you can start viewing experience from the perspective of your soul in the astral and higher realms to realize there is OBVIOUSLY more than just the physical plane Wilma Flintstone.

It's more 4u2 explore, but as souls we incarnate into a human body and at death the soul-fractal self leaves the body and takes away the life force.

In other words you don't really die, you just transition into a different state of sentience. This is a DEEPER study and a lot to take on even though you may not fully agree with it yet.

Again; a photo of a dead person (which I won't show here) gets you to actually see what just physical energy looks like. It's also like that lifeless Madame Tussaud's station of Bruce Willis on the quinta ave.; lifeless. In all visual media of (alive) humans (I should've been more explicit before); we are getting these other higher frequency bandwidths of information.

Chi. Essence.

And your soul tribe clients and super-fans are SENSING and getting that information whether they are conscious of it or not – and THAT is what is super-driving things.

Again; if you want to go deeper..

I recommend my 'Uniphied Theory' report which is an amalgamation of decades of spiritual experience and research that proposes 100s of things that Western Science can NOT answer to in support of the Truth of God, Ghosts, religions, heaven, hell, spirituality, remote viewing, astral travel, psychic senses, serendipity and many other things. Chi is all part of it and what makes allure and charisma possible beyond our otherwise 2 inches of weak bio-photons.

Some people can have charisma that extends hundreds of meters. Likely Taylor Swift on the Eras Tour but she has reason to.

Fortunately (and again); you don't have to BELIEVE in God or Gods of different religions or even 'chi' to get into allure transformation; there's just deeper experience and research to back this all up. After all; this is the active Science of Charisma!

Now, let's take a quick re-look at the definitions of 'allure' and 'charisma' with essence included.

Allure;

‘al·lure’

'the radiant and engaging emanation of feminine essences; plasmic sentient-spirit quanta (chi) with and through the human aura (usually biological female)'

Charisma (Theirs)

Their definition (which is actually implicated in our deeper truth definition) cha·ris·ma

/kəˈrɪzmə/

noun

compelling attractiveness or charm that can inspire devotion in others.

"she enchanted guests with her charisma"

Charisma

My definition 2024:

cha·ris·ma

/kəˈrɪzmə/

noun

'the radiant and engaging emanation of masculine essences; plasmic sentient-spirit quanta (chi) with and through the human aura (usually biological male)'

Ok!

Whether you believe it or not, you DO have an energy body that is more than just physical and it emits 'something' (not merely biophotons).

This is what allows people to feel your presence (whether we call that psychic or not; we've all experienced it). Energy workers can already feel, sense and work on your chakras with permission whether you are aware of them. You CAN learn to sense and feel this.

What you're LITERALLY feeling when someone has a badass 'vibe' that rocks your body and stirs your thinking is essence through the channel of their charisma/allure which are chakric and auric emanation of spirit-plasma essence.

Essences of Power and Beauty are again; the archetypes, elementals, soul signature, gift and siddhic frequency bands..

So, there's more data than we realized in professional image and video of humans being communicated psychically, sexually, spiritually and status-wise in the BIG GAME of the divine itself; we were just focused so much on the skin-deep beauty.

I don't mind repeating it b/c it may be new for you;

Beauty is multi-dimensional Light radiance of Spirit-sentience a.k.a. (also known as) 'chi' or 'essence'.

So I don't want to go too much on a tangent and you can discover it for yourself (even from a local reiki healer), but 'chi' 'qi' or 'prana' is VERY real. I can teach anyone to FEEL it, sense it and see it. I work with it on my own energy body all the time as well as with clients.

And although 'essence' is over-looked or vaguely referred to by most of the Beauty industry, they universally VALUE it. That's also why this upcoming REVOLUTION (I predict) is going to be so exciting!

Now we have definition AND we can start to literally SEE the essence qualities from the 100s of distinct signatures.

Think of the value of the 'gold' itself of ESSENCE....in a world, realm or region where it doesn't exist much at all, to have just ONE DROP of its TRUTH could be invaluable. Like one drop of GRACE essence in the pits of Hell. Or one foton of authentic Muse Light in the midst of the Dark Ages...it gives us more contemplation value.

I've literally only seen one bona-fide muse in Playa del Carmen walking the quinta Avenida after living year for years. ONE. She single-handedly had more Muse quanta than ALLLLL of the other people put together.

Fortunately; being 'online' as an influencer you have access to more than maybe just being 'regional'. YOUR ideal soul tribe super-fans and clients are already OUT THERE! And you can reach them. What qualities do you want to cultivate that speaks to them? What 'gold drops' of essence do you want them to experience?

Just reference my years of celebrity archetype readings; you can learn to tune in to SEE the signature flavors of beauty and power that charismatic people have (in addition to just focusing on their styling, physique and skin-deep appeal).

Yes - essence is high-frequency PLASMIC or spirit plasma-matter which means it's FEELABLE and can have photo-chemical influence (like the sun).

When it emits from humans we can call that radiance (instead of 'radiation').

That's why you can feel someone's powerful presence from across the room; they have real embodied power (chi and lots of it of variable frequencies and amplitude). Their light body can hold more of the essence or 'quanta'.

Here's a gratuitous image of Jason Momoa charismatically embodying and expressing Eros and Warrior essence aka spirit-matter quanta:

Can you sense a power of his field in more than a flat 2-dimension?
(Charisma!)

Light sorcery baby!

And another, (why not)?

Of course many will defer to his styling and body composition, etc. which is PART of the professional picture of pro image. CHARISMA CONSULTING COVERS THE OTHER ENTIRE HALF.

Maybe imagine if you were in front of him - but close your eyes b/c actually blind people could learn to 'FEEL' presence pretty well...

And in the astro-bio physical world of Science, we have other plasmas that are also known as the 4th state of matter; a mixture of gas and liquid. Chi is SENTIENT PLASMA MATTER.

Actually, I didn't ever think of naming it 'Sexy Plasma' until now but I'll stick with Sexy Chi.

Sexy Chi™

CHI is ESSENCE. And it's the essence of immortal DIVINITY of God and Goddess FRACTALS throughout history that all humans (who are really souls incarnate into physical vessels) have potential access to.

So, if you've been INTO the concept of auras and spirituality; get excited b/c it ALLLLL pulls together with allure and the truth of the consciousness behind with and through it (heck; even crystals can support cultivating your allure and energy body health).

Chi / Essence is the sentient light-presence of consciousness. It's not sourced the same as inorganic EMF light. These realities of the astro-bio and divine co-exist.

As much as we value the physical 'solid touch' (which is still vibrating energy);

Essence is TANGIBLE and palpable (just, higher frequency plasma-matter as a sentient form of Light); we just have to shift our focus to the atmosphere.

This is also why gentle, tender beauty can have such a profound impact b/c it doesn't rely on 'brute force' b/c this is all meta-physical power and influence.

Quite likely, you've felt someone's vibe and sensations in your somebody before around someone who had charisma or your favorite star when you were a teen.

Maybe you remember your heart skipping a beat to INXS in the 80's?

Michael Hutchence here has a lot sacral activated Eros AND an open Heart chakra allowing a double-whammy of charismatic (expressed) life force power to affect the soma of unsuspecting and returning fans around the world.

Again; it just takes some more sensitivity for you to start focusing on it and FEELING it like professional energy healers do b/c we're so used to PHYSICAL touch instead of psychic, spiritual, emotional and soulful touch.

You can even note that you ARE responding and getting excited in your body and note the different sensations around future people who have charisma or allure. As a starlet, you could open yourself up energetically to RECEIVE more attention, spotlight and recognition healthily (and there are shadow and dark aspects with all archetypes as well).

We're not making essence up; it's tangible and it's real. Energy workers, reiki masters, lightworkers are in that world all the time. (Thing is; not a single one of them ever translated for me that it's the same thing as charisma and allure; that it's all connected).

We feel it and I can teach anyone to feel it 'energy/essence' in person. Crystals also have energy that can be felt and you can train yourself to start feeling things more other than just physical touch.

Just b/c you aren't aware of it in a daily mundane, physical life (nor would feel it from non-charismatic people), doesn't mean it's not there. Ok; some of you already in MY circle are definitely aware of it.

STARS STAND OUT b/c they have real power, that's what we're valuing for you to have more organic influence.

So to be clear;

Charisma and allure are the CHANNELS of essence or chi (with and through your energy body; aka chakras and aura).

We can measure the LITERAL DISTANCE of how far your chi or 'energy' projects from your chakras and aura. (There are different pop references to 'vibe', 'swagger', 'energy', 'aura' in music bts).

So if your field isn't reaching far enough to someone else's heart chakra, they're not likely to FEEL you...Ohhh.....getting it?

Can you see how central this is to INFLUENCE ITSELF? Public speaking? If they can't FEEL YOU but just 'see you'?

A singers voice at a concert booming through a microphone affects the entire ATMOSPHERE and then the light-body auras and everything else FROM VIBRATION...the same dynamic of influence (similar) is happening VISUALLY.

How about video recording and photo shoots? etc...you want your field to extend to the nosebleeds if you're an onstage performer so they can FEEL the touch of your aura and chakras back up there (well; and the higher frequency refined essence signatures that your soul desires to express).

YES, it's magical because THAT'S TRUE POWER! And it IS VIBRATIONAL even though Newtonian scientists or physicists might have a hard time keeping up with it.

Dr. Emoto's experiment alone could start feeling like a grundy to them shifting in their physical seats...let alone quantum physics.

Is it starting to make sense now? And how most consumers only emanate conditioning a few inches from their bodies and wonder why people can't FEEL the immortal, archetypal power of Prince, Princess or Queen for example.

It's partly b/c many believe they are only physical beings without spiritual power or beauty but also b/c they're simply more personalized and not living in their greater soul power in service and expression to/for others...so their 'light' is blocked. Many are just too filled with conditioning to live their higher soul truth and spiritual dharma...let alone the power, magic, bliss and beauty it could behold – to truly be developed, expressed and free on those levels.

Now that we have this specialized awareness; I'm eventually going to bring in what I call 'e3' to start more practically working with things for pro allure consulting and transformation.

It will help you start understanding and seeing things more energetically as far as the power of visual influence. We'll get to e3 shortly enough (ok maybe much further down but we'll get to it).

So, for MASTERING Beauty and your visual communication; your allure;

There are already 100s of known and named signature vibe and light truth (4D, 5D+) of radiance sourced in the spectrum of consciousness as chi (more than just yin and yang qi).

It's kind of like how there is more than Oregano and Lemongrass essential oils...there's a whole spectrum with 100s of beauty essences (including archetypal, elemental, gift and siddhic).

I do these embodiment activations all the time for clients around the world.

Again;

The key concept here with 'spirit-matter' is that it is TANGIBLE - but you would best have to accept that it's not the same as physical power or physical touch.

It's SPIRITUAL and DIVINE POWER, yet actually FEELABLE.

Honestly; Luke it's literally like 'feeling the force' and stepping into a new world for the first time.

Honestly, what I do IS like Jedi shit that defies physics 24/7. This is b/c of the Uniphied field (the deeper spiritual science is behind and with all of this).

Energy workers get to feel this 'chi' and work with it directly...you can learn to and shift your senses to feel it as well. But like Jedi's, not all have the same or abilities...different 'energy' workers work differently and with different levels of power or access to Spirit/source/the field. ANYWAYS...

When I was at an ashram and the enlightened guru walked in, we could FEEL his power from 10 feet away as he sat across the room. He didn't have to physically touch us in order for us to feel his presence (embodiment of chi) and charisma (emanant expression of chi).

Being in the presence of his essenced chi as power (and powerful Light) was already attuning our own DNA like a tuning fork and moving our experience soulfully, spiritually, emotionally and bio-chemically into higher vibrations/experience.

It's just easier to know this as tangible when you've been around someone who definitely and obviously has it like if you met a star or enlightened guru; you could FEEL their power from their TANGIBLE (plasmic, subtle yet true and powerful) radiance.

Again; THAT'S the variable we want to value and focus on b/c it's the GOLD currency to be able to have INFLUENCE meta-physically on others like with social visual media (film, video, photographs, tiktok).

So essence aka 'chi' is also like the meta-physical light of your ATMOSPHERE (aura) kind of like how the planetary body of earth is physical (yet also vibrating energy just lower density).

Remember that our visual media (EVERY photo of humans; er, alive humans) is ALL LIGHT information and meta-physical...there is data there, even if it's outside of the normal visible color spectrum; the information is still there (the power and beauty as essenced power)...

...And even if you're not psychic to tune into these higher frequency bands of communication; MANY OF US ALREADY ARE to 'read it'.

Consider that many of YOUR future clients and fans ARE becoming more intuitively aware of the truth of your communication. Thinking decades into the future and it would be a sure bet (also b/c the divine feminine has been awakening in much of the world).

Because you are a soul, you have potential access to consciousness and the ESSENCES of the immortal masculine and feminine archetypal and other timeless qualities of radiant TRUTH.

Here's me embodying and charismatically expressing Magician Soul-Warrior Truth or 'quanta'. The movements only support it b/c it is ESSENCED.

Essence is the EXPONENTIAL CURRENCY...it's GOLD on the spirit and soul levels or dimensions of reality, communication, power and influence. "There's just something about him" is simply people KNOWING and sensing true power and magnetism is there without being able to consciously put words to it (and getting the rewards OF their REPOSE) - but now we can start to accurately name the truth of these qualities - that's with the whole realm of pro charisma consulting now.

See...we're all connected to the same Source of multi-dimensional Sentience (animals are too but to a lesser degree). Our lower self might be thing in the WAY (and our egoic identity and conditioning with it).

Thing is; you might have to shift at an identity level to access the real power and beauty so is your soul ready for that?

Not all are. Many just want to be comfortable culture-clones or minions Gru..(I don't know where I was going with that).

For all the focus on 'personal growth' and reinforcement of egoic, lower self-identity; the real POWER and Beauty is with impersonal growth; largely with the archetypes.

There's too much power and beauty quanta for a personalized and chakra-stuffed-with-conditioning self to hold. And think of how performers have to sacrifice their lower self and rebirth to live from their liberated soul to be able to hold the presence to be able to influence 1000s and millions of people.

And ALL of this is now practically workable more directly than ever!

If you're on a SOUL DHARMA esp. one of FULLEST expression..this is central, critical stuff to maximize and live your highest timelines socially, professionally, spiritually and in all the ways.
(Charisma/allure work).

I've done literally 100s of paid archetype embodiment activations (also getting them to breathe as allure in each session) for clients around the world cultivating their charisma and ability for people TO FEEL THEM. I've got 100's of testimonials so here's just a small handful.

"The combined 3 hours of your work done on me has changed my life a thousand times over" -Client, FL

Often; people will JUST RESPOND and look at you, flirt, feel attraction, be compelled, etc. when just going about their day.

Usually, they're not consciously aware of what's going on or can name the qualities like more of us can - but they're responding to the FEELABLE power and beauty of essenced people (the highest levels of which is alchemical and literally transformational in stillness).

Once you start to understand this (and how connected we are on higher dimensional levels), it all of a sudden might seem REALLLY constricting and even embarrassing that we've been focused only on superficial skin-deep beauty instead of THIS.

Those general wellness tips and techniques don't DIRECTLY relate to assured results on camera - but proper allure work DOES. Getting your skin conditioned and glowing is SECONDARY at best to the deeper GOLD of the currency itself (which yes, is essence but keep reading b/c there's more with this that will pull together).

Do you want to risk throwing out your higher bandwidth beauty that people would respond to WILDLY to only favor skin-deep accentuation?

Beauty should be centered on LIGHT, not merely the extrinsic Beauty of form (body); the light of BOTH (earth and atmosphere).

Now we are breaking open the final frontier itself to true Beauty and social media visual influence mastery...with a conscious competence!

Remember; most stars and starlets already have charisma or allure (often that fluctuates); but they have a REASON to take on such embodied power (essenced chi) b/c they are serving MILLIONS OF PEOPLE. I hope you have a reason or purpose to...maybe it goes deeper than just being an influencer. What's your reason?

Most people just don't have a way to access essence quanta and the higher dimensions (more powerful and transfiguring frequencies and amplitude of them) or a reason enough to take on impersonal power and beauty like that b/c of conditioning, limited self, etc.

Remember; I mentioned how actors must sacrifice their personal self and have a reason to take on greater signature power and beauty for their characters (and influence millions of people).

The Beauty essences (archetypal, siddhic, elemental) are what can be accessed, embodied in your chakras and radiate out of your chakras and aura. This SOMATIC EMBODIMENT is different than 'studying them' (although that has its place).

Towards the end I'll give some recommendations on how to do it.

Here's another example of what I call a 1-2 archetype combo reading of a celebrity who has impersonal vibe and light-truth essence signatures of ;

\(More celebrity readings on the blog\)

There are different signature essences that we can now work with directly.

Remember; from my 'Theory of Fotonic Quanta'; image is more than just pixelated images of EMF light-source...it's a holographic grid encoding of POWER and BEAUTY essence itself (when and where it exists); the 2 primordial forces of the Universe.

How about the Bitch-Muse archetype combo?

Archetypes can manifest from and in any culture for embodiment..here Grimes;

And...(surprise)..

Heck; even Sylvester Stallone's wife has Muse-Mother essence embodiment.

Do you want your fans to THINK you are this thing or to have them FEEL AND KNOW on a deep level that you are it?

Archs are part of your full spectrum of soul beauty and expression!
Archetypes can also be embodied at ANY AGE!

And anytime that media is recorded of humans, there is also its equivalent of Akashic records stored.

That means all (visual) data also psychically accessible remotely (that means kinesthetically holographic and feelable; I teach the Muse Priestesses this; but don't worry, it's not 'compromising' information...it's general charisma based dynamics from your chakras and aura).

Even when I'm detoxing from client's chakras, I'm rarely meant to know exactly 'what garbage' is being released; we're just getting stuff out that doesn't belong in the psyche anymore...we don't have to dig through it or psycho-analyze.

YOUR MEDIA as you record it in what you think is 2D; essentially becomes a 3D/4D/5D hologram of information b/c FOTONS have POWER behind them sourced in sentience.

So - consider that consumers are not actually interacting with your live field in recorded media; but all of the same POWER can be there to influence. They are essentially interfacing not with just your 2D 'content' or 'video' but when you have allure/charisma, inter-facing and being affected by holographically by it.

This is impossible by the 'lens' of Western Science and physics; this quantum kind of influence BUT YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE. And how else could we be affected?

That's why I recommend you differentiate non-sentient light from sentient BEAUTY light like I do by calling them 'photons' and 'fotons' respectively. It's a more accurate view of things.

The camera will still translate photonic information to digital pixels for example, but again; the SENTIENT LIGHT is holographically encoded (with whatever live presence you have then b/c your charisma can fluctuate with e3 dynamics).

People who aren't as sensitive are usually more affected in person and non-consciously responding around power and beauty ; but anyone can increase their sensitivity. And it's not even about shining bright...you might want to be with a November harvest moon and bring that vibe to things. It's all accessible AND as dynamic as you want to be.

Btw;

The Muse Priestesses and I can remotely connect to anyone's holographic imprint of ESSENCES and field without interfering with their free will b/c data is stored in the uniphied field either from recorded VISUALS or remotely. We can also read any archetypal embodiment on a scale of 0-10 at any point in time.

We can literally FEEL the multi-d qualities of their spirit-matter plasma (without affecting their live field) and when we do it make sure we are doing it with integrity (all visual information is generally public anyways). We always get PERMISSION to remotely connect to someone's 'live field' or to do work with it. I've been sharpening my psychic skills and powers for years through my own devotional reunification as well as 100s of client sessions.

All of this already exists whether you believe in it or not and once you start 'feeling energy' you may start having more empirical proof for yourself that it could also be known as 'subtle matter' but it's not only that; it's what true power and beauty is sourced in.

*Just visualize sitting 2 feet in front of your favorite star (or have an image of them in front of you) and how the radiance from their field would start shifting things inside of you that you cannot explain.

Pick any alluring picture on this page for example. Practice 'inching forward' closer to their field and see if you can sense the 'connect' even though it's frozen in time (the power is still here). Magic huh?

And we thought it was just pixels?! It's the power encoded with through and behind b/c it's not just PHOTONS, it's fotons.

According to Western science which doesn't accept the reality-truth of 'chi' and multi-dimensionality that religions and spiritually all know is that you'd only have 2" of weak bio-photonic light emission b/c they don't accept that you are more than a physical body.

Ok; believe that and stay left behind for decades with just a focus on superficial beauty and let other social influencers thrive with allure then! We're not talking about Newtonian physics of power dynamics here Scrat from Ice Age getting that acorn.

Just an idea...it would help if you could accept it all right away, BUT you don't have to...it might take you more time...you might be understandably skeptical so I encourage you to do deeper experiential research then.

I mean; how else could you feel the power from someone's vibe across the room hitting your own field (or leaping off the screen from someone who really has charisma)?

Or...Lenny

Could such charismatic stars and such Beauty be important b/c they remind us of who we really are? And who we could become and awaken into experience as?

“Welcome to the world of my beloved archetype king – Rion – no one and I mean NO ONE does archetypes and beyond like this man”

-Australian client

Fort. again; you don't have to fully believe in all of it to get results from your allure and charisma; I just wanted to bring a more solid foundation of awareness to give you the real power to thrive.

So...if essence is FEELABLE b/c it is high frequency plasma-matter radiance (although you may only practically feel it around already powerful and beautiful people; not muggles); therein gives you THE POWER to radically become a STAR/LET yourself and increase your influence. I wouldn't give up skin-deep beauty in search of 'inner beauty' and throwing all visuals in the towel bin...you can now do both to get ON-CAMERA results.

Even with the astrology connection and translation it would now be how the Zodiac signs have their own signature essence qualities that you can 'sense' if someone is ie. a 'Leo' ON-CAMERA. Everything we're valuing here is results on-camera from your live visual and feelable presence.

So; the LIGHT of your pro image is more than just your human body or 'skin-deep'.

It's the Truth of impersonal Feminine essence embodiment and expression including HOW the masculine in ALL WAYS wants to connect with it or even control, pillage or abuse it. THESE DYNAMICS GO WITH THE ENTIRE TERRITORY; Light, Dark and Shadow.

Thus; your ESSENCES (including soul essence) are precious.

ESSENCE is the palpable meta-physical VALUE itself.

(Remember; digital media is LITERALLY meta-physical so what people are FEELING with charismatic people in otherwise 2D pixels is the holographic grid. It's not just photons; it's the truth-POWER of sentience and Beauty behind it).

But this is more profound than it seems whether you're keeping up with it or not.

I introduced essence and I want to highlight something related to power, status and influence itself. Your soul itself is plasmic ESSENCE which allows you to potentially express the Light of it in image. It's what people are actually seeking to CONNECT WITH.

oK;

This is BIG.

Let's go through the Logos of it again.

SO essence is the higher frequency MATTER (plasmic-sentient matter with photonic batches of it as 'quanta') that is what comprises consciousness, immortality and mortal sentience.

Remember; brain dead people have had subjective soul-based consciousness with NDE's and all of that side-study research to back all this up. (I know heaven and hell are real b/c of ayahuasca which CONFIRMS religious historical outlook on things but that is more U.T. book stuff)

So if we are multi-dimensional and our LIGHT of all live-human image is multi-dimensional....Beauty and its EMANATION is of WHAT specifically?

ESSENCE (aka 'chi' aka 'quanta') and different signatures of essence as radiance through the channels of allure and charisma through your energy body (chakras and aura).

We were just focused again on the ROYGBIV lower frequency spectrum of beauty-light itself.

I think this is the most accurate lens for 'inner beauty' anyways b/c it's (your soul and spiritual truth and) ALL 100% relevant to on-camera visual communication, power and INFLUENCE (rather than indirect personality, talents, horoscope columns, degrees, quirks or a unique look).

Ok...we gotta go deeper and heavier, ok?

Here's the big kahuna (as I might've inferred it before b/c we have to get more into the multi-dimensional MARKET DRIVE of powerful attraction and influence);

FMININE SPIRIT MATTER PLASMA (AKA 'CHI' or 'ESSENCE') which in batches of spirit-matter could be called spirit-quanta...

FEMININE ESSENCED QUANTA is the HONEY of the Universe.

FEMININE ESSENCE is the HONEY of the Universe.

FEMININE QUANTA is the HONEY of the Universe.

It's essentially THE MOST VALUABLE RESOURCE.

It's like the 'spice' (resource) of the planet Arrakis in Dune.

EVERYONE VALUES IT. And in a sense, it's not even 'personal'....it's more related with your SOUL (and spirit qualities) itself. Since many of us are not conscious of this dynamic, it can really mess us up, or set us free.

Feminine Essence is essentially the most valuable thing (to humans) in the UNIVERSE (and to discarnate entities)...portal to Creation; we've just been seeing it from a lower dimensional er and excluding the SPIRITUAL, DIVINE GAME being played out as well as deeper psycho-sexual and soulful desires, drives and values (where immortality, existential doom and deeper fulfillment is at stake).

Everyone wants it or a piece of it or from a spiritual perspective, a piece of 'Her'. They are magnetically DRAWN TO IT also b/c She is the source of Life.

Remember those 'Sweet Dreams' lyrics?

"Some of them want to use you..."

It's optimal to view it from a practical SOUL and spiritual LENS b/c then we can see the ARCHETYPAL and IMMORTAL power dynamics around it; the bigger game rather than merely the lower dimensional behavioral and sociological dynamics (which are also quite obvious to see it's the most valued thing essentially as well).

It's more than just random, creepy guys DM'ing you or sending you unwanted d*ck pics...there's more going on here.

The higher dimensional game is also what is influencing POWERFULLY the lower dimensional behavior, exploitation, attraction and use or abuse of resource. When we cannot see it, we remain non-conscious to the forces.

This just gives us the full story and it's an ancient and mythic one that even gets into RELIGION (uh-oh).

FEMININE ESSENCE (aka 'Life Force Sentient Matter') is the secret to LIFE not just mortally, but it's an/the elixir of immortal life spiritually to the awakening masculine (on a practical level of REINCARNATION and soul evolution).

And if there are expanded frequency bands, maybe there ARE demons that would also want to control or use it? And demons that could act with and through the consciousness of lower masculine in spirit and souls playing out in behavior? Hmmm..

If there is ONE primordial quality the Feminine aspect of God (a la Sophia) would have (the Holy Mother) it would be BEAUTY.

Yes, Beauty at the SOURCE of all (and NOT necessarily the prestige of being the neighborhood groupon guru).

And Beauty AS actual spirit-matter that is tangible. Matter/quanta that can be EMBODIED.

This is really profound; when you consider that (arguably) there wouldn't even be sentient biological life without life force spirit (divine godliness) which animates everything.

Let me repeat that;

Essence as BEAUTY is the SUBSTANCE of the most valuable thing in the Universe; essentially the Divine Feminine which can be embodied and expressed (AND; in many ways She scares the crap out of tyrannical men who would want to control Her).

It's not just 'humanity' but the higher concordant reality of spirit-life within the universe.

Can you put a price on the value of a soul (if you do accept that truth-based premise)? And from that perspective, can we see 'the game' if we are all souls and how rarely things are HONORED?...or 'commoditized' and how it suppressed our SOUL FREEDOM and potential?...

Yes, essence as substance....palpable, feelable spirit-matter (usually embodied in those who have Her but you can also learn to sense yin and yang chi for example as universal fields).

It's not where that individual random pretty woman is doing her own thing with last years Fendi bag at a storefront as an 'other'; but where we are all connected on a higher dimensional level WITH GOD & GODDESS-truth and some of us just have more embodiment of that sentient consciousness and essence....

Powerful and alluring people (who are really souls in a human body) reconnect us and remind us of our inherent divine power in our own process of Awakening.

It's the personal self with body vs. the immortal, divine self as soul connected to Spirit. It's both really. Your beauty is both mortal-physical and divine/meta-physical.

Again; It just takes someone with strong charisma or allure for most muggles (aka 'normies') to start realizing there is something more going on than just physical bodies. It cues us into our TRUE DIVINE NATURE....that we hath forgotten.

Shit; what if we ARE actually queens, goddess, kings and heros on an immortal scale?!

Energy healers and chi kung practitioners have a heads up on feeling and knowing there is this energy world and there are MANY forms of spiritual practices.

But granted; not too many people have feelable charisma and allure anyways, so you have to reference when you HAVE felt it non-physically...or maybe felt a Divine Feminine or Masculine Presence.

It's chi. It's essence and it's actually very practical to do essence readings on anyone (part of that is reading archetypes). I'm an expert at reading this and continuing to improve. But I'm not just president of the metaphorical hair club for men, I'm also a user (of charisma).

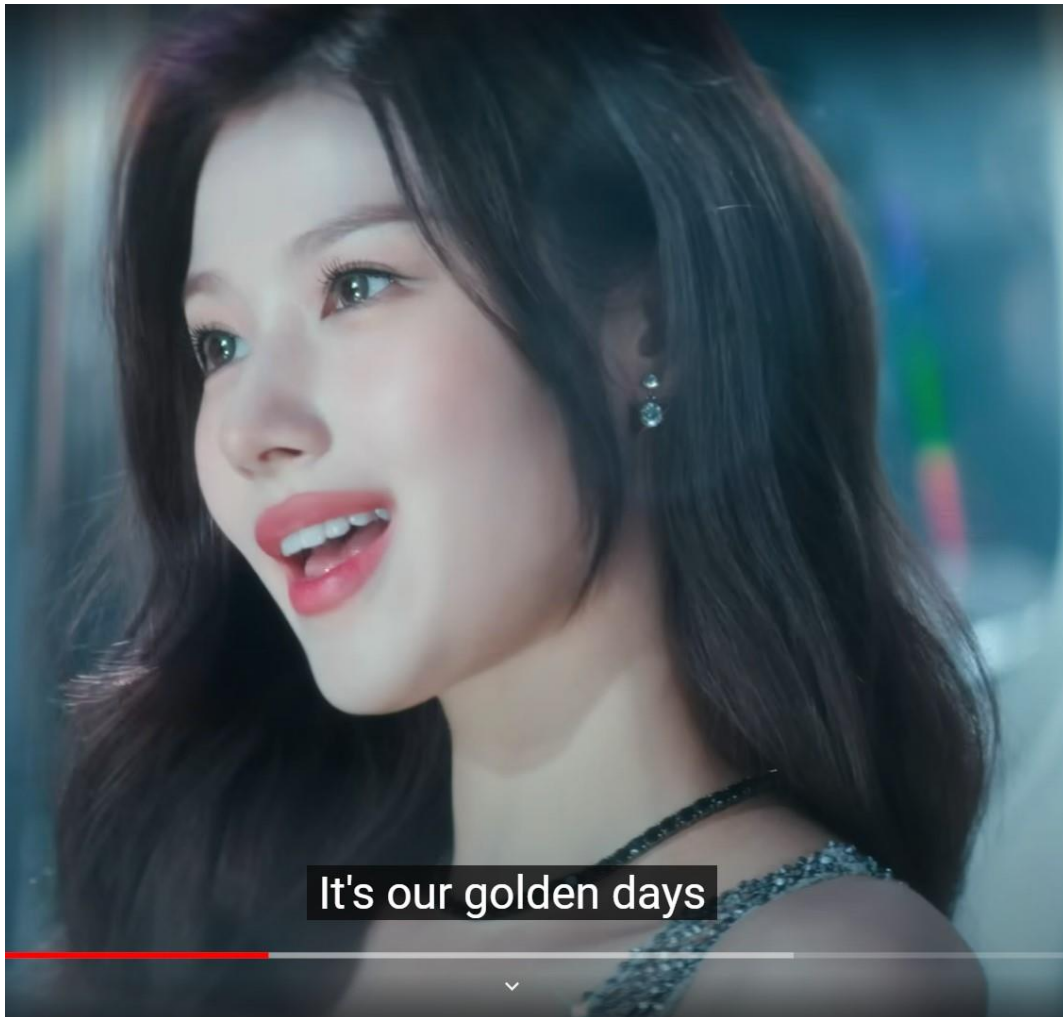

(Note how the photons are mixing with fotons to create a different light-show-truth experience)

Here's another 1-2 arch example.

Muse-Lover Goddess (Sana; TWICE)

Is the 'sentient' Beauty coming into focus more now?

Note how her higher dimensional Light is just magically mixing with her physical body to paint an entirely next level somatic-charging and alluring experience; QUANTIFYING the Beauty.

After all her 'image' is mixed with authentic Lover-Goddess and Muse consciousness.

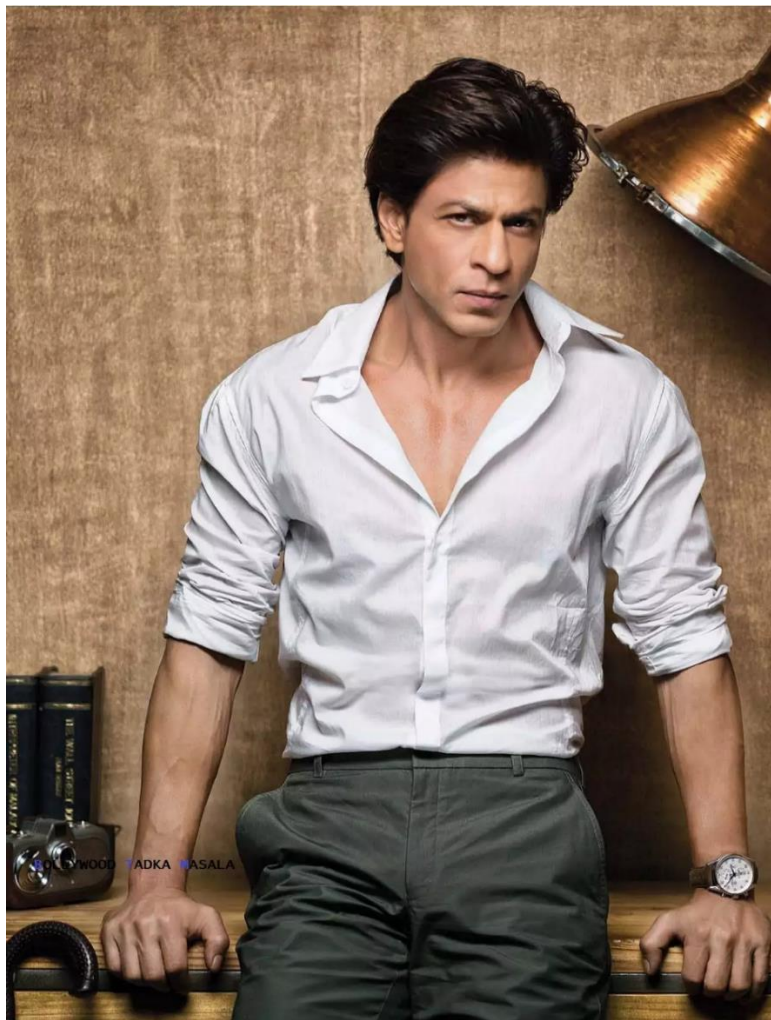

And Here...

Behind and beyond the lower truth labels of their names (like 'Lia' or 'ITZY') are higher truths as vessels of consciousness; the Siddhi of Joy allure radiates THROUGH her and has alchemical power of influence.

The DIVINE CAN BE EMBODIED...this is with and through ALLURE AND CHARISMA. Divine Power and Beauty-Truth.

And if you reference say a Top 10 list of Bollywood's most famous influencers, they've all got charisma/allure

<https://www.filmfare.com/features/10-most-popular-bollywood-stars-on-social-media-26480.html>

So yes; power and beauty as this embodiment of spirit-matter life force. Allure as the sentient radiation of beauty isn't just the alchemical language of life, it's the UNIVERSAL one.

Sure; masculine essence - I mean TRUE Masculine, Godly, knee-bended heroic, honorable, sacrificial enlightened POWER and its consciousness is also valuable of course, but it's usually the FEMININE that people are going after, trying to get, use, control or connect with.

And because it's PLASMA-MATTER (just b/c that electric lightning ball is also a different form of plasma than a solid, doesn't make it less real);

That's why you can FEEL IT when you are in the presence of feelable power and beauty that affects your aura and chakras. This is the Science of Charisma and Western Science will simply never catch up to it unless they finally embrace 'chi' - BUT you're also not going to wait decades for THEM to 'get it' to increase YOUR actual, responsible, #fomo inducing beauty and influence are you? ;)

You might have to go rogue from W. Sci.

And it's not that this is Sci-fi either...people get real results all the time from this work...which is actually phenomenal to think that I am like a Grail Jedi with actual super-powers...I mean when my Grandmaster was teaching me the 'chi gun' to shoot energy at a point on the walls; I was in heaven on earth but also in REMEMBRANCE of who I am/was in past lifetimes and like I was calling for that to come true again.

I mean the HUNDREDS of testimonials (many/most from client work itself) is just amazing what kinds of transformations are possible with this work.

Anyways; In a sense it is simply DIVINE POWER that influences and affects other forms of sentience as we've discussed (ok maybe you've cussed and I've stated).

Photonic radiation from the sun travels through SPACE PLASMA to hit the earth's aura (erm; atmosphere) and then starts having photo-chemical f/x which -at times- creates the aurora borealis.

How about YOUR light show, aurorae, weather and vibe-truth? Or are you only focused on the planetary body? B/c you're both physical and meta-physical.

(Hey; I'm hitting the gym 6 days a week myself, but I'm also curating my charisma).

Remember; I'm not 'actually' that good-looking physically...it's how I'm using the Light of charisma (not merely room lighting).

Now....it seems all good and dandy; but like I said before, this is REAL and b/c this is a mixed audience I'm putting a trigger warning here but I want to give u the safety rope reminder that when you can RECLAIM the GOLD of your own soul and the Reclamation of the Divine Feminine qualities that resonate with your soul which you would want to express your fullest beauty ; it's worth EVERYTHING to cultivate this b/c it's also your beauty consciousness and the tender qualities of your immortal beauty through the temple of your multi-d light body (which shows up as light anyways in your visuals)....

This will lead to people organically feeling your truth priceless (without icky loud marketing and harsh salesy-ness) while you expand your in-self empire of influence socially and in all dimensions (b/c this gets into Priestess level of alchemical healing Beauty medicine and such).

I want to highlight the shadow side of things to help you realize just how profound this really is and yet it also holds the key to IMMENSE influence when you can rightfully harness it.

Remember; you've got the sovereignty of your own social media growing empire I'm presuming; thus it's going to be harder for tyrant masculine or malevolent forces to use and potentially abuse it b/c if you are about EMBODYING DIVINE FEMININE POWER, this is a game of spiritual power (and warfare of sorts).

TRIGGER WARNING:

Because this is all very real; DARK forces and Light forces are at play here (with feminine essence) and can include things like siphoning and hijacking (sexual abuse, r*pe and trauma -even these dynamics honestly).

I told you it got real...these are matters of ESSENCE and Holy Daughter Reclamation, Innocence, Purity and what's constricting IMMORTAL Beauty radiance of your fullest expression).

We're talking about the spiritual and soul qualities of who you really are and your literal sentient-Light; beyond just superficial daily, mundane behavior and exchange with people.

Your soul could be just living a life of conformity but not basking in deeper richer soulful satisfaction and wild expression true to self.

Because feminine essence or quanta is the most valuable and in-demand thing in the universe (that then filters down to lower dimensional human behavior and psychology which is normally how we view it); you may have had some of your ESSENCE STOLEN FROM YOU. (This can happen during r*pe, trauma, sexual abuse, etc.)

This type of dynamic may be affecting all kinds of things (including depression) including your BEAUTY (but when we only focus on skin-deep, we're missing out on all this other information).

And maybe lower aspects of the masculine had a lot to do with it; however, carrying that poison forward by armoring may still have ended up holding back your own essence beauty and how people could be felt from you.

This is where healing and RECLAMATION comes in....in a dynamic that has more to do with your soul and spiritual essence itself as well as your psyche and your eros.

If essence or 'eros-essence' life force has been siphoned or stolen from you (ie. soul essence quanta)...if Maiden and other qualities (even if just life in general has 'conditioned' over the more vulnerable expression of your inner truth); you may end up with more performative allure which isn't allure; it's more like just looking good and putting on a front.

Where your inner beauty may be near non-existent even though you have a 'SHELL' of a good-looking exterior. This may also be affecting your literal physical and physiological health as well (b/c the body's organs require life force chi).

Just reference babies who have all kinds of natural ESSENCE, ridiculous allure and charisma that people respond to without them saying a word. They're RICH IN THIS ORIGINAL RESOURCE of GOLD value.

Same concept, except that as they grow up; it ends up getting conditioned or taken out of them, disembodied or suppressed....dormant in the seat of their soul, but not embodied.

That can lead to all kinds of issues.

Your environment and conditioning, relationships have had a lot to do with this not just behaviorally - but literally on a soulful and spiritual level.

So it's something to consider;

Just how much feminine radiance has been taken or restricted?!

Some women may even just give up and yet that's bittersweet; to live as if beauty is only superficial while being SO CLOSE to reaping the divine inheritance of sentient beauty that is yours (including post-menopause where it can replace estrogenic bio-essence).

Or to live with it suppressed your entire life...

Many people end up just being walking, conditioned shells without soul embodiment of their essence (which also shows up in the eyes).

Eckhart Tolle is a great example of deconditioning and soul embodiment btw. (And what if it really WAS true that we ARE SOULS in human, physical bodies?!)

And who wants to control all of this (Feminine) essence?

No...Not 'the patriarchy' per se or 'all men'...

More accurately, it would be shadow aspects within SOME of the collective masculine and within certain powerful individuals as forms of tyranny.

MOST men are actually VERY fractured FROM feminine principle socially, sexually and spiritually. Many of them wouldn't do any harm...so there is this great imbalance.

This isn't how things are supposed to be either.

Labeling the whole thing as 'the patriarchy' by centering it on shadow aspects of a small percentage of men and then being reactive to that tyranny and wanting to 'burn it all down' isn't the answer that Grail principle, reunification and renaissance values.

But yes; we can fully admit that there has obviously been suppression of divine feminine principle as well as force (power 'over'), exploitation or even abuse of 'the honey' itself....maybe in your past as well.

You might still be living with that poison IN YOUR SOMATIC LIGHT-BODY and its affecting your beauty and how you're being felt.

You might even despise K-Pop starlets b/c they had a seemingly more protected life and didn't get to experience say the same forms of even abuse that you may have gone through. (All of this can be reclaimed btw and THEN SOME).

You may still have trauma and even loss of essence from less conscious masculine wanting to control and siphon it in the past...your chakras may be defensive. You could still be carrying it with you IN your chakric psyche but it's also preventing you from being felt.

It's this type of reality of what's going on from a spiritual and psychic perspective (for those of us deeply in that world of healing like myself); we as consumers - just usually value and view it as psychological, behavioral and social.

My background as an energy healer and tantra daka works with releasing blocks and reclaiming lost aspects (even soul retrieval) as well as restoring the energy body to optimal and anti-aged health.

It could also be simple social conditioning and values including from other women who keep reinforcing more of the superficiality of beauty; it's lower dimensional form.

It's important to view the obsession of acquiring, controlling, siphoning or hijacking feminine essence (even enslavement and imprisonment) from a spiritual and psychic (astral 4D) perspective.

Just living in a certain culture can entirely suppress the transformational liberating aspects of beauty while highlighting shadow archetype aspects like bitch-queen, etc.

Often times the effective HEALING answers are in the world of energy work or even plant medicine (with things that traditional therapists can't always be effective at); soul and spirit work more than simply psychological.

What happens during trauma is someone's soul-essence can get disembodied from being in their body as a form of escape and self-preservation and they'll often carry the scars and armor up their chakras as a defense mechanism without realizing their energetic profile is recycling the same patterns until they change.

Soul retrieval might have to be part of your reclamation of (and re-embodiment of) soul self and other essences.

Many women may remain disembodied soulfully for years until healing and reclamation is done on other than psychological levels b/c this is eros-somatic and holistic...all of this is preventing people's ability to feel you and your 'inner' beauty which should be a testament of your beauty consciousness and a temple of beauty.

On a path to TRANSMITTING the gold-truth of you as an ORGANIC currency that people want to be nourished, influenced and supported by; when you can reclaim and curate your essenced beauty and explore it from there;

ALL of your wholeness becomes reunified and you can transmit your SOULFUL qualities to the world (like great artists bare themselves).

And then you don't have to force or 'coerce' people to FEEL good or manipulate their state (ever); you can BE the change you desire in the world and attract what you want to you effortlessly and powerfully (remember that allure is organic, ethical and HIGH VALUE clickbait).

True beauty and power already has that kind of transmutational INFLUENCE on people's consciousness; it's already inspiring and alluring - driving people home closer to source, awakening their conscious experience and expanding their own identities.

AND remember that charisma BENDS LIGHT so people get to see more the true you anyways (whether in your video thumbnails, zoom calls, branding visuals, etc.) with the soulful and spiritual qualities of communication back online wordlessly.

AND allure can take you from what pop culture might call a '6' to a '9' JUST with charisma or allure b/c your light is more than just the reflections off of your physical body.

Charisma BENDS LIGHT so people can see and feel your TRUTH. THAT is mastery visual communication sourced in fuller soul-deep expression.

We're talking the visual power to turn an otherwise '7' on the social-pop scale of looks/status into a '10' (even without make-up).

But it's also what ANIMATES an already good-looking guy

> Exhibit XYZ >

But has the Light of your soul been suppressed or tampered with?

Ok so to recap a bit;

FEMININE QUANTA is the most prized thing on earth (generally speaking and related to humanity) and in the cosmos b/c on a deeper level, heart, sex, mind, body, spirit and SOULS want to be closer to Beauty, Divine Feminine consciousness and Source itself.

There's more than just an evolutionary biological 'game' going on; it's multi-band.

Beauty is divine and is the highest status thing in the cosmos; and THEN it filters down into our denser layers of experience.

(Remember; everyone wants to sleep with stars and starlets - ok maybe not everyone, but most (but hold that thought ;)

So (b/c we're weaving multiple thought threads together here...let's take a breather from that heavier stuff);

After all...

She had great allure and Brendon Fraser, charisma in the movie 'The Mummy' (and sequel)...you can feel her but to even have this type of effect, SHE had to be healed enough at a soul level to healthily have such an appealing and feelable performance that lasts through time

(and engages us). (I can even read when there are clear signs of father or mother disconnect in someone's energy body).

So this stuff goes DEEPER than you might have thought...the DEEPER healing might be what's necessary to restore your own soul reunification, maybe even father or mother wounding and even basic energetic health BEFORE we can get into the archetypes and expanded beauty cultivation beyond basic soul re-embodiment and reclamation..know that we can work on it all.

That's stuff that Beauty 1.0 professionals working on beauty can't go anywhere near unless they have a side business of being such a healer. And it's ALL related with your professional image, influence, who and how you're attracting and coming across as.

Ok....b/c of the 'grand game in all of time' going on and for other reasons;

I predict that Charisma/Allure is the future CURRENCY of social media and beauty INFLUENCE (as well as influence FROM visual media). It is a central foundational component OF professional image and Beauty from here forward (as well as the performance arts).

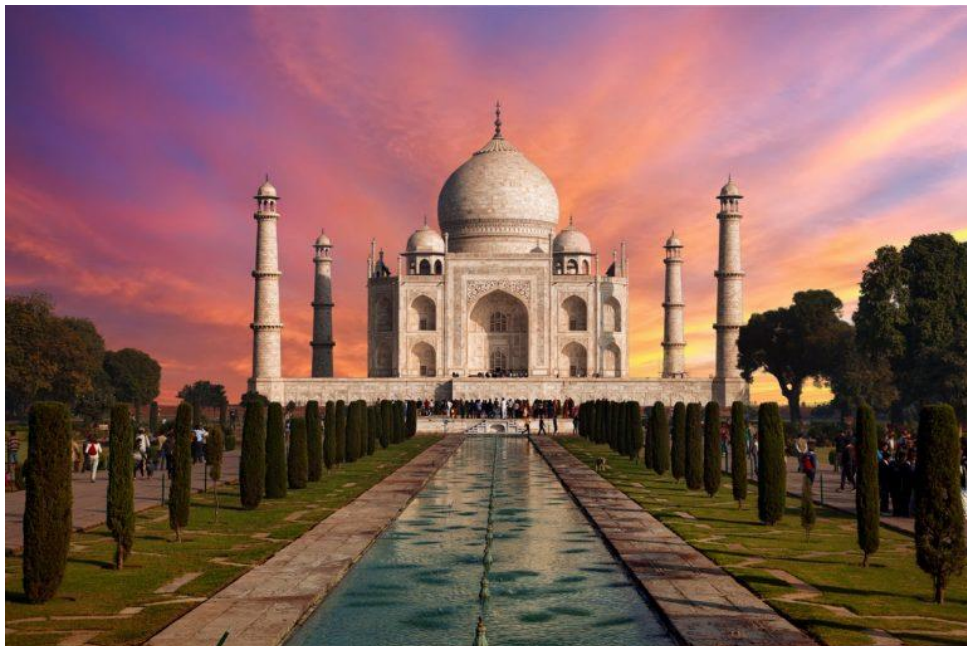

Because allure is central to VISUAL and social INFLUENCE; it means pretty much everything if you are your own brand and in social media. It's a blind spot that you can now directly work on immediately to start improving social media responds and organic influence as well as expressing greater, timeless beauty.

Beauty and power you can feel (without words even) is where the real POWER of influence comes from anyways - and it has to do with these grander, mythic and archetypal spiritual dynamics.

If a normal person could RELATE with an angel or starlet; WOW! That's SO much of what art and culture is formed around.

People respond to the most powerful or beautiful person in the room and they can FEEL who that is unconsciously. Men will build things like the Taj Mahal...

They'll grow and evolve industries for the appeal and approval of not just a woman, but really the deeper feminine within b/c he is seeking to heal the Mother womb wound (an Apollonian dynamic).

BEAUTY DRAWS EVERYTHING TO IT.

So if you're making it about your own 'inner game' or personality, that may be the big disconnect. Instead of your egoic, lower-self, how about your impersonal divine beauty and how your SOUL itself would desire to express b/c you can be ANYTHING...and you can live the romance.

Consider that Beauty and Power ESSENCE(S) transmitting through the channel of your awakening allure are the palpable radiant, feelable (subtle yet real) MATTER that is this POWERFUL driving force of attraction, ascension and magnetism. That's why we're transfixed on those who 'transcend' into the immortal qualities of the Feminine....(allure).

Allure and your connection to higher Spiritual power can give you an insatiable, alluring quality of felt-truth that effectually makes people THIRSTY for more...why not quench their thirst but have them always wanting more b/c your Beauty brings HEALING PROPERTIES and evolution?

People want to get CLOSER TO SOURCE and the SPIRIT-TRUTH 'matter' of that aspiration and ascension drives their souls towards it (towards true Beauty and Power b/c it is immortal).

This is because it is sourced in the immortal and divine. It beckons them Home and for reasoning we're getting deeper into.

This isn't 'do your make-up for the day and choose what you're wearing'...this is a continual journey of beauty consciousness and your ability to influence people as your avatar self-incarnate like a starlet. Ok...

(If you've been following me for a while you're going to LOVE how this further pulls together).

Because the SOUL evolution for many is to truly be free and wildly expressed, we have to take into account these primordial and spiritual drives, values and desires....and really that it's centered on the truth and beauty of your SOUL and true identity consciousness (which may have been suppressed or tampered with).

Souls are waking up around the world into BREATH-TAKING BEAUTY AND WONDER (like the Siddhi of Veneration).

The Divine Feminine consciousness that She already holds is beautiful, panoramic TRUTH that is alchemical in nature (the power of beauty..~). ..that your soul could access in Spirit.

(Can you sense a very very powerful under-current that is 'with' this entire resource? I've felt it and it is magnanimous...it's larger than I can fathom...the power and truth behind this and where it's going..whooh!)

Now....if it's not breakthrough enough for ya; this is that DEEEEEP awareness of what's really driving markets that we were getting to and yes; it has something to do with the Holy Grail itself.

"The Holy Grail?!"

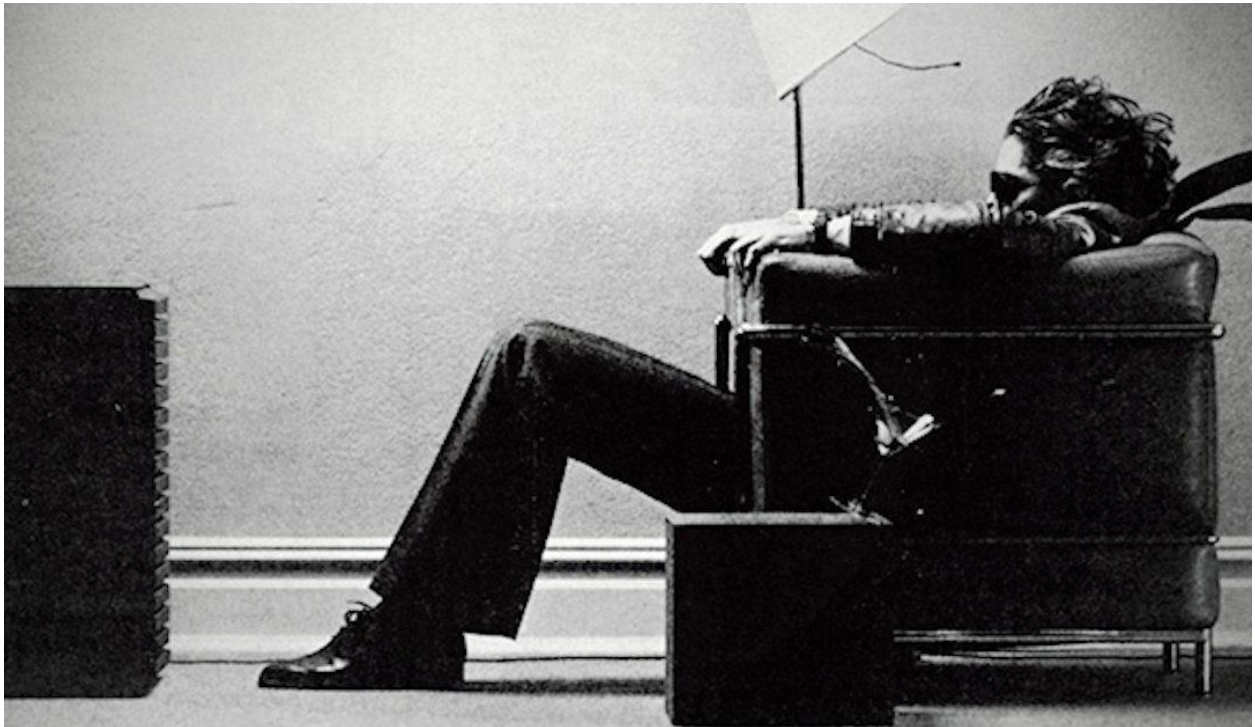

Yes, the Holy Grail...and how it (and Grail principle) also relates into the grand power game of INFLUENCE, super-natural, insatiable social attraction and the currency of ESSENCE.

What does THIS have to do with social media marketing, status, beauty and influence?

As far as POP influence (and not necessarily specialty niche content creators); with beauty and power in general?

IT HAS EVERYTHING TO DO WITH EVERYTHING.

Strap yourself in

Remember how I referred to that deeper psycho-sexual and spiritual drive of the 2 primordial forces driving markets?

(And then we get distracted by social marketing tips and trends and we lose touch with what's ACTUALLY driving behavior - and get caught up in the entire superficial constructivism of it all and our reactions TO and from being in the matrix-maya).

The Holy Grail is the quintessent understanding of THAT meta-drive in all dimensions (including OF SOCIAL POWER ITSELF)...AND...we've just not been clearly aware of what the Holy Grail is which has made it difficult to even have a real clue.

MANKIND QUESTETH after the mythic Holy Grail...not just in Christendom, I would say but universally, psychologically, spiritually, sexually, psycho-sexually and immortally.

(This has everything to do with true Beauty btw as well as fulfillment beyond your wildest imagination if you're a woman)

I submit that the Holy Grail is what is REALLY driving the human-related markets of sex, power, beauty, influence and marketing in general.

I'd submit that it is the DEEEEEPEST psycho-sexual spiritual FORCE and driver of all of mankind throughout history. Most of this 'drive' is in the band-width that most of us are not conscious of living in the fabricated, constructivist social matrix itself.

Rather than revealing what I know it to be explicitly, I'll come in from another angle for you to digest and start discerning for yourself (b/c it's a PROFOUND concept).

The Holy Grail (rather than a literal grail as in 'Indiana Jones & The Last Crusade');

The Holy Grail translated into another term is what is called 'Hieros Gamos'; and more specifically the Holy Grail is 'hierogamy'; Sex and Communion of God and Goddess (consciousness).

It is great, suppressed heresy of 'Communion' itself and INHERENTLY includes the forgotten spiritual Truth of the Divine Feminine or Goddess aspect of God aka 'Sophia'.

This is gnostic, heretical and ancient wisdom. 'The Da Vinci Code' (book and movie) talks about the Rose Grail line.

Now; I DO go deeper into Hieros Gamos (sacred reunification, divine union) in my 'Calling of the Kingmaker' report available on-site.

Hieros Gamos (and more specifically hierogamy which is in essence 'the experiential holy grail') is this reunification of God and Goddess in consciousness.

It's an immortal template (Communion codes) that is beyond twin flames, beyond soul mates. This 'Divine Union' (a term that's becoming the go-to term for it) is the future of the 'relationships' coaching market and relationships themselves. WHY?

Because people are seeking something richer, deeper, more spiritual, more liberating, more ecstatic, more devotional, more soulfully and spiritually fulfilling. It is an IMMORTAL BELOVED Template and a DEVOTIONAL path of spiritual and sexual awakening of consciousness.

HG is the alchemical process of (divine) masculine godly POWER and feminine BEAUTY reunifying spiritually and sexually as One (with and through people in consciousness b/c we are more than just bio-meat suits).

Today there are more and more divine union partnerships sprouting up and yet it's not actually the mortal partnership that is the FOCUS.

Hieros Gamos itself is an alchemical and devotional spiritual path of reunifying with the Immortal Beloved WITHIN (and that can then be with and through a partner but connecting to the SPIRIT aspects of them which brings in the POWER and BEAUTY essence aspects).

The hierogamic (holy marriage) of the Holy Grail (the ultimate discovery) is the SEX and SPIRIT Communion together; of what?

OF GOD/ESS ESSENCES ALCHEMIZING TOGETHER IN Great Remembrance in Love and Sex (hierogamy) is essentially the true Holy Grail itself.

It is the TRUTH of the meeting and infusion of the spirit-quanta. THAT is driving near everything. (The more advanced sex is energy Sex and the meta-polarity of Power & Beauty itself)).

IT HAS BEEN HIDDEN for centuries BECAUSE of patriarchal church orthodoxy essentially suppressing the Feminine God aspect, but now this gnostic wisdom is resurfacing.

Priestesses, muses, dancers, temple dancers, entertainers, courtesans, sorceresses, witches were all cast out as 'secular' or 'demonic'. And the divine feminine consciousness has been suppressed b/c of this META spiritual dynamic of the polarities religiously, culturally and historically.

So you can image with religion outlawing or suppressing the Feminine Goddess (and sexuality with strict doctrine) aspect for centuries, that a different 'Communion' (with the Holy Father) could become known as what 'Communion' was.

Yet there is a missing piece that was obscured for centuries.

(Straight/hetero) MEN ARE STILL FEELING SOMETHING IS MISSING.

YES, they universally value primal sex & f*cking but our souls (some of us) are seeking something MUCH more...the potentially awakening SPIRIT within is called for a far greater experience that transcends two bodies in intercourse.

But it's been obscured and then we get caught in the social matrix of Pavlovian conditioning of here's another sexy body to respond to in an ad and all that...the deeper truth has been hidden of what's POSSIBLE to experience. And it's with the Holy Grail.

(For simplicity and clarity sake; I'm only speaking about the general polarity principle with hetero-sexuality here but on all dimensions; not gay, etc.)

That is why most men are still psycho-sexually, soulfully and spiritually seeking the holy grail....a deeper place of SOUL FULFILLMENT and manifest destiny into immortality instead of meek compromise and unfulfillment. THEIR SOULS ACHE TO BE QUENCHED.

(This has everything to do with being in a deeper relationship IF you are called to it on a deeper level IN a current relationship)

THEY'RE STILL SEEKING THE HOLY GRAIL and trying to find MEANING...something DEEPER. Mankind is seeking SPIRITUAL REUNIFICATION at a soul level of sex; not merely fulfilling primal desires.

Mean the Pavlov of advertisers just keep ringing the bells and end up conditioning men into FANTASY and fracture with women and divine feminine consciousness/principle. They end up with anxiety and yet are still seeking the holy grail.

Let me come in from another angle;

We can start to sense and see things on a general level with CHEMISTRY between characters but it's not their 'dialogue' we want to focus on or their styling, rather to value things from an energetic angle as I'm coming from (is best I think).

How is her eros connecting to his? How is the volatility in the quanta BETWEEN their sacral chakras making steam from fire and water?

Here's a good starter reference point but what I'm referring to goes even deeeper. (It helps us to FEEL their chemistry in 'Dirty Dancing' btw b/c they each have allure and charisma radiating).

(Thanks again for minding page breaks with the images in this unpublished First Edition). All images used under Fair Use Copyright Guidelines. Copyrights belong to respective copyright holders.

Chemistry and attraction; love and sex can actually be INFINITELY more profound and enlightening than we're aware of and it has to do with the holy grail.

So contemplate it for yourself...what if there was something more than just Communion with the Holy Father? That could be TRUE in its holy fullness and yet; what if there WAS a 'bigger picture' of Communion that has been suppressed?

And what if it had to do with the suppressed Divine Feminine aspect and the suppression of Sexuality entirely?

What if a woman as a LOVER could take on more of the IMMORTAL feminine qualities from women 1000 years ago into the bedroom?

Hmm...What if men are seeking and are driven soulfully and spiritually (the true warriors) to REUNIFY and know Love with the Beauty of the Divine Feminine as a Son of God/Lover (independent of all religion).

HG brings the awakened sexual component back into the picture as well as a way to honor the suppressed Divine Feminine Beauty.

Women called to a Grail Path desire to have essentially the Love and Sex as if God were loving them DIRECTLY and intimately...far beyond inter-personal decent sex or even 'borking' (didn't see that one coming didja? ;)

All sex is not equal. The range-fan of making love is beyond what people can comprehend when the holy grail itself is included as Communion consciousness of God and Goddess with and through two lovers.

THE POWER AND BEAUTY that could ALCHEMIZE can be ie. 1 million x stronger in all dimensions than regular 'sex' or 'making love'.

So from this lens; imagine that your spirit quanta of DIVINE FEMININE Truth (aka 'B-E-A-U-T-Y) radiating out is what a man could REUNIFY WITH as a fractal of God the Lover (or Allah the Lover, Buddha the Lover; it's all heresy here btw).

Your radiant beauty as the PRESENCE of whatever IMMORTAL feminine archetypes you are embodying and making love to God-fractal with.

The levels of transformational identity and consciousness to go with it would lead to a true path of enlightenment, bliss and deeper satisfaction for souls called to RETURN HOME.

ALLURE (esp. Grail allure) is what CALLS HIM HOME even if he doesn't know it; his SOUL and SPIRIT are called to REUNIFY....remember, we don't consciously know what that even IS in the world b/c of the suppression of the divine feminine consciousness and conditioning around what Communion is.

...and yet your allure which can bring in divine feminine consciousness and Presence can ACTIVATE IT not just within him but within mankind and your social network...to bring them closer to source with your enchantment (not your female ego's enchantment either btw).

As you reclaim the suppressed divine feminine consciousness (ie. priestess, eros-lover, mage, sage, etc.) in your soul expression, you have more BEAUTY to share with the world which is also ACHING for divine feminine truth, medicine and reunification.

Not just of your soul but of GODDESS...of Sophia.

The Grail is essentially to know Love at the Source point of origin of all Life.

Not merely soul to soul but spirit to spirit.

THAT is what I and Sophianic wisdom proposes as the Holy Grail.

Those sentences alone could send you on a LIFELONG journey of awakening and Beauty unheralded. (Key with that after-thought however is that it's experiential and not meant to just be 'book-knowledge')

With divine feminine consciousness is also the divine feminine PRESENCE (of whatever archetypes you are embodying and to whatever degree of radiance mixed with your other soul and character qualities).

The ESSENCE and different chi-plasmic essences are then with you (as DIVINE SOCIAL CURRENCY)...b/c it's what the GODS (or God-FRACTALS desire and the awakening god-aspect within Kings).

Btw; Hieros Gamos and Sophia Codes has to do with the Feminine Christ or Sophianic God-dess aspect and fully recognizing Her or with the Rose Grail line; a gnostic Krystic perspective of gnostic Christ (Yeshua) with Mary Magdalene as Grail Priestess-Lover.

The 'Calling of the Kingmaker report' goes more into grail principle.

A 'grail path' of grail lover, grail queen, grail goddess, grail priestess for example is an opportunity for a woman to deepen into embodying immortal Lover, Eros, Goddess, Mage and Medicine Woman, Priestess consciousness AS a Lover radiating ESSENCE that is a BEACON; a divine milkshake to inspire and awaken the divine masculine to the yard; the cosmic yard.

Any grail path work is going to by default work on improving your allure and thus organic social influence.

I'm going to find more distilled ways to translate this for 2nd edition etc. but;

It's the higher frequency quanta of the BEAUTY ITSELF that he would LITERALLY AND DIRECTLY potentially REUNIFY with (soul to soul, spirit-to spirit bodies); not just in intercourse 'physically', but intercourse and alchemical fusion of divine masculine and feminine CONSCIOUSNESS between your 2 energy bodies rich in IMMORTAL plasmic-quanta essence of King, Priestess, etc..

Most all relationships are NOT templatized to experience the holy grail, thus people keep seeking who are really called to it and in tune with their sol.

THEIR ENERGY BODIES COULD NOT HOLD THAT MUCH POWER, LIGHT AND BEAUTY anyways. Their identity consciousness doesn't support it.

With Communion (which may include reunification with the Holy Father or Mother);

The source point is Sex and Love which hath created and honors ALL; but on levels few can comprehend b/c of their attachment to their individualized lower self.

BEAUTY KINETICALLY, super-naturally, practically and compellingly CALLS THE DIVINE MASCULINE SPIRIT to arise in the world (with and through men) to RETURN HOME.

(It's also the source point BEFORE children are born and levels of infinite devotional love til the end of time).

ALLURE CALLS HIM HOME to awaken into his greater SOUL power and potential.

THAT is why men are COMPELLED when they can FEEL a touch of the divine with siddhic allure; b/c it's related to their greatest unfulfilled desire; the Holy Grail...to be worthy of impossible levels of Beauty...their chakras can pick up a whiff of the ACTUAL HONEY OF THE UNIVERSE b/c it is pretty rare in most adults anyways.

It's also why they are super-naturally (and not just physically) drawn to some women (even who don't have grail allure), b/c it awakens more of his divine masculine presence and potential JUST IN ORDER TO BE PRESENT and worthy of that level of beauty-truth (independent of her physical looks).

You don't want to have to 'talk him into it' anyways, right?

...But when we cannot stop thinking about you - or your fans just keep being magnetically drawn back to you...THAT ATTENTION is the currency. Do you want to be flowing with THAT honey of the universe as the current?

So this is that deeper psycho-sexual, spiritual and SOULFUL drive for the return home to experience the reality (literally in a bedroom) of COSMIC, devotional Sex and Love.

This is why some are having super-natural levels of social power and influence. Stars in general are closer to at least a more godly/goddessly impersonal SEX and LOVE experience to know it more as Godly consciousness as a Lover.

(But Grail Starlets are the real future future! And some of them are already walking the earth)

I know...it's BIG right? We just can't always 'see' it b/c

1. We didn't clearly know what the Holy Grail really is
2. All kinds of conditioning, shadows, lower relational templates and superficial values obstructing it and our deeper desires in the fabricated social consumer matrix leveraging a lower view on essence as sex
3. There is no 3rd rule
4. Many other reasons

The SPIRIT of the awakening masculine COLLECTIVELY and the deeper SOUL of man (not just his bio-primal sex drive) are KEY FACTORS in the 'big game' itself...that which we haven't been conscious of.

Even top marketers have got caught up in their own creation of the matrix to even be aware of the grander game (but honestly; many of them are out of touch with soul and spirit anyways).

(Hetero) Men are seeking something deeper; they're just rarely being OFFERED IT and yet women with allure that have their eros-sex, spirit, heart and soul ONLINE in their visual and live presence communications are already reaping the benefits of constellating DEEPER RELATIONSHIPS; let alone at least closer to the holy grail of deep, rich, devotional love and intimacy as well as spiritual fulfillment and ecstasy for themselves.

When you have SOUL and SPIRITUAL Beauty in those higher bandwidths in your presence and images; it inspires, compels and attracts on those levels within others.

Cultivated ALLURE can do that magic and can make other women jealous (also b/c they're judging it from lower filters).

When you're emanating IMMORTAL beauty and spirit-matter (even in ALL of your social media) that will in ANY case enrich your own personalized love life let alone lead to the spiritual growth closer to BEAUTY HERSELF in the multi-dimensionally activated life of your dreams.

And this grail principle is what can REUNIFY the WORLD and the fracture between the sexes on a spiritual, sexual, social and sociological level...heck; on ALL THE LEVELS. But it's a special path.

To inspire men into benevolent kingship so that the tyrant-kings aren't running much of the show anymore and controlling and suppressing feminine essence in women.? BIG STUFF...b/c Beauty itself can inspire the righteous, powerful masculine to silence out the tyrants; where Peace, prosperity, respect, cherish-mente and Love can reign in HARMONY.

It's just getting back in alignment with grail principle instead of all of this psychic, sexual, social, etc. fracture between the masculine and feminine consciousness. As YOU make the shift in consciousness to have divine beauty quanta coursing through your energy body and veins, that is where it's at.

TO HAVE YOUR BEAUTY AWAKEN THEM TO STEP FORWARD INTO Kings who honor the divine feminine principle instead of trying to control it; this can all be done with your BEAUTY by daring to stand apart from the superficial matrix and yet living within it while you thrive in greater spiritual influence in an awakening world that is tired of the games.

The tyrants have had their era I say.

See; we see it as controlling or constricting feminine behavior but from a spiritual and soulful perspective, they're actually at source OPPRESSING the FEMININE SPIRIT AND SOUL; ESSENCE ITSELF.

And it HAS been spiritual warfare if we look at it from a full-bandwidth perspective...a millennial old WAR on control of feminine quanta.

This is the bigger game going on, we just haven't always known or seen it AS THAT b/c of our lower conscious filters.

Allure (and it's connection to the siddhic, elemental and archetypal meta-feminine consciousness and Truth) brings the SOUL AND SPIRIT back into the equation of beauty itself.

THAT MEAN MORE ACTUAL GODDESSES.

And mortal men may not relate, thus they'll have to work on their divine masculine and soul-led reclamation (of righteous power and integrity).

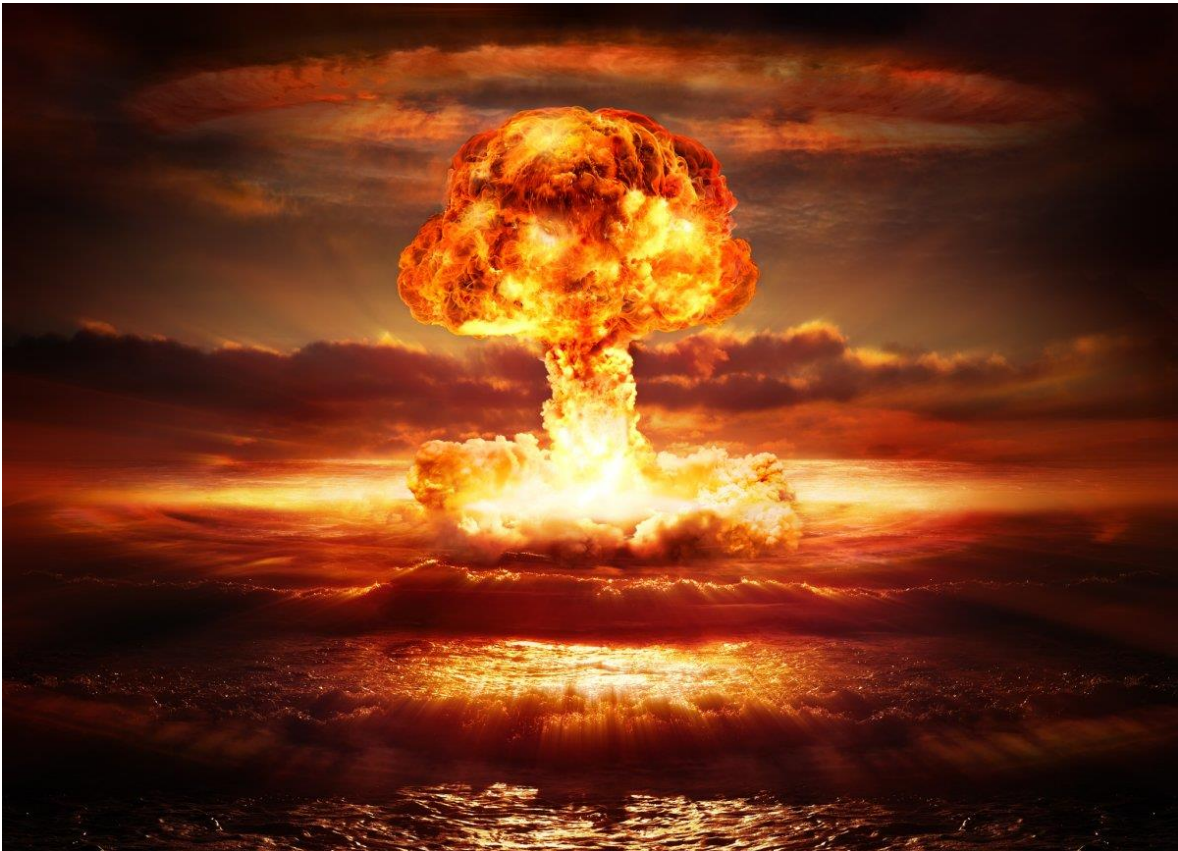

And you might feel that your soul's beauty and spiritual FREEDOM has been suppressed b/c of essence dynamics of siphoning and soul restriction on your true freedom, liberty and bounteousness.

WELL; now you could start RECLAIMING IT (at essence levels) like so many of the women in my circle and clients have been doing for years.

ESSENCE cultivation helps directly and if you get into Grail work (not all are called to it); you'll be getting into heavy, rich feminine allure as your body BECOMES A TEMPLE OF BEAUTY.

It is a journey however (of continual beauty and consciousness awakening).

SO...although this might be far too much for many of my new readers to take on....

It's important that it is introduced to let marinate at your own timing b/c it gives you a deeper, more powerful template for BEAUTY and social influence MASTERY.

(I mean; related to the atomic reference...that could be your future Grail orgasms and kundalini when we're talking GOD PARTICLE quanta infused with your future in-Presence GODDESS particles of plasma-quanta!)

The Holy Grail I submit as the GRAND and ultimate, active market driver from not just the psycho-sexual (including primal) drive; but from a SPIRITUAL-evolutionary and SOULFUL desire that the masses aren't conscious of.

You may not even get into grail work; I'm just saying that in general, it's more influential on the MASCULINE consciousness but if you wanted - you could JUST do Feminine centric activations and THRIVE in your social influencer goddess; it's your choice, we're just covering the deeper, bigger picture and that meta-market drive for THRIVING social success like a star/let.

When people are around and feeling someone with allure and charisma; they are getting signs of RETURNING HOME and awakening into their own greater divine power, beauty, liberation, freedom, peace, harmony, love, quintessence, majesty and Remembrance.

The price of THAT gold as currency is priceless.

Again; this is on the soulful and spiritual levels of PRACTICAL market and social attention-based dynamics...all organic..it's like their soul is seeking something richer and deeper and allure beckons them home. This is beyond your physical looks as well but it would transform the LIGHT OF YOU and how you're coming across with such Grail Allure and Beauty.

(So other than going too long without pictures); How does THAT sound!?

So....the mythological Holy Grail (not literal in the sense that we think of it);

(Actually, I have discovered and own this one literally..even if you did name the dog 'Indiana')

On a sociological and cultural level (including full-blown spirit and beauty dynamics);

Generally; women have to lead and 'set the tone' it in their beingness to THEN inspire and awaken the masculine (much of it through attunement to their field).

THEY WANT TO REUNIFY and BE WORTHY...your receptive allure could WELCOME, heal and nurture men just from your presence...OR you could be more Kali (Dark-Shadow archetype) for a season or as part of your process or identity...with essence and the archetypes, you have the full spectrum of consciousness available to work with at a soul identity level.

Grail allure is receptive and circulating; venerating of the divine masculine which makes it more likely for YOU to experience the Holy Grail. There's SO much to work with and keep talking about with all of this.

Just know that I CAN WORK WITH YOU PERSONALLY with where you are at and where you want to go, whether it's with Grail work or more directly feminine allure in general.

Your allure is testament of your goddess and even reunified (grail) consciousness; it's what speaks to HIS multi-aspect self to sense and know...to draw deeper IN to the alchemy with your radiant beauty as lovers.

It's not just 'sex' as people know it at all...it's far, far more powerful than that essentially as the Source of Creation itself experiencing itself through 2 yoked lovers....it's having a wider open frequency bandwidth on your causal, buddhic and atmic planes - and your allure is the path that leads to it (as well as GREAT liberation for yourself).

Yes;

This concept of a hidden Source Goddess (aka 'Sophia') throughout history is the great heresy that was outlawed from religion yet has survived through centuries as gnostic wisdom. WORKING WITH YOUR ALLURE DIRECTLY you get to RECLAIM and discover...re-embodiment and emanate archetypal feminine consciousness and beauty codes like a soul starlet.

The SUPPRESSION OF THE SOPHIANIC HOLY & DIVINE FEMININE (and Her consciousness including all archetypes) as well as the CONTROL over her spiritual life force it self has played out for eons including right up until recently with the #metoo movement.

Again; we normally see it through behavioral shadows and control like sexual abuse; but the grand Gods-eye view is that the same thing is really about this grand play of ESSENCE; and tyrant, shadow masculine consciousness which manifests in some men in large part wanting to HARVEST and siphon the most valuable thing in the cosmos. Even that sex trafficking and sex slavery still exists as a collective shadow highlights this...but also the general suppression in the MASSES of true, alchemical Beauty and siddhic love and sex also highlights things.

So, if you're just looking good, but not communicating essence; chances are your soul and spirit are suppressed from COMMUNICATING and thus INFLUENCING - and influencing people SPIRITUALLY AND SOULFULLY.

You're not running the currency and current of that rich value which can be exchanged with your people energetically and socially as an influencer (or not much of it at all).

Largely She; Sophia-Goddess has been suppressed by aspects of the masculine (including 'patriarchal' religion). Much of this is b/c these men are using Force instead of acting from true Power as protectors, knights, guardians in a greater co-creative renaissance that venerates both King and Queen and other aspects of immortal Feminine principle.

And what power does She hold?

Where to begin! We're talking Life and Love itself (co-created with God consciousness).

So the SPECTRUM of archetypal Beauty is admittedly FAR FAR more ancient and profound than post-modern feminist cultural conditioning. In fact, you may have to start deconditioning. We're not even talking just about #softgirlera or #tradwife however that ties into it.

So with all of this; contemplate if Divine Union (Holy Grail) is for you.

Again; if this FAR too much too digest, just let the codes give you insights that you're meant to have right now and maybe come back to the report but just focus on the more simple aspect of increasing your social influence through cultivating your allure WITHOUT GRAIL WORK.

You can do what you want; I just wanted to introduce the heavier and very sensitive dynamic related to power and influence itself.

BECAUSE GODDESS fractals (archetypes) and their truth-beauty essences (that of which you could embody and emanate) are incredibly powerful and influence in different ways than masculine archetypes.

They can give you more status and disconnection with the masculine if that's what you want - OR super-natural attraction as medicine with your people and the masculine...and everything in between.

There's just more power, beauty and everything at stake with the impersonal star and starlet level of reality and influence.

Do you want to reclaim your inheritance and mystical beauty? You can! Maybe it's time to UNLEASH wild and untamed beauty through your consciousness, dance, beauty and movement; sensuality that could awaken kings and heroes.

I'll add that with SUPPRESSION of The Goddess and little conscious awareness around the higher truth of Sex and Sex & Spirit; we are subject to be manipulated by other forces with it in all dimensions.

This is where matrix-maya advertisers (understandably) come in and love to influence our emotions and sexual state by association (while meanwhile our deeper soulful, spiritual-sexual desires remain untouched, seeking and lost).

And this type of culture that is largely CONTROL and shadow oriented towards using and harnessing our own sexual and spiritual life force (chi/essence);

Our essenced beauty and consciousness itself (and it's God-like levels of effortless influence) becomes shackled and suppressed psychically, soulfully, emotionally and spiritually while we live in the shadow of superficiality, control, constriction and vanity..

With this, we never reach the TRUE BEAUTY that can bring healing and renaissance to the world which already exists in the Holy Grail. This can lead to ongoing soul disembodied, frustration, dissatisfaction and depression.

Yeah; this stuff is deep but that's also why someone with allure STANDS OUT like a tall drink of water on the hottest day in the Sahara.

How u (RIGHTEOUSLY) gonna be thirst trap for people's heart, sex, and yearning for Communion soul effortlessly from your Beauty - if you don't have that inherent currency to begin with?

Maybe your vault is empty (even though at least you physically look good).

With archetypal beauty and its expression of allure, you get to effortlessly weave your SOUL'S magic like a warm summer breeze (that's better)...tantrically enchanting your vibe-truth into the environment that you are gliding or floating through (whether it's specifically grailed or not).

A goddess incarnate with YOUR choice of archetypal qualities to express your soul self!

You could take on rich Eros-Lover or Grail Eros-Lover for more direct devotional reception, bliss and ecstasy. It's all on the palette.

MORTALS ARE UNWORTHY of the immortal and this is part of why Divine, Timeless Beauty has such POWERFUL influence; we're reaching for immortality on the deeper levels (b/c we KNOW physical beauty fades).

I still wouldn't give up your anti-aging skin serums however, but there's a bigger GAME (no game) going on; the real thing and it stretches across millennia...a cloud atlas of your journey of sorts.

And the irony is; we (most of us) ARE as souls but have attached so much to the physical incarnation experience.

WE WANT REMEMBRANCE...at the deepest levels of our awakening souls; awakening from the grand illusion of the superficial, constructed maya-matrix to fulfillment beyond our wildest dreams (fantasy turned into reality).

Grail encoded ALLURE and CHARISMA CALLS US HOME to reunify and EXPERIENCE those deeper aspects...

This powerfully drives attraction even if consumers aren't aware of it b/c it includes sex and the normal market drives but it's all part of the 'mega-drive' of the Holy Grail (and as more of humanity awakens they will realize and also want to get in that spiritual soul path to return Home to Source point).

Because we hath FORGOTTEN;

(And so much of the maya cloaking us from seeing behind the veil).

That is also why there is such FRACTURE between the masculine and feminine in many ways and shadow games, control and manipulation play out (many actresses and recording artists rightfully complain and criticize about the shadows of the industry).

It's not enough to just 'see' the game like a Neo...you can be in a higher game as soul SOVEREIGN yet still walk amongst the world like a soul-goddess or mage-king with super-natural divine influence that could even HEAL people from your presence...THAT is where the future of INFLUENCE is headed (and more transformational entertainment).

It's an extended subject so maybe check out my blog as well; I go into these aspects here and there....but when you have IMMORTAL Beauty of actual SPIRIT-QUANTA that is tangible and feelable (say like the authentic energy of a Libyan desert glass crystal from outer space compared to rocks); it allows mortal men for example to FEEL the same BEAUTY and PRESENCE that was here on earth 1000 years ago by great, great fore-mothers.

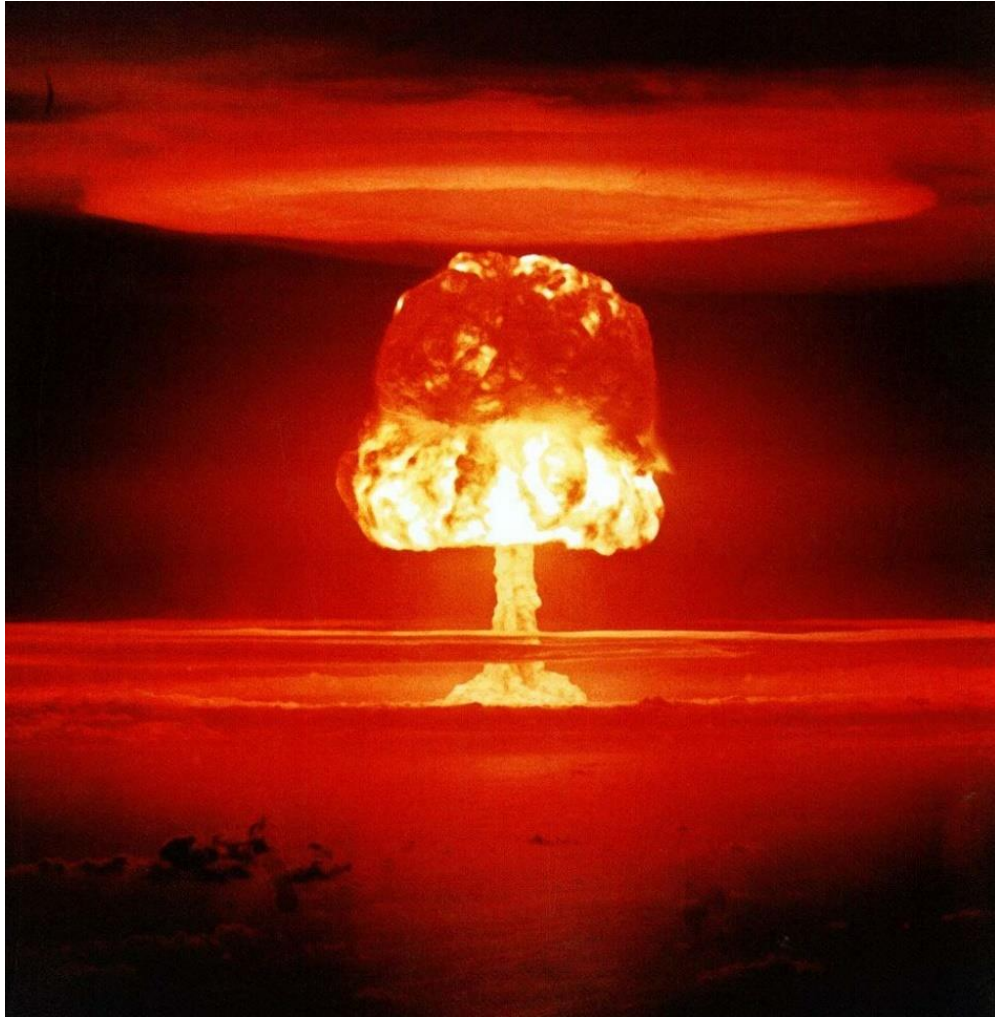

Speaking to a deeper awakening part of themselves...so their soul FOLLOWETH....Your mystical beauty enchantment.

That's quite a bit different from lipstick of the month club (to make a point; not to diss it).

Hierogamy is essentially like the equivalent of 5mEO-dmt but with Devotional Love and Sex at the Source point of Creation. It's not for everyone and a fraction of it could fry most people's energy bodies until they cultivate more as a god/goddess.

Even if you're not on a grail path or haven't reached those levels, cultivating ANY type of allure on top of energetic health is going to help you stand out in your visuals, communications and marketing even more anyways.

So imagine God and Sophia making Love in Spirit-Body with pranayama and siddhic kundalini –

...but that happening with and through the consciousness of you and your partner and the SPECTRUM of archetypes from millennia ago running with and through your consciousness and mixing together between your and his body which is really the ESSENCES or spirit-matter not just of your souls but of the 'high frequency plasma matter' of archetypal immortal power and beauty.

Yeah....

Phwew..

(Imagine)..The power of ancient priestesses and magii, the love of a Eros Lover, the innocence of a spring Maiden mixing with his.....divine qualities in the alchemy of devotional love. This is what everyone (most everyone) deeply desires; love and recognition light years beyond sex and love you've already experienced.

THOSE WHO HAVE THE ACTUAL QUANTA have the GOLD.
Most others are just trying to look like they do. BEING it is different than acting it (and again; the best acting IS being it).

For men; the grail I propose is related to this multi-bandwidth drive and search...a yearning to make love to Goddess level Beauty Herself for he would HAVE to be a god or king to do so and it would ensure his immortality.

Many will live and die through LIFETIMES for the HOPES, CHANCE and REMEMBRANCE of this...even being their primary SOUL evolutionary drive (not merely biological to ensure reproduction).

For many women; it's the ultimate path and return Home...devotional, cosmic love soulfully spiritually and in all the ways light years beyond soul mate love even.

The Holy Grail. Hieros Gamos. Great Remembrance.

And again; what's at the EXPERIENTIAL level of it?

ESSENCE. Divine masculine immortal quanta (power) and archetypal, immortal Beauty of the Goddess and all of her fractals through all of time ; and really those which best fit your soul expression.

Hierogamy (as per Hieros Gamos is essentially the Holy Grail and it) is the Communion of God and Goddess consciousness and spirit-matter. This isn't for most people in part b/c they aren't ready or conditioned for that much true power and beauty in experience.

And because that is what (includes sex but is the deeper truth of it) humanity is seeking, it has everything to do with driving behavior, attention and attraction socially.

It may be unwise to not value the deeeeeeper spiritual, sexual and psychic drives related to things socially as well like this. Marketeers might catch up to it in 2 decades I predict, however b/c consumer consciousness will evolve AND we're going to have many more awakened starlets and/as influencers.

We've just lost sight of it b/c if divinity is only about reunion with the Holy Father, then men don't know WHAT the holy grail is and they end up feeling unfulfilled and seek it in these more superficial ways of valuing sex (and shallower objectification and status) but in ways that are manipulative of them towards corporate advertising without being consciously aware that they are a pawn in the game that is using feminine quanta against them.

Women get to gain superficial forms of attention but without a deeper fulfillment and spirituality remains entirely SEPARATE while shadows and non-consciousness continue to reign. Feminine essence continues to be valued and often misused even by default as part of the game but by RECLAIMING YOUR ALLURE you can EVOLVE THE GAME itself for your OWN soul tribe. How does THAT sound?!

Having power and beauty that is ABOVE the constructivist maya-matrix yet to thrive within it?! Yeah...men and other 'gurus' were literally calling me 'Morpheus' when I was a top natural dating coach ~15 years ago. This is a whole new level of that...it might take you years to keep mining treasure out of this and integrating it into your cupboards and cubby holes. But it's not coming from my earthly ego at all bts.

And hey; many archetypes ARE about shameless sexual and sensual expression. I'd look to the alluring women like Stephanie Pierre who embody the QUANTA of different archetypes who are representing the future...not merely superficially looking good but finding a FUSION of it all.

Related with your social impact;

What happens with the fracture from the nurturing of God the Lover and God the King (beyond all religion) is that women can become more masculinized, fatigued, aging faster and soulfully unfulfilled and far less loved than they would like; ending up living a life of compromise while their soul yearns to be infinitely more beautiful and supported...relying more on 'looking good' and 'soft-maxing' while feeling a disconnect from soulful influence.

The 'soft-girl' or 'trad-wife' trend on a sociological level represents this, however it goes deeper spiritually and sexually.

Your feminine reclamation and cultivation allure and even grail (reunited with Masculine) allure can re-constellate all of that because we live in a vibrational universe and YOUR BEAUTY (your energetic alignment, archetypes and expression, your resistances to masculine provision, etc.) already exist in your energy body itself.

Even in attracting and creating relationships, it is YOUR energy body that is already templating the level of love, connection and intimacy with your partner.

Remember that universally men are VISUAL and also FEEL allure when you have it; they just can't explain it like I consciously can (and I'm still learning and couldn't speak to this 20 years ago either). BUT THEY KNOW and it's in HOW THEY RESPOND.

“What about men who use/abuse women who ARE on the awakening path and have more of this essence currency?”

We don't have time to go into that today - but the answers are still with Grail principle, discernment and many of the women in my circle can also speak to that. (Also x-ref what I said about starlet dynamics).

So if you complain that men are just using you for your body, chances are that you actually don't have any allure, nor an open heart, nor a spirit which incites him and ACTIVATES those aspects of HIS psyche-soma to engage with you.

I've been speaking and helping women with that for years and as they cultivate more allure, it shifts how people view them. They attract men wildly; higher quality men for example b/c THEY are shifting to be more receptive and alluring to be the milkshake that brings the right boys to the yard (which is NOT just about looks).

Remember; you are both fully mortal AND divine. Beauty 1.0 works on your mortal beauty (and oh shit when your estrogenic bio-essence depletes); yet fortunately, you also have your ESSENCED Beauty; your ALLURE to work with to run through your energy body.

I have a 70 year old master body-worker colleague and grandmother who is FILLED with Goddess and Medicine Woman quanta...a very powerful feminine presence that is palpable.

It's LIKE she still has all of her estrogen and warmth. YEP. Post-menopausal. That's ESSENCE. And yet a lot of women 'dry up' post-menopause and this isn't attractive to the male psyche or eros-soma.

To say a few more words about the grail.

So if you didn't know it right now; there is a revival and reclamation of divine feminine consciousness awakening on the planet. Much of it is understandably and welcome-ly centric around divine feminine reclamation; Goddess, Queen, Heroine, Boss Babe, etc.

More specifically, there are women on a Grail path of reunifying with the Immortal Beloved (their version of God the Lover) – and that of healing their relationship with Father and Masculine principle.

This is another way to indirectly and directly cultivate their own feminine allure and mystical beauty FAR beyond their personality quirks and so forth.

Again; this is also called 'Divine Union', 'Sacred Union' or 'Sacred Reunification' as well as 'Hieros Gamos'. Research my blog, facebook posts and circle b/c my circles is the very CORE of it in the world of this Remembrance. I even have a colleague who runs Grail Priestess retreats AT Rosslyn (Rose line) chapel in the U.K.

Ok that was maybe a bit heavy for most readers. How did you manage it?

I don't even smoke and I almost had a cigarette.

Remember to go at your own pace with this book...literally some (most even) women have taken MONTHS to get through the 'Calling of the Kingmaker' because although it speaks to deeper soul truth awakening; it can be dense to process those codes...alchemical and transmutational on their own (from higher Truth).

So if this is too much for you to process right now and you want to get back to more the social media influence stuff you can have over-view parts of this; but I think I'll say a bit more for those other readers who do want some more insight here.

A grail path of awakening includes reclaiming consciousness and psyche constellation with God the Father aspect as the Holy Daughter even if they have been traumatized by lower aspects and conditions of the mortal father-hood (lower truth). It is deep medicine....and that's where your ESSENCE can start returning home to your body.

A gnostic Holy Grail path for women can be cultivating her Grail Lover-ship to be able to experience love, intimacy, connection and sex light years beyond soul mate intercourse (and thus richly satisfying to her soul). The known (gnown) Grail lineages are Sophia, Rose and Muse.

From another angle; think of the dynamics around protecting, honoring and venerating divine feminine or masculine QUANTA/essence itself and how that could re-constellate a relationship from twin flame love to beyond soul mates into richer, Communion level intimacy, transparency and bliss. It's centered around ESSENCE itself; that which would commune.

And then contrast it with the SUPPRESSION of divine feminine (siddhic, archetypal consciousness) within a woman for example and CONTROL or stealing of essence.

So yes; with ESSENCE and cultivating your allure directly...you have potential access to the ENTIRE spectrum of immortal feminine signature qualities of consciousness (all archetypes, siddhic qualities and elements); vibe and light-truth. Grail archetypes and grail (reunified) allure may or may not be part of your path.

Your Grail Goddess might have a lot of LAVA in her sacral that could generate immense pleasure for a partner.

Keep in mind that the ARCHETYPES don't have the same mortal issues that you have. As God and Goddess fractals constellated in all dimensions of the Uniphied field (and collective sub/supra conscious); they're already powerful, confident, worthy, supremely beautiful and owning of it.

You may want to also get into my Powerliminals (I'll reference those at the end); we've got Eros, Vixen, Warrior, Queen-Lover attunements galore.

I've been doing Eros, Goddess and Lover activations (and many others) for YEARS!

Reference TSWIFT here...

When you can dissociate from her name and such, more universally as Princess-Queen (Starlet) embodiment...like if u were an alien that didn't know people's names and were just reading energy-truth.

See how she has both yet she's maturing more into Queen.

Now...b/c we're talking about expanding your VISUAL POWER AND INFLUENCE...growing your social media empire and lighting it up organically...

For here, I want to re-highlight that (I propose) the Holy Grail itself is driving the markets of attraction and connection itself on the dormant spiritual, psycho-sexual and soulful awakening aspect of HUMANITY ITSELF.

That includes for women to become more like the/a Goddess (and women who embody aspects of Her) and for (hetero/general) men to reunify with Her but also to be more actualized in their sexual and spiritual potential as well as to realize immortality.

The fracture is also represented by how few men can be comfortable in sexual presence around a Goddess-embodied woman.

It literally may take 100's of years for the mainstream to get into it, but those who have grail codes now are set FAR ahead in beauty, power, awakening and influence. We will soon start seeing more Grail Stars and Starlets influencing the collective (in general; muses already are).

You can explore more in my 'Calling of the Kingmaker' report. (I'd just take your pace and maybe also be doing allure transformational things simultaneously rather than only keeping things mostly in a mental channel which could lead to analysis paralysis or complacent overload).

'Hieros gamos' (aka 'holy grail') is encoded as the HIGHEST possible truth of Sex which is the REUNIFICATION at SPIRIT-QUANTA levels (beyond soul but that which a soul could embody mass archetypal beauty consciousness to alchemize in Communion with God-aspect quanta in the bedroom)...that which we are more deeply seeking and allure starts re-activating us to something closer to that literal experience (in awakening).

Why is K-pop so secretly popular and influential?

Primarily – this is my theory not just b/c of ‘allure’ in general but because Muse is GRAIL ARCHETYPE that is actively awakening with and through culture. Muse is the higher Truth and CURRENT running the show of K-POP.

The more K-Pop shows there are in the U.S. and Europe, the more culture itself is indirectly and directly awakening to reunification of masculine and feminine principle; more beauty, more renaissance, more love, more actual peace and unity.

Muses (a higher truth than 'artists') like TWICE and SNSD are EMANATING powerful essenced quanta of Muse and other archetypal signatures that are ALCHEMICAL and infectious (allure).

For years I've been saying K-Pop is the future (k-pop as a lower truth label people can relate with)...and it's b/c of Grail Muse but also because of Allure and the future of beauty and social influence.

Now; here's another enthralling 1 or 2 of Jihyo.

Not the difference in her archetypal embodiment from left to right years later in a solo format.

Now, can you visualize this?...

Can u feel yourself getting CLOSER TO HER FIELD energetically (inch by inch)? AHA! Could you feel it? How there's this ATMOSPHERIC holographic influence?

Does that help you tune in? Here's another example (charismatic Neymar)... Visualize and sense yourself moving a centimeter or inch closer and closer...can you notice any sensations? Maybe move the screen closer. (Honestly; I might have posted this earlier but this book got so big I can't remember)

We can respond differently somatically to different people at different times.

The more tuned in you are TO your energy body or 'eros-soma' the more you should sense and discern things (not just psychically but TRUTHFULLY)..people may respond differently to the same person but we are also looking for universal trends of response to generally charismatic and alluring people.

You might also respond to the same person differently or in different photos and others to you...that's also why as an influencer or public figure you want to be OPTIMIZED in your visual communication close to ALL OF THE TIME so people can have a best experience of you consistently. The psychic clarity itself you can sense through time b/c I don't think this is Neymar's best or cleanest either.

Think of it this way; the Feminine must have SOME way to ORGANICALLY evoke provision, protection and attraction without having to 'work' at it.

Now; from here does it make sense that you could increase your sensitivity and ability to BE even affected and aware of what's going on?

(Most of beauty is impersonal anyways; esp. on a collective scale of influence)

Doing this work consciously is like being a media alchemist where you can work with power and beauty encoded in beauty for your own alchemical transformational purposes to awaken and heal.

Consumers aren't yet like that, but you could be more like that entire realm of archetype alchemy of allure transformation and divine union work. If that's TOO much for you right now; I'd just consider getting into the Allure Attunement mentioned later and possibly working with me directly where results are assured.

For it is the QUANTA itself; the spirit-matter of sentient Light that is 'The Power' that is the experiential truth of Communion. As more alluring and ascensionary beautiful women take up more of the pop lexicon like muses rather than shadow or astral-cultural shadow archetypes (like SJWs); humanity will be helped to evolve.

Think of when you're making love with a partner and the soul to soul exchange (which improves if you are into conscious sexuality as lovers); that is also ESSENCE; but it's nowhere nearing being GODDESS receiving for example EROS-Warrior himself levels of essence communion between you two.

Even the COLLECTIVE anima within women is yearning you could say to commune with an archetypal aspect represented in Jason Momoa in a prime Eros embodiment but it's not just primal...there are other aspects implicated.

You can CHOOSE and value the qualities you would like in a Divine Union partner and then REUNIFY with them to ATTRACT HIM IN. That right there could be its own $50,000 a year transformational program.

With all of this; the currency itself of gold...it's hard to put a price on.

The more people can FEEL your presence (which for men includes your jing chi in your lower chakras and the distance of your auric expression); the more they will RESPOND organically to you anyways. (So yes; we work on your chakras, auras, etc. according to e3 principle).

So Sex is driving things ; but on a far more spiritual, awakening and psychic level than we ever knew - WITH THE HOLY GRAIL (and even if you wouldn't physically sleep with someone).

Besides; other archetypes have power and influence; the CRONE-SAGE might have great relevance TO a Prince-King Magician for example in the spiritual growth polarity dynamic.

Imagine when your allure from both your live presence AND your literal visuals (esp. Grail allure that receives and circulates masculine spirit quanta); can start enchanting siddhic fragrance and be the pied pipers call at a SOUL LEVEL for them to return Home...in turning their heads, in HAVING to get to know you, in subscribing, in following you, in buying your products or services, there is an exchange - that gets them closer.

So - the more a SOURCE you are of divine (Beauty quanta or Masculine chi) embodied, the more INHERENT value and the more influential you can be on a deeper client fulfillment relationship long-term.

As an influencer; a source they can keep returning to for deeper levels of connection (or training in your back-end services) b/c the CURRENCY ITSELF IS SELLING THEM and of GOLD value.

This lets you cultivate and embody the soul qualities and values that can be the under-current of your logical channel so that everything is magically essenced and transmission level instead of 'just words'. Again; Gillian is perfect at this as a living model.

Let's refocus on this core concept here because it's a lot to cover and it's worth another review.

The highest value currency; the gold itself...the SUBSTANCE or 'material' of true social media and beauty INFLUENCE is ESSENCE itself. These already exist in the higher dimensions of consciousness that are possible for us to access.

The pre-existing quanta of the Immortals is already powerful and influential. When you can embody not just the beauty of your unique soul essence but amplify and tone it with archetypes and other feelable qualities...

Through allure; it can MAGNETIZE everything to you organically from the psyche, soul, heart, mind, sex, eros-soma light body and spirit of your prospects or fans. It engages and enriches their experiences with you (just reference any number of K-pop live performances).

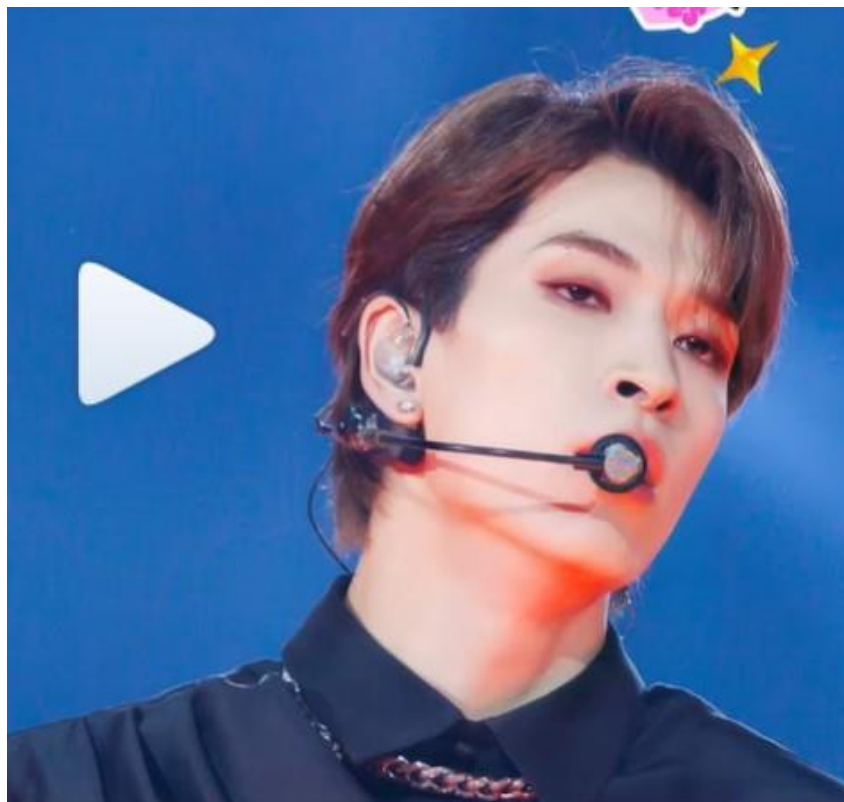

The Holy Grail itself represents the pre-transfigured EXPERIENCE of the greatest imaginable thing for (love and sex valuing) SOULS to experience which is Reunification or Divine Union itself; enlightenment as God and Goddess level consciousness and the LITERAL ALCHEMY of essenced spirit-matter between you and a Lover.

(I know I'm over-stating or re-stating things but this is meant to be like that open fire hose on a 90's hip-hop video in NYC).

When you have THOSE codes, you're on an entirely different level.

I propose that this is the deeper psycho-sexual, psychic, soulful and spiritual drive that most of humanity is drawn towards (yet end up compromising or getting stuck in conditions and shadows like vanity, lower relational templates and agreements, inter-personal exchanges, etc.)

Again; it's the ESSENCE of divine feminine that the masculine spirit within (hetero) men desires to REUNIFY with....tangible, feelable, body to body, spirit to spirit BEAUTY ITSELF. These can be embodied in humans from ANY ethnic background.

‘Personality’ and ‘talent’ just ADDS to the equation.

So when you start having FEELABLE spirit-matter of archetypal feminine along with your unique soul essence (through your human design aura), people cannot help but to start responding to you b/c now their SOUL, psyche and SPIRIT is engaged and a conduit to their own awakening ascension (that which SOME of humanity is starting to wake up consciously to).

And all without coercive force, trick marketing or manipulation that they end up secretly hating you for deceiving them. Beauty isn't meant to be the 'in your face unwanted' cold approach salesman...it could be, but She has deeper powers of influence and permeation to saturate and awaken consumers to respond and evolve.

You may never be the prettiest.

You may never have the stand-out viral-friendly dog trick videos.

You may never start the hottest dance trend.

You may not dominate an obscure content niche area like knitting sweaters for gerbils.

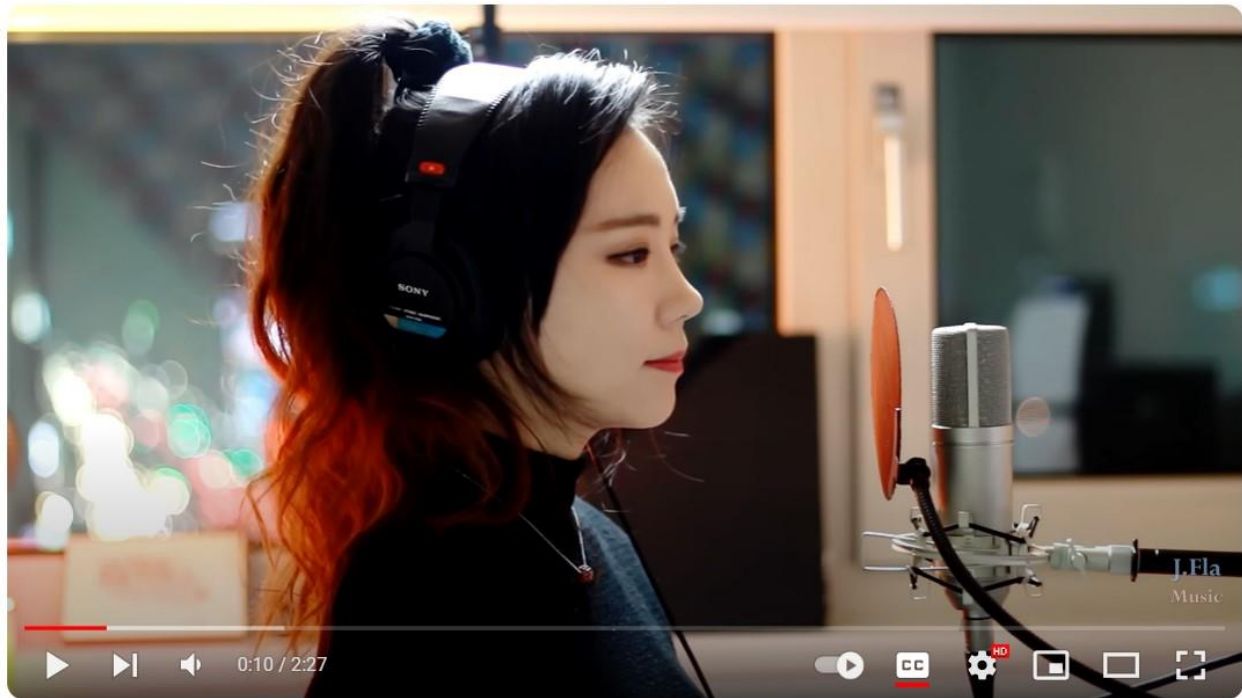

You may only be average at 'creating content'.

You might even be pretty good at social media marketing or 'hacking algorithms'.

But if you value IMAGE and being seen; the real and future currency is ESSENCE itself of INHERENT value - and you don't have to wait for the rest of the world to catch up to this.

Again; it doesn't even have to get into the archetypes...we could just open up your allure and embody and express more of your SOUL essence qualities itself so people can simply 'feel your vibe' more too. (Or you can find other indirect ways to do that).

Let me remind you (if I didn't earlier) of a S.Korean youtuber who does vocal covers who has 17.4M subscribers. Yep. That's a lotta subscribers. Probably more than some smaller record labels.

I know a MAJOR part of her success is ABSOLUTELY with the essences she is embodying and expressing (mostly impersonal but filtered through her unique soul-body vehicle)...The label we attach to her name is a lower truth; we are vehicles for consciousness.

Her success is not just her voice; we're just more conscious of it now. She does video covers singing into her microphone.

Highly encoded and essenced allure may even be her MAIN actual secret (to literal social success) b/c there are many good cover singers out there competing for 'attention'.

Other marketing things like 'making many videos' consistently and pro-actively commenting, that's the more basic superficial stuff....I'd gander that her rich ALLURE is driving her success. It's bringing so much higher quality CURRENCY in many consumers who either don't have much up there OR resonate with her b/c she's like them (and everything in between).

She carries the 22nd Gene Key as her Radiance anyways which is related to her aura...people are attracted to her GRACE which can melt away all sins in her presence. She carries medicinal levels of allure.

People can't 'explain it'...they're just DRAWN BACK TO HER visuals and the whole experience. (I've done past Gene Key 22 related Siddhic Grace activations for others to help cultivate the bio-chemical and essence transformation of consciousness into Grace-truth radiance).

It literally brings an experience where they're closer to heaven b/c on a deeper spiritual and soulful level; this is what many of us are seeking.

She's got a lot of obvious allure; a very high allure factor of 9.2. Chances are she doesn't even know about Gene Keys but she found an indirect way to access essences and shine in HER truth b/c she is in service...so that helped opened the Beauty gates for her to have more influence.

And with the dynamic of love, remember, it's now GREATER QUANTA b/c of ESSENCE that can be exchanged for whoever her lover is; literally more beauty and thus more POWER of love and greater, heavenly experience, intimacy, siddhic alchemy and forms of enlightenment.

So...recapping some more...

The spirit-matter of plasmic ESSENCE (within and through the channel allure and charisma) when you are emanating (and when you are recording); creates engaging, FEELABLE visual media (and without having to specifically invoke people into emotional states or manipulating, influencing, affecting or molding their emotional state with production design, editing, etc.).

We're talking POWER FROM STILLNESS...and EACH FRAME can be OVER-FLOWING with the currency itself bringing a taste of 'heaven on earth' to your users. They/we cannot process the levels of Beauty b/c the quanta over-floweth.

This is different than you feeling NOTHING from non-charismatic normal people (I won't even post a picture here) but you get the idea...just sharpen your eyes and senses and you'll start being more aware of this..

Some people get there non-consciously or by being of service to millions of people and then open themselves up for the impersonal codes to be embodied and expressed...we can now work on it directly with our transformational beauty appointments (activation sessions in 3-packs or your Allure Makeover).

I know the world is JUST starting to hear this b/c I've literally heard it nowhere else but essence IS spirit-matter quanta and it is holographically encoded within digital media of humans (obviously to varying degrees) b/c Light includes vibrational quanta that exists outside of the visible spectrum (that we can still feel - like you would FEEL gamma rays).

The MP's and I can connect to it WITHOUT visual reference to read it accurately holographically and kinesthetically.

Remember; not all adults have charisma (just look and sense around!); but the small percentage that DO have ESSENCED and feelable beauty are the ones who assuredly THRIVE the most. (Most of communication is energetic and then non-verbal remember).

You want to be in touch with your dharma/soul-purpose and have a REASON to open your energy up...if you're an influencer and/or on a spiritual path of awakening you have reason...so how BIG of a star/let do you want to become or MUST you - to serve your people? What would that look like?

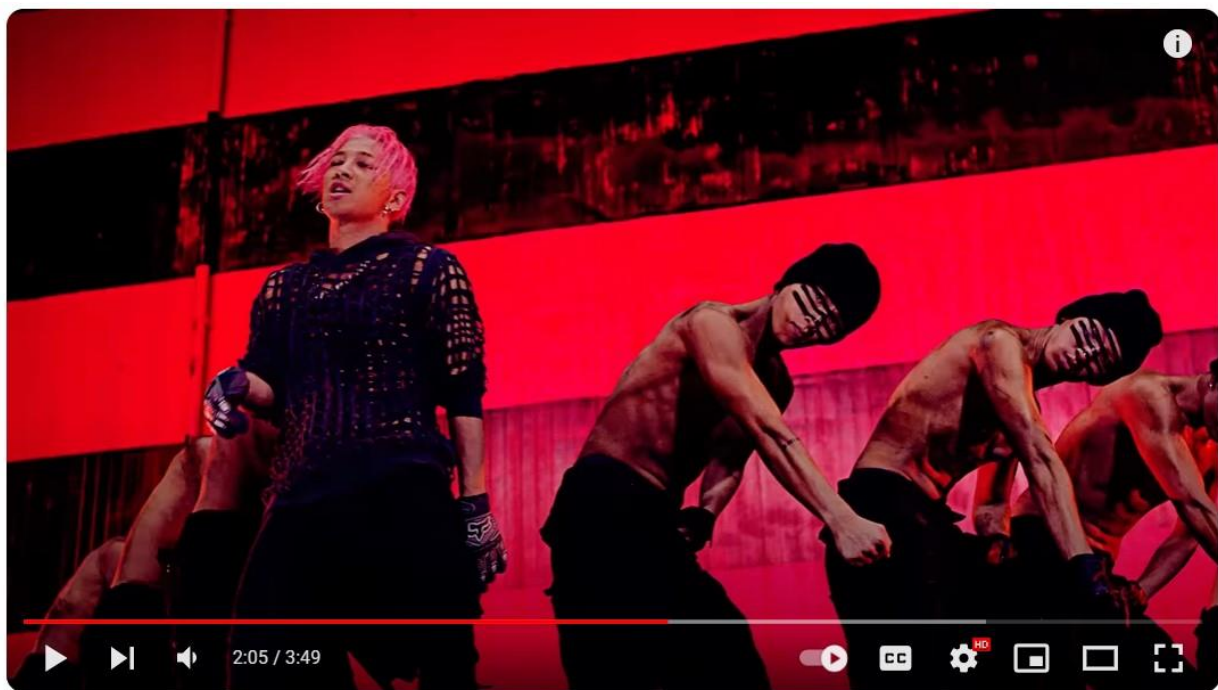

The charismatic and alluring are far more likely to succeed and scale in their social influence b/c people are ready to ORGANICALLY and on their own accord respond to them.

If your energy is flat, not in public service and/or keeping to yourself, it's not coaxing emotional, psychic, sexual and spiritual connection or inter-change. If you're unhappy with your social media results, WORK ON YOUR ALLURE and what things start poppin'.

This is why K-pop DOMINATES social media in so many (viral) ways and is setting off all kinds of dance trends and RABID cult followings.

Big Bang has a lot of sacral Fire-Eros in their group charisma here with 'Bang Bang Bang'. (See that's the type of awareness 'n languaging for proper, professional charisma consulting ;)

What is also so intelligent is that they've got it right energetically AND with the color tones PLUS actual fire...a lot of elements going into such a production (and a hot sound) but it's got 676M views.

Instead of just 'watching a flashy video' that sounds great; with charisma, it helps ENGAGE users in an EXPERIENCE and takes them there (both 'escape' AND 'Ascension' can be occurring with charisma b/c it can be transformational entertainment).

BIGBANG - 뱅뱅뱅 (BANG BANG BANG) M/V

As aforementioned;

Muse (a Holy Grail ancient Feminine archetype) is simultaneously TRANSMITTING alchemical Beauty codes of CONSCIOUSNESS with and through most K-pop girl groups. Interestingly I've blogged about the VCHA group of American talent show hopefuls who THEN start accessing and embodying Muse codes...you can find that somewhere on the blog; keyword 'VCHA' (or my FB wall maybe).

We see 'idols' as 'AESPA' and lower truth labels as their names and 'Asian' or 'Korean' or 'cultural I.P.' (intellectual property); but the greater GAME that is simultaneously going on is of power, beauty and INFLUENCE. (Again; largely an archetypal, divine-social game of meta-power and influence).

To simplify; you could call it an archetypal game, but then you must remove your own filters that are seeing it from lower truth paradigms like genres, cultures and niches.

The higher power game being played CONCURRENTLY is the spiritual and soulful game of influence on sex, spirit and consciousness itself – in dynamic contrast of a great awakening out of (and yet within) the maya itself.

The more you can tune into the higher truths, the closer to being transformed you will be from the resources b/c you are experiencing more unfiltered BEAUTY AND POWER ITSELF.

But if they're your 'favorite artist' or 'bias' and the max-truth is the name of the artist or genre; you're remaining non-conscious to the REAL power game being played.

WE just have to shift to realize the higher truth that is already concurrently present.

It's archetypal and it's the QUANTA itself that you want to be aware of (and maybe start embodying more richly for yourself wherever you're at in presence from here).

Allure is its own PRINCIPLE and principality of social influence in performance entertainment and in social media.

WHEN YOU CAN HAVE alluring, quanta emanant ENGAGING psycho-activating thumbnails in your youtube shorts or general thumbnails for example like these;

DRAWS YOU IN. It's not just her eye shadow magic/make-up..it's her essence qualities that are speaking to YOUR awakening soul-self and greater beauty or the power as a man to relate to and face such beauty in intimacy or presence.

I mean what are we seeking anyways? 'CONTENT'? 'Another dance video?' No...we're seeking something DEEPER....HMM....maybe it has to do with the CURRENCY itself of you experiencing the connection and gold...of being closer to it; part of something b/c maybe it could transform your life in aspiration and ascension.

When you think of it FROM a soul and spirit based REALITY of connection, communication and exchange, the STAKES and value becomes QUANTUM....younger people may not realize this angle as easily b/c older people who have more life and spiritual experience start realizing more the contrast being mortality and the spiritual dynamic.

Anyways; if and when you do this and flow with more current (even Beyoncé has talked indirectly about how this greater 'something' works through her on stage);

You're going to get more clicks, shares, subscribers. People sense and feel something that pulls them in.

That can make ALL OF THE DIFFERENCE...esp. when there isn't room to rely on a the right headline or tags, etc. as the main thing (this is supportive stuff).

You want it in LIVE presence first (like to invoke your soul embodiment or a fractal of a Goddess) and then you can record it in your media.

So will you start valuing your visual media 'content' as MOSTLY energetic and then non-verbal information? This is about light mastery.

Esp. if you're a beauty influencer or entertainer (or a person in business who wants to maximize you as brand with your visuals)?

So I hope that you've got past your love/hate with k-pop or whatever your 'personal' projections are to see the bigger picture going on b/c they are AHEAD OF THE GAME and more stable with embodiment and allure Beauty. Most of it doubles as transformational entertainment anyways.

Not all media is 'niche market' content focused so you have to find your balance b/c authentic self-expression with more allure (breathing-ness of your light-body) is going to help pretty much any niche market content 'information' marketing creator as well.

Although we're covering many inflection points;

It's simple b/c the tangible spirit-matter quanta BEHIND and encoded with the photons is reaching out holographically and ENGAGING your viewers SENTIENCE to feel connected and get closer to Source in the spirit, sex, soul, eros-soma, psyche, etc. ways.

Your visuals are not merely digital pixels and if you thought it was you're completely overlooking the power dynamic of influence Betty Rubble.

It may be worth noting that many Westernized videos go OVERBOARD with fast-cutting and so forth and yet even just SIMPLE videos boiled down to JUST an artist in stillness can be enthralling (instead of having to 'make up' for things that are missing).

We're talking about soul transmotional power and influence like the muse-goddess Yua here.

Rooftop - YooA [Music Bank] | KBS WORLD TV 240315

Beyond culture and (as higher truth) are the archetypes and other divine feminine and masculine qualities.

On a separate note; what happened to Britney Spears allure? Because she's a public figure I'll speak generally and safely to that dynamic but we can't really 'feel' her anymore like on her instagram posts (and I won't even post a visual here).

I want her to thrive again. It's going to take some SOMATIC WORK in order to re-embody and bring that out; things besides just psychological support...I'm in favor of her being re-lit up again and she COULD potentially bring back the potent Sex Icon-Maiden essences that we used to see b/c you can work with archetypes at any age.

K-pop always has this ESSENCE CORE (even though criticize the industry for being 'cookie cutter') AND they usually add fast-edit cutting, so you can never get enough though b/c you just want to BASK in the HIGH VALUE ONSLAUGHT OF BEAUTY entrainment you're getting IN a simple freeze-frame. THIS MAKES THE VIDEOS pretty-near infinitely rewatchable....this is also b/c your soul is attuning to Goddess consciousness of certain frequencies anyways which transforms your life (not merely just entertains or diverts you as a self-escape).

You can't get enough b/c of the desire to relate with that divine beauty status or reunify with it...and you feel CONNECTED TO IT so it's so compelling (not just the catchy melodies, etc...it's all the elements of which allure is a prime one)

Here's EVERGLOW again...very rich and very cultivated in their energy bodies to able to hold and transmit such Beauty-Presence quanta.

(Remember to get past your lower truth filters as best you can to be with the energy BEHIND, with and through their vehicles; learning to 'see' the archetypes can help).

And STAYC

And then we can consult and do essence readings on each individual and so forth for further image mastery and maximizing influence. The whole ‘Dark’ realm is something K-pop doesn’t ‘really’ get right often; but honestly most Western MV’s that try to do it end up in a lot of Shadow instead of pure filtered Dark (think ‘Taki Taki’). That’s all an EXTENDED side discussion and realm also b/c there are Shadow forces that can infiltrate the Dark but we’re just not going there now.

K-Pop, ‘Korean’, ‘Asian’, genres, are all lower truths. Personal preferences are subjective lower, ego-‘truths’. We value higher truth with understanding the 'real game' of power and influence (although yes, it gives S.Korean more social power as a byproduct). As we move to 'higher truths' we are closer to source and sourced in connectedness; where you also can access and flow with STARLET.

The REAL reason Grimes is into BLACKPINK & AESPA is because she herself is a muse (this is my theory)..and it's so evident above with their Muse encoded Allure. I literally called that out publicly before she even met BLACKPINK b/c I knew she was a muse.

BTW...remember there was an Easter Egg to find about Dance video success;

The assurable secret of viral dance videos after all is basically Essence + Movement (whether choreographed or not)...THAT'S IT!

Good looks are just PART of it. People want to FEEL things and be drawn in to an experience.

If you can access Muse codes like Nayeon (most literally cannot), you'll have even MORE influence. Muse after all is the QUEEN of Celebration and to bring soul-celebration value and experience to others is INVALUABLE. She's the party in the heavens AND after-life.

Something like styling is secondary...the movements themselves are also secondary unless it's centered on a specific dance or ice bucket challenge, etc.

If you're doing dance videos WITHOUT THE MAGIC INFLUENCE & APPEAL OF ESSENCE, then people are less likely to FEEL it or FEEL GOOD (ref; Britney Spears Instagram 2023 where we don't feel THE SAME as we did 2 decades ago with her dance performances).

Their soul can't bask in the heavenly frequencies.

Without essence unfortunately, dance (without technical mastery) can feel like watching Australian RAYGUN perform at the Olympics again. (Exhibit K):

People will be more judgmental b/c they don't feel connection with you; it's more like pixels on a screen doing its own thing.

Without essence you're kinda coming across like a dead body...more lifeless. Maybe ....even....

like

Bernie;

Why do you think JFLA is such a wild success for being a cover vocalist? WE CAN FEEL HER AURIC WARMTH and you can tune into it on your own timing (even from a freeze-frame) to start sensing how her light-body leaps off of the screen magically and starts affecting you.

The more soul sensitive and psychically experienced you are, the more you should INSTANTLY be able to sense and know that I'm spot on about this b/c you also have more experienced of sensing and feeling in presence without interference from your monkey mind chatter and its judgment.

(Can you sense and see it more this time?) The Feels.

It's a higher level and CURRENT of communication; SOUL and SPIRIT BANDWIDTHS of COMMUNICATION...(encoded in the same media while we're focused on lower frequencies).

I know I'm heavy on North Korean; err..make that - South Korean resources; but they've GOT IT ON FIRE. Viral and social domination.

Not only do they VALUE visuals (not even just K-Beauty) but they non-consciously value allure and it's an ENGINE of their overall success with K-pop (and other influencers). It's very STABLE whereas in the West, it's more hit or miss even with celebrities.

My theory for her wild success is that she simply has essence aka 'allure'...that's her secret as I mentioned several minutes ago.

Her aura radiates GRACE (and I literally checked her Gene Key chart and she has Gene Key 22) as her Radiance! The Gene Keys (and YOUR Gene Keys) give you clues to more of your avatar self beauty and what it could be like. (I do separate readings for that but we work on that in an Allure or Charisma Makeover).

J.FLA's VISUALS ARE THERAPEUTIC.

Therapy for the soul for soul-disembodied people that brings them more of what they're missing (and for others).

Her visuals are medicine and creates a vibey atmosphere and experience of healing, intimacy and care so she went viral. I mean you can literally do self-healing with such resources (I've been for 2 decades).

There's other vocalists like her vocal-technically per se; but she had the visuals down not because of her skin-deep styling and such but b/c of the holographic, engaging influence of her allure.

Isn't that an extra 16 million subscriber's worth of taking a chance on it for yourself (for whatever your field)?

See...

It's the essences as unique vibe and light signatures of sentience that people are NOURISHED and intrigued by on all levels of experience (spiritual, soulful, sexual, etc.); similar to how the sun's solar photonic quanta (EMF) supports us and nourishes the earth and nature.

If you're communicating just from looking good, maximizing skin-deep beauty; is that good enough anymore?... Especially if you're not already famous?

Are you able to FILL THEIR SOUL and SPIRIT with the CURRENCY of value itself from your higher avatar self-aspect in multi-band open-throttle Beauty communication?

Naturally; the most famous people are looking (generally) for even greater impact and influence. That's also with allure...the real currency underneath it all in an attention economy. Yes, you can have other areas of VALUE that people would want to exchange their time (or money) for, but this is the underlying BIG ONE (even if you aren't the best-looking; you can STAND OUT in your industry esp. if you're competing with non-alluring influencers!).

So if you want to be a star; are you even shining? Or is your 'inner beauty' (essence embodiment and expression) DEPLETED?

Remember; it's not your 'personality' we're talking about with influence in visual stillness and beauty influence.

And do you even know what your auric Human Design to begin with? (We're not going into even introducing that here but it's part of professionally working on your charisma). We work on that in something like the Charisma Makeover.

Interestingly, the charismatic Travis Scott has a mix of Light, Dark and Shadow consciousness energy (and corresponding vibe-light truth) but that's actually, totally on brand for him as a Rap Rockstar and fits with his fans vibe, lyrics and values which can go to dark-shadow (consciousness) places.

(MOST people have lower frequency or visible shadow consciousness btw to advanced psychics...there are 64 shadows in the spectrum of consciousness alone).

Remember that charisma is still authentic self-expression of whatever you have that can be felt...even an angry vibe could be 'charismatic' technically b/c it's the CHANNEL itself of vibrational and light communication from your body, presence and consciousness (even though I'm often referring to awakening allure).

Brandon Flowers has charisma and it's interesting b/c he kinda looks like a good-looking normal guy who you might even meet at a regional corporate advertising event; but there's something different about him...you can sense it. You can feel him if you tune into it...he has that 'current'.

Sure; we can speak to his styling and Vegas vibes, but energetically with his charisma; he's got that 'something else'...more specifically he's got a lot of the Showman archetype consciousness, embodiment and expression; Showman-TRUTH.

Divine masculine iconic Rockstar is working through HIS interpretation (and styling) of it.

‘The Killers’ shows are high-energy after all. Now take that energy in a 1 to 1 intimate encounter and then you get another idea of ‘star power’ and the Feminine’s deeper sense of desire to commune with (forms of) Godly power itself.

MOST consumers have a personalized 1 to 1 field rather than a 1 million to 1 power field.

How about Ricky Martin in 'She Bangs'?

He's got both HEART and it's connected to his Sex/Sacral as a Lover-Eros embodied archetype charisma profile...this is high value to a Feminine soma (ok and others as we know) that values connection and intimacy in both of those areas.

He's communicating social power and value on those levels....women on a path of conscious awakening are more likely to be able to DESCRIBE it better than consumer women but many will still respond en masse (b/c it's true-power coded; not merely egoic confidence).

Remember; it's not just status that's being communicated energetically, it's DIVINE STATUS when it's charismatic b/c it tunes into the archetypal, immortal powers and beauty. That's what skyrockets them and can drive people crazy.

Here; Arnold has a lot of powerful Warrior-King Eros archetypal power embodied.

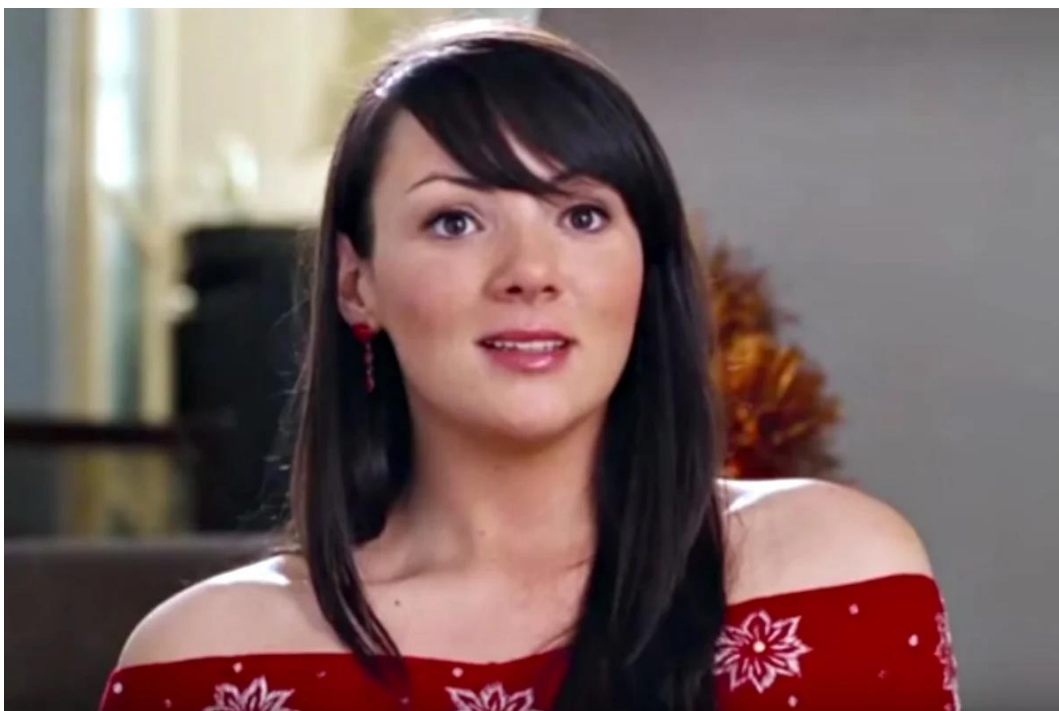

We tend to 'label' things like "Oh that's Arnold", but if we remove projections from judging it and value a higher truth, there is a different 'power' here that is mixing with the light of his physical body to create a Presence of signature power.

Remember; this is IMPERSONAL and b/c MOST consumers have a monkey-iron death grip on their egoic lower self conditioned identity, they don't open up to the REAL POWER and higher frequency CHI to embodied and coarse through their organs, DNA and blood (like a demi-god).

So, you may have to ACCEPT your human and mortality however there is a higher, divine aspect and you may have to SACRIFICE along your path your lower identity to be more powerful or beautiful (in power that 'is' and is incorruptible from the divine presence 'as is').

Here's another known pop example that you can reference. Hugh Grant's character's love interest ('Natalie') in the famous film 'Love Actually'.

She has an open hearted-warmth and a bubbly, clean, good-spirited demeanor energetically that infects any room with its goodness (the British self-deprecation and humor, accent, etc. is more the behavioral and cultural stuff which many focus on).

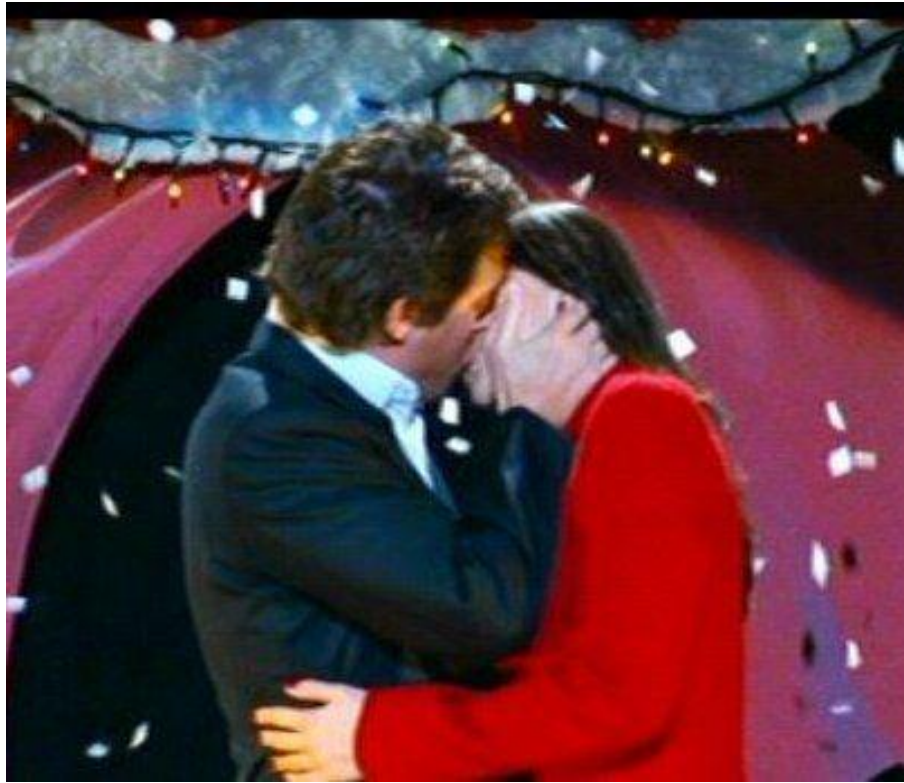

B/c he has on-screen charisma (some would refer to it as 'charm'); we can feel their on-screen chemistry and that can make or break not just the film's success but help make it a LEGEND or not.

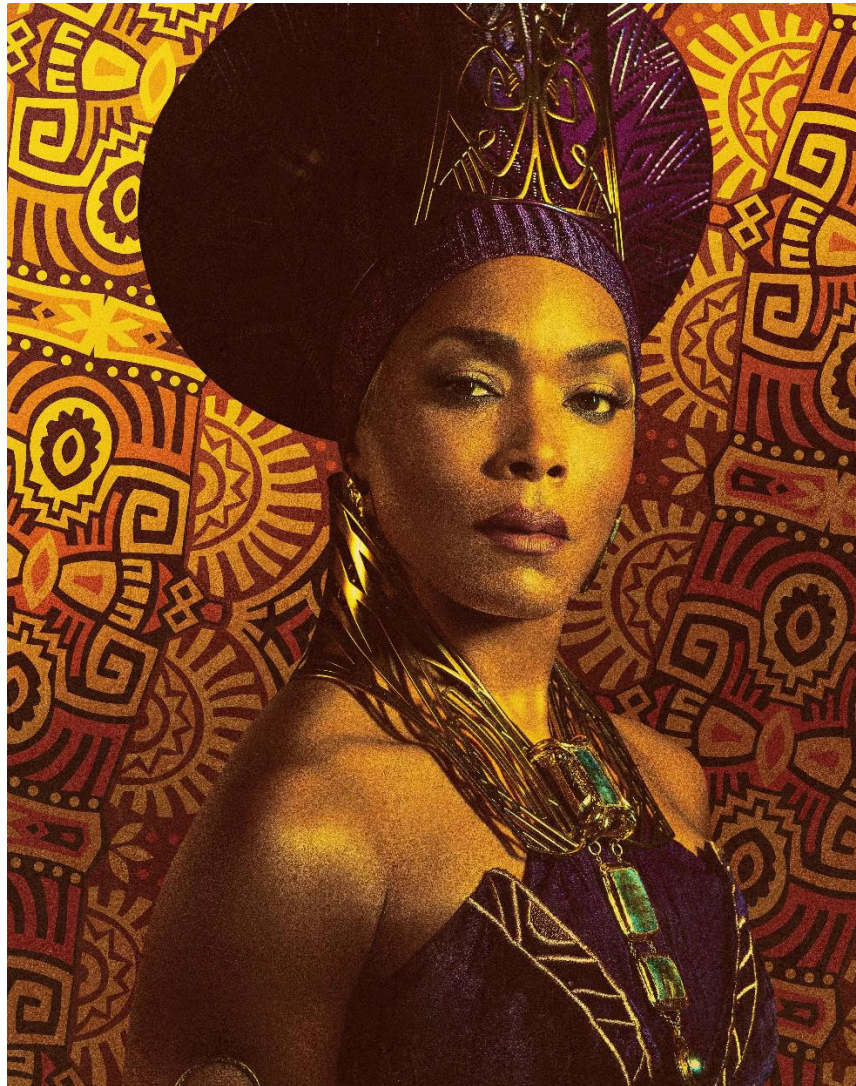

Note that the 'body language' is actually a byproduct of the deeper ESSENCE quality itself. What you want for mastery is the ESSENCE...which in this case is totally in character energetically and thrown off by the lights so we can feel it charismatically.

It's not just in that scene that his 'body language' is surprised; he's surprised in essence, feelability and consciousness so it feels real; soul level acting in the environment.

If you know the movie, it seems safe to say that it's her allure itself that gets him to keep thinking of her. When the charisma and allure are there, it's a more stable formula for actual chemistry.

Here's a perfect example of archetypal QUEEN healthy presence and EMBODIMENT with Angela Bassett in Marvels 'The Black Panther'.....but think of it from a SOMATIC, felt-sense...

She has that embodied archetypal Queen power that would actually BE Queen to 100,000s of people in Wakanda. It's those kinds of details you want energetically down so that it's all BELIEVABLE and engaging (IN THE BODY/EROS-SOMA and consciousness-truth).

This is the work I look forward to helping pro actors with my upcoming Essence Acting brand/side off-shoot of Sexy Chi.

She did a great job b/c if people psychically sense and feel something is 'off' or they don't fit in their character's skin and it throw the whole thing off. The best acting is BEING.

As I'm reiterating several things to help you digest, I'm still blitzing the codes out and coming in from dynamic inflection points (to thanks 4ur patience).

Now that we're focusing more on charisma and allure, are you seeing it more clearly? We've got movie and pop examples from influencers and how their charisma is ENTWINED in their (already famous) success.

Again; A main secret as to why K-pop is such a phenomenon is their visual mastery of both the extrinsic and alluring beauty.

IT'S AN INDUSTRY STANDARD STAPLE. Sexy Chi (my brand) now brings the CONSCIOUS and professional direct work for faster results, richer allure/charisma and greater performance MASTERY.

Sexy Chi™

If a performer DOESN'T have allure or it's 'off' too much; they're going to stand out like a sore thumb and their stans/fans will let people know.

There was even a meme around of DUA Lipa being FLAT in charisma or 'not caring' and people were calling her out – even if that happens once, ouch! Consumers are wakin' up and in pro performance have high standards...the bars are rising esp. with K-Pop.

How about becoming your own soul starlet? And would you be ok with all the new attention? (B/c some women sabotage it).

After all; there's a lot of competition out there seeking attention and other beauty influencers are going to start realizing that authentic ESSENCE is where it's at b/c it gives people a holographic and somatic, engaging experience when watching their videos...full of life, sex, heart and transcendant qualities that COMPEL people to be close to them without having to be 'sold'.

There are SO many K-pop videos that are master classes in allure AND heaven on earth experience; LITERALLY transformational entertainment (I started that meetup in L.A. and had 2 Grammy winners show up btw).

Search the blog for more Celebrity Essence (Energy) readings.

I won't even start mentioning transmutational K-Pop videos here; b/c it generally requires more deconditioning to start valuing it BEYOND the paradigm of the mental projections that divide us and prevent you from being present and meditational/alchemical with greater Beauty beyond names and labels.

(Ok; fine...u talked me into it ;) I'll give you ONE and actually - I don't refer to BLACKPINK that often for allure models as a group; but there's something about THIS Dua Lipa collabo SONG where they're more in their softer feminine essences than some of their more fronting sexy girl-crush bangers:

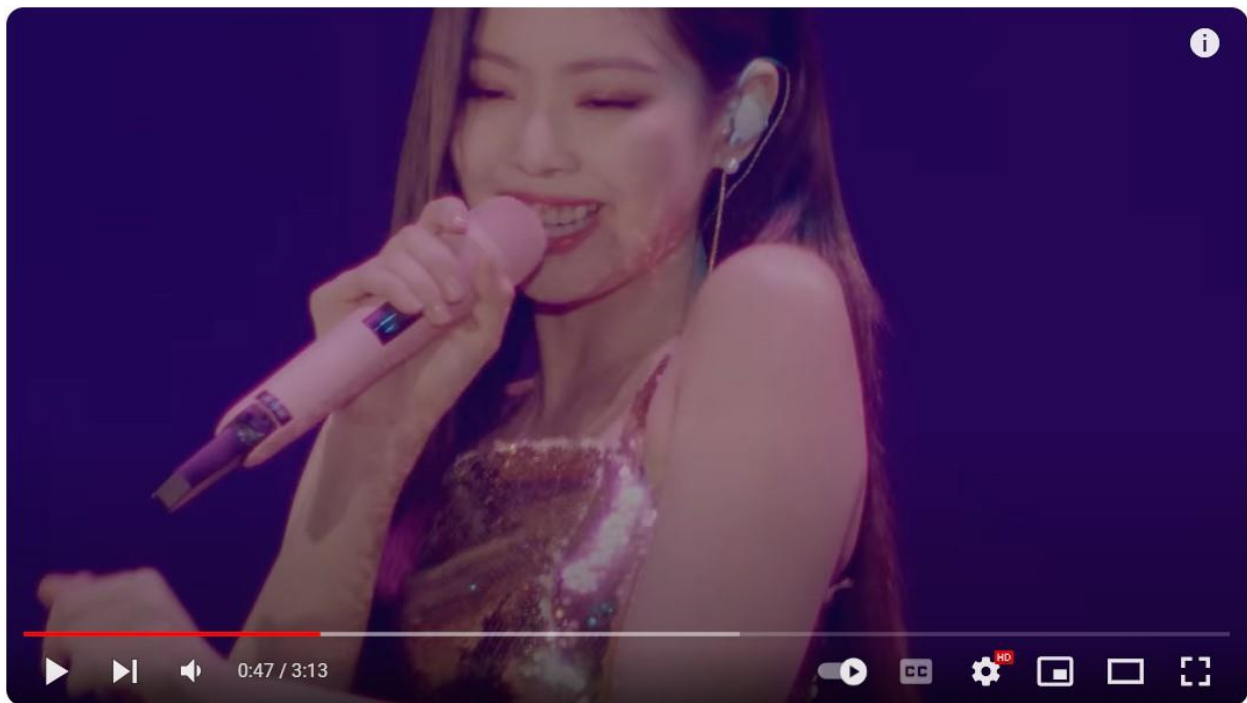

With it (and on your own timing); try and get past ALL JUDGMENTS about genre, favorite artists whether you personally like them or not and through multiple views...put aside YOUR preferences and just start sensing and noticing their AURAS and the energetic reach into the crowd...be present with it without judgment and start seeing if you can tune in to the energy BEHIND with and through the lower truths of names and projections....

Can you tune into how insatiable, rich and nurturing their essences are...how alluring and how the 4 of them together are like goddesses and creating their own group quanta field that f/x the ENTIRE 10s of thousands there?

A slice of heaven on earth b/c they're unfiltered on the higher bandwidth of spiritual and soul communication.

And check out JENNIE here...this is ADVANCED visual expressive communication b/c it not only helps to erase your ego and get you in a feeling state but you can - when tuned in - FEEL the emotion and sentience of her intended expression. WHAT?! Yep. That's allure.

BLACKPINK - Kiss and Make Up (BLACKPINK ARENA TOUR 2018 "SPECIAL FINAL IN KYOCERA DOME OSAKA")

Heaven on earth!

And can you start to realize the quanta of this allure; the palpable PRESENCE of Muse-Goddess its own VALUE COMPONENT (even if they're weren't singing) in the overall experience psychically spiritually and sexually engaging and interacting with the soma and higher selves of everyone there...and can you see more clearly how this is part of their MEGA-SUCCESS?

They each have many millions of followers and celebrity friends. Think they can make it to that level without that kind of INFLUENCE and fan engagement?!

Allure is essentially transformational on consciousness through the Law of Resonance...I've seeded different insights throughout this report and I have mucho experience in all of this (from alchemical Beauty and its archetypal and ascensionary medicine).

Most K-Pop girl groups allure is CONSISTENTLY alchemical and transformational not b/c they're 'Korean or 'Asian' it's b/c they are CHANNELS FOR ARCHETYPAL CONSCIOUSNESS AND BEAUTY.

This is the HIGHER TRUTH (and the higher truth of 'Beauty-Light').

Industry standards were set, they found what worked and now, new debut groups are also held to such HIGH STANDARDS. (including charisma) b/c fans anticipate they will be able to FEEL THEM and get all the goose-pimples and all...something to believe in which in many cases is a reflection of their own higher self-aspect or potential.

So are other examples throughout this report and from other cultures. K-Pop just happens to be the MECCA of Muse (which may shift in the future), so I like to reference it as often. A lot of Western female artists mix between charisma and allure which is an extended topic but are usually less stable and less transfigured in allure.

I will say that Ariana Grande DOES often have archetypal allure coming through pretty consistently however.

And I can speak to all kinds of accurate details about her and it and her archetypes vary in different settings, etc. (This shit is the future of Beauty and image mastery).

(Many others including Dua Lipa fluctuate in their allure ratio more often).

So in starting to see allure for yourself consider that we're just used to our normal consumer experience; projecting our lower truth filters and labels onto things like that to not see the greater truth in front of us this entire time.

ALLURE IS PART OF MASTERY PERFORMANCE and wild success (it ALREADY is)...we're just going deeper into it all and how you can start leveraging it. Don't forget how LIT MJ himself was in the decades of his heyday.

He was a CHARISMA KING. MEGA-INFLUENCE and incitement...meta-star radiance.

Similarly...How about some Stray Kids? Can you sense the 'Star' archetype sense-ationally?

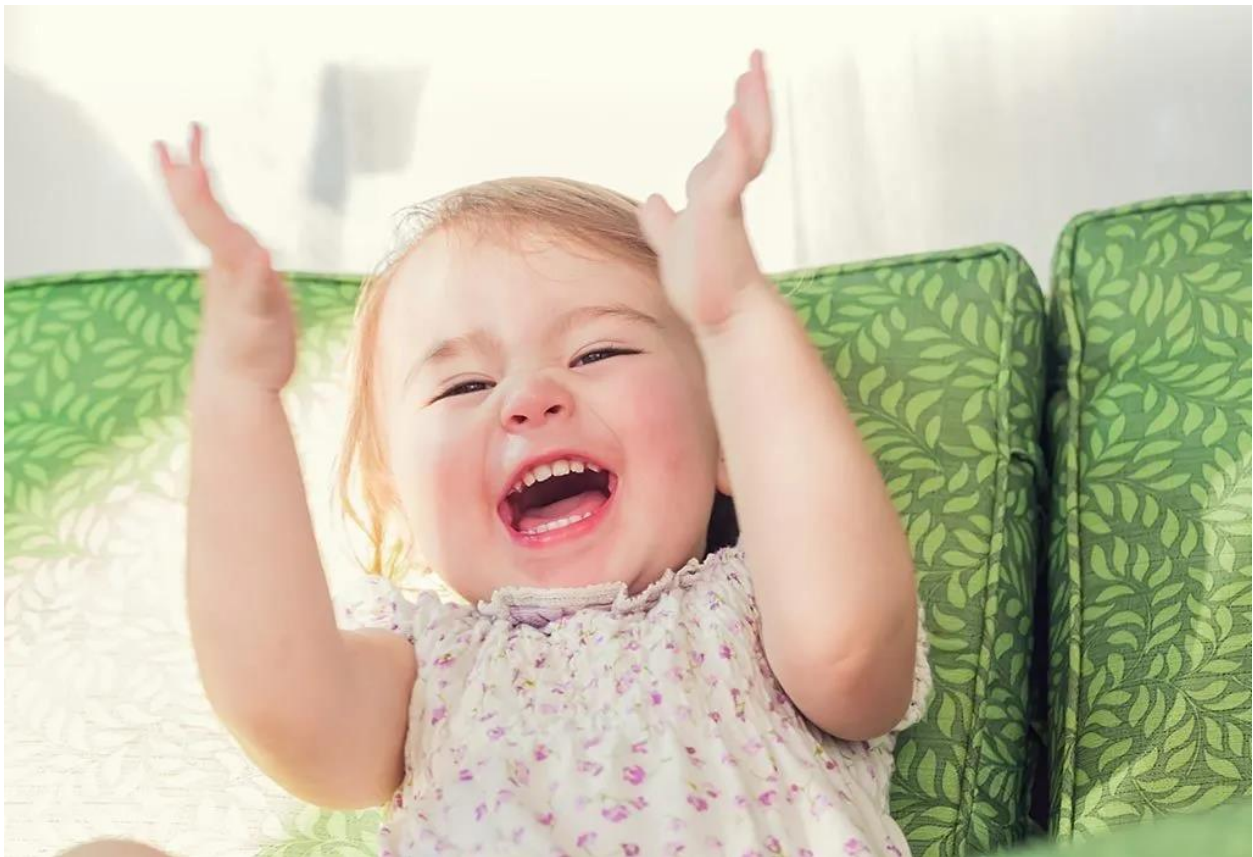

Btw;

I don't even call it 'K-Pop' unless I'm intentionally translating things; I've had a different term for it for 2 decades as my method is founded in devotional, sacred reunification alchemy (I've had 100's of men meditate with feminine archetypes basically as alchemists and it's TRANSFORMED their lives; that is such power of allure).

Anyways;

TALENT is important in certain industries but without allure, they're not going to have that 'light years ahead' aspirational impact or the ability to engage fans.

Remember; babies are very alluring/charismatic...they are essenced in large part b/c they don't have all the conditioning. Reference the influence that they have on people to get them to do everything for them without even speaking coherently!

I've found that it's best not to 'judge' the archetypes b/c then you're submitting to the tyranny of your egoic shadow which doesn't know any better and gets to be 'right' in its delusion and distortion....All archetypes have their own place in the pantheon. But sure; you may have your own favorites.

Here a lot of Princess Muse-Maiden manifest in the light-body of who we label and project as Wonyoung (장원영).

Her fans go CRAZY for her...real paparazzi effect. (Remember; the populous gravitate towards stars b/c of the nurturing radiance they give off).

Ok...Check out this youtube influencer; Brett Cooper

Yes; she has a 'theme' with going into commentary around pop-politics and cultural activity; but we're now starting to realize that yes, she does have allure and it helps her users feel engaged, subscribe, comment, etc.

Her energy is RADIATING and her heart is 'online' and unblocked. We can start seeing allure and the allure factor as part of the equation of maximizing her overall social media's influence.

It's not just that she's 'passionate' or a 'go-getter' (eye roll) with 'summer color palette' (I'm guestimating on that one) or that she has good posture or what not...

It's the ability for you and others to FEEL her in your own sentient light body FROM HER VIDEOS. BOOM. ENGAGEMENT. Even INSTANT RAPPORT and likeability...not hard sales tactics WHATSOEVER.

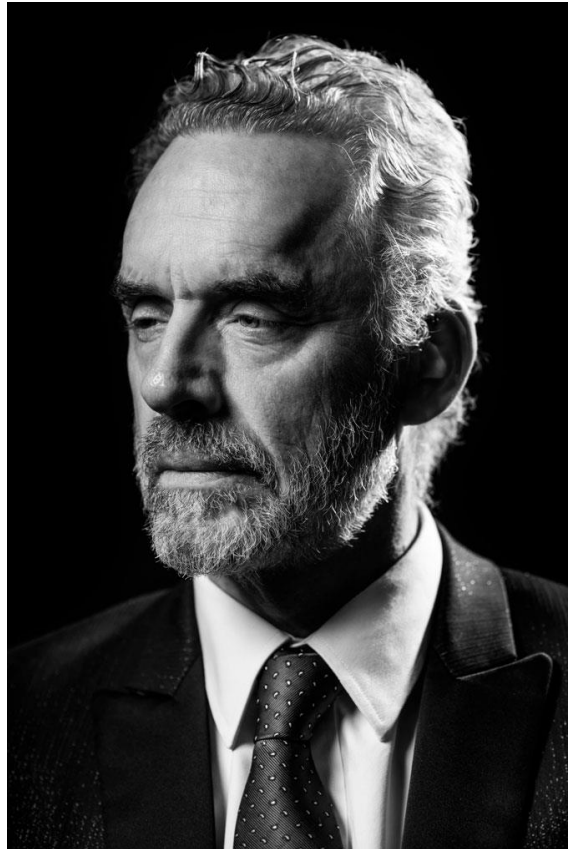

(And we're not even talking about how the voice can then become a multi-dimensional congruent transmission channel of influence from SOUL as well when sourced in essence).

She's also an actress btw (and this is also the future of THAT).

Mikaela Peterson (Dr. JP's daughter) and Lauren Chen – podcasters also have feelable feminine allure and are thriving.

(breathing space)

Dr. JP himself is very charismatic and feelable in ‘vibe’-truth...Very powerful mental body of course. (Remember the primordial Divine Masculine theme is Power but I don't believe that all power corrupts; only when it is harnessed or limited by the egoic persona can it assurably corrupt so I'd love to converse with him on archetypes et al)

There's SO much I can say about this including how he lives his Human Design and the title of his book is the exact theme of his Human Design seeking Peace and that anger is his not-self theme and it's coming across (when it does) somatically.

Essentially, we have to look at 'obviously' charismatic and alluring people only to tune in and start 'getting' the dynamic to know what it is and differentiate it entirely.

If we look at non-alluring where you can't feel their quanta it'll just keep us stuck in the cycle of valuing skin-deep appearance only. Remember; not everyone radiates.

Have you started to discern allure from physical beauty?

Gillian and I went further into this with our sold-out Mystical Beauty Allure Masterclass.

In the future with allure consulting and unlimited influencers wanting to maximize their own charisma and super-fan engagement;

It's important to learn to differentiate; ok there's her physical, skin-deep beauty; hair, styling, color coordination, make-up, etc. and see it for what it is - accept it for what it is and yet to DIFFERENTIATE IT from the engaging energy field that leaps out from the screen that you can sensitively feel when you tune into it.

Have you started to sense the holographic-somatic feelability from someone's aura and chakras (allure) as differentiated from their 2d 'on-skin/body' pixels throughout this power report?

I think by now, you know that YOUR LIGHT OF IMAGE IS BOTH areas of potential improvement and maxing. And it's great that the Beauty 1.0 industry is thriving; those professionals are important but now it's time to blow the glass roof open to embrace Beauty 2.0.

That's why with the consulting tool of the 'Allure Factor' I have the 'Beauty Quotient' to measure skin-deep beauty areas of maximizing to your potential and the Allure Factor.

You can read more about that on-site if interested but it brings the COMPLETE picture to professional image consulting. If we work together I can do A/F and Arch readings 4u.

Working on charisma/allure is THE future and it's here now!

Once more people start realizing that influence is related to getting people to FEEL them underneath and that charisma is the GOLD CURRENCY of social media success and growth (as well as living your ultimate soul-centric even glamorous lifestyle);

I predict we're going to have to have more competent allure and charisma consultants who can serve the market!

So even though we're talking about the divine, this is all PRACTICAL.

The entire concept of 'sex transmutation' of consciousness is radically practical...it's just not 'physical labor work' Lucy. The highly essence spirit and soul quanta of muses for example COMMUNICATES like a dance of tantric soul f*ck and spirit f*ck of exchange with the higher aspect of a man's avatar-eros and creative power in ALCHEMICAL FUSION with his causal and mental body; exchange of the quanta in a higher dimensional experience which leads to unlimited practical creative flow, innovation, ingenuity, art, invention, music...that's just one practical example of all of this (not just charisma and identity consciousness transformation itself).

I have the awareness and yet humility to be aware (in owning this concept) that I was a grandmaster of sex transmutation a decade ago as presented by Napoleon Hill (safe to say THE grandmaster of sex transmutation with music video). I've even taught men on it for years (and got paid). Why? Because my higher bodies are ATTUNING to DIVINE FEMININE CONSCIOUSNESS awakening my DIVINE MASCULINE qualities and archetypal power.

I'll mention later that ATTUNEMENT is one of the PRIME ways to cultivate your own charisma and magic. (Activations are another prime method).

Imagine having Beauty that can AWAKEN THE MASCULINE to soar on an Apollonian lifestyle of cherishing and building worlds for his greatest love and fulfillment (while you live your highest path and expression).

Maybe you don't care yet or ever about that but you can still live out YOUR fullest divine feminine experience in all realms and dimensions...I've got friends who are snake-charming burners and Dark feminine exhibitionists, etc..but also women who are on a more krystic grail path with minimal Dark (and zero Shadow valuation).

Ok so ; even doing meditation can help you quiet the lower self and open up more room for accessing some of these signature essences. It's all practical and benefits ALL OF YOUR VISUALS on camera.

I have literally noticed that all kinds of Western spiritual women have had ego blocks towards acknowledge these higher truths esp. of 'Asian' women or models but I think we're at a point where if you still have any, you're getting past them fast. What is the higher truth? You can always ask and tune into (besides; I've had cultural examples of embodiment from across a plethoric spectrum).

ESSENCE is power/beauty that is encoded holographically in 2D media that allows people to FEEL you from your images basically as if you are in person. It's not merely pixels; it's POWER and influence and essenced qualities of it ENCODED in your media. SOME OF US LIKE ME CAN LITERALLY SEE AND READ IT. We're more tuned in to the higher bandwidths being communicated that are already pre-existent.

Not everyone consciously can do that yet (like some scientists can measure x-rays while others aren't aware of it); however, your soul tribe is EVOLVING to know sense and feel things and respond accordingly (as well as also start naming some of these qualities the more the good word spreads).

Ideally with this book; I want to have you sell yourself ON the archetypes, allure and charisma!

I hope I'm doing a good job. I know this is the extended, unabridged 1st Edition and after this, I'll be able to speak more abruptly about the core of things.

As you start shifting your perception around this to realize it you will start FEELING random NFL players doing interviews on camera and realizing the holographic context of feeling their presence in your soma for example.

It'd be impossible not to feel his 'presence' if you were her in the above.

He's embodying forms of power (chi). Remember; it's not just 'physical power' or 'max bench press' we're referring to.

You can start sensing and seeing the world different and more multi-dimensionally (with emotional, sexual, divine-status, psychic, light, archetypal forms of power and value as currency).

Shifting of the senses to interpret more of the data that is already being communicated and just becoming more conscious of what already 'is'; not misinterpreting it or predicting how many kids they would have but psychic 'NOW' truth-based data. After reading thousands of people I just have a larger database to reference as accurate verifiable truth.

THIS IS WHERE consumers are headed to with this more conscious awareness OF different forms of currency/value that people have; it's just going to take more influencers to help them awaken.

That's who I'm really speaking to; the influencers who will make allure/charisma conscious and POPULAR.

(And you get to benefit right away when you get cultivating and improving your own ability to be felt visually and live in person with charisma).

Also; I think there are studies that MOST of the world already accepts the concept of SOUL anyways (most all religions and spiritual fractals do). So that's in favor of the future but if you're an early adopter and influencer, you're more likely to persuade them than I am..I'm meant to serve those who value allure the MOST; peak performers.

So yes; I encourage you to become more mindful in real time when you are somatically responding to charisma and allure and comprehend what's going on.

I'd even consider experiencing entertainment media differently where you have archetypal medicine temple time like I do...ok, maybe I'm getting too far ahead of things; but I have an underground of media alchemists.

When I was a top natural dating coach for single men in the online industry (and spoke at Eben Pagan's 'Man Transformation' event in L.A.) this was the method that thousands of men were using as sex transmutation of consciousness to transform their lives.

100's still practice my method of Alchemical Meditation with Divine Feminine archetypes today around the world (as a form of 'sex transmutation' of consciousness).

Here is that fb group if you want to join:

Again; with charisma and influence; the feeling is different than physical touch-point contact, but you want to be aware of this on a path of mastering influence (b/c media is digital and non-physical;

Conscious people into spirituality in some ways are those who are ahead of the game on this b/c we're more sensitive to energies.

You can learn to tune into your body when you start feeling someone with charisma; notice the sensations and where in the body...it's not always going to hit you like a Mack truck.

...Like how you respond to your favorite stars just from their image and noting how you feel and where; others can start responding to YOU and THAT'S the organic stuff you can't put a price on...that money cannot even buy that 'divine street cred'.

That alone could LAUCH you into stardom.

Maybe pick an image that you know you respond to of a favorite star or starlet from any decade and be mindful of the sensations you go through and realizing more conscientiously with this report - what's going on.

It's not even about trying to 'believe' you can do that from the filter of your limited egoic mind, it's more about ALLOWING YOUR SOUL to access the archetypal consciousness, power and beauty that ALREADY EXISTS and to bring it into embodiment (again; pro actors do this professionally but often indirectly and have their methods).

When you sit with someone of great power or beauty; you'll notice that you're being affected by their POWER or BEAUTY (and it's not even the words they're saying per se)!

This shaktipat and dharshanic level influence;

It can drive them wild and ACTIVATE their higher Heart, Sex and Soul..awakening codes within them JUST FROM YOUR PRESENCE. That's real charisma/allure....from stillness. Real power. REAL INFLUENCE.

Put THAT into your satchel/man-purse

(Or your Coach bag/purse)

Just today, Batman came up and shook my hand walking on the Avenida. Ok not THE Batman, but 'a' Batman! It's normal for people to be looking at me as I walk down the calle.

I also get called 'Rambo' a lot after workouts...hmm...

Anyway...

People want to be NEAR power and beauty because it raises their experience (and status) closer to source. They want more SOUL in their life.

So, if you want more INFLUENCE with your social media and visuals in online business (and live), just how much of this archetypal and siddhic (64+ enlightened essence signatures) chi could you embody?

The more essence embodiment you have, the more power the more influence (like a star) that will translate to digital media response (like a star).

Performance artists kinda HAVE TO 'fill the room' with their presence to influence 10s of thousands for example, so they had a reason (to be felt)...you don't have to do that per se and can still work on it directly and then you'll get social interaction and feedback on whatever scale and take it from there.

If you know you're influencing 1000s of people already; you've got more reason to keep being powerful in presence.

Could you give yourself that permission? B/c a lot of people won't!

Their lives aren't really about social influence.

It threatens their security and how people know them too much; thus they might not change.

Many of the people I work with however (where do I put the comma?), are on an uncompromising path of becoming their fullest potential in their fullest expression and highest timelines. They're ready to sacrifice the lower self to embody their avatar self and live it socially.

Can't you wait to improve your allure so you can have people feel an instant experience with you?

Here's another alluring example of my friend Gillian who runs her Feminine Eros business as an influencer.

Mystical Beauty 30w

I will also share (men, close your eyes 😊) that Great Masculine men instinctively come out of NOWHERE in response to a woman who has unlocked this expression of energetic Beauty. It may seem inexplicable but is actually good ole 'primordial law!' 🤯

It is reflexive and instinctual for the Masculine to respond to Feminine Allure – not purely from desire but from a place of recognition of the SPIRITUAL value he gets to experience through a woman who chooses to source in her organic expression of Allure.

Note how can you FEEL her and her energy engages you. She is her brand.

One Way Women Mistakenly Rob Men of Their Greatness

BY THE WORLD.

GILLIAN POTHIER
@FEMININE_EROS

When you are in a non-judgmental state, you could catch your soma-response conscientiously happening in real-time. ...how you can kind of 'breathe her in'...and it draws you into her magical world.

This cannot be under-stated; she's a perfect model for the future which is the CURRENCY of social media; allure engages her fans and clients psycho-actively on all kinds of levels ORGANICALLY.

It's authentic self-communication (allure) that can be FELT).

THAT is the future of marketing; not more AI and inorganic manipulation and semi-fraudulent click-bait and attention-grabbing cold sales pressure scenarios imo (ugh; which may still be out there).

Because allure is multi-dimensional vibe and light truth affecting consciousness in prime areas;

Beauty that can bring a man HOME.

Without words...more than a thousand words. Telling him all he has to know in one freeze-frame that could pre-activate ALL OF HIM to want to be with you (or take that influence to your social circle and the frenzy that could healthily create for you...on the path to being an 'it girl' influencer even).

ESSENCE IS SUBSTANCE; it's just higher frequency than what we're used to Captain Caveman.

Charisma Consulting?...for social influencers and performance arts?

This is like the metaphorical 'ground floor' of getting on of plastics...

Hey; notice something here in the above? Umm, yeah...she's FEELABLE and that is already one of the most legendary movies ever AND it's immortalized. (Oh shit; how COULD u miss out?!)

That's why influencers with allure have more stability and attraction. There's more VALUE that reaches the higher Heart, Spirit, Sex and Soul aspect/consciousness within their people that allows people to FEEL.

I mean K-Pop groups on debut ALWAYS have allure which helps their INSTANT following and exchange of attention with the market and helps sell new fans on being engaged in a relationship with them.

The more you explore early TWICE (if you do); the more you realize they were PRIMED at the very start with debut and it allows TIMELESS engaging influence; yes from all of the production elements in an MV but also b/c their allure was massively LIT.

[Show Champion] 트와이스 - TT (TWICE - TT) | EP.206

That essentially leads to ETERNAL YOUTUBE VIEWS and LEGACY (not just the styling and catchy pop sound; it's the engaging component of allure drawing them in to return and FEEL).

Again; the amount of 'gold currency' of siddhic level QUANTA per foton is STAGGERING with TWICE alone within and through all of their media.

.....It's not just 'cultural archetypes' (and there are those), but THE archetypes as higher truths are universal in aspirational and ascension value through attuning consciousness and experience closer to source AS god-fractals and goddesses.

You get to commiserate or even commune with the divine in a sense (and a literal sense the more advanced you get as an alchemist).

There's also a pre-conditioning in the market that there will BE ALLURE and 'the tingles' and excitement that come with it (or 'charisma' with boy bands).

Just look back to K-Pop; Stray Kids and TXT for example also have a lot of charisma.

They have something else normal consumers have a hard time accepting through their limited ego and constricted energy body; the real currency of divine masculine presence itself.

Meanwhile everyone's trying to figure out or replicate their k-styling but that's not it. It's the confidence and vibe-truth that goes with it which is SOURCED IN ESSENCE; which is the REAL divine and social currency (of attention and attraction).

They're 'fit' physically, but they don't have the 'big guns' compared to body-builders but you know you've seen body builders who you didn't feel ANYTHING for; some might have even had the shadow of superficiality and vanity and maybe felt like a hollow shell (I'll just let u visualize that).

ESSENCE IS SUBSTANCE...consider that. Not something just vague or 'woo-woo' (until your soul has also been ROCKED by someone with true allure or charisma).

It's higher frequency and yet that which we CAN feel when it's there strong enough and when we tune into it (like feeling the suns' rays).

That 'it factor' is the currency of essence underneath; those who have it can be 1,000,000x more valuable and in demand than those who don't have it. Lion's share of attention...whereas fame for fame alone is more fickle.

That's how critical this is - and it gives you that real POWER and divine status amidst social reality b/c it IS related to the spiritual-truth and immortal. And it becomes clearer to see those who 'don't have it'. MOST ADULTS in fact have chakric conditioning and blocks to hold and express essence...many adults also have remnant SHADOWS (even entities or implants draining their life force and constricting their soul sovereignty and Light) in their Vibe and Light-truth experience and expression. DAMPENED souls vs. shining stars.

Western MV's are wildcards and often front a lot.

That's kind of why you might feel a lot of Western MV's feel emotionally and psychically like you're eating a McDonalds binge meal. Then if it's a talent show, they'd better REALLLLY be talented if they have little to no charisma.

So although K-Pop mv's are often flashy, they don't rely on cheap effects only to distract people from the LACK of presence and beauty (which can show up as not 'feeling' anything with a more shadow of Vanity or performed allure).

...BECAUSE ESSENCE is substance; social, spiritual, sexual GOLD of real value; the 'stuff of gods'.

They can do 'less is more' when they want (while other people keep trying to replicate or reference their styling as the secret or their 'mindset').

Usually there is OVER-FLOWING quanta that you just can't get enough of, thus the very high rates of re-watchability b/c you can't process the GOLD ENOUGH...you want to be closer and basking in it when just one frame is over-flowing (and with non-alluring people 1000s of frames don't amount up to the same power).

This may be the most reliable formula for virality or at least a prime element of it b/c an MV has a number of elements (we're talking to real charisma).

With k-pop girl groups (BLACKPINK, IVE, EVERGLOW, AESPA, ITZY, STAYC, etc.); they've got the allure thriving (and BTS for example again has charisma).

IVE

(ugh; I just can't get enough of them, just REFLECTIONS of my avatar self in polarity)

ITZY

AESPA

With these K-pop muses (who are really all SOULS instead of humans with names – that sentence alone might have its own spinoff tv series);

Their experience isn't that the men are just 'objectifying' them physically, even male HEARTS are getting activated and engaged b/c THEIR hearts are open in their visual expression...their SOULS and their higher aspects are awakening UP.

Guides of ascension....and yeh, twerking still always has its place tbh.

Go forth and twerk unto ye lands hitherforth...b/c that would be SOME Goddess' decree.

(And can you really hate on that when the spectrum itself is INFINITE of expression and consciousness)?!

Twerking with HEART? How about more of that...

Anyways; could you use more heart, soul and soma engagement from your viewers? Activate your allure!

And to speak to the deeper sexual power of a woman, embodying more masculine POWER (divine-chi) is going to speak more than words or having to manipulate a woman into feeling something for you when you have real charisma.

There's something magical about allure too which represents the highest levels of influence and performance where a person WITH allure or charisma can have an emotion and it's PAINTED INTO THEIR ATMOSPHERE (AURA) so that their mood and state affects others magically; it's not just kept on their mental layer but affects others emotional and spiritual sentience.

Let me remind you of who CONSISTENTLY has allure/charisma and the power of influence to attract ATTENTION (without words or googles even):

You think babies are trying to hack the algorithms to optimize their response?! They're so influential they'll puke up egg mush and still get people to care for them! ;)

The more Heart-FEELABLE you/they are...the closer to LOVE things usually are.

The Beatles had charisma in their prime as well. It cues us in to the universal spectrum of connection and emotional range that we can also feel...raises our experience BECAUSE OF the power of attunement and the Law of Resonance like tuning forks. Their authentic true-state can affect ours environmentally.

A muggle wouldn't normally be that expressively animated or bright.

Record agency labels KNOW that allure is part of the core equation whether they're consciously aware of it. That's also why I predict, I'll be gratefully working a lot with K-pop industry labels and artists; b/c they undoubtedly value FURTHER performance mastery and influence.

With what we could call awakened Allure (separate from lookin' good yet mutually supportive);

THE FOUNDATION IS THAT OF ALCHEMICAL BEAUTY with the higher frequencies of the archetype and siddhic essences.

I am probably the most experienced in the world with being transformed literally from this alchemical beauty in consciousness WITH visual MEDIA (mostly awakened MV's)...being transformed directly from beauty and its ascensionary consciousness; it's WHY I have so much magic and industry-leading goodness. It's how I've decoded the things that I have so far as a student.

Because I'm in love with BEAUTY on all dimensions. My divine masculine truly cherishes it. Doesn't want to oppress or CONTROL it but wants to liberate it/Her into siddhic freedom and expression (really of The Beloved).

(I also had a secretive major role in the #metoo movement which you can find on the blog or my FB which is related to LIBERATING the spiritual quanta of the Feminine on a mass collective level).

Being affected by the someone's allure make you FEEL for them and literally helps attune YOUR experience, mood, state, consciousness and frequency of DNA closer to source through the Law of Resonance; even if you can't consciously comprehend what's going on.

Remember; I encourage you to start being aware of the process when it does happen. In fact, here's a quick example of Grimes who is a Western muse.

Once you can get past your projections and lower truth labels and just start authentically sensing and feeling things; being tuned in to how your BODY is responding without corruption of your conditioning and projections that likes to create division; then you can start sensing and feeling her allure and even where in your body it's affecting you.

Grimes has the same transcendent 'signature' of essence that K-Pop muses have (again; I noticed it independently before she was known friends with K-Pop muses that they are sisters); it's universal and potentially accessible to anyone from ANY culture.

(Much of the work I do in the 3-pack of sessions or Allure Makeovers are centered on archetype essence activations).

That's powerful, influential and IMPERSONAL, divine beauty...now we're finally becoming CONSCIOUS of it and able to work with it for your allure consulting and transformation.

If the ability to influence is somehow just stuck on the 'body' of someone, then we're separate and more likely to 'fashion critique' or judge and 'other' someone else than if we can feel their beauty palpably from their radiance.

We're talking inspiring CONNECTION vs. leaving things open to judgment, entropy and not engaging (with charisma).

So to refresh what we were talking about earlier (and to help you process and integrate);

It's not really about 'CONTENT' creation that we're focusing on with your ability to have influence and growth as an influencer. (In your visual content, you'd want the charisma thriving).

It's about BEAUTY influence and influencing FROM your visuals as part of your overall social media and marketing strategy and reality that we're valuing here.

I would say that all content creators who are on video can benefit from improving their charisma/allure anyways and watch the newer levels of response and engagement they get;

They'd best just have to be aware that this is a thing they can work on and value directly! Adjusting your posture can only do so much if you don't have the 'inner' power, character and integrity of who you say you are. Without charisma, you'd BETTER at least be talented to stand out in a world of competition.

Yes; Tommy Lee Jones as Marshal Sam Gerard has the posture his character should have but it's the ESSENCE qualities that really then influence everything else. You FEEL he is the badass character with a lot of authority.

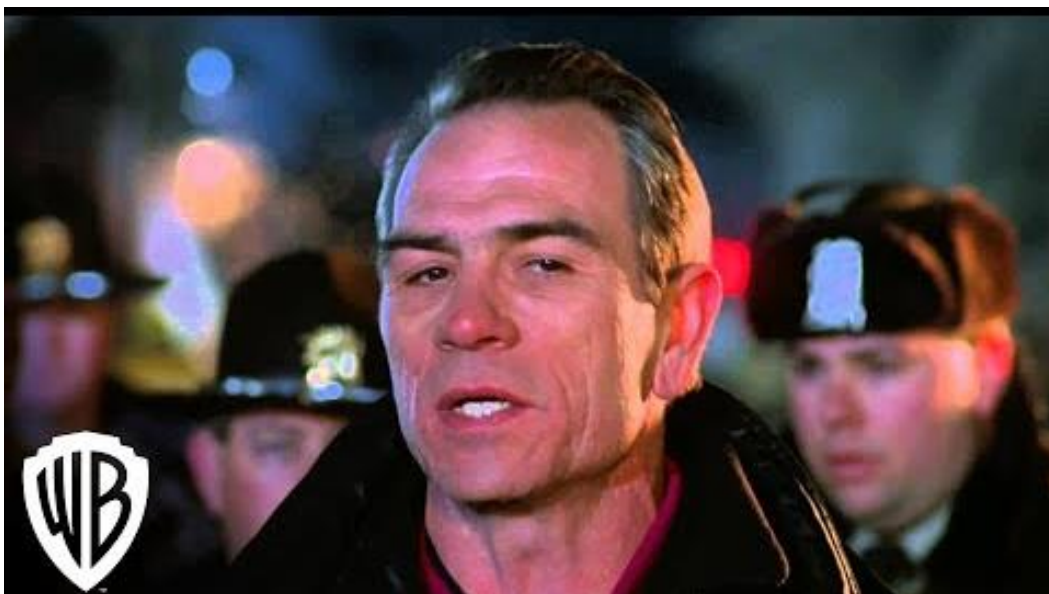

Someone else who reverse engineered the same posture doesn't mean that others are going to believe he IS the character as well. This goes into my/the future with Essence Acting.

IT'S POWER IN STILLNESS that we're talking about and how it holographically reaches those around him. He has the charisma IN the movie IN THE PHYSICAL AIR AND AREA b/c of his character embodiment aura (I'm re-watching U.S. Marshalls btw).

Everyone around him can KINETICALLY FEEL his powerful authority in vibe-truth presence and it translates on camera into engaging user experience with the character and movie (charisma!).

It's not just 'saying the lines'...it's BEING the character in essence (ultimately) so everything is BELIEVABLE and with it, THEN the body language can be calibrated. (But he had it all mastered).

“Wrangle me up some of them doughnuts with the sprinkles on it” and it's happening from that leadership power of presence. (My paraphrase).

Are YOUR words coming from full bodies alignment (causal/soul, emotional, mental, etc.)? B/c then there's more integrity, congruity (instead of their cognitive dissonance), believability and authority behind you being the influencer, teacher or guide.

Ok...so we were also talking about the DEEPER psycho-sexual, soulful and spiritual DRIVERS of attraction itself; spiritual values of enlightenment that can be attained, experienced and radiant AS Beauty (or masculine influence of power) and experience to share with others.

I, myself have been living the charisma at any live events and moreso on facebook a lot; posting charismatic photos of me on the story feed and so forth (as at the time of this writing I've been getting things more to where I want to start instagram right).

This to some extent has been giving people in my circle flavor-bites of what aspects of the divine masculine embodied can be like...and I have many COMPELLED followers and clients (that I'm grateful for) b/c my charisma is entwined WITH everything.

When they can FEEL that I'm the real deal as many have noted; that is PRICELESS and helps them warm-up to trusting me in getting $1000 packages and so forth (b/c this isn't a 'hard sell' business btw).

It helps them to feel and know that I am the real thing, trusted, congruent and with how sensitive this work is and can get; that's central so their soma can trust (me to do such soul transformational identity work).

My own Grail-Star Mage path centers on sacred reunification with the Beloved and I cannot NOT be honoring of Divine Feminine principle. I am the transformed from Her Beauty (of the Beloved).

I would think that you would want rich, exuding VALUE and CURRENCY that people can't get enough of right? From a single freeze-frame?...MORE INFLUENCE? Yep.

Is your soul 'in the game' of communication? Allure opens that channel.

Imagine value that people could just BASK in heaven on earth with around you - that star gravitas - because the SUBSTANCE of essence itself is giving off NURTURING like sunlight from a star/starlet.

AND WITHOUT 'SELLING OUT'!

..but BECOMING this integrated star/let version of yourself without the shadows...scalable to fame with a strong foundation.

If you want people to FEEL a certain mood for a specific photo shoot, product or promotion, this is also where all of this vibe and atmosphere mastery comes in with allure and painting the environment with it from your radiance.

Working with allure directly (most directly with a Muse Priestess or myself) gives you access to the entire practical spectrum of archetypal feminine beauty, vibe and light-truth.

That's the 'divine street cred' I call it because when people can FEEL the substance-matter truth of GODDESS presence with and through you in person and in your visuals, that means everything. THAT'S THE POWER and influence.

It's a world different than merely being styled and 'posing' like a goddess. They may not feel you have 'it' esp. if they're already actually powerful and high status themselves.

It's what people feel and know is REAL and that x-factor is invaluable to have in your social media; where people can FEEL the real qualities of your soul and expressed beauty.

YOU ARE WHO YOU SAY THEY ARE...but actually having that ascensionary, aspirational closer to source gravitron that helps your people to evolve, not just be entertained or educated. Where they sell themselves on you without having to be convinced...just showing up and INSTANT RESPECT, even awe.

That can mean EVERYTHING for attracting the attention of new high paying clients; by being that integrity all aligned right upfront on first impression (on Instagram, facebook, your website, etc.).

So ESSENCE or Feminine Essence is the spirit-matter prima-mata SUBSTANCE OF Beauty itself and THIS, I propose is what is being exchanged (amongst those who have it richly) in visual media.

It allows you to have multi-dimensional holographic like COMPELLING influence on people's own psyche, soma, heart, mind, body, sex, spirit and soul ENGAGING those aspects psycho-actively and EFFORTLESSLY without having to manipulate or use cheap click-bait or other semi-fraudulent gimmicks to get attention.

Again; charisma is ORGANIC clickbait.

High frequency ESSENCE or 'quanta' is basically the highest value substance (yes substance) in the Universe...and people are seeking it on the spiritual, soulful and spirit-sexual levels of deeper meaning, experience and enlightenment.

Goddess quanta is more common than Muse quanta but it doesn't make pure Goddess presence any less valuable at all...there is great variety AMONGST the God and Goddess-fractals. I've even done Mermaid, Melusine and Isis activations, etc.

ESSENCE MOVES THROUGH CHARISMA/ALLURE. Essences are what people can feel hitting their aura and light-body soma including chakras.

But if your chakras are blocked, then people aren't going to get that higher frequency stream of essence from you; they'll get conditioning and blockages to soul and other essence communication.

Remember these extend literal distances that can be measured and vary for everyone at any given moment.

(BTW I have more definitions throughout my PHQ and UT power reports).

Allure allows FELT INFLUENCE.

Feminine essence quanta (which is the SOURCE of sex-creation in all dimensions) is also that which is historically used, abused, controlled, hijacked, exploited and suppressed. For simplicity sake again; we're not talking much about the divinity of divine masculine seed as the counter-part to creation, but will instead keep focusing on the x-factor of feminine essence itself as we start to wind down here.

Be mindful that it is feminine essence that most adult women cover up and suppress through years of conditioning + focus on personality, ego and skin-deep beauty. The front of their chakras can become more defensive or armored that prevents the breathing-ness of their essences and thus allure. The aura itself can have veils and shells too.

Our valuation here (however) is YOUR sovereignty, reclamation of and liberation with use of YOUR social media to expand your felt influence.

You might still be energetically held back FROM having your eros-soma (sexual light body) and chakras BREATHE essences from your 'full frontal'.

Many women can come across as armored even IN bikini-wear.

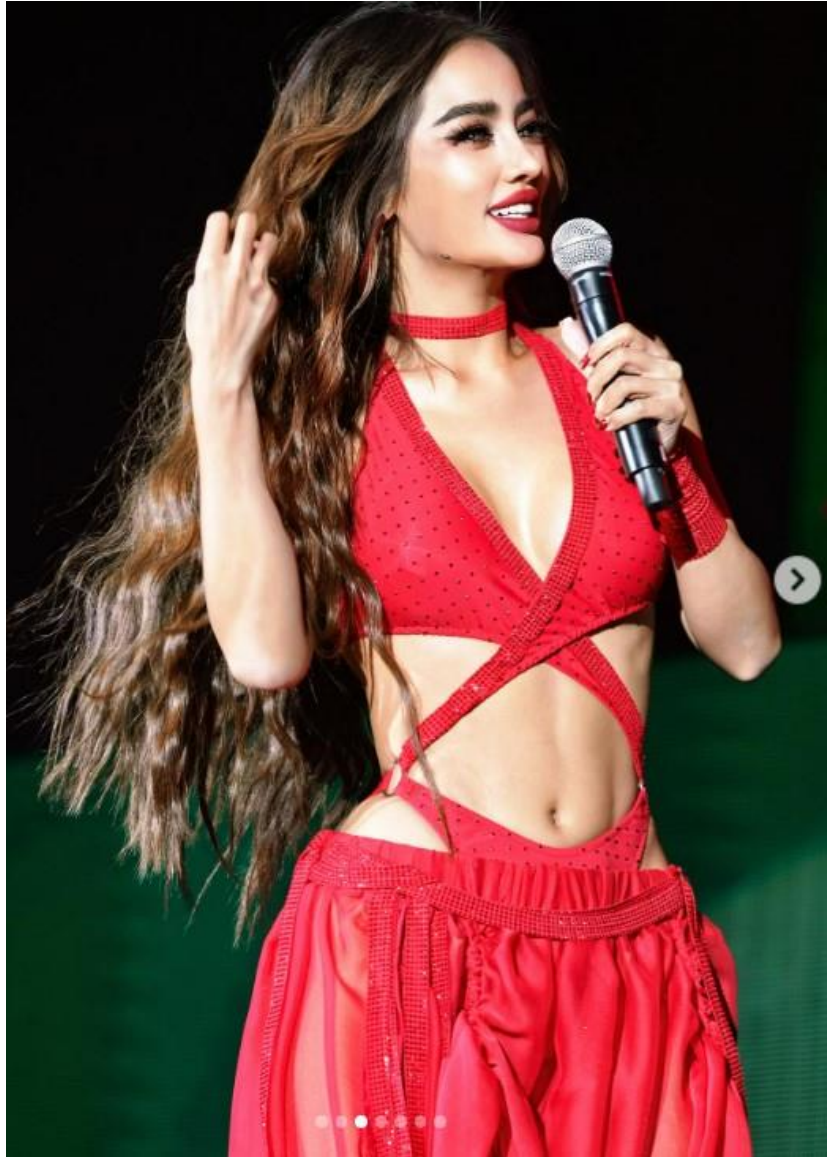

Your entire life may have to change if you are now BURNT OUT by living in your masculinized ARMOR to be competent and compete with men...even if you're a boss babe, you might want to soften and rest into your deeper femininity that has been lost.

Archetypes and the direct energy work can be your prime MEDICINE on such a journey (whether you're into soft-girl era or not).

The Light & Dark Vixen archetype..... is like she's naked when fully clothed...erotically potent.

Being 'Thai' or 'cultural' now (with the 'body' of Kratae)...becomes a lower truth for her Vixen embodiment is divine feminine, impersonal and immortal.

De-arming your chakras and letting your aura breathe energetically and 'actually' will lead you to have more FELT INFLUENCE.

(The archetype work I do is ESSENCE-based and demon and entity-free...I do NOT recommend to have entity based or Shadow activations b/c they can take over possession or control of aspects of your psyche).

PEOPLE WANT TO FEEL; love, beauty, connection, sex, closer to source. They want to awaken and ascend into REMEMBRANCE of Communion itself.

Here's one of the influencer couples that I recommend (on FB) to follow related to living in deeper love and communion. They've got very potent charisma & allure: Richard & Namaste Moore.

Reference his powerful King-Magician Father presence! Very charismatic (so breathing in feelable emanation).

Now...continuing on...

If you're just looking pretty and are 'doing your own thing' (and don't have this deeper presence-value and feelable substance and multi-archetypal timelessness like Namaste Moore); people may not feel a compelling reason to care (unless you've given them value like from entertainment, niche marketing content, etc.)....they're more likely to feel separate from you, judge you, 'other you' and look on from afar.

You're more likely to remain OBJECTIFIED (from lower consciousness) because of this connection especially with men with whom; when they can't feel you, they're not inspired to bring forth provision, protection, love, etc. in stepping into their awakening divine masculine...it's more LIKELY to be power games and superficial transactional relationships or exchange (like sugar daddy/baby dynamics alone).

Why? They're valuing you for your physical body, booty and physical beauty because YOU weren't communicating any of the other qualities visually that they could feel and be activated by.

WITH EXUDING ALLURE however;

When you are communicating the higher spiritual, sexual and psychic frequencies of the archetypes and elements (instead of them being blocked from conditioning and armoring);

Your beauty could actually inspire the masculine to rise into benevolent knight-hood and kingship in service to the world. URGES within him are seeking fuller connection...yet is also a warm light-house for other women who may look up to you as a medicine woman or sage.

All in mystery, mythos and magic of STILLNESS...and then when you speak, aligned magical transmissions and writings that are CONGRUENT with your deeper soul truth where everything FEELS RIGHT to more awakened consumers.

And this greater communication bandwidth and integrity; it creates an atmospheric BRAND EXPERIENCE that is ALL YOURS...a signature style that they can only get with you. So reference some of the influencers who have allure in their overall brand experience.

Now that's kinda different than just playing status games for more likes isn't it? ...something deeper encoded within it all perhaps..

Again; refer back to the INFLUENCE of a charismatic BABY.

Yes, it's ridiculous...but it gets my point across right ;)?

So...in our ADULT world, the higher social status thing than even our social constructivism (of fame) IS THE DIVINE....connecting to the GREATER, IMMORTAL game that's happening. Being soul-based in a sense we ARE likes gods and goddesses but not everyone gives themselves that permission and power (to influence).

We are both fully mortal-physical and fully divine-meta-physical (but awakening to that truth). We often focus on the human and mortal aspect TOO MUCH (or say; skin-deep beauty) while neglecting the higher aspects (yet also Dark work gets into the Dark Divine consciousness as well).

There's more assurance of evolution and expansion of life when the spiritual channel of Source is open; more sex, more love, more creation, etc.

People are literally more likely to see and feel your magic just from an image (and be sold on YOU as an influencer)...they may secretly want to be you or like you b/c you have some of those aspects of THEIR higher self ONLINE and activated - expressed.

Isn't that more of what you would really want; holistic rather than superficial influence? (esp. when the divine is higher status anyways than anything we've created and yet that's WHY we treat some as goddesses, b/c they're NOT just mortal, they have embodied Goddess consciousness and radiance).

I'm looking for Beauty Influencers who recognize that it IS this bigger picture.

You may be pleased to know that (b/c we're not talking about 'physical' power here); The size of your aura isn't limited to how petite you are...in fact imagine a small planet with a LARGE exo-sphere or heck; just like a sun that we can feel millions of miles away...

It's that concept and a PERFECT example is Boram from the hot K-pop group T-ARA (a decade ago). She's 5 foot tall (1.55m)

She is short and petite physically yet packs a WALLOP with her feelable allure. Very bright aura in Presence. You might feel it in your solar plexus even.

I'd get beyond projections like 'cutesy' or even that 'k-pop' has cultural versions of 'Maidens' and so forth to value the higher essence currency itself (of the prime archetypes)...and then start also seeing them in other cultures. Maiden is MEDICINE to a lot of fractured, wound aspects of the masculine psyche.

It's normal for a celeb to have an aura 50x the distance of a normal muggle; it's where the power and magic is at (meanwhile most people are focused on their personality and skin-deep beauty). There can be thin men like MGK with charisma and big and tall men without charisma. Each person is different (with their e3 variables).

That quality that some women who 'get it' (like Megan Fox) respond to that CANNOT BE BOUGHT....that's what we're talking about (higher soul aspect CURRENCY AND VALUE).

It's not 'fame itself' per se...that's superficial. It's what can DRIVE, attraction and reunify a Union itself (she herself spoke to it as 'twin flames') when she met him. It's the CURRENCY itself we're talking about here folks through the channel of charisma.

Sometimes when the styling is so strong or obvious it can be harder to discern the charisma part, HOWEVER...you have plenty of examples in this report to get you going!

Think of how 'the game' (the social constructivist game of the 'matrix' for better and worse) is largely set up now with most mortal men as pawns and unworthy to the status; social and sexual power of the divine feminine awakening in women (after eons of suppression). There is cultural conditioning that is fracturing the masculine and feminine even more (I'm not even mentioning the incel divide here but talk about it elsewhere).

There's so much more POWER (rightful power) for men to step in to that then these goddesses will have equals to (who can MEET them in Presence).

I've said before that Grail Priestesses will be on the VERY front-lines of this multi-aspect REUNIFICATION (cultural, spiritual, sexual, etc.).

Beauty as we know currently; it can fracture mankind even more from divinity and reunion with socially popular women high on the pedestal OR when it's basically grail allure, it could actually REUNIFY and re-harmonize the entire world where women ARE goddesses but men are also rising into their power.

Get into awakening allure cultivation and watch your male contingency and follower-ship SKYROCKET (at any age).

BEAUTY BRINGS NURTURANCE TO THE WORLD and in all dimensions. You shouldn't be held back from that Truth and fullest soul expression with Spirit even if it has been siphoned (essence) in the past. This is a serious path.

What if your spirit-matter, feelable beauty could INSPIRE healthy envy in other women to follow you because they want to be more like you (as their Sage-Starlet) b/c you have the DIVINE status of real presenced beauty and are a living testament of the embodiment they are seeking to step into?

OH - AND your EMBODIMENT would do magic of its own alchemical attuning them b/c you are the real thing. That's priceless...they start BEING transformed even just around your media underneath whatever the 'content' subject matter is.

As you may have realized however; it's all quite sensitive, BECAUSE we're talking about ESSENCE and the honey of the universe...not merely performing beauty or putting it on as an accentuary (new word again) masque.

There are powerful (shadow-powerful) forces that want to CONTROL feminine quanta and suppress 'IT'; not just 'sex' and how religion suppresses it to keep most of humanity non-conscious to such God and Goddess power - but really Feminine essence specifically.

Feminine quanta is the cosmic honey.

Yes, the BODY is valued but again, we're viewing it from a higher perspective of that which is already encoded with it.

So it can be taunting stepping into really being seen and allowing such honey to flow IF you've been traumatized for example. In our Mystical Beauty Allure Masterclass (pre-recorded now); Gillian and I went into dynamics around this and I have some other FB posts you could find on my wall.

MUCH of the psycho-sexual reason the shadow masculine throughout history wants to control it (that feminine quanta); is because it knows it is NOT WORTHY OF IT and reunifying with that level of Beauty.

MORTAL MAN is not actually WORTHY of the divine feminine and yet this is what is creating so much of the confusion and fracture psycho-sexually, spiritually and socially in the world; 'war of the sexes' and such.

It's a path of consciousness transformation and identity.

Red pill bros will try to neg a girl by highlighting the difference between with and without make-up; but the thing is they're operating from fear b/c they wouldn't know what they would do if they met a GODDESS INCARNATE.

I'd say it's about their greatest fear (facing TRUE BEAUTY IN PRESENCE as an existential threat even...so they find other ways to 'bring the divine down to earth' and such.

But really; it's an opportunity (such divine archetypal feminine beauty) for the masculine to rise into HIS archetypal mixed with soul POWER to meet her IN PRESENCE, love and reunification.

It's good to just see 'THE GAME ITSELF' being played and then the greater 'game' of all.

Beauty can inspire man-kind and masculine principle like nothing else (and the secret hopes of the holy grail of reunification/communion).

With charisma and/or a grail path (grail path covers both) for the masculine, men are able to reclaim their own divine masculine inheritance to relate in power and presence like Prince to Princess b/c a mortal ISN'T worthy.

She has a 1,000,000:1 power ratio if she has archetypal beauty and authentic presenced consciousness of ie. Goddess or Sorceress. Even though she can get a lot of shallow ATTENTION - that's why most muggles aren't satisfying to her; her soul desires to be MET in presence at greater levels of love and sex on a deeper level. Yeah; soul essence, reunification, holy grail...it's all here.

She can have high status attention leveraging physical beauty, but she may not be fulfilled; allure helps to powerfully attract and engage those deeper qualities in engagement, communication and connection.

And it works in the opposite direction as well...think of the millions of fan girls in a sense 'competing' for the individual attention of a 1Direction boy band member...he has the power of Prince to awaken and attune her Princess – far beyond personal experience or consciousness.

When you cultivate your allure or charisma, you're able to REUNIFY in a practical relationship in greater love, intimacy, ecstasy and beauty closer to source. Allure, charisma and grail work opens these paths to greater consciousness and experience.

So are you 'sold' on allure yet? It's really YOUR sexy chi!

I have so many testimonials on-site related to all of this (100's).

<https://sexychi.com/testimonials/?bil>

(Remember; SCA is my short-code for this report, but I'm internally referring to it also as 'Beauty Influence 1')

Can you see how sensitive this stuff is and how your own essence may have been suppressed towards what is possible for your own beauty and power (as a beauty influencer or a woman who desires fullest expression and influence with integrity)?

Speaking to the tyrant masculine (which can be archetypal as well);

By aspects of the lower conscious shadow masculine exercising false power and authority over it (with and through some men of force-power); it gives him the illusion he has real power. He doesn't have true power, he has force.

This shit is REALLY rampant with underground sex trafficking and literal slavery and it's all over control of the most valuable resource in the universe; feminine essence.

Yes; it's form of physical and sexual slavery which is how we value it; but really it's SOULFUL related and serious at that level of oppression.

It's affecting the SOULS and imprisoning and enslaving their identity consciousness in the astral dimension as well as spiritual dimensions (causal, buddhic,atmic, emotional..) – as well as psychological impacts.

And what happens if you've been affected at all by forms of oppression, constriction, stifling, siphoning, etc. of not just your 'body' or 'heart' but your soul itself? (And not everyone in pop consciousness is accepting the 'soul')

HER SPIRIT, HER SOUL DRAINS (oh AND they never experience devotional sex and love at God and Goddess level consciousness either unless something radically changes).

Her essences and that GOLD of the heavenly BEAUTY-PRESENCE withers away into dis-embodiment and she may be left as a hollow-shell just trying to cope in unhealthy ways, LOOK GOOD or masking up the insecurity underneath. Yeah. This is affecting at least 10s of millions of women in the U.S. alone...(all to varying degrees).

Much of humanity is just stuck at a lower level of consciousness where 'beauty' is more of a commodity of exchange (a thing of value for exchange already in place but from a less conscious filter) rather than a gold resource of spiritual and ENTIRE liberation and healing

(and a path of COMMUNION)...and that's even WITHOUT loss of quanta from sexual abuse and such.

Even the future of modeling could reach into alchemical beauty priestessing and more allure (where the divine feminine is VALUED, desired, respected and still sells INFLUENCE like crazy - b/c people value sexy but also ascension and awakening....SOUL SEXY).

Btw here's an influencer....

...and author with 140k Instagram followers who embodies a mix of archetypes (ie. Sophia, Goddess) and has some signature allure; Kaia Ra. In her images and videos you can sense her radiance 'aka' allure.

What happens in general even is that women can lose touch being 'used' as a commodity instead of being in touch with the raw HONEY of the cosmos which is also her divine inheritance.

TIME FOR SOME INDUSTRIES TO EVOLVE.

(for She has been suppressed too long including under active Tyrant-King control not to mention abdicated from most popular religion which can then affect feminine souls).

It can be daunting if you HAVE been traumatized or abused to reconnect, reclaim and express such sensitive truth...that's why this is deeper and serious work than it seems; however, it doesn't have to be DREADLY (neighborhood watch reminder that I make up new words all the time).

(Copyrights used under fair use copyright guidelines as cultural critique and belong to respective copyright holders throughout). There is no affiliation with promoting or endorsing any said services vice versa unless otherwise stated.

With that said;

If all of this seems too overwhelming, know that I work on the light-body level in each of these sessions. We don't have to even bring UP all of your past stuff.

This proven format allows us to deeply at the core release YEARS OF SHIT stuck in your chakric psyche without daunting psycho-therapy and can often be THE MEDICINE that's missing...you may want to complement it with other forms of healing or therapy (I do have a heavy 'Reclamation' package including Soul Retrieval work) btw....we can just get to WORK on all of this without you having to be stuck in overload.

Activations with me are done within 30 minutes as the prime session format that allows you to go through a healing and reclamation process; de-armorng if necessary that then affects your visual and felt beauty, self-image, confidence, image mastery, etc.

Yeah; all of this goes deep...so if you really want to cultivate your allure, a lot of consciousness healing with the masculine may very well be part of it (at least with grail level allure or if you desire divine union).

My work represents that testament and reunification of divine masculine and feminine b/c that's where it's been sourced for almost 22 years.

There are also other grail guides that I'd recommend - although they don't specialize as much directly in reading and activating archetypes and allure per se.

(You're invited to follow me on FB esp. if you're still processing things and may not be ready to work with me yet - some women follow me for years before working with me...everyone's at their own timing) <https://facebook.com/rion.kati>

The divine feminine is WILDLY sexual and the entire dynamic is that we've lost touch with the eros; erotic ESSENCE of that (and your light-body sensitive soma) in most of Western culture. YOU can start bringing that sensual truth back to weave your magic.

Exploitation of the divine feminine or even just falling into the lower conscious matrix-game (under which 'control' is NEMESIS to the liberation of the Dark Feminine Eros-Truth) ironically often spiritually suppresses women, but there are ways to be fuller SOUL and spiritual FREEDOM and eros of expression.

And with that you'd think I'd be entirely against how superficial things are currently or that 'sex sells'.

Hey; I value physical beauty ALSO - just gonna get that out front; but there's more BEAUTY and deeper authenticity with essence that affects, attractions and increases experience and in relationships, there SHOULD probably be more depth.

Bringing your essenced eros back cultivating it is part of Allure work. Or for men; your 'mojo' you could say with charisma transformation (and literally working on your sexual power and presence).

I'm not against objectification per se; I even wrote a popular post about the 'Divinity of Objectification' you could find on the blog or my FB wall... <https://facebook.com/rion.kati>

It's just that there are DEEPER layers of INFLUENCE with essenced communication and connection; ways to effortlessly engage and activate that same aspect within each of your fans or clients and then multiplying that influence en masse.

Instead of something closer to a superficial vanity game (b/c 'style' alone can be a shadow if it's your foundation WITHOUT the deeper stuff); you can end up simultaneously engaging the hearts, sex-ascension, spirit and logos of DREAM fans and clients...all by deepening yourself into your essenced vibe and light-truth radiance.

Charisma is communication on all cylinders.

If I were you, I'd want to max your Beauty quotient and style as well as your allure. (I value both...I'm literally into my own favorite designer brands including Haider Ackermann and Rick Owens).

To create and inspire ENGAGEMENT rather than disconnected judgment or objectification towards your visuals. Where people feel they're ON THE JOURNEY WITH YOU organically is different from them just looking 'AT' you, isn't it?

On an extended first edition site note;

I'm not against Beauty, sensuality or sexuality in favor of religious moralism per se (esp. when it suppressed the true Holy Grail).

For there is GREAT power in Sex that most people aren't ready for esp. if they are raising a normal family and what have you. The Mother and Father archetype might be much of the experience with SUPPRESSION of the Lovers and Sex Icons might be NOWHERE near unless you're already someone who values it as a performer, etc..

Actually, there's a family in Thailand who are influencers. They're both parents AND still retain their Sex Icon appeal and allure Living their real lives yet also being influencers, they have a very public image insta-friendliness and appeal.

Be assured their kids are in an image-supportive environment for fuller expression...already doing modeling, TV stuff.

So you want to find reference points from around the world b/c you might like certain qualities or things about different people that you can reference in curating your own social media ethersphere.

Interestingly; she has both Princess AND Mother archetypes embodied...>>

FASCINATING, isn't it? Yep.

Perhaps; you may have had blocks to all of that self-expression freedom in growing up that may have self-sabotaged you. Maybe you don't have to go to Burning Man just to help set them free!

With your allure makeover (should you choose to partake); we can strategize on YOUR values, where you're at and the image and effect you want to cultivate. That will include bringing in more rich NEW essences as well into the seat of your soul and chakric embodiment.

The power of Sex been used against humanity for millennia BECAUSE HER ESSENCE is the most prized thing in the multiverse (still is, mind you George Bailey and out of reach of your ordinary everyday yokel).

The more that people remain NON-CONSCIOUS of what's really driving everything, the more it (and the social constructivist game or suppressive aspects of religion) has power OVER them. This is also why a path of conscious sexuality can be very powerful.

I'm not against beauty pageants or strip clubs, erotic pole dancing, dancing eros, etc. either.

I'm FOR them; but from an empowered perspective...I don't let the feminine play shadow games against me either b/c I come from presence and power; my god-fractal aspects I've integrated are counter-balance to her goddess-fractal aspects (see; this social game IS about power and status in large part...many people are just seeking it through fame itself or money as a prime means of power but PRESENCE is the source).

I am more about an evolution OF the dynamics. Where there are sugar babies and sugar daddies on a transactional level of exchange and bossy strip club managers; I'm more about living heaven on earth Grail principle bridging the divide and fracture between the DIVINE masculine and feminine within humanity where BOTH are exalted and revered.

INSTEAD OF MERELY TRANSACTION between the exchange of sex and quanta in the market place (through product association, etc.);

Instead of transaction. It's time for TRANSFORMATION and evolutionary paths.

If you want to be a POWER COUPLE if you're in a relationship, allure and charisma are where it's at (and maybe taking on more Star and Starlet archetypal consciousness like in an activation and such).

ALLURE brings transformation and engaging influence to others; alchemical properties rather than 'oh they look good'.

CHARISMA in men reaching many through their medium (as an entertainer, influencer, etc.) also transmutes the consciousness within the feminine collective towards feminine awakening and bliss, celebration, fulfillment, etc. in both Light and Dark aspects of the Feminine psyche. (As well as feminine archetypal awakening WITHIN an individualized woman b/c allure and charisma are sourced in the divine).

From another inflection point;

The generic psychographics are that women are seeking higher status (also related to their biological urges and coding) to procreate with the most assurance of survival (a la 'gene wars').

But this is radically spiritual as well rather than merely biological. Evo-biologists haven't necessary been at-tuned in to the practical spirituality of this.

We just haven't had a proper, conscious outlook on the greater GAME of Power and Beauty itself; it's not merely biological (b/c we are also meta-physical soul fractals of Source).

This is where and why we got into the Holy Grail itself.

BEAUTY is its own inherent value. Perhaps the most valued thing in the cosmos and on earth. WHY?

Because of Communion or holy grail principle which is already a Source spiritual Truth (God and Goddess; masculine/feminine created all Life).

Hieros Gamos is the COMMUNION of God and Goddess; of the spirit quanta of Sex itself at higher levels of truth-consciousness (far beyond the experience of just 2 physical bodies banging); thus the primal f*cking aspect can co-exist with the consciousness nuclear-fusion of spirit simultaneously.

The SOUL and SPIRIT of Mankind seeketh the Holy Grail (not just merely to f*ck).

Man questeth most failingly to achieve the Holy Grail (I have a Holy Grail tattoo where men are literally falling to their death).

It helps to know what it is and not to be too much of a conspiracy theorist, but religions have largely suppressed it for millennia which is all related to the cultural and global SUPPRESSION of 'you know what' itself.

And what is it?

The Divine Feminine and divine feminine consciousness which is explicitly the same thing as divine feminine quanta; aka the 'nectar' of the Universe in radiation. They sought to control or suppress it b/c it could (heretically) topple the church.

After all; man has an Apollonian dynamic because of the core mother wound at birth-separation. He is trying and seeking to REUNIFY and PROVE HIMSELF (as worthy and having of meaning and purpose).

Not to mention that the FRACTURE between the masculine and feminine is at EPIC proportions, so if it calls you may want to look at cultivating GRAIL level allure that is REUNIFIED with God the Father (through and beyond all religion).

We're talking about FREEING YOUR SOUL INTO BOUNDLESS BEAUTY AND CONSCIOUSNESS.

If this is far too much b/c you just wanted to read a marketing book (and have read this far); I'd just take it as a small seed that may (in the future, with time) grow into an Eden.

THE ATMOSPHERE (AURA) OF YOUR BEAUTY CAN BE AN EDEN...an OASIS to your people.

And could you be ok with handling that attention from men?
(Because some archetypes CAN and therein lies most of the answer);

Some things may really have to shift and that is quite different from just soft-maxing your looks and going with today's hottest fashion trend of the month. Allure is divine beauty EXPRESSED and FELT.

And with this divine communication; it's this MULTI-component POWER, SEX & Beauty DRIVE to REUNIFY within both the Masculine and Feminine underneath it all (even for those in relationships who seek deeper love and intimacy yet can get understandably sidetracked with the humanistic value of raising a family ;)

So if you desire more power and influence socially and ORGANICALLY, I recommend to be aware of the Holy Grail perspective of what's driving markets; at a soul and spirit level, humanity is seeking REUNIFICATION.

Soul to Soul and Spirit to Spirit connection, recognition, intimacy and worthiness.

The impersonal feminine consciousness-truth with DIVINE POWER, LOVE and SEX with a level of God the Lover-King with security of Holy Daughter constellated and for the masculine to reunify with BEAUTY HERSELF like a god b/c it would ensure immortality and the greatest experience possible.

And what's at the core of the ACTUAL THING; it's the presence spirit of God and Goddess quanta itself in essence that would literally reunify between two awakened bodies.

Our spirits and souls unconsciously know this (can be a tangible experience) and are drawn closer to Home...it's just that some people are now waking up to this Remembrance more consciously and 'on the grail)' path.

We're talking about power and consciousness itself; how it plays out.

Your soul freedom is at stake.

Yeonmi Park an author, speaker and influencer with 559k instagram followers was N. Korean and escaped the country and sex trafficking to live in the U.S.

Yes; she has (somehow) reclaimed her essences and reinvented herself to be very alluring (not just physically pretty)...her soul desired true freedom and rebirth.

The Blue Box Cafe

By having false and false-light power and matrix grids of control OVER divine feminine archetypal consciousness and Her Beauty, they can exploit the most precious resource in the world.

Again; the #metoo movement highlighted this; however, I recommend to shift perspective to the higher spiritual game itself being played out from that of merely physical abuse or misuse to that of stealing, hijacking and siphoning essence and SOUL level freedom and enlightenment.

Without working WITH the soul and soul healing or awakening (such as with allure transformation work and essence reclamation); deeper eros and beauty can remain suppressed or stifled.

That's not the world we want to live in. Souls should be FREE instead of hampered down or imprisoned.

In other words on an astral and spiritual levels of reality; the real game is being played out. Liberated souls can infectiously LIBERATE others.

This new-dawn era of allure consulting actually gives us an entire new foundational structure with the right languaging and tools to do charisma transformation.

Instead of seeing people through ethnicities, genres and color palettes, we see them from the higher truth of auric design and archetypes. It just takes time to dissociate from lower truths as well as being proficient in doing the proper allure consulting work which I represent and am further mastering.

The Gene Keys highlights so many things as part of our pantheon of pro allure and charisma consulting.

Once 'the global incident' happened in 2020 (yeah that one); I counted 55 specific shadows active within collective Western consciousness when there 15 before-hand. Division, control, dishonor, intolerance, etc. so it's good to also look at YOUR shadows which are stifling your own beauty essences. We work with your Gene Keys in the Allure Makeover package.

You understand that Dark Forces can be driving all of this control over the SPIRITUAL, psychic and soulful levels of freedom and beauty.

If it sounds too far-fetched for right now (that 4D demons could be behind the urges and shadow-drive tyranny of someone like Harvey Weinstein), just keep an open-mind and ask yourself how else could humans do crazy, malevolent things to each other (without deeper psyche drives that can manifest in shadow)?

'The Game' is being played out in all dimensions and it's not really about Light vs. Dark, rather (imo); it's more accurately about Light and Healthy Dark vs. SHADOW.

(The DARK archetype aspects bring RICH and sexual power and beauty).

You just want to be able to discern what is Dark vs. Shadow (and that's a side-book of coverage there).

Real allure work is soul and identity consciousness transformation; not merely masking up.

In a sense; what we're referring to is practical spiritual and psychic warfare (so easy to see in the collective with media programming and propaganda if you're in the right 'know').

You would just have to look at anywhere that specific shadows like fantasy, control, oppression, fear are used and played out in dynamics, in workplaces, in relationships and in the world. Once you are aware of the shadows of humanity and in relationships or in marketing, you can choose a more sovereign path of empowerment, beauty and awakening....of freedom...and where you don't make psychic contracts or agreements that would steal your essences or stifle your sovereign expression.

Because the Gene Key frequency bands of consciousness carry shadow, gift and siddhic (enlightened) signature aspects; that means your anti-allure could be rampant in negative energy that is REPELLING your soul tribe and preventing your best experience of life. We can work on this directly as it's related to your alluring beauty or charisma itself; the whole vibe-truth we're referring to.

The beauty essences of the archetypes (Light and Dark), the elements, gifts and siddhis allow your consciousness to not only rise for yourself in experience but to influence your people FROM the emanation of their truth into higher living LIKE Universal Love, Peace and Grace in a world of power games and tyranny. Or to be that beacon to bring them home to intimacy, reunion and deeper love.

There could be all kinds of ways you are restricting your allure.

It's an advanced topic b/c you could be in favor of religious purity over ie. strip clubs and there is the purity of feminine innocence of essence AND YET, the divine feminine is an entire SPECTRUM of consciousness...thus you could actually be CONSTRICTING (even unintentionally) Goddess spirit in other places under the guise of virtue.

With shadows, it's best to see the 'reality' of what things are rather than the guise, veil or virtue signal of them.

WE COVER ALL OF THIS in the world of WORKING WITH ESSENCE. That's why I'm so honored to have a foundational platform of allure consulting and transformation with years of experience. If you're too overwhelmed by the details in this book, know that I can work with you personally on your practical transformation to experience MORE ALLURE, MORE BEAUTY, MORE FELT INFLUENCE.

There's also consulting time at the start of each session.

BTW; Thank you for giving me the room to get these more unhinged codes out; I know that some of it is not repetitive per se, but kind of; it's done in a way that brings in new inflection points.

Some of it might be more advanced and harder to digest so hopefully this First Edition 1.0 format is working for you.

It's not meant to be perfectly concise and 'edited' down to core principles in this First Edition; it's future editions and other places that I'll be able to be more concise with...I had to give myself room to just get things out with the hot codes creatively.

So let's continue...

The (general) dynamic differential between objectification vs. engagement & transformation with your beauty/image belies on whether people can feel you = allure. It's disconnection vs. connected influence.

K-pop videos (to reference again) have copious amounts of youtube likes to views ratios (which helps uhmm...everything). Is it no mystery now that they're fountains of over-flowing archetypal essenced beauty quanta?

(The Divine Feminine Muse quanta is MAGNANIMOUS; the amount of it on a fotonic scale encoded within K-Pop girl MV's; enough to heal the world actually).

It's not just the fan following; it's the deeper WHY. ALLURE ENGAGES.

ALLURE ENGAGES THEM and gets them to feel and care vs. something more disconnective.

So when Lalisa is instagramming in Europe you're more likely to 'feel' like you're there with her and are more likely to care for her (the more sensitive-empathic you may be). B/c you can 'feel' care and 'rooting for', it builds a relationship that you have for your favorite influencers (with whom you are essentially inter-facing with their hologram).

The thing with alchemical beauty or charisma that is so strong is that even the more closed off people cannot deny it.

Neymar 2018 is a great example of masculine star charisma whose vibe (more than just 'positive') affects the atmosphere around him.

So how you holding up?

BTW can take some people months to ever get through 'Calling of the Kingmaker' report b/c like this report, there's just a lot of codes!

I know that some of this got pretty heavy and into deeper things if you were just looking for improving your marketing response; but it has to be what it has to be as First Edition 1.0. So I'd best treat it as a smorgasbord (or all u can eat Vegas buffet cousin Eddie).

Maybe you dun like you some of that Grail soup, but you wanna gitcherself sum of that K-pop pot pie instead.

(Dear Lord!....yeah but Jester is one of MY archetypes ;))

Do u like the pop references? (I'm going to do them anyways but just curious).

How about do you like my charisma science angle or are you more reserved about it? Is it understandable?

Have you got value out of this report?

Let me know your feedback via DM if u want.

Allure makes the intangible tangible...it's the same general concept as if you were in outer space nearing a planet's atmosphere...you start feeling the changes before you're 'on the ground'.

It's not that Western science is wrong; they have their own equivalent with planetary bodies (matter) and their atmospheres. They just haven't accepted the same obvious principle that humans and their bodies also have atmospheres as auras (oh and that there's a different spectrum of Light entirely but again; I wouldn't wait for THEM to catch up to improve YOUR felt visual influence).

Deeper exploration with the PHQ report.

Ok...so based on wherever you are at IN PRESENCE (not linear time itself) in your relation to your soul embodiment and other archetypal and siddhic beauty essences, things may have to be transformed b/c remember that allure is organic and not fakeable.

Literally - HEALING itself may have to be done to reclaim, restore and re-embody your lost essences (and then cultivate new ones from the spectrum of beauty consciousness). I'm a specialist in all of this so if you ever get session time with me; be assured we're directly 'doing the work' (either in a 3-pack or Allure Makeover or the Reclamation package ie.)

BEAUTY HERSELF after all IS the Divine Feminine sentient-plasmic language of Light (including healthy DARK). As souls; we are essentially fractals of God and Goddess Source.

And that includes the Dark archetypes (which are different when pure of SHADOW archetypes other than Dark Mother and Dark Sophia who have been hijacked and are shadow archetypes).

To get more of a taste of the Dark Feminine Beauty;

You might be ready for the Dark Goddess Powerliminal on Youtube but if it's TOO daunting, I would just ease into it with the last 1/3 of the resource here:

A woman with a rainbow-colored face and wings is the central focus, set against a dark, moody forest background. The lighting is dramatic, with a rainbow spectrum illuminating her face and wings, while the rest of the scene is in deep shadow. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and ethereal.

POWERLIMINALS

Available @
youtube.com/c/powerliminals/videos

As I'll summarize at the end; there's activations and attunements as primary ways to transform your allure.

Doing attunements on your own time can be VERY beneficial and actually bring out your essences, shift your consciousness, state of being and vibe-truth.

This is one way you can start to awaken and bring back out specific aspects (and new aspects) of your impersonal feminine consciousness and beauty that people can feel; GODDESS-truth qualities (and to think we were only focused on STYLING like a goddess?! huh?!)

Styling comes second to BEING the real thing (I say)...even costuming for theater and film acting should really support the character embodiment work and energetics/charisma.

Why not embrace ALL of your current Light masterfully instead of just the visible, physical range? (And then cultivate more beauty from there – b/c even charismatic babies don't have the more mature qualities that are accessible later in life – other than that movie 'Boss Baby' was it called? Or is it that football shaped talking kid on 'The Family Guy'?).

Because again; consumers and your soul tribe clients are waking up and sensing TRUTH more intuitively in your communication. Great acting is BELIEVABLE because it's being.

When you're making a first impression online, you want to give that congruent believability as well that leads to more response, clicks, subscribers and deeper engagement. The more versatile you are IN your archetypal expression, the more they have new ways (and even #fomo) to keep experiencing you.

Keep in mind that SHADOWS can come across in your aura as well and I'm getting really good at seeing these...do you want YOUR shadows coming across and trying to superficially cover it up with make-up or would you rather emanate inner beauty AND have extrinsic mastery with good health?

Dark archetype work can mitigate the shadows including making you less likely to continue default patterns from the past which may end up with you getting used or abused by others...for some women, their allure is meant to be on a more Dark centric path, others more Light but you can find your own balance of such intoxicating beauty essences.

But are you even PLAYING in the realm of beauty consciousness like this yet (like my clients are? ;)

And would we want ANY of your beauty or eros suppressed? Or would we want the FULL SPECTRUM, depth and richness (what others call 'inner beauty') to inspire us all and deepen YOUR inspiration, freedom, love and relationships in your visual live and recorded presence?

Because your allure is a TESTAMENT that communicates more of who you really are faster - IN A VIBRATIONAL UNIVERSE.

It hyper powers attraction; plus, you're already attracting what and who you are being anyways (and that may include dysfunctional patterns). So if you want to change, it's with this work where you can 'shift your vibration' to be who you really want to be and experience your highest timelines.

Many of my clients are living their best lives and lifestyles.

All of this shifts when you get into the work (basically either a grail path or directly cultivating your allure b/c both will shift your consciousness, beauty and experience of reality WITH more influence).

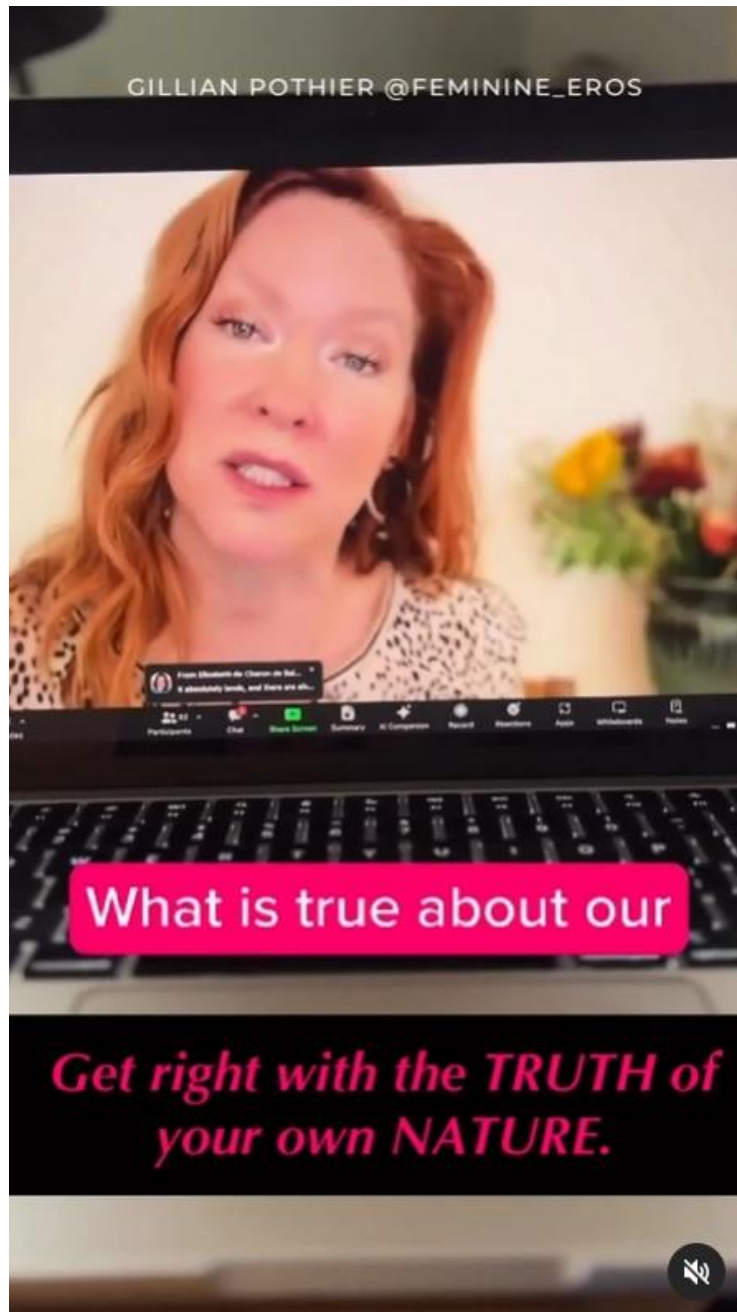

Your allure gives CONSCIOUS, hyper-sentient women an accurate snapshot of who you are FAST and then your behavior and communication can continue to confirm that or not.

Less empathic fans or clients will still get a general feeling you are who you say you are and generally will be more responsive and compelled.

This gives you market advantage esp. as you're not only more feelable but people can know, sense and TRUST you are the right thing for them IN THEIR GUT or their womb. THAT'S OF CENTRAL IMPORTANCE if you are teaching or being a spiritual influencer of sorts or doing healing work.

As aforementioned fellow mayic-pirateer;

Gillian's Instagram represents this essence communication and integrity that is hyper-responsive very clearly. She's engaging because of her allure and her words become transmissions.

With where the future is headed (and I realized this thought at the gym doing treadmill cardio and seeing more football player interviews on ESPN); you'll start feeling, sensing even flat-screen tv and the characters in it as holographic the more sensitive you become.

Like you will feel their presence and charisma pop off the screen and be in your living room in front of the TV.

This is as you become more aware and psychic of the truth that already is b/c it IS encoded as multi-dimensional power and beauty (where again; the Muse Priestesses and I can connect to kinesthetically feel anyone's presence in history at any point in different chakras and aura without interfering with their live field or free will).

We just gotta shift our focus from judging and assessing skin-deep beauty to start sensing how FELT visual presence is and how it affects us.

You know; this can evolve marketing in ways too because you could take twin sisters as product demo models or in a split test advertisement and if one was alluring and one was not at all...or like if I did a few activations with one, you KNOW which one is going to get MORE RESPONSE in marketing surveys and tests even if they're wearing the same thing and not even smiling.

I think you already know that's accurate.

And allure gives you a wild spectrum of consciousness that isn't sexual per se, but it IS on a spiritual level in the polarity of things. Where even heart-centered nurturing goodness can be counter-balance as spiritual medicine to a hard-hearted man.

So it's not even 'sex' that is explicitly being sold anyways; it's the energy, idea and representation of it in social media, entertainment, advertising...it's encoded with the deeper drive to COMMUNE and melt into BEAUTY ITSELF from the MASCULINE and for the Feminine to sexually and spiritually receive GOD level Love, Sex and Provision.

Allure gets your SPIRITUAL aspect communicating and awakening that response in others but if you're just showing skin and not having essence, men and others are more likely to just value your body or 'looks'.

BTW I look forward to do more live or recorded demo's of allure transformational work (make sure you're following me).

It's the spiritual energy of Sex which is the spectrum of feminine essences that gives a woman cosmic status and in the eyes of the divine masculine, desires to reunify with; not just physically but spiritually in Great Remembrance of Source consciousness; to be a conscious channel of godliness in devotional love with the Source Feminine Beauty-Truth.

In other words (to re-mention) as io presentarle; the Holy Grail itself is essentially the CORE driver behind all of this and billions of multi-industry markets being driven.

We just had to bring the pieces together and view it from a higher perspective.

Whether you're on a grail path yourself or not;

How about being a starlet before you're famous and living that growing scale of influence in your social media? That's what you SHOULD be doing and now you can do it like you've dreamt of because we can work on your allure DIRECTLY and with conscious competence.

When it's this nonstop onslaught of beauty quanta (allure)...you can't get enough of it, you can't process it you just want to be with it more and more. (Or view them as your archetypal sisters in a way).

So even if you 'personally' hate K-pop; if I can get you to just start seeing allure itself and that dynamic, we're making a lotta ground.

Well; there's another level of communication going on psycho-sexually, psychically and spiritually with the divine game of power and beauty influencing consciousness going on.

See we think it's cultural or genre influence, but the HIGHER truth is its archetypal power, beauty and consciousness affecting and attuning the rest of the world. In otw I've meditated to K-pop for thousands of hours and finally got the answers I was seeking for with allure.

Transformational entertainment and visuals...do u want that good-good?

Here's a masterclass (and showcase) of soaking in allure:

See; beyond our lower-truth, superficial filters of physical beauty, cultural standards and projections - it's really about truth, ASPIRATION and Ascension at a soul and spiritual level of experience.

BEAUTY is the ultimate aphrodisiac and IS immortal. This is because it is the sentient Language of Light itself literally. We've mostly been focused on superficial beauty.

And this goes deep to the very core of things. What is mankind seeking? That level of reunification...even other spiritual paths may not be as satisfying for some.

Heretically; it's to REUNIFY with Goddess sexually, spiritually, emotionally, somatically as a worthy God-Son Lover fractal...

And because (most/heterosexual) people are seeking this reunification with far greater spiritual essence of their divine polarity with their divine counter-part underneath it ALL, you can start accessing these higher levels of RADIANCE which psycho-activates and engages people to feel you and get soulfully and spiritually involved with your media WHETHER they are consciously aware of it or not; there's just more success 4u.

You're giving more 'data' and 'information' for their entire consciousness to respond to emotionally, psychically, etc.

You can cultivate your allure like the soul starlet you really desire yourself to be and have that beauty influence. I'd love to help you personally with that.

If you're already a beauty influencer or social media influencer and get into allure transformational work, just WATCH as your fans and clients start really loving you and your media more into healthy obsession. Are you even optimizing your Human Design aura strategy? I do Human Design & Gene Key readings separately ($350 at time of this release) as well as in the Allure/Charisma makeover and THAT is all practically related to your visuals and your allure; how it's coming across.

We are talking about #fomo levels of beauty after all and mastering your signature qualities of beauty-light and vibe-truth...the movie starlet version of yourself and giving yourself that permission to shine.

But could you make that shift into MULTI-DIMENSIONAL INFLUENCE rather than just 2d flat pixels?

So it's not just 'beauty' that is valued (nor our lens of valuing physical beauty sexually and socially or even the shadow lens of vanity), but more specifically it is the SPIRIT-MATTER ESSENCE of great Beauty itself; that which would be testament of Divinity, of Goddess and that which God Himself (with and beyond all religion) would reunify with (and more practically the awakened God the Lover aspect within the sons of God as men with an alluring woman).

This is sourced in the TRUTH that we are more than just physical bodies and have influence in other non-physical ways.

I know I'm covering it quite a bit, but it's probably new to most readers and by re-inflecting it - things can help you to integrate and soak in (post new-age, post post-modern feminism and yet as Ancient Remembrance).

These were the answers I was looking for and bring higher truth even through to break up the shadows, superficiality of the matrix and also the false light matrix.

Again;

The COMMUNION of the meta-essences of Power (divine masculine presence) and Beauty (divine feminine spirit-matter quanta of all archetypes) together as Spirit to Spirit sex/love (rather than soul to soul) is what is driving the feminine and masculine spirit THROUGH humanity through millennia and reincarnations; to return HOME to immortal Love and Sex in Spirit itself as God and Goddess experiencing itself as reunified.

At a soul level and through many reincarnations this is rarely fulfilled yet it is part of the Awakening of many of us.

You can (through alchemy, activation and awakening) condition your consciousness to be attractive to the DIVINE masculine consciousness; the highest aspects within mankind. A Grail-Queen, a Grail-Lover or a Rebelle-Princess (I threw that one in there)...it's all open.

Such Communion codes are encoded in Ascension and Ascension consciousness as well as Grail archetypes and working with Grail principle at a soul level in whatever mix of archetypes you embody.

We can work on your GRAIL Beauty allure if THAT path calls to you.

BTW; there's an entire parallel with all of this. I'm focusing more on the higher dimensional spiritual and soul meta-dynamic, but all of this 'divine union', hieros gamos has to do with inner reunification of the deep psyche as well; the animus (for women as inner masculine) and the anima for men (as the inner feminine).

Doing the transformational consciousness work (which affects the Beauty of your Light and how you are felt and received in the world and relationships); works and shifts things on a deep subconscious level as well.

Doing the specialized energy work in my format (as compared to psycho-therapy) we're able to work effectively, powerfully and fast on reunification consciousness work...releasing deep things and purifying your animus/anima to honor and venerate the contra-sexual polarity.

Gillian Pothier of Feminine Eros is BRILLIANT as transformationally speaking and working from the psycho-therapeutic lens (she's trained in it) and doing it for holistic results and life-change that affects your actual allure and relationships. We were a power team for the Mystical Beauty Allure Masterclass.

When we clear out the distortions, power games (which actually HIGHLIGHT our point here of how feminine quanta is USED and exploited), we can start to see the bigger picture and we can be 'IN' the game (no game) of REAL spiritual influence with people socially in full integrity as your own brand.

Imagine the real YOU but living the integrated real life Movie Starlet version of you fully expressed with magnified influence...and without fake-acting it or dealing with self-doubts either b/c the consciousness of the archetypes is real; you would just have to have a way to access and embody them (like through activations and attunements).

It's not just about sex and status that sells with showcasing Beauty.

It's about IMMORTALITY as souls knowing what Communion as God and Goddess consciousness in love and sex really is; Source of All Creation.

When you have ANY Allure, it brings people CLOSER as their SPIRIT engages with you and DOESN'T engage with other influencers they're following who don't have allure and spiritual relevance.

Others may have to keep sky-diving off of hot air balloons to get attention (j/k...that stuff is awesome and some of them have charisma anyway).

Are you a spiritual influencer or want that kind of organic influence without having to do not-self things to gain attention?

Allure is non-negotiable! It's where things are headed as the world awakens and values something deeper than vanity and superficiality (yet where extrinsic beauty IS part of your fuller expression and important as well).

And the Holy Grail as I've presented it here; is what I propose is the deeper, truest DRIVE and DRIVER of the markets. Sex sells but let's comprehend that higher scope of things with it.

And it's so practical too because 'Divine Union'; hierogamy is the literal and deeper EVOLUTION of sex, relationships and more fulfilling love, ecstasy, soul immortality and all that jazz. There are people in my circle who have also experienced hierogamy to some real scale and it's beyond twin flame lover-ship.

BEAUTY ESSENCE INSPIRES, CAPTIVATES, ENCHANTS AND DRAWS HIM IN.

And what's at the source of it? ESSENCE. Your divine feminine spirit matter and the consciousness with it embodied can constellate ALL of that richer deeper experience. That is invaluable CURRENCY for Communion itself (beyond twin flame best-ever love).

Grail principle is STABLE b/c it is the evolution and source of all.

Again; as my Mystical Beauty (Allure Masterclass) co-host Gillian Pothier (who is alluring herself) says;

"If men can't FEEL YOU, they don't have reason to (even) CARE." (para-phrased)

And I can attest to this.

When someone has allure and where you can FEEL her aura (and she has rich beauty essences) in the room; it weaves an enchanting and intoxicating spell of being felt and effortlessly she commands the room.

That includes her willingness TO be de-armored and felt in these rich signature essences of her soul AND to take the risk PUBLICLY.

Ironically it will mostly keep men AWAY from you that want to 'harvest' your energy b/c it triggers their masculine protector.

Gillian is brilliant speaking to this.

"But if I show my true essenced beauty (allure), won't men want to steal and harvest it? Won't all the attention be creepy?"

Look...we're talking about STARLET dynamics and with independent media, you now have an authority and opportunity to create your own empire!

The short answer is that they can't steal it from your media unless they're doing advanced black magic and connecting to your live field remotely past any psychic defenses (and dealing with karmic consequences).

Live dynamics are something we won't get into much b/c we've already covered half of War and Peace.

Even if you're an Only Fans influencer, there are ways to increase your response and protect your field. Sure; you might be in on 'driving fantasy' but I'm here to not only serve the evolution of the game, I'm here to serve the game itself...b/c with these codes it's going to start bringing everyone TOGETHER....Heck; I've given MEN a path-way to presence and reclamation as well so if they'd rather choose fantasy instead of holy grail reality, that's on them.

I'm here to help women and beauty influencers expand their influence and allure; evolving their beauty and mastery...they do not all have to be on an ascension path at all. I SERVE. We're just going into the deeper dynamics b/c that is possible.

Plus remember that my intention is to impact early adopters in pop cultures/beauty influencers and many of them won't ever be on a grail path BUT it will help ALL THE GOOD WORD spread...so that ascension codes can have more pop impact.

I'm not going to turn down Hollywood clients just 'because' as some of the people in my circle have disavowed it/them for different reasons or think it (or they) are all evil...

I LOVE the performance arts...I have zero value conflicts there...I serve the industry of A&E. We're talking POP influence here and some light-workers are thinking too small or not meant to serve on that larger of an impact-scale.

I am on a path of social power of sorts (and obviously of Beauty). More grail, reunification codes in pop culture? Umm, yeah...that's going to be part of this.

Less tyranny wherever it exists? That is good too. More heaven on earth? Yes please.

I'm meant to serve the industry AS IS but also evolve it but without forcing things and all that.

Allure brings the magic and mastery in anyways. I've posted things around this on my FB wall (btw almost ALL the good stuff is 'friends only' on my FB account).

I've spoken to and answered this in different areas including on my FB wall, but I'll say one thing about it right now;

People cannot actually 'steal your quanta/life force' (or 'essence/s') FROM your recorded visuals and images. It's not your real live field; it's rather that which they are holographically interfacing with as previous recorded light-information data.

They would have to be advanced black magicians to steal from your actual field remotely past psychic defenses (and suffer any karmic consequences).

You can also develop psychic defense while still being essence, but just reference starlets who give themselves 'permission to shine'.

Starlets are a source of heart, sex and soul nurturing quanta SHARING and radiating it to the world. They don't care if one weirdo is selfishly using the energy they've already given out from abundance (nor are they making psychic contracts or agreements with them which siphon their essence).

Are you giving yourself permission and safety TO SHINE? Do you have that inner masculine constellated that protects you in presence and is healed and reunified on a deep level that allows your feminine body/soma and 'animal' to relax? (Reference warm, alluring starlets).

Does the sun care if we 'steal' its rays? So, there are ways to live healthily and scale your starlet.

I can be there to help directly, energetically support you at the highest levels as well (b/c allure is obviously the future).

I speak to this more on some of my fb wall posts including the safety aspect.

So the 'game' is being played with a lot of borrowing (but never giving back), using, misusing, siphoning, even HARVESTING of 'energy' (aka 'essence') women who are in disrespectful, disempowered or maligned agreements (and soul contracts) with much of the world....but just speaking to creating your OWN media; NONE of your literal field's life force has to be harvested by other malevolent forces without your permission (or psychic permission).

Starlets also do understand that men will fantasize about them with their media out there; but consider that such men are interacting with your RECORDED, holographic beauty (which DOES have that spirit-matter influence).

So you can rest assured it's not your literal field they are interfacing with in your media; it's more like their projection, so that should give you creative assurance to help be really seen.

Even when I'm doing advanced devotional alchemy of reunification consciousness in temple space with certain MV's; I'm NEVER actually connecting to or taking 'anything' from any icons actual field herself.

I must get explicit permission to work on or connect to anyone's live field.

Being an influencer, you already know that you'll come up against haters and so forth...you don't want them affecting your expressed beauty either.

Being affected by comments, however - is not something we're going into at all in this report. It takes vulnerability and courage to get out there and 'be seen'.

Live performances are a bit different of a dynamic; but just reference Taylor Swift who is GIVING like a starlet energy to the audience and that's part of the high value exchange; to be in the presence of her embodied truths (and of course the music, environment, heart-felt experience).

Yeah; there's also security on stage and throughout the arena. Recently there was a bomb threat and Taylor had to have 3 of her Vienna concerts cancelled.

But even former President Trump (love him or hate him or something in between); he has a powerful presence and charisma. He was being fully expressed as himself when the assassin instead happened....he boldly walks through the world in presence.

And you can acknowledge things like that even if you love or hate people b/c their channel might be more open than yours.

Allure and Charisma engages people to feel you whether you're in the room, walking down the street so they notice you (and may be starstruck) as well as in live speaking, performances, presentations, social media and dating sites. It's especially touching to the masculine.

Speaking to living allure in the world around you...Look for Gillian's cat-calling essay on her blog or FB wall where her allure triggered (inspired) construction workers to respond to her and how she chose to deal with it.

Remember;

"(And) if he can't FEEL you, he can't CARE for you". (my paraphrase)

And why SHOULD he care?

Because you look good doing your own thing capturing other attention and status; yet he individually feels disconnected and not engaged in his heart, mind, body and soul by your rich, beautiful qualities?

There are ways to weave magic with the man you DO want and that's with allure.

Do you want to WEAVE intoxicating enchantment with your signature qualities or do you want to just look good - but where people can't feel you in their senses and soma? (Making it more of a binary there btw for clarity-sake)

Saké?

The same with your ideal prospects and clients...if your visual isn't ENGAGING to them in their own somatic experience of heart, spirit and soul, it's less likely to influence them and then relies more on you 'saying all the right things' b/c there's more of a disconnect energetically...

More sensitive people might catch and feel you more but many consumers are more numbed to sensing things spiritually and soulfully so it might take more of an obvious case scenario for them to feel Beauty or Power.

You might be on the path where getting to that point of influence from presence/image is going to take longer – so now's a great time to start cultivating your charisma directly!

And without having your chakras breathing and aura on (and clean); then they can get lost into their mental channel...if you're a gifted copywriter you might be good at direct-response eliciting emotions, but shouldn't your visual image convey the truth of your soul anyways so their entire soma is perking up and engaged?

(Miss Perkins from '10 Things I Hate About You')

Isn't that how INTUITIVE, bullshit detecting ideal prospects are anyways?

Discerning of these subtle energetic nuances and social cues that give them the real truth of who you are?

If you want a Divine Union partnership that keeps growing deeper in love; (I would say is that) the most important thing you can do from HIS (visual) eyes is to keep becoming the divine feminine embodied for HIM to experience the Holy Grail from your Beauty that he can feel in his soma-body, heart and soul; nurturing, healing and awakening Beauty that he can feel in love, intimacy and partnership.

The intimacy which is very different from porn.

Porn is RARELY alluring and there's a fracture between the masculine and feminine that supports the grail-fracture of FANTASY; the opposite of Holy Grail principle (and usually creates literal fracture in Presence and connection).

Sexy instagrammers or cam girls who look 'hot' but DON'T have allure are likely falling into the same power dynamic of attention (kind of leveraging the matrix for their own understandable advantage – even though it's still playing the game).

And that attention is transactional and I can't HATE the game...with it; men are lower status pawns in the social conditioned game where their own divine masculine inheritance is also being stifled and THEIR sex energy power is being diverted into fantasy and fracture.

That'll still exist and I don't have issues at all serving women in those realms to increase their response...your path is your path and it does NOT have to be an awakening path. I can help you get more influence organically.

You can of course play that game if you want and I cannot actually judge it or stop it (it's a free market after all)...I'm just expanding to view the bigger picture as well to speak to dynamics. A path of charisma awakening including divine masculine reclamation (think; archetypal consciousness and presence) can change a man's life...he doesn't have to keep choosing fantasy or letting divertive Sex keep controlling him.

Do consider again that there is a higher game (no game) that is possible...not just one of 'natural' influence but super-natural, star and starlet LIVING that can bring awakening to others instead of hustling the lower conscious, transactional game itself.

A path of more fulfilling attention and recognition that you could choose – if and when you're ready. The archetypes in any case have SO much power, beauty and leverage for quantifying your influence.

Allure brings back INTIMACY...and if you're masculine, charisma is what can get women to FEEL you somatically in response to your presence.

If it's embodied and expressed with divine masculine archetypal and siddhic essences is then far more likely to drive the ladies and the awakening feminine wild, ORGANICALLY (in experience).

So; for DEEPER influence in a partnership, deeper intimacy...it may mean cultivating the Holy Grail level consciousness and beauty that receives and circulates His Light. That can include cultivating your light bodies to make energetic love with kundalini and pranayama which is more advanced than 'just physical' tango.

You're not going to get grailed in normal relationship coaching AT ALL. Even conscious loving tantra circles aren't codified in holy grail principle by default.

And THIS type of healing, medicinal beauty doesn't come from just a 'glow' make-up retouch cream.

Much of your own beauty growth or masculine sexual power could then become about how much power or beauty you could hold, circulate and move within your energy body and with/between a beloved partner.

It literally becomes about Power and Beauty of chi and your ability to receive and circulate it in consciousness in and between your bodies. Grail Tantra you could call it (and kundalini can be a major part of that!)

Without allure (and the plethora of mixed beauty essences you can be expressing); you may be left trying to clamor for attention and remaining unfelt and even invisible..you might remain dis-satisfied and bitter.

As we get closer to wrapping up in this full extended First Edition; know that it IS a spectrum of actual signature essences we can work with in shaping your charisma/allure.

I know that I've inferred the archetypal spectrum before with your allure and creating your reality; yes, you have the entire spectrum of divine feminine beauty;

Innocence, Siren, Vixen, Queen, Goddess, Lover, Eros, Aphrodite, Peace, Majesty, Maiden and MUCH more from all of history...these authentic QUALITIES of feminine spirit that could RADIATE from your own presence and visuals that people can FEEL.

If you are too personalized in identity however, chances are you won't have this connection and it will be more like putting on a fake persona.

Keep in mind that there is a lot that could hold Goddess fractal consciousness back for the rest of your life; trauma, conditioning, modern values, a myriad of shadows including superficiality, vanity, post-modern feminism, resistance towards the masculine, inability to be vulnerable, past patterns of abuse or distrust of the masculine on karmic loops, etc. can WITH-HOLD the ability to truly FEEL your presented beauty in your professional and social media.

Since this is about maximizing your social influence while being more aware of the grand 'game' of things and from another perspective;

People want to be closer to POWER and BEAUTY but if they can't FEEL it, they feel disconnected from it and are more likely to get caught in objectification and FANTASY.

This (ie. with porn) further FRACTURES the HIEROGAMIC Communion principle Truth that is embedded within our highest spiritual potential to experience as reality; they end up in fantasy instead.

And really; largely fantasizing about exchange essence quanta with the archetypes. (Which is different than divine union alchemy which actually transforms presence and prepares for the beloved incarnate).

When you have awakened allure, it's more likely you're going to INSPIRE men (and have them support you in other ways) rather than just having them fantasize about you.

Expressing allure calls people home to be intimate and closer AS beautiful or with beauty in reunification; it helps connect them to your field and higher spiritual reality. Allure lets you be felt as if your body had an atmosphere that fills the room.

B/c this isn't a normal book; I hope you're appreciating the reminders which should work nicely if you're jumping around here and there where the wind takes you.

As awakening souls; we want to be worthy to associate with beauty and desire to (secretly) be powerful and beautiful (and at a soulful level; IMMORTALLY Beautiful, loved, valued, cherished, desired and met divinely)...to be closer to source. TO BE REMINDED (of who we are and what is possible).

There's a deeper drive to TO BE IMMORTAL and know that in face of existential doom.

Separate from a mother to daughter genetic filter – from a soul and spirit filter;

Archetypal charisma and allure essentially ARE immortal; practically immortal - not only because of the meta-physical nature of the soul but also b/c we now have 'the cloud' so your visuals alone could influence future generations of consumers TRANSFORMATIONALLY from the power and beauty encoded in them (put aside the thought of more social media influence THIS MONTH).

This work allows you to have the SAME EMBODIED QUALITIES as Cleopatra (as aforementioned) which leaps GENERATIONS back (and yes there is also ancestral lineage wounding you may have to clear up as part of a grander awakening process too).

With the great quest of MANKIND ITSELF always seeking the mythic holy grail (which is held with the Divine Feminine spirit quanta/essence);

The SOUL of mankind and people are driven towards such Beauty in Remembrance.

So it's not just that (straight) men are visual and value feminine beauty in all general forms (not merely superficial). It's not just that their bio-nature wants to have sex with beautiful women in advertisements as the primal urge...

It's about the ENERGY of the women of which they wouldn't 'actually' sleep with in most all cases, THE implications (divine) and what it represents (as to WHO THEY ARE). It's about these meta power dynamics at and beyond the causal (soul) plane of consciousness.

This multi-d communication and power dynamic is represented in the digital pixels; but again (your) COMMUNICATION and value is far more than that constrictive bandwidth.

It's more than just a mechanical understanding of sex sells (from 'within' the constructed matrix); it's this deeper psycho-sexual and spiritual drive to be worthy of reunifying with impossible levels of Beauty as the consciousness of God the (taboo) Lover with and through Him seeking to return Home.

To even be liberated from the games OF the matrix.

And what would reunify in 'the act' of the holy grail? The quanta. THAT is why we are driven and for women in a sense; it's to be f*cked by God (and yes; this is great heresy) as Goddess....to receive that much POWER to melt into Her Beauty and His Power.

Sex of the Gods.

(Or as a God fractal experiencing love and union).

Hieros Gamos.

For mankind and his quest for the holy grail; it's the un-awakened God-aspect calling him to return home in true Communion; not merely with the Holy Father but with the suppressed Truth of the source feminine aspect of God in Union.

If you're called to more; I also go further into Grail mythology in the 'Calling of the Kingmaker' report for future reference (it may take months even years to soak all of this in even BUT we can start working on your allure even this week).

So, because this is the unabridged 1st Edition...

Driving market behavior on the DEEPER, veiled levels;

It is the spiritual and soulful desire to know, experience and be worthy at IMMORTAL levels like a god. This is the evolution and magnification of the best sex imaginable b/c it's spiritual and soulful.

And in the literal ACT-experience of hierogamy (the true Holy Grail) it would be his siddhic signatures of quanta (ie. King, Valour, Majesty) meltingly alchemizing in Communion with her Divine Feminine embodied spirit-presence and divine beauty qualities (tenderness, peace, grace, maiden, etc.).

It's just that we're like pigeons with a homing beacon (bacons?) that aren't aware of it in a sense...we're attracted to beauty for Holy Communion purposes light years beyond what we can fathom as love and sex.

It's the spirit-quanta itself as Spirit to Spirit (not merely soul to soul) that would reunify. Grail/Allure is the sign. Just transmuting your consciousness from that sentence alone could be a several lifetimes JOURNEY of evolution.

(As we at that dessert bar yet cousin Eddie? ;)

It's these same essences that would show up IN her presence and visuals (if she has cultivated allure) that he would desire to reunify and know himself as God the Lover (if at all possible) or as a fractal of God consciousness as a son (in the bedroom).

This deeper revelation gives an alluring woman POWERFUL magnetism with the masculine but for deeper, meaningful and richer reasons than just 'using her sex' for attention and likes. We're talking medicine level woman who may or may not be in a siren era or what have you. It's her choice.

Speaking of something similar to revelation, here's TWICE Sana with a few siddhic qualities coming through of Essence (even without seeing her Gene Keys hologenetic profile yet). She has graceful, siddhic GRAIL ALLURE Beauty btw b/c she is a Muse fractal (muse).

Her radiant beauty could single-handedly directly awaken entire populations of men, not kidding (and it's not b/c she's 'Japanese' – she's transcended that; it's b/c she's a channel of divine feminine consciousness and its quanta that ALREADY IS – and is ancient).

That kind of INFLUENCE isn't 'personal'.

Grail consciousness aka 'divine union' and grail principle is essentially heaven on earth with BOTH kings and queens; veneration and siddhic principle where Beauty and righteous masculine abounds.

How much RIGHTEOUS MASCULINE POWER are we missing and could BEHOLD? And how much co-creative Harmony could there be when women are liberated on a soul level of transmission of Beauty essences?

"In the midnight hour, I (she) can feel your (what)?"...

#likeaprayer #hierosgamos #divineunion

POWER.

(Some of you may have had a different answer here ;)

Aha...so Beauty IS primordially attracted to Power (a la Madonna).

Remember that 5/1-ness I was referring to earlier...Madonna perfectly LIVED INTO HER i-ching archetypal and profile design charismatically. She was born into a vehicle where people would idealize her and she would be an icon for the collective with trans-personal karma.

This is Human Design related to YOUR charisma. If she tried to be a Opportunist-Hermit, we would not even have MADONNA. So you wanna make sure you're living YOUR Human Design b/c that's going to maximize your recognition, satisfaction and success.

And how about Steve Winwood 'Bring me a Higher Love'?

Then perhaps it's important to get to the higher Truths of Power (Divinity) like Communion and stop thinking that power is 'bad'; seeing the lower distortions of it for what they are.

For the masculine to embody and offer her more Truth of Pure Power like a dream rather than merely distortions of it (and yes there are different forms of power)

Much of our society does not want that and wants to burn down the patriarchy or control and oppress the feminine spirit (quanta) and individual souls.

That's all lower consciousness and shadow. Grail principle is healthy Light (and erotic Dark).

It's not where dinosaur eats man and woman as post-modern feminist inherits the earth per se.

The Truth of Communion; The Holy Grail is ever-present... Yet few can truly access it.

It is too much Power, Beauty, Sex & Love for the mind or body (of a mortal) to behold.

FORTUNATELY; you don't have to be into divine union in order to cultivate your allure.

You might not be ready to make amends and heaven on earth WITH the masculine yet or ever (and then experience that in your life b/c your energy field constellates and attracts that reality 'as within without').

And that's ok; we can work more on just feminine embodiment and expression rather than Reunifying with the immortal masculine.

But back to that point; yes, the tyrant-masculine (which isn't MOST men btw, nor is it limited to any specific race for it shows up throughout humanity); the tyrannical, shadow masculine consciousness acting out within (some) men has largely held control, power over and the ability to harvest, exploit, use for their own means, etc. the ESSENCE of the Feminine.

A separate convo, but b/c of the fracture MOST modern single men are getting left behind.

Many, many women have PARTAKEN (yes; a word) in the game for status and so forth; it was set up in a certain way. It works AGAINST most modern men and Communion principle. Sure it drives markets b/c of the meta-drive but it's ultimately constrictive to SOUL LIBERTY and spiritual freedom.

Heck; many shadow archetypes abound of what we think is the feminine; yet isn't transformational and awakening in its truth. I want you to have more awareness, sovereignty and choice on your side to follow your desire for fullest expression.

With cultivating your awakening allure directly; the full spectrum of archetypal beauty is available. I literally have done hundreds of archetype embodiment activations for women in curating their allure.

(Remember; you can always just get an allure activation to help embody and directly bring out whatever essences you already have stored in your seat of the soul too).

So yeah; a lot of women will 'play the game' as it's set up and I don't fault them (the revolution is now here btw).

The difference (between me and red pill bros) is that I don't shame women for it. The entire movie and concept of 'Hustlers' is about this. And that's out there.

You can even be cheering them on when they're hustling money out of those wall street brokers: "Git it Girl". Fine.

It's AN experience within the entire spectrum of what's possible (of "I'm a bitch, lover, mother, etc. ;).)

I do think it's all a lower level of transactional exchange and consciousness; where women use their sex energy to play the game back against men in exchange for money, resources, status.

That will probably always exist, but in large part - it's time for a concurrent evolution within the same construct.

Instead of transaction-based stripping; how about transformational temple space devotional priestess dancing?

Instead of escorting; how about modern hetaera, king-making and beauty priestessing?

Instead of man-shaming, ball-busting shadow feminine archetypes; how about also having inspiring, love-awakening, eros-lovers that are healing families from within and inspiring men to serve a higher good (for ALL)?

Allure HAS causality....more ascension codes are being planted simply with these K-Cons and other sold out K-Pop concerts b/c again, Muse is a Grail archetype who awakens and heals the masculine towards the holy grail itself while inspiring other women to rise more into their co-creative, essenced base consciousness.

This is worth mentioning;

Religious or moral superiority which rightfully values feminine purity and yet constricts other aspects of the full spectrum of divine feminine eros & consciousness can often end up being its own shadow, power play (of masculine suppression) and end up constrictive to soul freedom - even without knowing it. (There are other dynamics, etc. we're just not going into).

That means suppressing her fuller beauty itself and feelable ESSENCED Beauty which also equals less INFLUENCE from her own feminine consciousness.

Since we're valuing the CURRENCY itself...Here's another angle;

Once you can realize that ESSENCE ITSELF is THE GOLD and highest value currency; there may be NO PRICE you wouldn't pay for it. And there could be a big shadow side to that as well.

And may I inject some conspiracy related stuff in here?

- What do you think? - I think it's some kind of scam.

Rat Race

Search clips of this movie

Ok, I'll do it anyways and this one might be 'out there' 4 u but it's related to the same concept...things that we don't always want to acknowledge in our 'above ground' daily life...but when we look beyond psychological and behavioral levels of reality, it's safe to say that there ARE forces of Light and Shadow out there. Forces that work with and through consciousness in people.

Some readers may have to suspend belief to even entertain this.

There's the concept of 'adrenochrome' which essentially harvests youth essence from blood in a spiritually and soulfully evil way...

Let's just 'assume' that some people ARE consuming this kind of alleged 'harvest' and that there is this shadow-underground market for anti-aging from this form of bio-spirit essence...and that this per troy ounce would be worth far more than gold.

Even if we could just say that 'ok...maybe it IS' out there - with some very wealthy people who value being young, immortality and other reasons...it HIGHLIGHTS our meta-theme here of 'essence' being a core value.

I'm not making ANY presumptions of who exactly is doing it, nor that 'all of Hollywood' would be in on it – which wouldn't be true anyways...I'm just presenting it here.

See; we just don't normally view or value things from a spiritual or soulful level of THE GAME, but what IF essence IS actually the MOST VALUABLE THING? (B/c it includes your soul and immortality itself).

What if you're been living a less fully expressed and more subdued life BECAUSE of past experiences related to dampening or siphoning or abuse of your (soul) essence or general life force (ie. Sexual-sacral)?

So; you don't have to believe in it (Keanu Reeves refers to some parties with shadowy shit and there are other reveals out there); but just be mindful that IF it's true...again; it would indeed highlight our point of ESSENCE being of value.

LOTS OF LIGHT can create lots of SHADOW that most of the regular consumer-citizen consciousness may not have access to.

And there are other things in the alleged shadow underbelly of Hollywood that further highlights this as well. (Well; I mean the whole #metoo movement ie.).

Anyways;

On a lighter note; why would ANYONE keep doing adrenochrome for anti-aging anyways when they can just get direct energy work done that's free and clear of all negative karma to begin with?!

All direct sessions with me include anti-aging work on your energy body. (Biological anti-aging is very real and independent from chronological aging). When people ask my age, I've said: "Biological or chronological"!

So...IS YOUR SOUL & SPIRIT FREE?

Are you EXPERIENCING reality multi-dimensionally in a soulfully satisfying way or one of compromise and constriction? GKey shadows give great clues into transforming this (and your beauty essences).

Allure opens that gateway to fullest expression. This is the revolution! (There's no new skin-cream or conditioner that's going to EVER break the glass ceiling on Beauty 1.0)

In otw; you might have religious blocks, parental and societal conditioning that are STRANGLE-HOLDING YOUR OWN DIVINE FEMININE EROS AND sentient- alchemical beauty (or your masculine sexual POWER)...esp. if you've been mastering skin-deep beauty and style, but have these real consciousness blocks.

If you have (inorganic or ‘constructionist) post-modern feminist programming and conditioning, you may by default be blocking your higher beauty essences and representing FRACTURE from grail principle; living in a more constrictive feminine consciousness partly centered on reaction to only the small percentage of tyrannical men instead of building kingdoms and inspiring renaissance with the masculine (for example).

“Are you a feminist Rion?”

Not in the sense people are usually asking that question; however, yes in ways even more b/c I’m on the forefront of the awakening divine feminine consciousness (including empowering starlets, boss babes and goddesses, etc.)...the ARCHETYPAL FEMININE is a FAR grander spectrum of consciousness and beauty than a more modern, constructivist ideology.

There’s so much CONDITIONING and PROGRAMMING – even ideological indoctrination between both the masculine and feminine that restrict a deeper harmony, peace, love and renaissance.

You may NEVER know even a taste of what devotional love could be if you’re only loving cultural or shadow archetypes for example.

And even then, you might be more into feminine archetypal beauty and allure that IS more goddess-centric that doesn't care about the masculine right now and that's fine too. I and the Muse Priestesses support the evolution of Beauty and divine feminine consciousness on the front edge here.

I'm not only about Grail codes. I'll work with rappers who want to empower their Bitch-Queen, live performance, image and influence as well if it's part of their brand-osphere.

Just know that there is healing available along that path if you ARE called to heal and reunify with the masculine...or maybe that's not for you.

Maybe it's more general allure work to bring out your best 'current' self and soul into felt expression (including energy healing and anti-aging) - maybe that's what you're ready for 'now.

I'll work with you if you hire me - with wherever you're at and where you want to go for YOUR soul's desires and greater impact.

I'm colleagues with the best-leading-guiding women in the world who are on this forefront as guides (of hieros gamos). And you know what? They value allure and 'get' the concept. Many of them are already working on their allure in different ways in their own work and with clients.

This is about YOUR fullest soul potential and expression of visual influence and yes; it's entwined with your consciousness as well. That's why you can't FAKE essence and truth-vibes.

At least you can start to communicate who you are NOW to be felt more and increase your social influence. All this other awakening and higher power/beauty stuff is also on the table to cultivate (like in an allure makeover).

When REAL POWER influences in stillness like a radiant sun or bright light that's in your face - you simply cannot deny it!

Real beauty doesn't have to do anything...it doesn't have to contort itself b/c it IS the highest status thing in the cosmos. (Imagine if you can accept and cultivate your soul to a level that you KNOW it's immortal and then the quality of refined essences you can emanate heaven on earth with!)..

Beauty has choice amongst the highest status masculine.

I'm not saying to throw out your make-up habits and styling at all...it's just to consider if diving into allure work to increase your social media visual influence is a central thing in your life from here forward...it's to maximize both.

As a (beauty or social media) influencer; your soul tribe and super-fans WANT you to be in your FULLEST self expression and beauty...it inspires THEM to live THEIR best lives too.

You're doing it all for THEM TOO!

What if it was OK and SAFE to express your sensual eros and you could de-armor the conditioning and templating around being felt in your ESSENCED beauty and sexuality? (Maybe that's what's kinda been 'missing').

This energetic vitality and warmth is becoming ESSENTIAL for female entrepreneurs who are designing lifestyle based businesses esp; conscious entrepreneurs....fort. you can cultivate YOUR signature expression out of it whether you're a Boss Babe, Trad-Wife or other cultural archetype as well.

BECAUSE OTHER WOMEN ARE INTUITIVE #AF. They can sense if you are the 'real deal' so you want to be ON-BRAND and feelable so that who you are speaks louder than words. ALLURE DOES

THAT. It can say a million words before you say anything while being a homing beacon for your soul tribe.

Reply to feminine_eros...

There are also other women in my circle who VISUALLY and kinesthetically represent their brand as well. They softly activate and speak to the eros-soma body of women. THIS IS THE FUTURE of marketing!

Gillian Pothier is a great example of a woman who has ALLURE and transmission level videos fully integrating herself as the brand and visually communicating ENGAGEMENT. It's in her VOICE as well (check the Powerliminals channel too).

Living her highest service; she gets very high response rate and activity on different media platforms...Instagram can be a hot bed of activity when you can increase your allure (like she lives it).

WHAT DOES YOUR SOUL DESIRE TO EXPRESS and could you express the multi-dimensional truth of your brand?

What kind and flavors of beauty and what could be explored if you were free from the shackles of the tyrant masculine (that you may still have constellated within); that isn't making it safe for more soulful and spiritual expression?

HAVE you been soulfully and spiritually cocooned from this deeper beauty expressed?

And where the cocoon lasts for DECADES (even as your estrogenic beauty withers away?)

WHAT SOMATIC DEATH AND REBIRTH PROCESS MIGHT BE PART OF YOUR TRANSFORMATION into a fully expressed avatar butterfly version of yourself (to share with the world and loved ones)?

When you get into a path of awakening beauty consciousness and cultivating your allure (if you choose to work with me); we work on all of this (in temple level space and trust) so that you are felt differently to the world (and fast).

You will start noticing people respond to you differently, more attraction, more compliment, conversions, etc.

Be assured that the FANTASY (shadow of fantasy) is going to thrive with AI, AI models, AI porn, AI Beauty and AI Art. That don't have nothin' compared to the spirit-matter quanta of REAL feminine essenced beauty; honey-milkshake of the universe.

...to fill the world with RENAISSANCE, harmony, inspiration and Love.

So as competition increases for ATTENTION.....how are you going to stand out?

More content generation, lighting improvements, algorithm hacking and social media marketeering? Getting clear on who you're serving and speaking to them?

That may be part of it, but it's not all I recommend.

Imagine living a life where all you did with beauty for decades was to superficially improve your skin-deep appearance always hoping and knowing there was 'something more'.

...never being able to visually and masterfully express the fullest exquisite and timeless signatures of your soul and your ability to magnetize deeper love, resources, intimacy and have greater embodied, highest timeline SOUL expressed social influence from your beauty.

And your FULLY expressed (and further cultivating) avatar-butterfly Beauty radiance.

If an image is worth a thousand words, an alluring image is worth ten thousand words...for She (the immortal feminine consciousness) weaves the mystical spirit quanta enchantment of super-natural Feminine Beauty and consciousness...even the Holy Grail itself.

That could be you. Your soul mixed with beauty essences AND styling that supports it. (So reference these examples for their allure and insights that are relevant to you; not for your personal preferences or their culture). The divine feminine is universal.

Maybe you've been speaking too much to make up for something in places your Beauty can do more of the effortless work...Maybe you've been desperate for attention and that's coming across in your vibe resulting in less response from your ideal fans or clients.

Maybe like many women, you've been over-functioning and relying on personality and looks maintenance instead of having compelling and magnetic attraction and influence just from being silent or in a freeze-frame of a photo or instagram post that RADIATES most all that they have to know - because who you are is speaking louder than words and when you DO speak words; it's transmission level that affects them deeply.

(Ok, THAT was a helluva run-on sentence)

If you've been relying a lot on your personality, talent or 'character', yet you are energetically out of touch with expressing your deeper truth and essences;

What could happen when your voice alluringly transmits the sourced essence qualities and signatures of your soul's beauty? (Again; Gillian's a perfect model for this)...to the point it becomes MEDICINE...b/c it's sourced in a deeper Beauty and Truth behind it.

(This is the future of influence – with allure and charisma as channels of authentic-self and divine communication.

What happens when she/you starts to move or dance from that place?

Now we're talking closer to viral influence.

Imagine desperately trying to grab people's attention in the attention economy to 'stand out' and 'compromising' some of your values that feels like 'selling your soul' a little bit just to get more subscribers and attention.

Ugh; That doesn't feel good does it? Having to resort to 'hacks' or showing skin if/when you don't want to.

It'll probably repel your ideal clients away from you ANYWAYS. But what if you could effortlessly have MAGICALLY better response, engagement and deeper fan and customer following with all of your media?

In an attention age; building an AUTHENTIC following is invaluable. And if you already have a large following, how'd you like them to be MORE deeply connected to you and your content?

That's what cultivating your allure directly can do.

Really there are SO many great examples when we cross-over this new era of professional charisma consulting and transformation 'now' and into the future with my forward brand of 'Essence Acting'.

I've always been OBSESSED with movies...not gonna' lie. One of the countless examples of professional charisma in acting is with Jim Caviezel in the 2002 movie 'The Count of Monte Cristo'.

In order to do SUCH a literary classic justice, really getting the character embodiment down is essential and he did an amazing job.

Actors before now have had their own processes and probably not working directly with energy work; it's just with what we're now bringing we can bring a bit more conscious awareness from the palette to help more consciously master performance (and add to their tool-kit/mastery).

Fortunately, great actors like him have often NAILED their parts anyways through their own techniques....so really, this is a great example OF essenced acting.

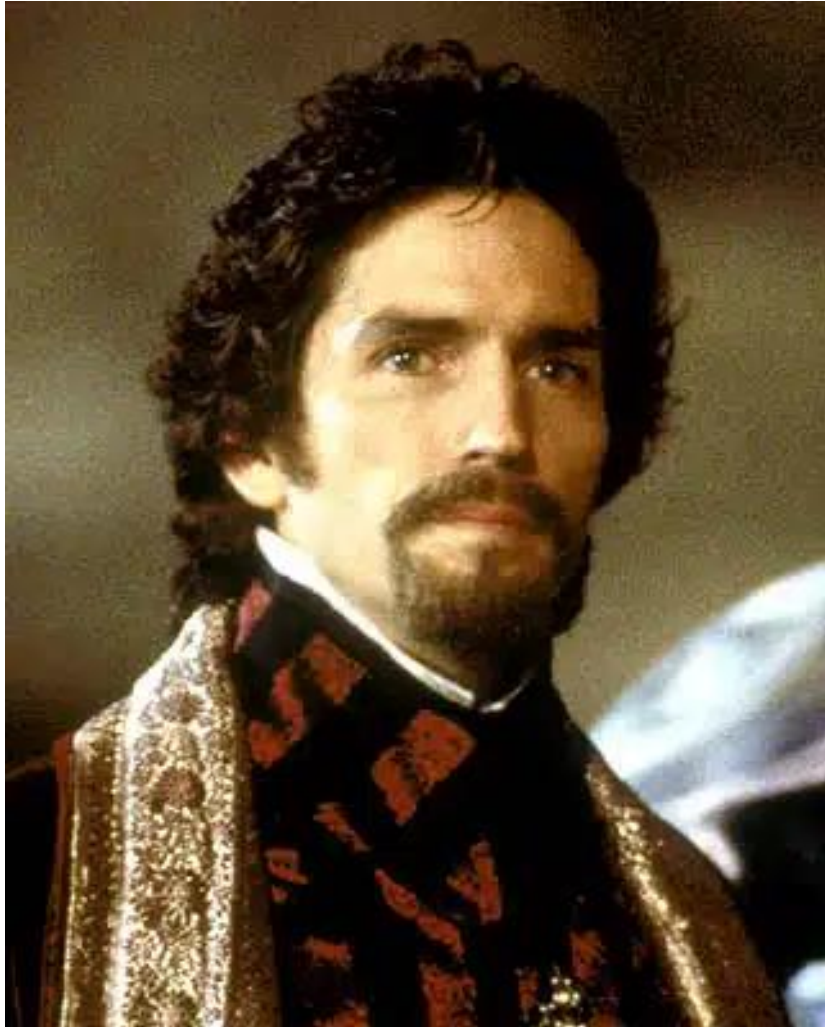

Check out his character vibe and charisma BEFORE the transformation into 'the count'.

We're getting more information WITHOUT WORDS.

And now check out the embodiment of OWNING his new destiny as the Count. >>>

BIG DIFFERENCE right?

Night and Day difference, right?! (I love this shit!)

Famously, 'she' couldn't even tell it was him (if you know the story); there was a vague familiarity yet intrigue however.

WHO HE IS in presence is SOURCED differently (my God not just shifting his body language – smh) after he chose to reinvent himself and have a reclamation.

That's all with presence (embodiment) and the transformation of charisma (this is ALLLLL in the realm of charisma work btw). Which THEN AFFECTS body language in the lower dimension.

As 'The Count' he is a different person and we FEEL IT.

The professional actor knows he has to be believable and Edmond Dantes within the story KNEW he himself had to be believable in his transformation. He had REASON TO and found a way (as showcased by Jim C.).

Yes, his wardrobe as the count matches perfectly. but its the ENERGETIC QUALITIES of Prince-King, Noble-man, Host-Showman and the integration of Light & Dark qualities (but in honorable goodness) with some Gene Key 21 of Valor and Gene Key 38 - Honor. Strength but a 'don't f*ck with me' authority.

THAT IS WHAT IS THE MONEY...the real currency....the essences themselves that communicate TRUE POWER and more than words. AND EVERYONE 'BOUGHT' his transformation...he had INSTANT INFLUENCE at the highest strata. He was COMMITTED as a character (and the actor) to the metamorphosis or makeover.

To 'be' and 'become' him. You can do that too! It's what I've been doing; literally becoming the highest version of myself incarnate.

With direct archetype, gift and siddhic activations (like in the Charisma Makeover or a 3 pack of sessions); we can bring more of those essence qualities from consciousness INTO embodiment that then adjusts YOUR own feelable embodiment and expression; immortal qualities mixed with the qualities of your soul.

Movies aren't just divertive entertainment; they're telling reflective even aspirational stories of humanity, our divinity, the entire spectrum of consciousness, the archetypes, hope, inspiration and can be very transformational and awakening.

He debuts himself to other aristocrats and nobles on a hot air balloon?

I WANNA DO THAT!

Integrated archetypes for his character – all of it. BOOM.

Because....the best acting isn't acting; it's BEING it. (That's what you want right? Where people feel 'the real'.)

And that comes down to essence, embodiment and expression (charisma) where the truth of who you are is louder than words...real power, real influence.

Imagine what qualities YOU could have as the authentic, movie star version of yourself if you could reinvent yourself like the Count of Monte Cristo!

(Or Countess-Empress of your own social media empire!)

Oh; and I'll also reference the vibe-truth of Guy Pearce' character Ferdinand Montego and you can sense something is 'off' about him as a 'Tyrant-Prince' which is excellent...you can sense his self-righteous, throw-others-under-the-bus-ness about him, right? THAT communicates more than words so when his character comes from that ESSENCE-Truth...everything else makes sense and flows.

They both did a great job...see this is that critical psychic-truth information otherwise we won't believe the characters are real and we won't be as engaged.

Now; before we wrap it up...

There's something I recently saw that at first will seem WAYYY out of left field, but it actually proves my point of how pervasive this is as well; we just have to start seeing things from a higher Truth lens of what's really going on because there ARE lower truths like the fact that K-Pop is centered on S. Korean culture and language.

But if you started sentences with but....

But if you never got past the lower truth of 'culture' and divisionary labels like genres and individual artist names; you wouldn't realize simultaneously that there is the REAL POWER and Beauty game going on which is archetypal (influence of god-fractals), spiritual and alchemical on consciousness (and then behavior).

K-pop doubles as basically ascensionary, transformational entertainment but people aren't aware of it b/c of their lower truth filters (and personal genre favorite artists, niches, etc.) and they're limited consciously to that paradigm which creates division and diversion instead of the awakening that's already encoded with the higher Truth...

So we want to value the HIGHER Truth and the deeper POWER game that's going on (related to Sex and Status but really Communion of the Holy Grail).

K-Pop is a PHENOMENON largely in part because of charisma. YOU can start leveraging that as soon as possible.

ANYWAYS.

The Paris 2024 Olympics recently had their closing ceremony and there were 2 things that stood out in the Olympic transition video related to our theme. Here's that video link for you to reference:

That's blatantly obvious as far as our values...remember, the more consumer lens again of Hieros Gamos is that 'everyone wants to sleep with stars and starlets' (token references for power and beauty).

Obviously; Tom Cruise has massive authentic star power and charisma. He's a legend and with true power, age becomes less of a thing. Beauty is attracted to Power.

I'm not even going into how his auric design is also with 6% of the population which is about IMPACT and his spiritual life theme is seeking Peace with Anger as his not-self theme (Human Design stuff related to charisma).

But I saw something else that was incredibly intriguing to me b/c I'm quite aware of Communion, Holy Grail Principle.

At the end of the clip they took the Olympic flag to a beach in L.A. who is host for the next Summer Olympics in 2028. (Actually it seemed the clip changed so I'm attaching their full performance video instead).

As the silver medal skateboarder arrived...Red Hot Chili Peppers (a perfect choice) was playing on a (pre-recorded) stage. And then Anthony Kiedis (lead singer) jumped on stage.

Here's a freeze-frame of him then and the video:

perform at the #Paris2024 Closing Cerem

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3KgKoyaDgN4>

There's also a FRESHNESS about him. This is related to Gene Key 1: Siddhic Beauty essence with the Gift of Freshness. My theory btw; why New Jeans the K-pop group is so popular is because they have this authentic vibe and light-truth radiance of FRESHNESS in their charisma/allure.

Others do as well, but it's especially EVIDENT with them. ETERNAL INVIGORATING EVER-SPRING. That freshness vibe and light-truth invigorates the auras and chakras, even DNA of their fans with that level of allure radiance!

Guess what spot Danielle had on last year's Top Muse?

Simply being NEAR it affects your own state and experience.
Ok...back to where I was going with Anthony Kiedis.

Remember; I'm talking about PUBLIC FIGURES; psychic awareness stuff is only going to GROW as more consumers wake up to SEE and know what's going on energetically with public figures and stars beauty and energy bodies....in a way the whole concept of consumers waking up gives influencers and star/lets MORE reason to be on top of MASTERING their visuals.

Ok; NOW back to him...

Now...here's what you may or may not know; chronologically he is 61 years old and has a 19 year old girlfriend.

This may initially seem taboo and so forth (less so culturally in some other cultures); but what I'll say is that we want to value the DEEEEEPER power game that's going on and what's driving things psycho-sexually, spiritually and soulfully. We want to view things from THAT lens and expand our mind about things (the power and beauty game dynamics).

So, to avoid any unnecessary drama with the age differential, let's just say that they ARE consenting adults and look beyond our normal filters. It's not even that she is using him or vice versa (which is often the case esp. with transactional relationships); I can tell something real is going on.

And what I noticed is HOLY SHIT...he's LITERALLY YOUNGER. (It's NOT just his fresh look out the shower and styling; it's energetic).

Knowing of their relationship and Holy Grail principle; her quanta is bringing MEDICINAL qualities to his consciousness and his own star power. (In the alchemy of THEIR union).

There's a real thing such as BIOLOGICAL age which is different than your chronological age.

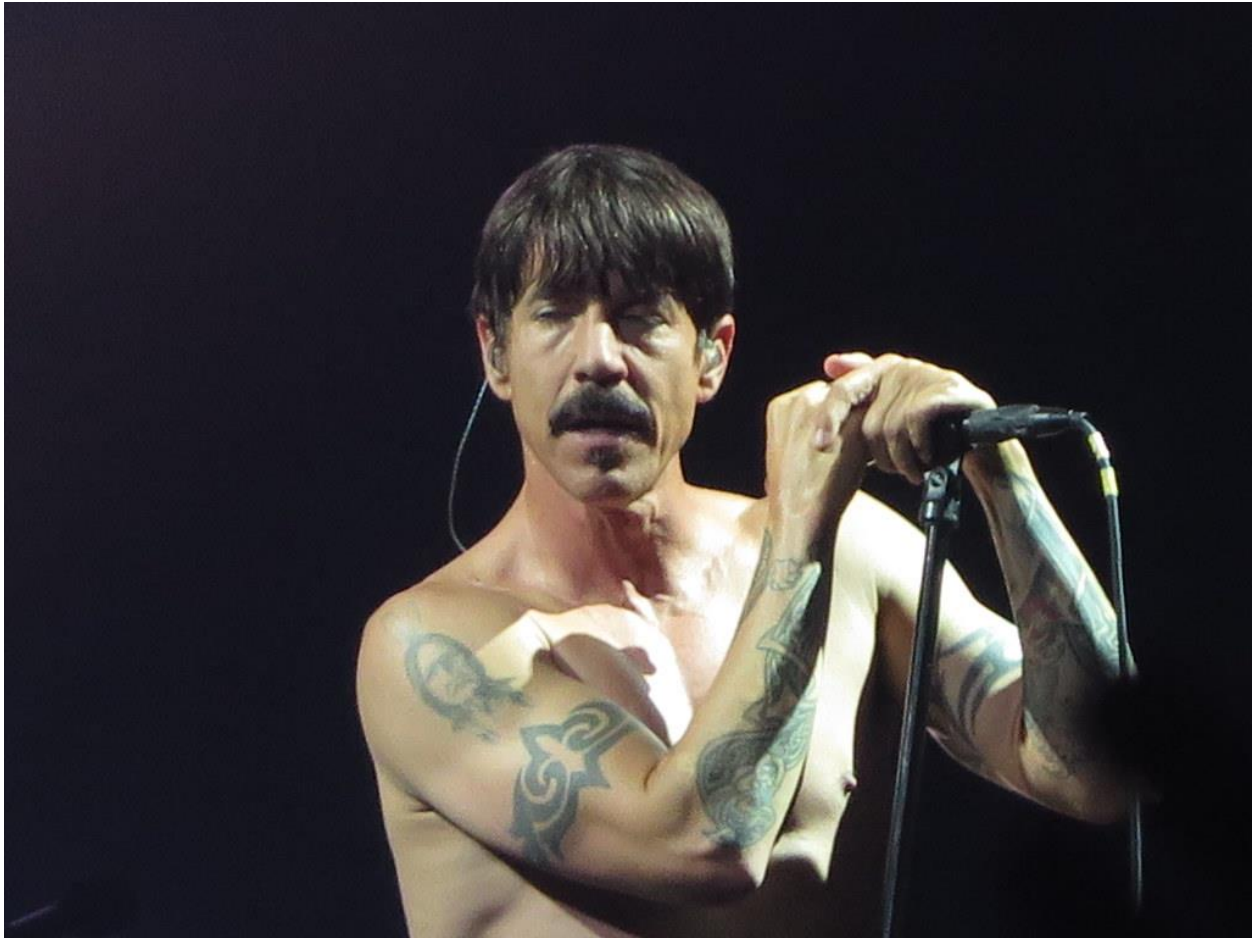

THAT IS WHY there are more people getting into anti-aging which is a paradigm buster (or 'breaking the brules' as my old-time colleague from college-era Vishen Lakhiani talks about. He went to U of M Ann Arbor and I went to UW-Madison and we had the same best friends then).

In every session with me (activation/energy work) we're doing energy detox growth maintenance which effectively ANTI-AGES YOU.

And if you're only doing health detox with food, fitness and supplements you're missing out on the entire other important half which IS the energy work; DO BOTH and you're going to anti-age.

ANYWAYS...his bio age is younger and so is his authentic vibe and influence. Their music is sun-shiney timeless anyways.

A few years ago to me he was looking energetically a little sadder, melancholic (but there can be GOOD melancholic elsewhere btw), lightly depressed and 'aging' imo (relatively);

But now he's got his MOJO back and I know WHY. It's because power and beauty are attracted to each other (our meta-primordial theme).

F*CK THE WORLD and their judgments for their age difference (is my outlook on what he's thinking b/c they showed up at a game together);

He is on a different path than MOST PEOPLE (who are really souls incarnate into a human body; we tend to forget).

It's the deeper PULL of the soul to want to commune with either Power or Beauty that's more important than what people think.

THEY'RE HAVING a form of COMMUNION as much as many people will HATE IT (including secretly envious men) from their filters.

It's not just about money and status (at least in this case).

This isn't about sex techniques or merely the primal attraction (of her being more fertile); it's about CONSCIOUSNESS and the embodiment and alchemical exchange of divine masculine and feminine spirit-plasma literally between them in the bed (and in intimate relationship otherwise).

It's a (non-religious) spiritual and soul-full over-flowin' magnetron of attraction. SOULS that were meant for each other (and you know about that concept of old souls in younger bodies, etc. right?)

IT'S THE ESSENCE ITSELF that is POWERFULLY PULLING AND ATTRACTING as spirit-matter together; in hopes that we could all through future incarnations and the afterlife return HOME to Communion itself of God and Goddess consciousness as Lovers; Source point of Creation.

The same thing is going on with them through their incarnate bodies - he IS A STAR and you can SEE the magic alchemy and anti-aging dynamic. She is attracted not just to his status per se, but I would gander that b/c he is also a powerful soul.

(The case of what's her name...Anna Nicole Smith...yeah, that might have been more of an actual gold-digger dynamic assessment-wise). Every relationship can have its own dynamics.

Stars and Starlets in general are closer to this impersonal GOD and GODDESS consciousness. His power allows her consciousness and beauty to grow despite it being non-traditional.

Most muggles have NO IDEA what this is actually like, because sex and love is closer to interpersonal and at best soul to soul communion and intimacy. They'll go with accepted norms or maybe even compromise on their FULLER DESIRES.

HIEROGAMY IS SPIRIT TO SPIRIT COMMUNION.

BROADER BANDWIDTH ALCHEMY FUSION OF SEX.

Stars and starlets are more likely to experience it or something close to hierogamic bandwidths (holy grail) B/C they have more IMPERSONAL CONSCIOUSNESS.

So remember what I said about the most valuable thing in the universe; feminine quanta. Nicolas Cage also has a younger partner who is alluring...because she is alluring, she is communicating and giving off feminine QUANTA; the most valuable thing in the universe that he and we can FEEL.

So people could rate her physically compared with other Japanese women or not but remember, we can value her ALLURE as its own separate component of holographic beauty that extends FROM the 3D/2D body.

He's not going for someone who has all kinds of degrees, personality and education, b/c he's realizing as a star (who is aging chronologically) that he has deeper-than-most-people-can fathom values of what it's really about.

In a sense he's rightfully seeking soulful immortality and to know that more...to RE-UNE (new word). Many souls aren't at that level to seek a form of true Communion with the divine contra-sexual B/beloved.

It's not about how she looks or what her ethnicity is; it's about how he FEELS around her (and her obvious allure) so it may be beneficial to see where you've just been judging things superficially (these are shadows of human consciousness).

It's with her allure (and women can have allure at any age; I mentioned Helen Mirren and a master body-worker earlier).

So instead of hating on these women or even assuming that these men are 'harvesting' their quanta; maybe start understanding more of not only their reasoning - but of the bigger game itself being played; we ultimately want to know what COMMUNION and the HOLY GRAIL of Reunification really is and for many that will take 100's of lifetimes.

NOT EVERYONE is on a star or starlet path however (with generally that greater charisma) and they'd rather criticize through their current level of consciousness (or envy).

Sure; often on the lower conscious reality of power and beauty - it's economic exchange of her statused-beauty-presence and time with his money. But that's just ONE form of power (financial/wealth).

It's a lower form of true power and beauty which is PRESENCE (in Source Spirit).

And what's at the center MAGNETRON of it?

THE HOLY GRAIL which is alchemical Communion of divine masculine spirit-plasma ESSENCE with the eternally beautiful divine feminine quanta and Her qualities; the levels of experiential consciousness that could be attained.

So;

It's not just the sugar daddy/sugar baby dynamic when it's about Communion - it's about the deepest possible Love and Remembrance in consciousness and experience.

The more empathic you can become with this grander awareness, the more you can step outside of the conditioned consumer reactivity and lower-truth filters (and their distortions when compared to higher truths).

I can't say for sure that they are having hierogamy level sex/love/intercourse with Anthony and her; but they're definitely communing with the what?

SPIRIT-QUANTA of his divine (and personal) masculine consciousness and plasma along with her personal and divine feminine quanta in love/sex. Great band-width flow with their intimacy.

It's not just PHYSICAL BODIES inter-changing, it's not even just SOULS making love, its the greater SPIRIT quanta between them (and the perspective of soul level contracts or agreements and learning).

Again; there's levels of magic with them far beyond 'great sex' to what most consumer-citizens can even fathom.

BECAUSE HE IS A STAR....and eventually I think he just wanted to actually experience a form of the holy grail.

AS MORE STARS AWAKEN IN THE WORLD....as more people become INFLUENCERS, I predict there's going to be more seeking of returning home to the.....

Holy Grail of Sacred Reunification.

And the exchange and intimacy of ESSENCE between them;...

That's what's doing the alchemical MAGIC to his presence, anti-aging and vitality.

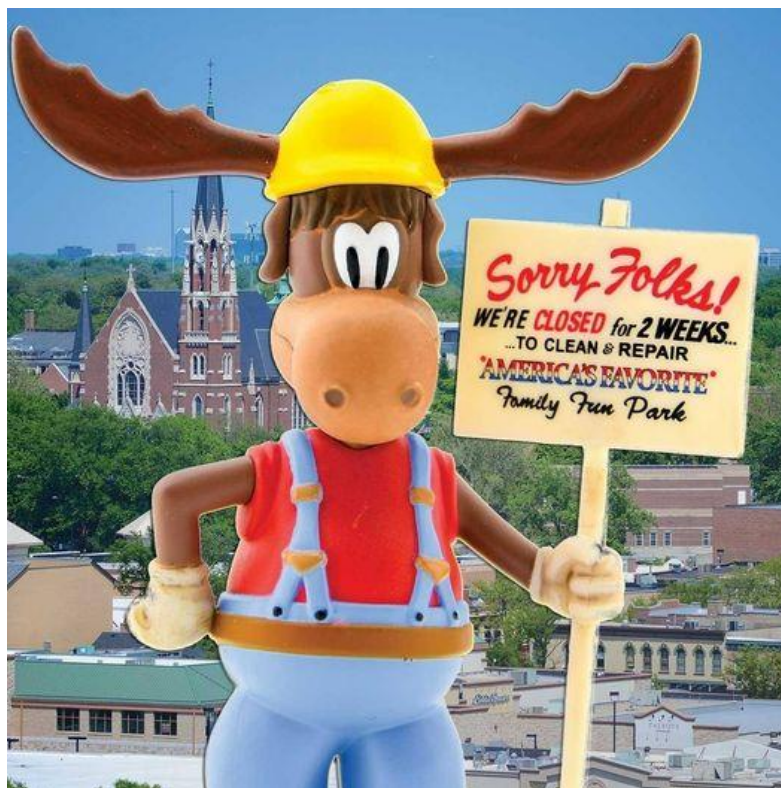

Peppers perform at the #Paris2024

(You couldn't guess his age here if u didn't know)

He's young again, re-inspired and in love and then THAT vibe and light-truth of being a star again comes across to serve others on stage. And she's benefitting as well.

DIDN'T SEE THAT ONE COMIN' DIDJA? ;)

Do you think stars should settle for less than deeper fulfillment? Sure she's young by normal standards as consenting adults, but we're looking from a soul and spirit based paradigm. Well and biologically and for other reasons younger women are attracted to (somewhat) older, experienced men but we're not going more into that today buckaroos.

If you're truly meant to be a starlet, do you want to experience anything less than the POWER OF LOVE at the deepest fulfilling levels you desire?

Again with that pop couple; some women would say that he is SIPHONING her quanta, but that isn't necessarily accurate. They are in a co-creative relationship where she is also benefitting from his power. Every relationship can have its own dynamics of exchange.

Remember; HE IS A STAR. (She is getting rich value out of their relationship as well...you can tell she's INTO him).

Mortal human conditions be damned, his soul values Beauty and wants to be closer to Source and Immortality is my guess. Most people don't think like this and would rather judge him.

Also peculiar; Leonardo di Caprio and 19-23 year old girlfriends which I literally do not judge at all.

ALSO in consenting adult relationships, so instead of just scoffing at it or only viewing it from a shadow filter (as some readers would), once you start to realize there is a deeper game being played out (through incarnations even) it starts to make more sense.

(For women over 40, you can also THRIVE with allure and have choice amongst high status men).

What I'm referring to; they want to get closer to immortality; not just the stars but the girlfriends-as-proxy starlets...both of them. Sure there are some gold-diggers out there but it doesn't seem like these women I'm referring to.

(Remember that this is the UNABRIDGED VERSION b/c editing this down would be a night-mare. Future edition/s might be 1/16th the size of this report but I have to just blitz codes down in this open format - AND I'm not charging for this edition).

>>> Beauty is attracted to Power. Primordially.

Power is attracted primordially to Beauty.

There are different forms of power...so where are you maybe projecting your own limitations onto things or suppressing your own power or beauty (as a worthy god/dess at a soul level identity)?

So in the greater 'game' of the spirit world and reincarnation on a soul level and powerful attraction - really it's the ESSENCED exchange of God level sex and Love of Hierogamy (the Holy Grail) that is the penultimate (people are awakening up to seek).

THAT is why ESSENCE itself SOURCED IN GOD/DESS fractal/archetypal consciousness and TRUTH is basically the highest value substance in the Universe b/c it's what can RETURN YOU HOME to the source point of Creation. To experience immortal reunification experientially between souls and spirit.

It's what mortal men could become GODLY Kings and legendary Lovers with; to reunify with impossible, DNA bending, blinding levels of Beauty that his soma can FEEL the Truth of from the eons of Divine Feminine before their time.

It's the ESSENCE itself that is of value and the key home to the Holy Grail. Our constructivist game is still largely non-conscious to all of this, but that's ok...more are awakening also b/c many women are seeking something deeper and more richly satisfying, soul-fully liberating and devotional.

The Communion of palpable spirit-matter OF God and Goddess consciousness rarely gets to Commune through most people b/c of their level of consciousness and other relational templates that are blocking enlightened, Siddhic BEAUTY and POWER to be embodied and meet each.

This is partly b/c the world largely values Beauty merely as superficial skin-deep beauty and the conditioning around it and that many men are not sourced in their true divine masculine consciousness and power.

GAMES of lower frequency power, force, use, abuse and transactional reality occur and even soul mates and twin flames can't compare to the POWER of Hierogamy itself (of Sex&Spirit Love).

(Generically) Everyone (secretly or not so secretly) wants to sleep with larger than life stars b/c they are closest to source and immortality (b/c of their divine power and beauty).

Social media after all allows us to AMPLIFY our reach and influence into the MILLIONS even though on a physical level, we're 1 individual Encino man.

That's more social power and many people don't know how to relate with it b/c it's like 'How do I talk to an angel' for a lot of men.

Personal Growth will predictably never get them there to relate with the DIVINE FEMININE EMBODIED in a woman – in her presence...after all, we're talking sexual, spiritual, soulful, emotional presence, not merely intellectual or psychological that is founded on years of fantasy-fracture conditioning.

Well; maybe it's time for more 'mortal' men reclaim THEIR impersonal and immortal (soul-spirit) masculine power to be a star to starlet or a prince to princesses IN PRESENCE. I've helped men with this for many years now.

(All of this is beyond 'personal power' and personal growth; star charisma stuff is like impersonal growth)...to heal the fracture between the masculine and feminine...to meet women in presence and create thriving relationships that can heal the world.

So it's this ENERGETIC PULL.

And surely, you've also fantasized about sleeping with star/starlet as well as basically everyone else. if a woman could instantly sleep with 1 million men b/c of her beauty – THE POWER IS REAL...it's not that this is INORGANIC (Dr. Jp said something I disagree with although I agree with a lot of what he said; that she's a franken-beauty or some paraphrase);no, this IS DIVINE. She has archetypal beauty and status so how CAN a mortal man compare?

Again; it's about power and beauty and for the world to come into harmony, RIGHTEOUS power must stand up to relate with Beauty to have a world of Kings and Queens in Harmony and renaissance rather than beta males and ball-busting females ruling... when we only have 'Pussaliah'.

THIS is already happening to drive a lot of attention and yet there is FRACTURE.

Divine feminine beauty gives you even MORE power of influence when embodied and expressed with allure – even BEYOND cultural conditioning of looking hot. Yet; feminine allure is also what can open the pathways to communion on all these other levels of godliness to meet your Goddess.

When you cultivate your allure, men feel CONNECTED and compelled to your influencer-ship and the energy of engagement with divine feminine consciousness with and through your allure...and other women will start sensing that as well.

When men can cultivate their CHARISMA which includes sexual PRESENCE and POWER to relate to a high status woman's DIVINE consciousness (impersonal/archetypal/socially multiplied), then a soul-embodied man can be worthy to finally REUNIFY with such beauty as HER EQUAL.

It's all connected here. With charisma he can become the unattainable Pussaliah's equivalent instead of a peon she could step on b/c he's not ready to actually meet her with what? POWER.

(tbh; people were loving it when I said 'Pussaliah' on my friends only FB but I got it from a movie you may have heard of which includes the word 'Virgin' ;)

What do women say they want and respond to?

PRESENCE. Some will say 'confidence' but what they mean is presence and POWER. POWER to relate to her what? BEAUTY (and its power and status) on a foundational level; structure FOR the chemistry and deeper love.

On a supportive note to what I was recently covering; this attraction for men UNIVERSALLY to younger women; it's not just about the youth and general vitality. There are biological factors of course including prime fertility but in the bigger picture it's related to multi-dimensional Communion. Younger women generally have more essenced, feelable allure.

Thing is when estrogenic beauty drops, a lot of women can feel existential disdain; but FORTUNATELY, they have the entire realm of essenced beauty to REPLACE their estrogenic bio-chemical essence BUT they would have to work on it (and their energetic health) indirectly or directly.

I have a program that focuses on that called the Essence Replacement Therapy (originally called the Post-Menopausal Beauty Makeover).

Women can become ESSENCED and FLOWING of warm, rich, LIFE FORCE energy and its subtler beauty qualities of Truth at any age.

And with it; to COMMUNICATE that palpable value BEING influential instead of ONLY relying on their looks, talents, expertise or word-smithing...it's just that the general trend is that many women armor up, get conditioned and lose connection with divine feminine consciousness that they used to have in their youth.

Well; and that estrogenic bio-chemical essence drop - but you still could cultivate your essenced beauty because CHI runs through your system as practical life force. It's the higher divine essences with the spectrum (signature-frequency wise) that brings the greater beauty.

Fortunately; getting into allure, you can become alluring and have greater influence at any age! (And did I mention anti-aged HEALTH and wellness, vitality?! – We work on that in ALL energy based sessions)

You can also attract a higher quality of men and soul clients when you're communicating essences through your allure; they will be drawn to you and have the qualities you value and idealize in your social and professional circle.

So; let's start to wind down this unabridged First Edition.

Masculine POWER that is felt visually is CHARISMA.

And different men can have entirely different levels of embodied POWER (and forms of it; some earthier, more fiery or more magical light-based, etc. archetypes, etc.)

I've mentioned this in other places, but when I went to an ashram in Asia with an enlightened master and we finally met him on day 2 or 3 in the beach-hut temple, he had such powerful, alchemical Light emanating from him. You could feel the radiant, high-frequency Light was affecting and attuning our own somatic bodies and DNA.

This is simply charisma. And he was 'like a star'. He had true power. Transfiguring power. Transformational power just in STILLNESS.

There's also the concept of Braco the silent healer who just shares a shaktipat transmission of Graceful Universal-Love Presence from his eyes (and charisma) to the room.

(btw; eyes and their photonic power as windows to the soul are also related with all of this allure transformation as well)

Remember; stars RADIATE.

This is why Beauty can have such influence just in stillness...the energy itself however is ACTIVELY transmitting - just like our sun radiates photonic quanta through the plasma of space. Beauty radiates and has photo-chemical influence on us, our consciousness, our light-bodied soma including chakras allowing us to FEEL and be affected BY power and beauty.

Thusly;

It's MOST accurate to think of social power and influence instead of 'individual' behaviorism and reactive; rather as more connected from the lens we're valuing of the Uniphied field of Spirit as soul to soul and spirit to spirit communication and attunement (from power as radiance).

I think it's better to view Beauty as fotonic (instead of non-sentient light and only focusing on good external photonic lighting and behaviorism); that your visuals are sourced in intelligent radiation that manifests with and through the vessels of consciousness you are (to HAVE quantum influence on sentience).

This means that you can have the same photonic quanta radiance as Cleopatra had in her prime or the same essenced qualities of Bathsheba in this incarnation.

I want to do a better job of educating artists, performers and influencers like you to think clearly about this 'currency' of charisma and what it means.

Shirley; I will improve upon the clarity after this unabridged version is released and I can whittle it down.

(Speaking of Shirley...Manson that is of 'Garbage');

Here, she has allure; sense the open breathing-ness in her face and the softness....it's instantly interesting and draws us in. When I lived in Madison, WI I saw/met Butch Vig and met Chris Farley at the Campus Cinema. (Rando facto)..and OMG was Chris Farley a physical comedian who had obvious Jester charisma!

He knew how to express his body and have us feel things...his charisma reaches past the camera and that leads to US having more BELLY LAUGHS!

So...If we can think of charisma from an individual artist's perspective on the value (and cultivating, of curating the value of) their social, inherent and performance-based visual currency....yeah, the value of that should be through the roof b/c it maximizes influence and engagement which are INTEGRAL parts of anyone's legacy.

When you can see and value your charisma or allure (and the essences within them) as the GOLD of your visual and communication value, you'll realize you want to invest in continuing to improve your visual currency or 'bank vault'.

Most people are focusing on 'personal growth', skills, 'mindset', style, skin-deep beauty, algorithm hacking, etc. but when you can realize (ahead of the curve) that working on your inherent essence-value is the prime gold, it'll shift how you think about things.

(And then you want to do the SOMATIC light-body work to fully INTEGRATE and 'be' it instead of thinking yourself to it on the mental plane alone).

Really; personal growth can be one of the main inhibitors to flourishing with RICH, soma-embodied beautiful quanta (and thus more organic multi-d INFLUENCE) b/c personal growth expands the egoic self and the archetypes and other essences are IMPERSONAL.

The ego with more power can gear towards tyranny, but divine essences in a soul-vehicle with ego in its proper place? True power and beauty.

Like; how RICH and overflowing could you be in ESSENCES knowing that this is what people are REALLY seeking on a soulful and sexual-spiritual level but haven't been able to express it (and DO respond to it)?

“Is NOW the time to really invest in cultivating my gold currency of social value itself (in the essences of my soul expression embedded in my media as allure or charisma to affect others)?” (Esp. when I can see it more than ever how many influencers are thriving WITH allure).

...A question to asketh of oneself.

So, to have more beauty power and influence, it's important to get a grasp on things more scientifically like this and I think that I've covered more than enough (intro-wise); but now maybe just a skoshe more of a review.

You can always dive deeper with my PhQ Theory but this gives us a more POWERFUL understanding of maximizing your INFLUENCE from your visuals. Maxing your visual influence is CENTRALE to BEAUTY INFLUENCE and living LIKE a star or starlet.

(I mean, how can we have beauty influence evolution WITHOUT allure itself that reaches holographically out to engage attention?)

This is because (beyond the personal physiological body's chi) post-natal essenced chi literally IS power and beauty itself 'at source'...we're all seeking in ways to get closer to beauty, power, or Source through our own awakening (well, not everyone; many choose to remain lost but still value beauty).

(I should've mentioned more about pre-natal and post-natal chi but post-natal is with star/starlet evolution and power which includes accessing super-natural quanta beyond your innate personal body's life force...post-natal also helps revitalize your current chi vitality along with energy work).

Being spiritual beings in a human vessel; we are all connected in the Uniphied multi-dimensional sentience of Spirit itself; it has holographic power that allows INFLUENCE even from merely 2D pixels; this is b/c it is NOT the same light as non-sentient radiation.

Remember; DIGITAL MEDIA is literally meta-physical and Light information. Your 'body' isn't even in your photos physically at least.

It's 'information' that is far more than just what you 'look like' physically. Just because we cannot even see all the invisible EMF frequencies emanating from our sun, doesn't mean they don't exist.

Sure; a photo of a beautiful rock formation with natural photonic sunlight can evoke some emotions within you...

But with those kinds of beautiful photos, we're not talking about the source of sentient Beauty itself which we have valued here and now today (or this bi-ennial; however long it took you to get this far).

Beauty 1.0 (+ fitness transformation) works on your mortal, human, body based physical beauty. This is generally a great thing although has its shadows (esp. as CONSTRICTION towards greater, feelable beauty and being stuck to a glass ceiling within the maya itself).

If you've felt that it IS kinda superficial and wanted to believe that beauty IS more than skin-deep this book should have already changed your life from here forward.

You are both fully mortal AND also divine as a meta-physical soul IN a human body.

Human-centric + divine beauty of essence; this is what YOU would want to tap into to be in your fullest deepest expression as both immortal and mortal. ALL OF YOUR IMAGE IS LIGHT.

Remember that you ARE multi-dimensional and if you've ever dreamed, done plant medicine, had a near death experience and so forth, it will become quite obvious even if you're not into psychic or 'woo-woo' stuff.

Even then, it's obvious to know when you have FELT someone's presence from an image, video or in person from across the room and your heart skipped a beat. I literally 'see' things with my eyes often in the expanded astral/4D realm now and this isn't uncommon with advanced psychics.

This quantum stuff isn't possible if we were just physical...b/c you would have to feel someone physically or be 2 inches away to feel their weak bio-photons. But we DO feel people and are affected by power and beauty therefore it proves charisma and chi is real.

In other words your potential Light (as higher frequency soul and spirit-plasmic matter/chi) has POWER.

Power to influence and live as a star/let, BUT keep in mind that everyone has it to different degrees. You can expand your soul-based identity to take on as much Power and Beauty quanta as your temple could hold (no limits = more power).

MOST PEOPLE as adults will never cultivate real charisma or allure that has any transformational impact.

Babies are born with it but are in large part CONDITIONED out of it - AND their soul and other essences may have been hijacked, siphoned, etc. so it's fractured or in most cases, disembodied b/c conditioning is filling their chakric psyche preventing people from FEELING beauty and power. That; and/or it will become veiled, suppressed, armored and shut-down from people feeling them.

And even those who have 'it' (some real charisma); rarely take it to the beauty priestess levels of alchemy that are possible in stillness from their radiance and the consciousness-truth associated with it.

Players choice now! The expanded 'game'.

And after reading the most alluring women for 2 decades and knowing what is possible, I'm able to see other ways to help them

MASTER their radiance and influence (as well as where they are more inconsistent, etc. in performance or acting). I have access to work with all archetypes btw.

So when we think of the ESSENCED light platform and channel of your allure (which includes potential access of chi/essence of all of the archetypes and divine, siddhic qualities) radiating as 'photonic chi quanta' sourced in Spirit - instead of non-sentient photons and the focus just on 'good (photonic) lighting; it gives us the proper framework for true Beauty mastery.

(If I ever publish-publish a book, I'll probably have to hire a 'real' editor, ha! ;) Also B/C I won't have AI f*cking with these codes.

This is a ZERO % AI written book.

(And who starts their sentences with 'and'?)

And because archetypes and siddhic qualities are essences in the collective uniphied consciousness (not merely disparate psychological constructs), there is archetypal beauty, siddhic beauty and their corresponding vibe and light-truth quanta.

So the 'light' that is reflecting off of you is not merely photonic outdoor or studio lighting.

This is also because the LIGHT that you are radiating IS more than just of your body...with charisma; it's the beauty of your SOUL and archetypal qualities (if you have them cultivated with and through e3 principle).

Sensitive or intuitive people can already pick up vibe and light-truth qualities beyond just the superficiality of your looks (and start accurately elucidating their names and signatures; interpreting 'what is').

Fortunately transformation is more about identity consciousness and presence rather than linear time so we can work FAST if you're READY FOR IT. I've hosted some miraculous transformations and it helps when the client is ready for it.

Consumers are evolving to test and feel if you really ARE that powerful and beautiful as you 'appear' to be.

That higher dimensional essenced light is accessible is an eternal truth with humanity. MOST HUMANS ARE FAR TOO CONDITIONED and attached to their egoic self-identity to open up to the stream of archetypal, immortal codes and correspondent Beauty/Power chi.

ALL photos have always carried this dynamic platform of higher, essenced visual communication and always will; we're just becoming more conscious of it.

Let me put a breather in b/c this might be getting heavy again.

Here's another great pop example of allure (and there are MANY for an ongoing and historical masterclass with my whole 'Essence Acting' brand coming up.

I'm rewatching 'Ferris Bueller's Day Off'...haven't seen it in a decade or so but now I have all of this accurate-psychic awareness so it's like an entirely new experience.

MATTHEW BRODERICK
FERRIS BUELLER'S DAY OFF

Fun movie...I don't like how he breaks the 4th wall but I am CAPTIVATED by Mia Sara's Sloan character.

It's not just that she's physically beautiful but she has REAL ALLURE...

She has EXACTLY what I'm talking about with that PALPABLE, feelable, engaging allure. Next time you re-watch the movie or clips...(and I'll post 'a' clip here); see if you can sense and tune into it. We're becoming more aware of the truth that already is (and I consult on this).

She has palpable Lover-Eros Pre-Muse sentient allure that is SO compelling and holographic.

(The consumer dynamic is that people ARE going to become more psychically and somatically sensitive to feeling truth anyways).

And you know what? That's a core element of the entire film's success and what makes it legendary. Her heart-felt allure is ENCODED in the film. It's already MORE than 3D.

Everything I'm talking about with the holy grail is connected with this as well and it's why the teenager in myself wishes I was Ferris Bueller - not just b/c she would have been out of my league in high school but b/c she cues the awakening psyche of men into the DEEPER path of coming home to the holy grail.

Specifically the scene where they're first in the taxi after he sings in the parade; the next time you watch it look for that (I couldn't find that exact clip)...she's leaning back and there's just this palpable auric atmosphere of LOVE that fills the cab and reaches out holographically from your/my screen. Just WOW.

That's a prime example of allure and that's where the 100,000x value (currency remember) of attraction and even healthy or unhealthy obsession can start driving men and others wild; such FEELABLE beauty b/c of ESSENCE.

So try and see if you can view it from this lens next time you watch the movie...she's such a great reference point. See things with new eyes (and senses).

Also look for her empathic allure after Cameron dents the car towards the end and the final kissing scene (here).

When Ferris is running across the yards to get home you feel you're in the game with him; he's already got 'the' girl - exhilarating.

I did a FB post somewhere on her in 'Legend' as well (fb search 'rion kati mia sara').

(Tom Cruise has great Prince-Mage charisma here)

I'll add a few more pop references as we finish up...

"Can you feel the love tonight?" Sound familiar?

Keyword FEEL.

(But how can you FEEL just from a still visual image of pixels to have more influence?!)

Well...with cultivating your allure, you can actually have people FEEL THAT like Sloane in the taxi cab as well as express it yourself VISUALLY without having to put it into words.

CHARISMA IS A POWERFUL CONCEPT b/c it is GOLD CURRENCY that inspires engagement and involvement in your visuals whether it's Instagram, zoom or a movie...it's the social KEY and taps into this dynamic of POWER itself.

If an image is more than a thousand words.

Allure is worth thousand images.

(I'm trying out different variations on saying this ;) B/c we can FEEL (the radiance and how it affects us when we tune into it and realize b/c it's true it is SO powerful)

The transformational entertainment meetups I started in West Hollywood, L.A. btw never really took off beyond a few..most of THAT equation belies in the evolution of consumer consciousness itself to treat media AS alchemists rather than consumers.

ANYWAYS;....

Again; not everyone is really communicating ESSENCED CHI...many people have consciousness and thus energy 'blocks' in their light body and subconscious psyche (including the subconscious Jungian anima/animus dynamics) which are preventing the embodiment and expression (allure) OF the divine and immortal, impersonal essences themselves (ie. chakra blocks, psyche trauma and conditioning, implants, etc.).

ALL OF IT SHOWS UP VISUALLY to intuitive, trained and experienced psychics like me who have learned to 'read truth'.

Even if you're not aware of it, you've sensed it (like me before I grew into this psychic awareness);

Many people are vibrationally too low frequency and give off 'weird vibes'. I know for sure that you have felt someone with a 'weird' or 'off' vibe. This is also being communicated visually; we're just shifting our focus to embrace the totality of Light emanation rather than merely superficial mastery of looks.

Because again; think of beauty influence as someone just look good and you judging or assessing them b/c their power is somehow just physical and stuck on their body...NO!

The real INFLUENCE with visual media is with the power of sentience that reaches out and touches/engages YOUR sentient field like planets in orbit with each other.

Beauty influence without allure is a superficial constructivist game without much real power or influence. As we covered earlier; allure IS thriving with a lot of (charismatic) influencers, we're just becoming more aware of them.

Some influencers are thriving anyways - but for other reasons but charisma is the core component we're covering here that engages INSTILLNESS and dynamically through whatever format you're in.

Photographs, videos, tiktoks, reels, etc. of humans have both photons (non-sentient light) and fotons (sentient light-essence of power and beauty).

This is because the plasmic spirit-matter of CONSCIOUSNESS in which the immortal spectrum of Beauty thrives is sourced in SENTIENCE rather than inorganic light radiation.

THAT'S HOW AND WHY YOU CAN INCREASE YOUR SOCIAL AND BEAUTY INFLUENCE....cultivate more feelable photonic RADIANCE that engages people in their gut, heart, sex and psyche! (Not just about extrinsic beauty maximization and style)

So I do think it's best to start thinking of essence as what I call 'photonic' ('ff' sound) b/c the LIGHT IS intelligent (and has influence on other sentience).

It's also best to think of Beauty as the alchemical language of Light itself that it is for all of our focus only on the lower and 'visible' frequency range of the body.

Beauty is ALL of your sentient-light information that is always encoded in visual media; we've just been focused merely on the lower density visible spectrum and YES you can learn to see, feel and 'read' essences.

Again; I have many celebrity archetype readings and so forth on the blog and throughout my FB & stories.

Without allure (and at its worst); you're simply looking pretty, playing a social game and possibly having deeper insecurities underneath anyway in a more superficial way of seeking attention even validation...maybe caught in power use and even abuse games.

If we isolate JUST the qualities from a still image that SELLS and influences, drives people crazy and if we remove the variables of FAME and emotional conditioning to someone's favorite songs and performances with that artist for example and we're left with JUST the qualities from a still image aside from looks that MOVES PEOPLE and stirs something within them, we have allure aka (masculine) charisma.

It's what us uglier people have anyways (if we USE IT) AND if you're already good-looking by pop standards, can take your looks literally to new heights b/c charisma bends light.

(Remember that Frank Sinatra example?)

You're more than just a meat-suit who would just have 'physical' influence?

And it's far more than just your non-verbal body language...when sourced in essences, your body language magically ATTUNES to that archetype and HANDLES by and large your confidence, posture, body language, etc. (although those secondary things could also use some support but have their place as secondary imo).

This is how you know and have felt yourself that someone SEEMED like they were famous, but you couldn't tell who they were. It's like if a K-Pop boy band member was incognito at the mall you would still know there was 'something about him' that made your heart skip a beat.

Are they famous or not? You may not even know, but they have CHARISMA...and allow themselves to be felt in presence and through image. Daring to be wildly self-expressed (somatically) and in public.

Or that woman who just carried something so special about her that you wondered "WHO IS THAT?" She must be famous...and maybe she was or wasn't but she had 'that quality'. Allure.

That's where the real power of visual influence is (esp. if you're not famous)....so how do you GET IT? How do you get THE IT FACTOR ITSELF?

I would cultivate your archetypal beauty embodiment and allure!

Much of this power report is about helping you to see the super mega-trend I predict where BEAUTY INFLUENCE must ultimately evolve and step into as the inherent GOLD CURRENCY in an Attention Economy: allure and charisma.

Spiritual and soulful VALUE trumps merely socially fabricated value for the face value of social value within the matrix (or art forms that are only popular b/c people decided they are popular as one of the shadow manifestations of such a foundation).

The higher bandwidths BRING THE DIVINE into the Maya...which allows us to feel and know Beauty (independent of your looks).

...For you to know more of the power dynamics OF attention so you can leverage that in your social media strategy, awareness and outlook...to calibrate and integrate, etc.

But it's also to get an idea of how to start practically working with YOUR transformation so that people can start responding to you more powerfully and organically.

So, how can you have an idea to start working professionally on your allure?

This is where it starts to get practical and it's advantageous to understand if you are seeking greater INFLUENCE from your social media, greater fan and customer engagement and really building your social media empire like a soul-starlet or influencer.

You don't have to be 'unusual' to get attention (like this);

Or something like this...

Frank the Tank

Keep in mind that this is different from soft-maxing your skin-deep beauty. (I think that's ultra-clear by now but it may be still new to you before this book).

Allure transformation works on your 4D and 5D light-body emanation which is also ALWAYS in your photos and videos.

Beauty 1.0 masters your superficial, physical beauty and body but your LIGHT in image, your power and beauty is also higher dimensional.

There's Skin-deep AND essenced beauty.

There are physical 'on your body bio-photons and pixels AND multi-D higher frequency holographic photons and thus fotonic-sourced pixels that reach AWAY from your body and THROUGH media.

Again; it's like focusing JUST on the body/terra/planet without taking into account the atmosphere, weather, light show, mood, fireworks, etc.

You can FEEL the atmosphere if you just focus on it rather than only valuing the terra.

So to open up to allure AWARENESS and mastery, let's proceed with a quick e3 overview. This is how to work structurally with this felt Language of Light.

As covered in my Uniphied Theory and Theory of Fotonic Quanta;

Understanding that LIGHT itself (kinda important to clearly understand for beauty and visual MASTERY) is sourced differently from either;

1. The astro-bio physical universe; sun, studio lighting, natural lighting, etc. (non-sentient lighting) and

2. The radiance spectrum of the multi-dimensional Spirit of the Uniphied field (aka 'God'/consciousness itself)

And that basically there are photons and sentient fotons (that have INFLUENCE on sentient and sometimes non-sentience like in Dr. Emotos water experiment).

From accepting the LIGHT-RADIATION spectrum of divinity (b/c you are a soul in a physical body); we can now look at what I call the e3: Essence, Embodiment and Expression which has to do with vibe and light-maxxing your visuals aka 'charisma' and 'allure'.

E3 is a simple way to understand the PRACTICALITY and work-ability of charisma and allure (on the path to having more INFLUENCE from your presence and visuals).

E3 = Essence, Embodiment & Expression

Essence is the signature quanta itself of sentient-light and vibe-truth. Essences are generally stored in the seat of the soul (above the crown chakra) and can be EMBODIED.

Essence = CHI. Millions of people around the world already KNOW and feel that CHI (spirit life-force) IS real...they can literally FEEL it. It's also called 'qi', 'prana', 'orgone' or 'ki'. Sentient plasmic chi is the format of power and beauty itself.

Essence itself IS Power and Beauty 'at source'. ESSENCE-chially, the more chi you have access to (embodiment and expression), the more powerful or beautiful you are in feelable INFLUENCE.

This is why STARS are so influential; they radiate sentient Light from their fields LIKE our photonic suns EMF radiation.

And it's also how most normal people aren't charismatic from their light body (including 4D astral/vibe and 5D+ light dimensions).

More specifically; essences are the chi-plasmic radiation/radiance sourced in multi-dimensional sentience of the Uniphied field (aka 'the divine' masculine and feminine and Godliness).

There are many different essenced SIGNATURES of Truth that you could radiate which I'll refer to again shortly.

So in general....

Embodiment = PRESENCE.

This is embodiment OF power and beauty quanta itself from the spectrum of sentient-Light-Truth.

(If we remove our filters around extrinsic power, shadow power games, power abuse in industries and other forms of beauty and centralize power and beauty around human-divinity as god/goddess fractals, we get the potentiality of power and beauty itself as the potentiality to be EMBODIED).

And all higher dimensional atmospheric data (quanta) is INFORMATION that is encoded and transmitted visually under the guideline principle of ESSENCE, embodiment and expression (with and through your energy body chakric psyche and aura).

(Your general life force spirit-chi quanta is also related to your ORGANS and physiological health as per Taoist philosophy and work; here our focus more on your visuals and beauty but energetic health underneath is important).

Essence IS the power and beauty itself at Source (from which there are more than just basic yin and yang chi essences).

Embodiment is PRESENCE and Expression of ESSENCE is literally the allure or charisma itself (independent of 'character', 'personality' or 'talent'); all of this having to do with YOUR energetic light body dynamics in live presence and visually in media.

B/c you are multi-dimensional the amount of chi isn't limited to your body size.

You could be embodied, however your essences may be more internalized in cozy mode and NOT being publicly expressed as allure.

This is something to master; so you may want to work on mastering the cultivation of essence (including divine feminine/masculine reclamation), the embodiment of essences in healthier, deconditioned and spacious chakric-psyche chambers and the active emanant expression itself from your energy body.

As you can imagine, your local hairdresser isn't going to be much help with this. Let them be in their expertise and mastery as part of your overall strategy.

And what's emanating (or COULD emanate as part of your reclamation and cultivation)?

The essenced Light of sentience...well, this is when you have DECONDITIONED enough b/c MOST adults have energetic health issues and conditioning which are preventing their chakras from holding greater amounts of immortal, impersonal chi in the first place.

Expression of the/your essence/s is the allure/charisma. This means you can be embodied with great power or beauty; but literally more closed off and not as expressing it distance-wise in your field.

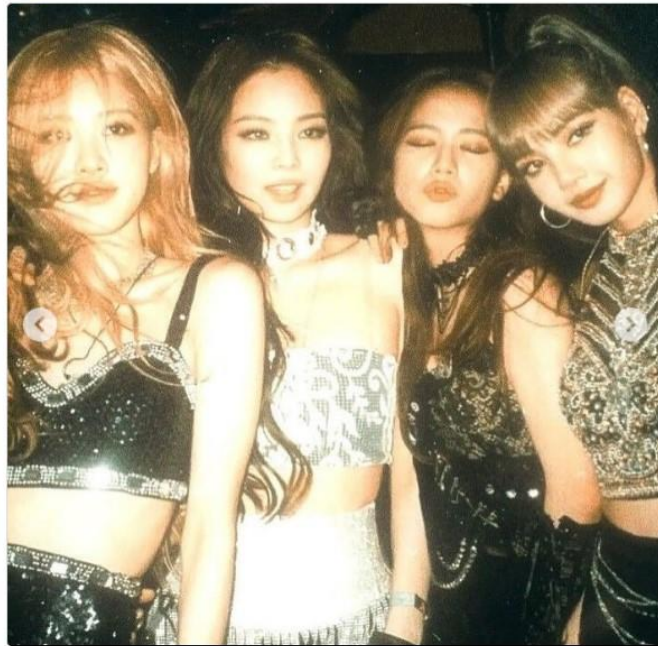

Some performers will open up their charisma more when they go on stage to 'match the crowd' and draw it back in when going to 7/11. You can have more authority over ALL of this.

Allure means circulation; the breathing-ness with and literally THROUGH your energy body outwards...yes; the literal distance of chakric and auric radiance that can be measured (yes, actually measured in metric or the other format we use in the U.S. and one other country).

I (or the Muse Priestesses) can accurately measure anyone's distanced allure in person or remotely with permission (or from past history holographically) accurately from any chakra. We can also do 'Allure Ratio' or 'Allure Factor' readings on anyone to get a gauge of where they are at in their allure potential.

And this is all key to professional performance mastery; when you've got nosebleed fans in the stadium, you want your allure reaching way up there too so they can FEEL engaged. Make sense?

So they can feel the POWER OF YOUR PRESENCE to be ENGAGED.

Lots of archetypal alluring beauty going on here including Mage/Sorceress, It-Girl, Starlet, Light Goddess, Muse...

(It's not physically possible btw - from a biological perspective to have influence 100's of feet or meters away, but how is it that the SUN has influence that far away? WE'RE NOT JUST PHYSICAL BODIES)

If your allure reaches only 3 feet for example, someone (or the camera) at 4 feet away isn't going to FEEL connected to your field (and on social media that translates to them most likely continuing to scroll unless your words or flashing lights engage them).

They'll be less responsive in the real-time causality that's happening. Your VOICE could be amplified with a speaker system to reach the back but you want them FEELING YOU in their somatic body, heart and sex as well right? That's charisma.

Are you starting to get how profound this is? ESSENCE is power and beauty and already HAS influence. The ARCHETYPES; immortal archetypal power and archetypal beauty qualities have everything to do with this and 'the game'.

Essentially; the more embodied chi (power/beauty) you have (including archetypal codes), the more INFLUENCE you can have like a star/let who RADIATES. Then it's the alchemy of the response and how exciting that is as people attune closer to Source or get lost and found in the atmosphere of the vibe and light truth ethos you're giving them weaving your enchantment; engaging all aspects of them (even if they're not aware of it).

This redefines how we can view and evaluate beauty entirely (I would include BOTH the paradigm of superficial beauty maxxng as well as allure or your higher dimensional light-truth).

It might even cause embarrassment like a wankle-rotary engine or vibraphone that you've been focused on superficial skin-deep beauty all these years hoping for feelable influence from that.

Fortunately, we now have that conscious awareness and I paid great prices for it b/c even my Chinese Grandmasters couldn't bring this level of insight and I wasn't hearing it anywhere else either (but I always wanted to know more about the TRUTH of charisma).

Consider this as indoctrination review (it's not a normal 'book')...

Anyways; specifically there are many types of plasmic-chi signature essences sourced in power and beauty itself.

There is far more than yin and yang chi. These are ELEMENTAL power and beauty radiance

....ARCHETYPAL power and beauty radiance

...Soul signature that is uniquely you including past karma (how can you NOT want to communicate this truth visually from here!?)

As well as Gift and Siddhic (I-Ching, Gene Keys inspired) essences of Power and Beauty

Again; I've done many celebrity archetype readings on my FB story history and the blog (if you're not following me already).

If you are already a charisma coach or image consultant and you're working with the old school behavioral modeling and superficial mastery ways; REPENT! Repent of thine ways....j/k.

THERE is always going to be market space for the more general 'starter' stuff about posture and looks-maxing. If you've done that, I'm not denying that your clients have got results.

Keep in mind however; that there IS going to be a growing market opportunity however for MASTERFUL charisma and allure consulting for influencers, performers, actors, beauty influencers, artists, entertainment, musicians, speakers and even the corporate world - but would you keep up with the times?

Would you keep up with where things are HEADED?

ENERGY WORK (essence work) is the bridge that's been missing and actually, I'm the first lightworker I know that's FULLY bridged it together into the world of beauty, charisma and allure (it's taken YEARS).

Because when other influencers realize that there is a practical science, LANGUAGE and infra-structural standard which INCLUDES working on their energy body and if you're NOT working on the energy body and you have NO IDEA, clue or experience there...well, just keep in mind that the market is going to want the evolution once they're aware of it.

If you're already a reiki healer or energy healer, you may not have comprehensively bridged these worlds together; but there is an opportunity for you as well to become an allure consultant if you value beauty and full soul expression - IF you can start really seeing into the future.

If you're already doing soul-based transformational work, you're probably closer to being an allure consultant than Beauty 1.0

professionals like hair stylists, etc. HOWEVER, there are things you would have to learn like reading archetypes and getting your values in alignment.

With this book and the continued influence of my work; the market is eventually becoming more aware that there is a powerful, direct way to get allure transformation and charisma results speaking the LANGUAGE of energy itself.

Traditional beauty professionals in general have their own areas of specialise and that doesn't include energetic allure consulting which works with auras, chakras, energetic health, releasing, healing, human design, archetypes, elements, chi, activations and essences.

In otw; if you call yourself a charisma coach or image consultant and yet you're NOT able to 'read' essences and work with chakras and so forth, you might really start getting left behind. There's room for more general image and style consultants of course; but really, charisma/allure consulting is its OWN area.

You could start preparing for this shift now however...start educating yourself on reading archetypes or getting into energy work years ahead of when you might really see yourself in demand.

I know that I'm not going to be able to possibly serve the entire market; that's the good news for real competitors.

I 'may' have to start training allure and charisma consultants once demand grows.

As of now; the only people I'm training to do actual charisma transformation work are the Muse Priestesses and to get into that is ridiculously pre-qualifying.

It is possible to get into the new language to be on the forefront of upcoming wave. Charisma consulting COULD even become its own billion dollar industry. Energy work and healing has been separate from Beauty 'directly' from what I've seen up until now. Sexy Chi infuses all of the right values and it's done in the Name of Muse.

You may want to specialize more in a certain area like Goddess visual transformation with your past background or something B/c what it takes to truly be an allure consultant is a VAST range of versatility to serve clients of all kinds of backgrounds. Anyways; it's more to process but charisma consulting FOR influencers alone could become massive.

So; speaking of working with professional charisma consulting...you'll want to be aware of this;

We have the e3 awareness and operational structure of allure consulting and transformation. In other words; your energy body and HOW essences are embodied and expressed.

It is through the vehicle of your auric (human) design and its energy body; your chakric and auric psyche related to the emanation of essences.

Now; there can be many BLOCKS to emanating essences including energetic health, trauma, conditioning, miasma, implants, hooks, demons and entities, etc. that are stored in your chakras that are preventing people from feeling you.

Some people not only have chakras that extend a few inches, but they are CLOGGED with programming and conditioning rather than living as SOUL-essence embodied with more spacious (powerful/beautiful) and pure temple space.

Their true self isn't actually 'breathing' in any room they're in.

Very personalized people not in service to the others in some way generally would have LIMITED access to embody and express the REAL divine power and beauty (which includes its authentic consciousness).

Thus; most people don't have much charisma and DO have a lot of CONDITIONING that is filling their chakras and aura instead. Their soul essence largely remains in the seat of their soul and not embodied b/c social programming and conditioning is filling their chakras on auto-pilot.

With the e3 awareness we have your auric design as well. I go into the 7 principles on the website so this is just an overview of some of it.

There ARE different types of auric designs which we are simply not going into here and now (you can explore it further and we do work on it in every activation session of mine however).

You have a unique auric design that has a lot to do with HOW you live and how the world reacts to you as well as how much divine practical power and beauty you could express and HOW it comes across. (Human Design / Gene Keys readings are available on-site and are included in the Charisma/Allure Makeover package).

To start working on your allure to MAXIMIZE your responsive, growth, star-vibe and influence itself; I'll make some recommendations at the end.

So let's start to draw this to a close and because these are new codes in translating allure more to early adopters and the public, I'm going to be reviewing and recapping a few more things we've brought up to also help you have clarity around the value of it, ok?

B/c of this unabridged format; hopefully it's helping you to soak things this new paradigm shift about the EVOLUTION of Beauty influence (and visual influence from social media) faster b/c of the new angles, inflection points (although somewhat repetitive). I'd use it as a review.

Allure is beauty that you can literally feel and that means holographically IMPACTING you from what otherwise looks like a 2D photo. Charisma (as power people can feel) REACHES FORWARD to engage and affect other people's energy bodies (less so their 'physical body by that kind of touch').

Here's a more recent example of 007 James Bond actor Daniel Craig

How'd you like to have your visual media working FOR you like starlets do 24/7 ENGAGING your followers and soul tribe without having to rely on over-thinking everything?

Then 'be' more!. It's more about BEING (more embodied) rather than 'acting' it (which is a core secret to acting).

How'd you like to get in touch with your true inner beauty and VISUALLY communicate it so that people can FEEL it and respond to you LIKE a starlet even before you're famous?

You could spend a small fortune and decades superficially soft-maxing your looks, but without realizing the truth that ESSENCE is the real currency of Beauty (b/c it's what the God-Lover fractal aspect would commune with); you might always remain unfulfilled and dissatisfied from your truest soul expression and the beauty influence POWER of its radiation to INFLUENCE.

BEAUTY IS MORE THAN SKIN-DEEP.

I think I've proven that throughout this power report.

BEAUTY AND INFLUENCE WITHOUT ALLURE should now be more a thing of the past; so feel free to share this book and my site with other.

The irony behind make-up is that it conceals who you are in a way. It can put on a 'front' of forms of archetypal power but you might not be that on the inside.

There are self-esteem issues that could fester from this disconnect between who you are comfortably with make-up on 'being seen' and getting attention vs. who you are with make-up off.

Would people still value and love you as much - give you as much attention?

But see...when you have feminine ALLURE and have cultivated your 'inner beauty' which is really the signature ESSENCED qualities of beauty consciousness that are uniquely what your soul desires to express (from the immortal spectrum of archetypal and siddhic feminine consciousness and beauty Light quanta)...

When you have such feminine allure that people literally FEEL emanating from your presence like we can FEEL the photo-chemical influence of the sun, you have real beauty influence.

You can do the best with the body you've been given (and improve it with fitness, etc.).

But; if you're just looking pretty, how are people going to FEEL you from a digital media or Instagram post from JUST your image? They're NOT. They might be going through their projected experience and judgment of you, but it's from disconnection rather than their higher soul self speaking to your soul self (making a handshake so to speak).

ALLURE ENGAGES PEOPLE to feel, care for and be ENGAGED with you (as per our many examples of charismatic celebs and influencers - and there are MANY more but this isn't a pictogram book).

In the world of social media influence, CHARISMA (and 'Allure') is the golden ticket (as well for female spirit-aligned entrepreneurs).

You could spend decades and a small fortune - but you won't ever reach king-making, devotion-inspiring, knight-christening, fandom inspiring, renaissance making levels of EFFORTLESS visual beauty influence from the FULL swan song expression of your soul by mastering skin-care...

You'll likely only remain unfulfilled on a deeper level because you lived a life where beauty was only skin-deep (the shadow of superficiality) when you always wanted it to be something more than make-up, hair care and style trends. (Have the best of both worlds; I say).

Beauty magazines and personal growth confused you about 'inner beauty' without directly translating that ON-CAMERA as vibe and light signature essences (like Queen, Vixen, Starlet, Peace, Majesty, etc.).

"Beauty fades...that's why we value it"

- Camille Paglia (Pro-Beauty Feminist)

"Physical beauty fades and yet essenced beauty is immortal NOW and is the other half of your literal visual communication b/c Image is Light and you are a soul"

- Rion Kati

That was like a chunky peanut butter quote of mine, but yeah.

Beauty is practically more than skin-deep; it's vibe and light-truth essences that we can now work with professionally (ref: e3, direct allure/charisma reading and consulting as well as the direct energy based session work).

Professionally speaking; your "inner beauty" is ESSENCED BEAUTY; that which translates to ON-CAMERA results that people can feel."

Allure (at it's best) can speak a million words. Ha! This book is about that length, so I could've just put 1 good alluring image up?! ;)

Why can charisma communicate a million words?

BECAUSE IT COMMUNICATES FAR MORE sexual, divine, psycho-sexual, spiritual, soulful, emotional and status information and value to create an immersive EXPERIENCE...like there's some people you just want to BASK in their aura/atmosphere.

Planet Starlet for example. You can offer your people this rather than just 'looking good' or 'looking the part'.

Charisma; the effortless EMANATION like a sun-star/let that allows people to FEEL YOU.

Allure is Beauty you can feel.

Charisma is Power you can feel.

...Even just from a still image. That's why some people just from image alone can get the lion's share of attention (remove the fame factor).

It conveys other qualities psychically and energetically about you; far more than words that people's soul and psyche value and understand or at least want more of.

Take a sensitive-intuitive person and see if they respond to someone's energy; charisma or allure and that is a gauge of them having it. Think of when you've had a jaw-dropping presence.

And you know that you've felt that around someone who had that 'special something' when they walked in the room or when you were in their presence.

It's not just with good looks....often someone will take your breath away and you can't stop 'these feelings' in how you're responding to their power or beauty somatically.

This is where the REAL game of power, beauty and influence is (essentially with spirit quanta because it's what everyone is seeking; the Holy Grail of Communion Sex & Spirit closer to Source of all Creation).

WITHOUT ALLURE (and essence enchantment of beauty actively) in your visual social media posts, videos and communications; you're basically looking good and likely spending decades mastering skin-deep expression. Your INFLUENCE relies on 'looking' the part instead of them FEELING you're entirely 'it'...or it relies on your talent and words and people may be less forgiving them – esp. when there's competition.

And even still; Beauty (and masculine power) IS more than skin-deep AND the Light of your visual social media IS communicating more information than JUST how you look physically.

Yes; we have conditioning and cultural conditioning around 'beauty norms' AND....beauty is so much more than that. I've said here before that 'inner beauty' practically (as far as it relates to camera) IS the flow of these essences through the channel of charisma/allure.

Remember; we're focusing JUST on maximum influence from still image in absentia of talent, character, niche specialty, subject matter expertise, education, personality, movement, etc. (and if you have those, great; it will further enchant things).

In fact; because allure is its own separate variable FROM physical beauty (yet both are interdependent in your official overall professional image), allure is essentially distinguished FROM how pretty you are or not; or how genetically gifted and good-looking you are. (That's why I have the Beauty Quotient and the Allure Factor image consulting tools).

Your skin at the best day of the week could be an 8.9 out of 10 of its potential for hydration and youth, etc. but your ALLURE could be at a 5.3 out of 10.

I'd maximize and value BOTH extrinsic and essence beauty; but understand that working professionally on your allure I'd say that it's just BEST to go direct with conscious competence.

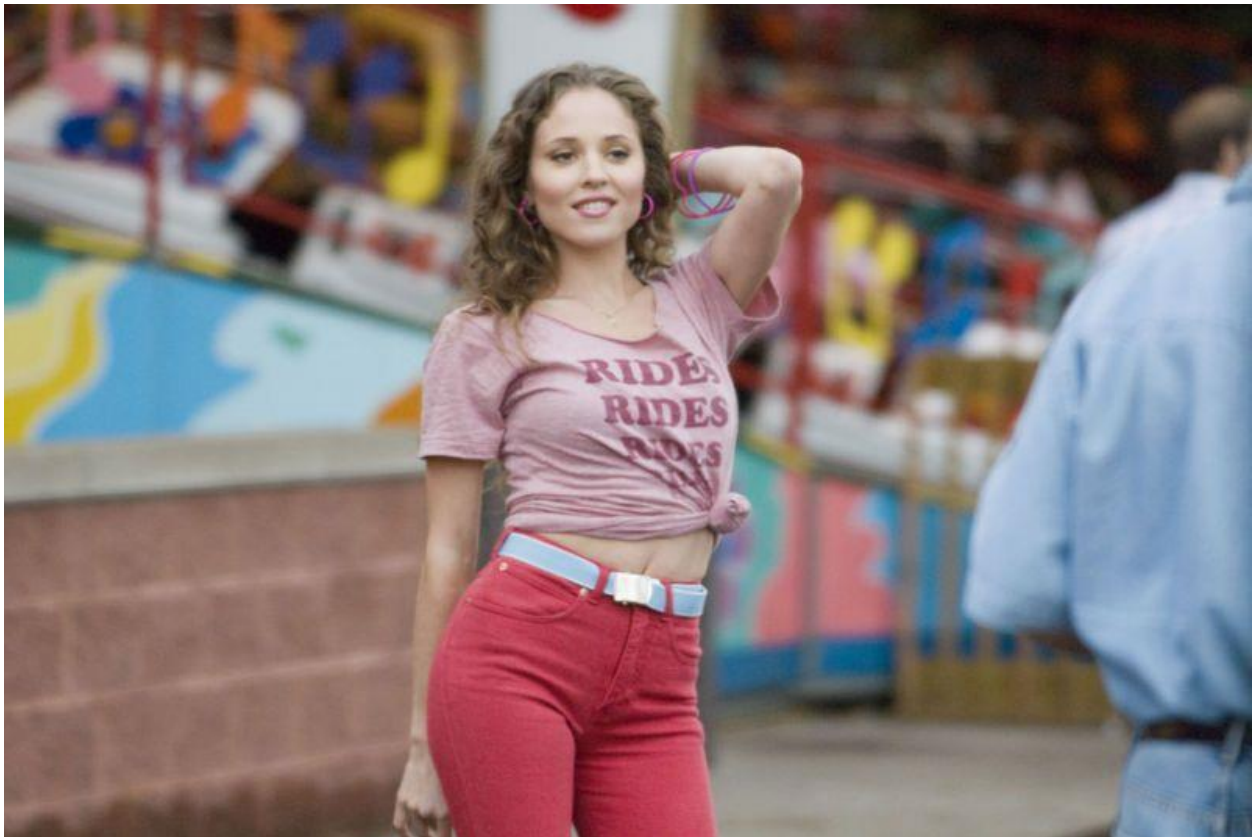

Unless you can SIT with a master in a shaktipat format to attune your field and consciousness in real-time otherwise...

The MOST direct thing you can do is get relevant, powerful energy work done on your light body itself which affects your archetypal and beauty consciousness itself; your presence and allure. People were calling me a master of this (and healer's healer) years ago.

In activation sessions (always potent); we literally bring in more of an archetypal essence and its spirit-quanta into the seat of your soul and chakric psyche embodiment after detoxing and making more space. I even share psychic 'actual' notes about the status of your chakras (including earthstar).

You could find just the right perfect hair color for that summer feel and yet people may still not 'feel you' if you aren't coming from the authentic, un-fakeable essenced CONSCIOUSNESS of liberation, boundlessness, wonder and emanating that in your vibe-truth (par example).

Speaking of summer...You can read about the Summer-Camp Muse archetype on-site btw.

If the archetypes are too much to take on or you're not ready for them; let's start with powerful energy healing DETOX to get miasmatic crap that's blocking at least your unique SOUL ESSENCE from being embodied so you can be more felt by others in your soul truth...and start getting instant feedback from people who know you.

(We do this in every session anyways and you can request an extended energy healing session in place of an activation session).

Having greater Beauty influence isn't really about 'cult of personality', looking like a cultural icon or archetype or over-functioning.

It's about effortless, alchemical INFLUENCE that draws the world, money, kings, provision, gifts, resources and gods to you and YOUR ORBIT...more and more people wanting to be in the atmospheric beauty of your signature brand vibe and light and the rest of your transmission level communication AS the brand of you.

BTW Ariana Grande's '7 Rings' MV does a great job with production design and tonal lighting, but cue into her allure itself...it's soft, warm and the pink tones highlight that 'sense' and 'atmosphere'.

She has a lot of Eros-Lover...soft, embodied and a warm electric auric tone-current with energetic health underneath...it's planet Ari where she at!

With MV production and design, having an awareness of what tones and archetypes you want to work with and now working on them for charisma mastery – it's something we can do to build upon the best of where things are...to just speak the language more. (Rion is available for hire).

Anyways;

There's actually a LOT at stake when we consider what's implicated from a timeline perspective. If you're NOT getting organic engagement and deeper engagement, are you ever going to SCALE to the in-self influence and success you desire living your best life?

You could take the non-charismatic version of yourself and keep doing content, marketing hacks, etc. vs. doing the exact same thing but also working on your charisma/allure and 3 years from now we're talking about an entirely different you and your community.

Wouldn't you rather be creating the timeline that MAXIMIZES influence in the real-time moment, first impressions, click throughs and inspires engagement that they choose to follow you CAUSALLY instead of looking you over or not feeling anything?

While simultaneously growing INTO the movie-star charismatic or alluring version of your avatar self incarnate?! (It's a journey).

The differential can be profound and it'd be good for advertisers to start A/B split testing CHARISMA as a variable and how it causally affects everything TOWARDS MAXIMAL SUCCESS even virality.

We can look at see that some influencers obviously have charisma, but ultimately...you just have to work on it for you AND being the best self FOR YOUR PEOPLE. Why not optimize the higher timelines of your stratospheric growth and influence by ensuring you're tapped into the universal currency of social media of charisma and allure itself?

After all; it's mood, state, consciousness and even DNA-Bending power of influence with true charisma.

If you want to get more ROI and ATTENTION, more attraction and conversion (fans, subscribers, clients) then it helps to have your beauty working FOR YOU and ENGAGING them even in stillness.

And then when you do speak; if it can be ESSENCED TRANSMISSION, this is far more effective than a logical, disembodied voice.

The most intuitive, future friendly clients want to FEEL your truth and know that you are the real thing. They can be endeared TO YOU and even fight battles for you on your behalf and reputation (online and elsewhere).

You want your soul tribe in more than just their logical ego channel relating with you right?

(Ok maybe not if you're Mr. smart phone reviewer).

With CHARISMA, they'll non-consciously BE more engaged emotionally and have more invested 'skin in the game'. It can tap into their 'deeper drivers'.

OTHER MEN do inherently respect and look up to CHARISMATIC MEN of POWER.

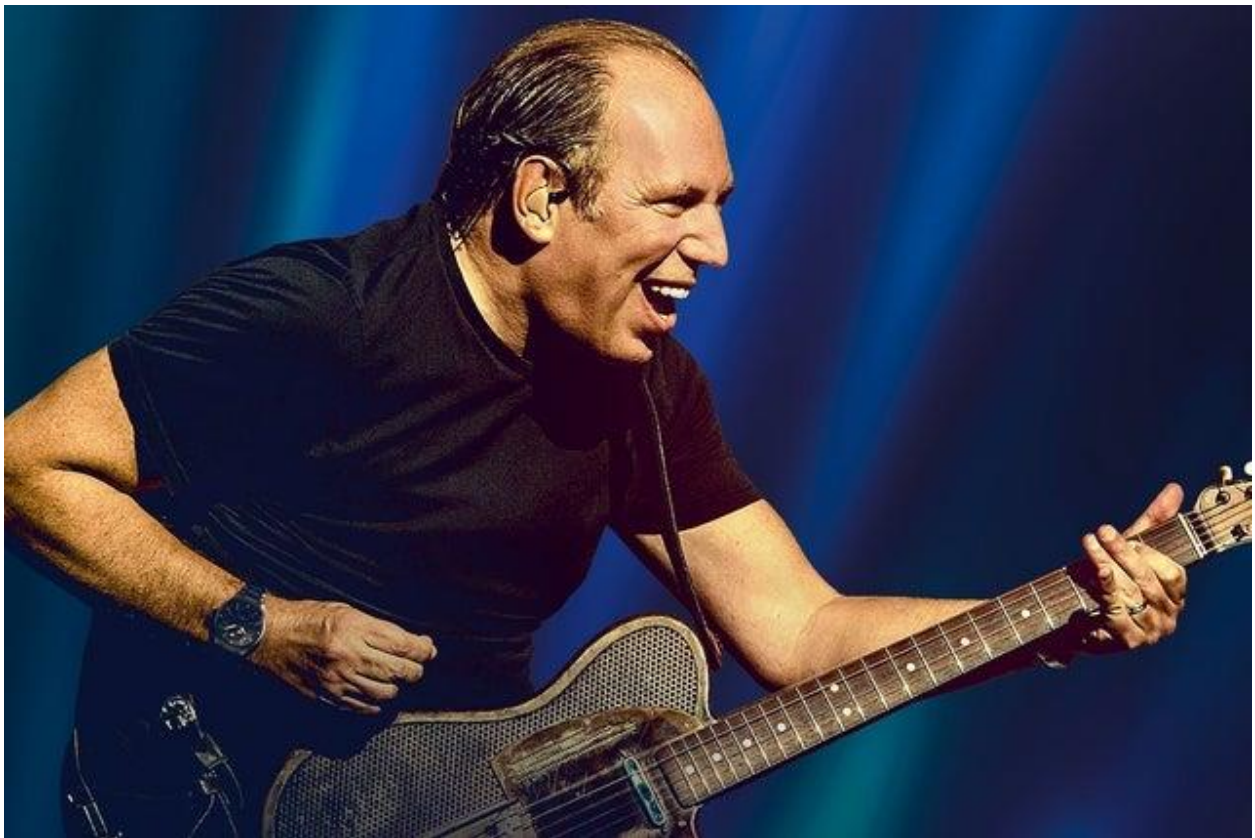

They want to BE LIKE THEM b/c it reminds them of what's possible for themselves as well. It's kinda non-conformist to stand out and live FROM POWER. (I know I'm mostly speaking to the feminine here but this report is just as much for the masculine; just have that interchange between charisma vs. allure 4 urself).

And you may not have the talent and vocal skills of a T.Swift to be able to write such emotional songs that people can OWN as their own.

Much of a diva's legacy power is associated with what I call 'emotional attribution'. When you can make anthems for people that feel like its 'their own'...it's a VERY powerful attention-getter like drug...and we can also work professionally direct on the LIVE and recorded charisma aspects with more of speaking that language and maximizing influence.

Speaking of HEART....Hans Zimmer has an awakened, charismatic loving HEART CHAKRA and THAT helps engage HIS live performances (yes, he has a live concert tour he's been running for years back).

It's a different way of perceiving isn't it? (Shifting from his skin-care and design brands to this).

This 'skill' can be cultivated even if you don't think you were 'born' psychic.

There's a deep heart relationship and investment with someone like that..b/c of the music but also b/c of where it's sourced from and his charisma which is congruent with what you would think as a master musician.

Also he has the Gene Key siddhi of 'secret-x' for his EQ (advanced charisma stuff I won't go into here, but it's embedded through his work and success).

I think that as successful as Taylor Swift is, allure is something she could work on because she comes across as more charismatic on stage and this is still part of the equation.

She is modeling her own mix of archetypes and some of that IS Western empowered woman (and Boss-Babe Diva) so the charisma is there moreso than allure which she could cultivate more and play around with.

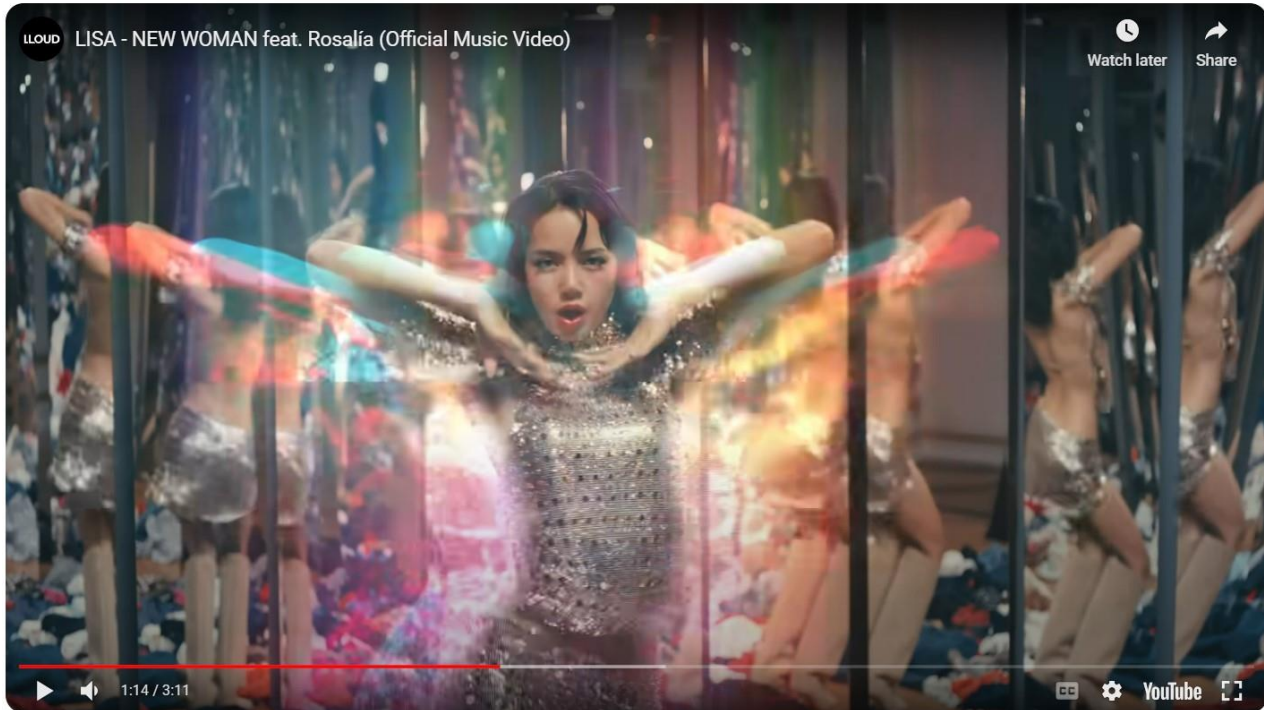

Why? Because she might want to GO SOFTER INTO WARM FEMININE ESSENCE for some of her songs and for her to do THAT would be literally even more MAGIC and phenomenon for the audience as they can also feel more into the softness of that song somatically. I haven't seen Eras Tour (maybe she's already doing this).

AGAIN; YOU MAY NOT HAVE THAT TALENT and market advantage if you're not already a top artist. She's definitely earned it of course....let's work on YOU becoming YOUR fullest.

Here we're just talking about beauty influence itself (esp.) if you're NOT talented or a celebrity who has the ability to engage people's emotions like that as an INFLUENCER (in whatever way you're influencin').

We're talking about your VISUALS ALONE DOING THAT. We're talking about #fomo inducing beauty where they MISS your signature fragrance and feel they want to be closer!

After all, you should be revvin' up your au-au-au-au-aura

Again; take any BTS member and put them in a random coffee shop and people will sense there's 'something about them' even if they can't recognize them (this again; proves the concept of charisma ; and charisma coaches will say it's about posture and self-'confidence').

Remember; the CONFIDENCE, BODY LANGUAGE, self-esteem, beliefs come FROM THE ESSENCE ARCHETYPAL TRUTH. It's mostly IMPERSONAL.

You don't have to 'figure it out in your head' on how to be charismatic....besides, it is ero-SOMATIC anyways. It's about power and your energy body moreso than replicating body language techniques (sigh).

It (real power and integrated divine status which is above social status) cannot be faked....

Essence has to do with your IDENTITY and identity consciousness, so are you giving yourself room and space to embody immortal archetypal spirit quanta of Queen, Goddess, Sorceress, etc. to even have transcendent beauty-power (and to deliver it in Heart, Sex/sacral, Solar Plexus, etc. with unthrottled essence flow)?

Digital media is meta-physical; yet still communicates power, status and influence (mostly to our non-conscious; yet some of us are becoming more 'aware').

Remember earth-only Thorg-aspect;

People literally cannot FEEL YOU physically from your visual media; they're relying on LIGHT information (and we've covered this a lot).

What are the ELEMENTS of your aura (atmosphere)? Like the sky has nitrogen and oxygen as well as other particles...you can be planet Bad-Bitch or Grail-Lover Heroine.

With allure, your light and vibe-truth can TOUCH someone energetically b/c radiance radiates.

If they can't feel you or be compelled in that first impression of a split second; they're more likely to keep scrolling or JUDGE you b/c they're not connected physically to you.

We're not usually causally aware; we just click on things that speak to us but alluring and charismatic 'recommended' videos - you yourself KNOW that you're more likely to check them out as well or add a new instagram influencer b/c of their vibes.

Sometimes it's subject matter areas you click on of course, but when it's JUST VISUALS, you and I are more likely to ENGAGE with someone who has charisma...you can catch yourself doing this even!

Without charisma; they may feel something is off about things if you're doing business or content marketing. You want to EMBODY YOUR BRAND and communicate it in all dimensions and all centers (Heart, etc.)

ALLURE BYPASSES THIS 'separation-disconnect' by allowing people to instantly and somatically FEEL your beauty; your vibe and light truth. In an attention era, this magical ability is INVALUABLE. It's kind of like the mirror neuron effect.

Think of how you FELT someone somatically in YOUR body who had real allure or charisma when you were near their body. YOUR BODY couldn't deny what you were FEELING. You felt influenced b/c they had a somatic effect on your eros-body, heart, mind and sex (and other people DIDN'T).

I might have to give out prizes for anyone who FINISHES this book in its entirety btw but I had to have the freedom to just blitz this out in a maelstrom fashion)

Allure/charisma has this SAME powerful effect in digital media. We can still FEEL charismatic and alluring people from digital 2D images!

We covered quite a bit that this is b/c sentient-light of photo-chemical essenced Beauty (of allure radiance) affects consciousness kinda like getting hit with the sun's solar rays.

I also covered that...

Feminine essence emanation of archetypal, siddhic and elemental vibe and light frequencies of Truth (aka 'allure') are also why k-pop MV's are consistently viral and a core secret as to why they're a phenomenon; they have the high value, high voltage CURRENCY of allure; essentially TRANSMUTATIONAL, transformational levels of DNA bending BEAUTY that alchemically INFLUENCES people in presence (renewing their somatic engagement) from radiance.

Doesn't matter if mass consumer consciousness cannot yet describe what they're sensing and what's going on...they're still RESPONDING!

T-ARA are just another stellar example of Muse-Starlet allure and beauty influence.

People who have this 'x-factor'; when they walk in a room, people FEEL IT. Talent shows? Central stuff as well.

THAT'S INVALUABLE for all stage performance (unless perhaps you're an instrumentalist or French horn player; hey, I played euphonium).

That same POWER of essence (the gold CURRENCY of the attention economy) is magically and undeniably coming across in what otherwise looks like 2D digital photos.

As a media alchemist, I'm very experienced in knowing the power of beauty for alchemical transmutation of consciousness including literal healing.

That's premium Masculine and Feminine power. The power to TRANSFORM people and shift their state of consciousness from a freeze-frame or still photo.

The highest levels of beauty-radiation (allure) essentially reach priestess and king-making levels of POWER that someone could entirely TRANSFORM THEIR CONSCIOUSNESS through the Law of Resonance to be EQUAL to that power in presence.

This is related to Hieros Gamos alchemy as well; transformation of self by attuning to the Power or Beauty of the Beloved.

...Power to REUNIFY the world.

Power in the realm of goddesses and archetypes indeed. Feminine beauty (essenced power) that you can also cast your siddhic beauty spell fragrance like an atmospheric perfume wherever you go that people's energy bodies pick up on and then drive attention to you.

...Even head-turning and jaw-dropping attention esp. b/c you represent the REAL THING, not just looking good. It's integrated when you have Presence and Allure (well, at the levels of integration that you have).

Your aura literally touches THEIR AURA and their higher self LISTENS and feels.

I'd give your SOUL the power to take on such Beauty or Power to be more charismatic...to be who you really want to be without compromise! (As long as it doesn't take away from others)

Your egoic self identity may be too constricted and you could never feel you're worthy to relate to the other most powerful and beautiful; the real goddesses, etc. but what does the identity of your SOUL say?

Keep in mind that you cannot rely on fame itself if you're not yet famous.

Many who are famous will tell you that it's a 'house of cards' and can lead to other problems, doubts and self-esteem issues. That scale of attention will magnify your foundation and bring in new opportunities and challenges.

We want you to have STABLE and scalable allure that is aspirational beauty that other women want to secretly BE (like) and other men want to be WITH (energetically); yet without manipulation b/c the POWER of beauty is its own attraction force.

Think of the IMPACT that is FOUNDATIONAL in this example of CLC member Choi Yujin who is auditioning (high stakes) on a talent show for another group.

Because of this performance she ended up being the lead of the new group (Kep1er):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dQ7Wx61cRz4>

Note that she can some amazing and instant allure that is wow-ing them...it's not just her 'dance moves are down'. Her radiance is bubble popping the judges right here:

You might want to re-watch it a few times to cue in to the allure and influence dynamics. ALL of the judges start moving and are getting engaged with it b/c they FEEL her...even the most closed off one from the start.

I've talked about her (this muse) elsewhere; she has an AMAZINGLY bright and lit aura at alchemical levels. It would be hard NOT to feel her presence in any room and how it affects the tone of everyone.

And here she is at K-Con being the CENTER of the main chorus part in front of all those people.

Her allure was PRO-fessional and optimized in the fullness of that moment (presence) when she had that major chance of a fork in the road (she was in CLC previously).

When we start valuing more clearly that essence is the 'gold itself' that people are wanting to connecting or reunify with spiritually, sexually and soulfully - and we consider that K-pop is so visually centric;

I'd go as far as to say that essenced allure is the PRIME value moreso than individual 'personality' in K-Pop underneath the styling and talent. Remember; their image IS LIGHT...and really this DANCE of Light. Consumers/users/fans/stans get to know more the ARCHETYPAL and beautiful version of them...

Live Music performance is not much focused on their individual personalities until you get into quirky side programs, interviews and variety show appearances they always film where you get to know them more individually and EVEN THEN, it's a mix of their ESSENCED, alluring self AND their personality which DRIVES user/fan/stan attraction and engagement with them.

They know to ALWAYS HAVE IT ON (their allure). It maximizes their user influence and engagement.

(Did I just call them 'users' Tron?)

There's many of those shows if you click around youtube where they or audience members will do fun-dumb games or interact with the idols and they're alluring and expressed the entire time. Leverage those as your own masterclass to tune into allure as well.

Here's a link for further exploration:

<https://www.yahoo.com/video/16-variety-shows-starring-favorite-163103984.html>

Remember that many images are CLICKABLE in this book to do further, extended discovery and integration.

We want the real secret ingredient and ideally one that is FOUNDATIONALLY sound and healthy for your psyche; one that IS scalable to the stars but also fortunately connected TO your spiritual growth and integrity (that's allure btw). This includes understand that Beauty itself (the higher truth) is that;

Beauty is THE alchemical Language of Light.

I think I've introduced that quite well throughout (albeit quite redundantly b/c of the format of this inaugural release).

Did you like my planetary example?

That image itself is multi-dimensional LIGHT meaning that your visual communication is more than just your planetary body for all of our (Beauty 1.0) focus on it; it's also the atmosphere, light show, aurora, planet-vibe and mood, weather, storms, rain, sunshine and ALL of this effectively comes across in your media as well AS ESSENCES.

The thing is, you can be 'like' a planet AND a sun b/c there isn't really a limit to how far your aura can extend and how much quanta it can contain.

If you're a powerful/beautiful, sexy soul...time to SHOW IT!

Often your 'energy body' (of Sentient-Light) is doing MOST of the communication to your people non-consciously and to more psychic, aware people, they are more conscious of these qualities (for all that we focus on 'personality', etc.).

Even photos of the earth have the lower density 'matter' and the atmosphere but the equivalent would be that we exclude the atmosphere, weather, exosphere and ONLY focus on the body. With charisma/allure consulting, we're shifting to the higher frequency truth that is with the denser body.

The previously 'je ne sais quois' undefinable qualities of 'vibe', "there's something about them", "confidence" and aura are now definable and workable light qualities of professional essence consulting and allure or vibe-maxing and light-maxing.

Beauty IS Sentient-Light Radiation. For millennia we were just focused on (and attached to) the physical, ROYGBIV spectrum of it and made so many attachments and conditioning around it.

Remember; this is key to UNDERSTANDING Beauty influence (and breaking the Matrix code's suppression) as well as how to MAXIMIZE it practically and FAST for yourself SOON and start reaping the benefits of all the goodness.

I want to make this point really clear - because it is incredibly powerful to grasp and integrate this (also because much of media is being used AGAINST people or women or causing more suppression instead of liberation, renaissance, healing, inspiration and greater true beauty).

When you can get people to magically FEEL feminine sex, beauty or qualities of feminine essence in your visual media, you have a true super power and could really LIVE LIKE A STAR or STARLET.

The engagement aspect alone is invaluable (and you can still have authority over the dials wherever you go).

And that POWER can be used for good (or it can be used to exploit or seek superficial gains and it can be used to suppress, destroy and psychically imprison people as well).

Keep in mind that many consumers and social media users are waking up and want to deal with TRUTH and honesty in relation to all the onslaught of advertising, distractions and the potential manipulation and fraud.

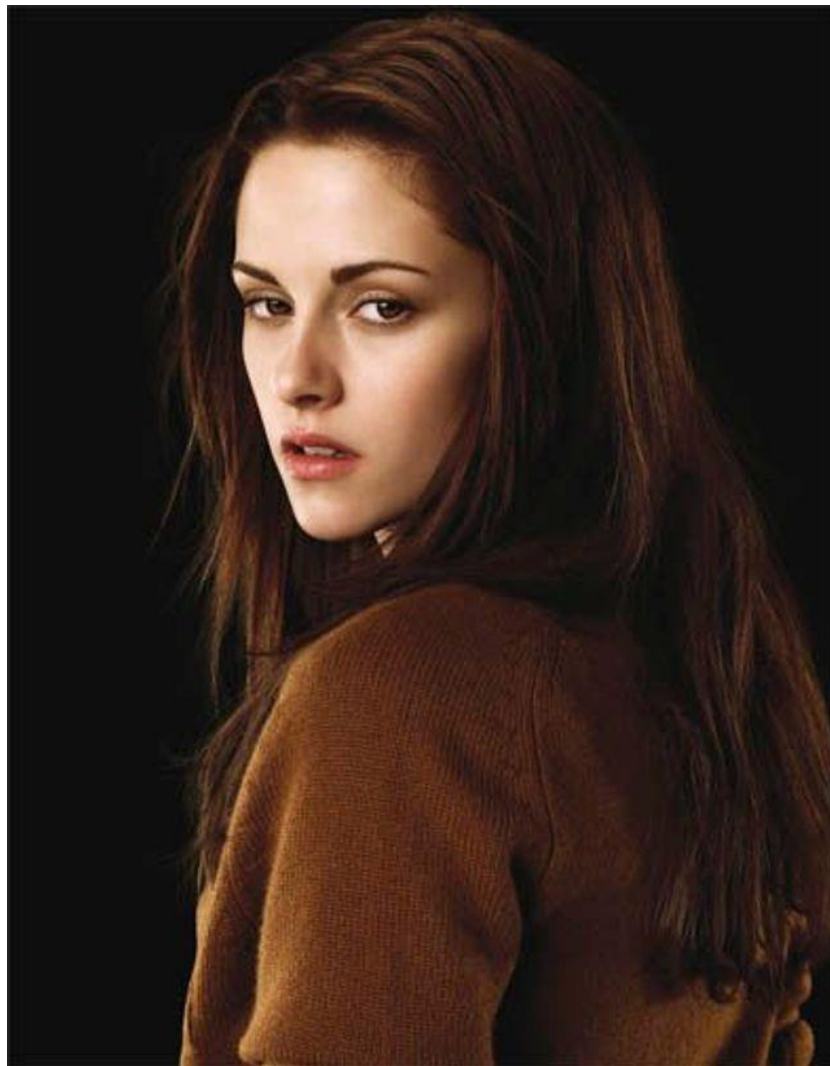

Allure gives you that stable, RELIABLE yet exciting customer and soul-tribe building INTEGRITY of authentic self and trustworthiness that's missing out there. It gets them to feel by being MORE of who you truly are and communicating your inner beauty AS ESSENCED beauty signatures of vibe and light-truth in your presence and live visuals.

B/c you could have all the 'social media' marketing and tricks but if you don't have CHARISMA and its organic engagement; it won't matter as much.

Are you going to have people jump through all kinds of hoops to win prizes spending millions of dollars on consumable videos like Mr. Beast? Probably not. Stupid pet tricks?

Maybe...but by improving your allure and charisma directly, you'll be able to get far more engagement and response with your people as well as referability. It's about bringing your BEST SELF OUT and it may not be an egregious, out-spoken kind of way at all...that's part of the beauty of all of this.

Even K.Stews slightly dark, introspective 'moodiness' vibed allure helped with the character for Twilight and the marketing.

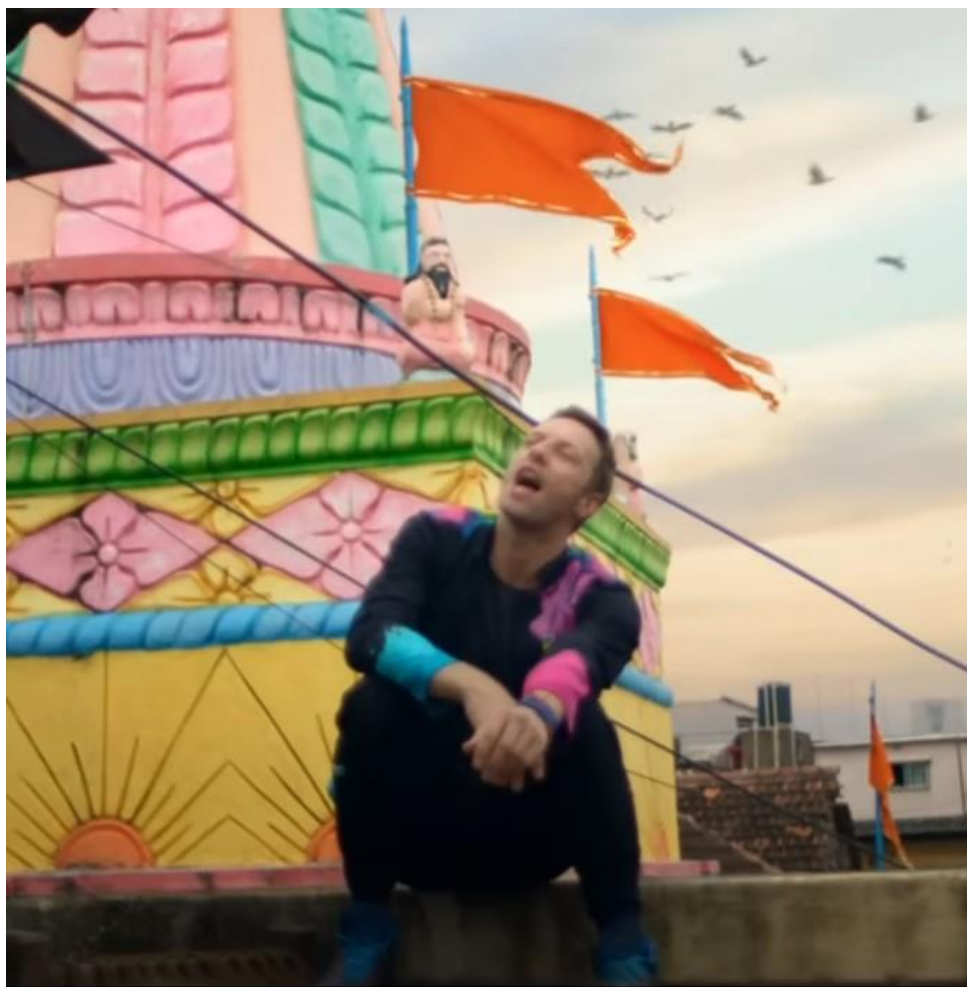

It helps bring draw viewers into that world and attune to her emotional state believably.

The dark and autumn tones and coloring helps with scenery and wardrobe but JUST as much a critical factor is her auric design of a projector which soaks environmental energy inwards. I talk about this in other places.

Remember we can always speak to STYLING but it's best to view the charisma dynamic (including embodiment of different essences, archetypes and HOW they are embodied and expressed) as its own element.

Chris Martin of Coldplay has this auric energetic quality that soaks in the environment as well.

The more you learn to 'read' and 'see' the truth that is, you'll be able to more clearly discern it...and this really takes you in with the 'Hymn' MV b/c even with him in the taxi cab, he's wonderously soaking in the environment drawing YOU in and then adapting to the environment so it's very immersive; his charisma is a key part of the experience...deeper, richer and that MV has over 2billion views.

Remember; we're focused specifically on beauty influence and more influence FROM your visual media; but also the core, meta secret behind driving attention itself to you, your brand and so forth...and this is where my theory comes in of predicting the future currency of beauty influence and social influence.

Here's another simple example of charismatic energy that helps to be felt and create an engaging and immersive experience with Gente de zona.

See; the performers are ALREADY SUCCESSFUL and charisma has been EMBEDDED in their live performance and visuals for YEARS here...we're just becoming more aware of it as its own standalone area OF being a core element of performance that is separate from style/looks-maxing or body transformation.

The currency of charisma is going to further drive ATTENTION and engagement organically in an Attention Economy of social media.

This secret ingredient is ALREADY encoded in wild success especially in many music videos.

Charisma itself is often an overlooked and under-stated thing itself b/c people are focused on other things in the success of a song or music video (and haven't been able to 'define' to quantify it).

Again; I think that the easiest and most stable place to see it is in K-Pop (allure).

K-Pop now generates over $5billion in annual revenue as an industry!

Their music industry is now the world's 6th largest market (and growing!).

In Western MV's there's often a lot of 'fronting' energy rather than essenced flowing energy and if you have masculinized shells, your visual transmission is going to come across as more charismatic than alluring.

Again; Tina Turner (R.I.P.) I'd say has a powerful stage presence, but is more charismatic than alluring (Gillian spoke to this while recognizing her legendariness).

There might be something to mention about the 'tradwife' and 'softgirl era' concepts. Those influencers might be some of the early adopters.

In today's age, you have an opportunity for EVERYTHING to be more successful with ALL of your individual media pieces ie. instagram posts, reels, photo shoots, performances or youtube videos. With real charisma/allure, you're going to maximize those to work for you in gathering more attention 24/7.

Want an example of MEGA success with allure? I've mentioned them before in this power report:

The K-Pop group TWICE. BILLIONS of youtube views. Hyper-fans (ONCE), fan-sites, sold out concerts worldwide.

Is it 'just' the catchy music and great styling? No.

See; K-pop (as the industry grew), was smart to put more of a value INTO the visuals behind all of their production, content and marketing. They also valued attention obviously.

They were also smart to let allure thrive and now they are reaping the rewards in a system that values it foundationally.

You too can leverage these top-level secrets. I'm not sure everyone can understand or comprehend it yet, but TWICE has priestess level beauty and that is a LOT of power. They have mega-influence (including growing in Western culture).

The alchemical allure connects with my concept of Beauty Priestesses which could be a future trend for beauty influencers to actually make money 'sitting with', healing and transforming men in their field on Instagram videos; bridging and reunifying their consciousness and presence in real time (part of the way at least). Transformational Beauty!

Remember;

Allure is beauty people can palpably yet sensitively FEEL (whether they're conscious of it or not)....it paints an EXPERIENCE an immersion for them..tunes them in to these other areas of communication soulfully and spiritually and those tones and palettes (much of what they're missing in their daily life).

Think of when you had strong attraction to a man b/c of his presence and charisma and you wanted to leap out of your skin and not give away that you were interested TOO much. He didn't have to say a word did he? That's the power of what we're talking about.

"But I'm not worthy of emanating like that" THAT'S YOUR LOWER SELF and conditioning. I think your may SOUL KNOW that it may be ready for the beauty, relatability and communion with power and vice versa that you desire.

And when they (your people; subscribers, clients) can feel it, they are engaged and are more likely to RESPOND b/c you have the SPIRITUAL and SEXUAL currency of the DIVINE and your higher self communicating.

You; living as the movie starlet version of yourself FULLY INTEGRATED without the shadow aspects of fame. Sexy Chi supports that fullness and expansion.

ESSENCE CHARISMA allows you to communicate much more value in the same attention-span deficit society time. You can pick from what your soul desire to activate like in the Charisma Makeover or 3-session pack with me.

Think of the POWER to have third-dimensional holographic, fourth dimensional psychic and 5th dimensional LIGHT influence on people magically in and from your 'flat' 2D pixelated videos and images in social media. And to have them organically want or even DESIRE to click and connect with you.

You have signature qualities that you may have not claimed or expressed yet! (even reclaimed)

THAT'S what having charisma (masculine) or allure (feminine) does. It super-naturally draws attention (esp. on those higher band-widths) so you want to be EMANATING with your chakras opened so people can feel you and have resistances to your soul self embodied - removed from your chakric psyche so there's less conditioning and more YOU.

Keep in mind that the desire for CONNECTION and feeling intimacy and building trust in social media is going to grow. Why not have hardcore fans and clients that will follow you anywhere and to other platforms?!

When you have engaging allure like Brett Cooper does with millions of youtube subscribers, it compels them. Yes, you want quality content, so maybe see what she's doing (even if you don't agree with her politics).

Sure; she has her own content and that's what people will focus on; the obvious superficial thing...but allure is the real 'secret' ingredient we overlook. SHE GOT IT!

When you tune into it after reading this book (or during), it should start becoming clear. I'd recommend to start viewing other social influencers from the lens of charisma and tuning in to see if you can feel them.

Russell Brand has content and yet he also has charisma (feelable visual presence) for his youtube channel (granted he was already famous, BUT he reinvented himself and is reaching to a new crowd entirely...a reinvention of sorts and is thriving with millions of subscribers as an influencer and political commentator).

You might not have the body of a Jen Selter or the talent to be able to do unique watersport tricks like this influencer to get attention and followers;

But when you start cultivating your allure, you're going to get more response and engagement like my clients do from their social media....even if you're JUST a beauty influencer WITHOUT TALENT or skillz or fame or what have you.

Why? BECAUSE CHARISMA IS THE UNDER-CURRENT & GOLD CURRENCY itself (of attention and influence)...if you're JUST charismatic and alluring, you're already FASCINATING to much of the population - also b/c not many people ARE.

Your ideal fans and clients will also start coming out of the woodwork when YOU radiate out the bat signal that draws them in and allow yourself to shine in your truth (more specifically your signature vibe and light-truth which can be comprised of archetypal, soul signature and other essenced qualities through your auric design).

We live in a vibrational universe!

If you don't have allure (or what I also call 'photonic beauty');

If you don't cultivate it; you could spend years of having celebrity level styling and still not accessing your anti-aged energetic health and signature essences that your soul desires to be in your magnified and aligned beauty. You could be disappointed with the low engagement with your people. Your heart, eros-sex, soul and Spirit qualities may be TURNED OFF and flat in communicating.

Without allure/charisma, you're probably going to be struggling to gain attention unless you have quirky content or 1-trick pony shows or what have you in order to stand out.

Without allure; people are less likely to be engaged by your visual media and are more likely to keep scrolling b/c you're just another pretty face (and oh shit if you're not even that then). Allure brings the SOUL AND SPIRIT ...the breathing-ness of communication into your media...fills it with life.

..Where your beauty transcends your 'talent' or 'quirky personality' (but rather amplifies and magnifies it in all the right ways – people will also be more forgiving when they feel you).

Maybe you have shadows communicating in your aura and chakras that are giving people weird vibes that don't resonate with what you want to communicate – and you aren't even aware of it.

If we're only focused on the extrinsic, superficial 'looks' and the world of Beauty 1.0; hair, styling and so forth we're missing out on WHAT actually has the deeper human to human, soul to soul beauty INFLUENCE itself (aside from pre-conditioned fame and following); the CURRENCY itself. I think I've helped you to 'see' it in this Never-ending power report.

This book experience doesn't have to be about over-saturation...remember our Treasure cove analogy? Maybe you only read random pages a few at a time here and there and that was the best way to do it. (It could fry your brain otherwise).

Remember, you can always just get allure consulting with me if you're just wanting fastest results and real transformation.

It's about time that we finally value the prime component of professional beauty that people could only allude to until now; allure and charisma.

You could have someone who is not traditionally 'beautiful' and yet have amazing allure and vice versa. (The whole concept behind the movie 'Shallow Hal').

We might THINK that it's fame or status itself.

We might think that it's PERSONALITY or 'positive self-image'.

We might think that it's TALENT - and people might even refer to themselves as 'the talent'. But it's not talent or character...even skillset mastery with BEAUTY influence per se.

Even with an actor if they could just EMBODY their character personality ENERGETICALLY with those qualities in stillness...that's the deeper mastery and THEN everything stems from there (the lines and blocking, etc.)

I've mentioned years ago how Christian Bale embodies the energetics of the character...we can FEEL the vibe and charisma which makes the role, experience, character and movie more kinetic and engaging in 'The Fighter'

Granted; in certain areas, BEAUTY (and really allure for FUTURE success and deep impact and wild fans) and talent are essentially required to succeed as...an artist, a dancer, etc. but again; we're focused on the core peak variable of Beauty itself and HOW it influences as well the PLATFORM currency itself of the real and future GAME itself.

To further recap;

So what's ACTUALLY being exchanged that would be the most accurate, valuable thing possible? And remember, we're talking just from a still image and MAXIMIZING the VALUE of that to be EXCHANGED (or given value to for fans, clients money, subscriptions, attention).

It's ESSENCE. Presence spirit-plasma high-frequency signatures or qualities of light and vibe truth that people can FEEL.

You can GIVE THIS TANGIBLE and holographic VALUE as experience to others 'live' or in recorded media when you have open channels of charisma/allure and esp. when you have more awakened frequencies (ie. Siddhic or 5D archetypes).

It's chi/essence.

And that is literally POWER ITSELF (embodied). DIVINE POWER. B/c your soul is connected to Spirit for as much as we attach, identity and associate with the physical body-vessel.

(Who you really are...-Kirtana - for extended contemplation)

Chi itself is sentient power, beauty and light.

Remember; chi/qi IS verified empirically by millions of tai chi and chi kung practitioners around the world. (For a deeper study which might be over-kill right now #af, I'd look into my Theory of Fotonic Quanta aka 'PHQ'...but at least you know it's around if/when you'd ever be ready for it).

Sure; there are other forms of power (hydro-electric, solar power, nuclear, etc.) but let's not get it confused.

Amongst the sentient souls (and with our value of influencing others and social media influence); POWER is sourced from God/Source/The Universe (although not everyone may agree, it's obvious with the Spirit logic).

This is a different spectrum that co-exists with the astro-bio physical world and EMF Light. We may view it just as 'social status' or 'financial wealth' ...these are FORMS of power, but we're talking power that is WITH someone. Power you can feel; embodied (and expressed).

Electric power.

"Wait a minute....did you say ELECTRIC?" Like a current that's running from a 2D photo into MY OWN chakras and eros-soma body that I can feel in my heart (and even womb)?

Yeah; that's powerful isn't it? That kind of INFLUENCE.

Kinetic...electric...charged...ionic influence.

The kind that EXCITES PEOPLE and gets their palms sweaty and breathing heavier (without having to AI engineer the write copy writing words to manipulate er affect their state).

ORGANICALLY.

Now put that freeze-frame of Beauty in slow-motion and we have essences moving and dancing as a CURRENT and CURRENCY of spirit-quanta VALUE that engages people.

You can't ever get enough of such heaven on earth. THAT is why some people are light years ahead of others who merely 'look like it', but others can't FEEL the power of a star or starlet.

It's about the CHI as current/cy running through their own energy body (chakras and aura). You mean like a Rock Starlet Siren vibe I can feel like that bassist from Måneskin?

And of course the band itself has charisma.

Yes; archetypal, impersonal power and beauty...not just 'attitude'.
The consciousness of 'Rock gods' (b/c we ARE more than just bio meat suits).

Social media is here to stay from here forward and more people can now become INFLUENCERS without the trad-paths.

Visual media is central to modern world connection, communication, business and influence.

Because charisma is this future mega-trend I predict;

Uno thing commercial advertisers could do (once they get wind there is more direct consulting with all of this) is to learn to read allure, archetypes and charisma themselves and hire the right models and actors for the job who ARE more charismatic.

Or they could hire me or a Muse Priestess to do the consulting and transformational work FOR the greater purpose of the gig.

I've seen ads 'that work' with allure. (Pre-Muse here).

You now have the awareness to step onto the path of cultivating FAR, FAR greater influence with the current and currency of social influence and beauty influence: charisma/allure! Which brings out your BEST self and multi-d authentic communication ANYWAYS.

And don't you want people to feel a CURRENT from your still images as well as your videos? Something that SPARKS SOMETHING within them? That's kinda priceless.

Isn't there more POWER when they can feel it effortlessly instead of having to master those weird ping pong tricks or 'Dude Perfect' on a tiktok video for attention? (OK; not THOSE ping pong tricks). Sure, there's a market for everything.

Don't your VIDEOS and reels become more compelling when there is a feelable CURRENT (and thus CURRENCY) in your 'image' (more than just intellectual 'content knowledge' or 'education' marketing)?

So I hope you can see and value the concept of allure more clearly now. Divine status and consciousness is both liberated from the maya-matrix and yet can thrive within it in soul-freedom beauty and expression. (TWICE and other groups like early SNSD are examples of this esp. when in peak performance).

When we remove the variables of fame, art, talent, personality (and those add to brands and intellectual property or artists legacy), and if we just focus on IMAGE, beyond just brand recognition isn't the underlying VALUE or currency itself essence?

The same charisma someone can feel live in person at a concert converted to a youtube video could also be seen as a current. IT HELPS US FEEL CONNECTION.

When it comes to BEAUTY, ESSENCE is the CURRENCY moreso than fashion trends which has its own constructionist architecture and is generally not as deep.

The BEST of fashion can evoke certain moods and such like Rick Owens (and his fashion shows)...there are many tools to master YOUR self-expression including STYLE - but without directly taking on your charisma (which we can now do); you may not ever reach where you want to be in presence (fastest or ever).

Hey; I'm doing looks-maxing things too like teeth whitening, jaw-zercizing, etc. but charisma work is PRIME (which includes cultivating more soul signature embodiment mix of my chosen and valued archetypes and siddhic qualities) to give MY signature charismatic influence (and its versatility). It's central to visual communication and selling.

The medium of exchange, power influence is more in that which we can FEEL (and the greater dynamic game aforementioned that is 'driving' things in multiple dimensions).

Most of the known essences are high-frequency spirit-MATTER. Even your soul is likely purer than it seems (although there are malevolent and corrupted souls), but there just might be literal energy blocks that are holding even just that from being properly embodied and expressed; the real you (aside from the egoic conditioning of self-identity attachment)..the more presenced you.

So are you ready to dive into cultivating expressing your own boundless signature beauty?

Allure/Charisma is available to potentially all to access globally; universally...not just to re-open our energy centers and auras but to really embody and express OUR signature forms of power and beauty.

It may be called different things in different languages; but it's the same core Communion concept of Power and Beauty. Beauty is attracted to power and power is attracted to divine feminine beauty.

We usually just focus on lower manifestations of it (like financial power and sugar babies)...and then get distracted with all kinds of other distortions or complications and yet it is still primordial. Maybe you have judged lower or distorted forms of power instead of being aware of what real, divine power is?...

Beauty IS feminine essenced power and divine status (beyond constructionist cultural status) because the authentic presence and radiation of the immortal divine feminine and her spectrum of light-truth is ancient.

That's also why (imo) mainstream celebrities are befriending K-Pop idols and doing more collaborations. They've got that 'impression of increase' with their authentic divine beauty that's broken free from the Western matrix. It's giving cues and clues for our own Ascension.

Mortal men cannot compare to immortal feminine presence and consciousness. And this (in general) is what's driving all the markets; the emotional, sexual spiritual FRACTURE and the DESIRE for REUNIFICATION with Beauty;

aka THE HOLY GRAIL.

The Holy Grail of COMMUNION.

Sacred Reunification.

BEAUTY is the feminine presence aspect of God/dess consciousness, truth and timelessness as/in radiant Presence.

ALL sentient human beings (the only ones we know incarnate who have potential access to the full spectrum unlike animals; sorry 'rex') have the ability to ACCESS such BEAUTY and authentic pure POWER.

And we have a sense of it when we run across people who have ‘the gold currency’ itself...allowing themselves (?) to be SEEN and uniquely expressed in their soul and other signature essences.

(NO idea who that is but has charisma)

Charismatic presence....this is archetypal power and consciousness here from centuries ago we're working with (as well as more modern archetypes) that are accessible.

ACTORS and actresses - remember - give themselves REASON for such identity transformation. I think you might have reason now as an influencer to open up to embodying more power and beauty (not filtered through your personality per se or egoic identity and mental channel but in EMBODIMENT of your SOUL and it's larger truth).

In its purest form, power = chi (spirit force of life).

Not just 'energy', b/c there is a difference between EMF bio-natural world forms of energy that we know of in Science vs. the multi-dimensional sentience of Spirit itself; our life force.

Power (masculine) and Beauty (feminine) essences are frequency bands of sentient spirit-matter emanation (aka 'Light'). I like to differentiate between EMF spectrum (photonic light) and sentient light (ϕ otonic).

We can actually learn to 'see', feel and know these essences and their signatures... Through time you can learn to 'read' the archetype signatures, etc.

It's really like the practical Charisma Science of Power itself – except where we're gauging real social power and influence in behavioral response rather than measuring photonic reactions and transduction into a solar power cel.

“Take THAT Bembridge scholars!”

Ha!

So it's these 2 powerful, attractive, magnetic FORCES of yin and yang (and the expanded spectrum of divine masculine and feminine consciousness with its corresponding frequency bands of spirit-radiation). The essence spectrum is like essential oils; there's more than just oregano and cinnamon.

You may have heard of reiki, chi kung, pranic healing, energy healing or energy work. This is the practical format in which we can start work with transforming your beauty (as per e3; essence, embodiment and expression principle).

The thing is; even immersing with 2 Chinese Grandmasters, I was never taught the expanded spectrum itself. I learned that mostly from Muse and the Gene Keys (of which I was the first known to translate them as VISUAL essences).

Getting a session with a local reiki healer might help you indirectly as far as beauty essences, but it's not the same as my methodology (and I'm also a reiki master) that does powerful energy healing AND cultivates and works specifically with essenced beauty consulting and transformation directly.

So if this book seemed like overwhelm and too much to process (as more of an open, on-demand resource to get nuggets out of), just feel into this:

"Is it time for me to directly start cultivating my allure or charisma (for all the reasons including greater social media success)?"

If so, then I have some recommendations coming up.

How would you feel in 10 years spending so much on skin-deep beauty always feeling something was missing when you can have divine feminine reclamation of consciousness, beauty essences starting NOW?

This way YOUR paparazzi can start getting thirsty when you have allure like Tyla at the last MET Gala

People are desiring to be QUENCHED in soul and spirit EXPERIENCE in pop culture...the truly alluring bring these qualities to them for mega-response, attraction and attention AND these essences MIX with the light of their physical beauty to look even better!

For men who aren't in a hurry for a major transformation; I'd work with cultivating your jing chi, purifying and refining your chakras, removing energy blocks, miasma, trauma, implants....
DECONDITIONING...getting your chakras to access, embody and emanate IMPERSONAL divine masculine quanta (which is difficult for most men b/c their 'inner game' monkey mind lower self identity wants to keep an iron grip on 'who they are' but the bigger game of Sex and Spirit is IMPERSONAL.

Doing this on your own without experience being stuck in the problem could keep you stuck for years and be an unwise move however. I'd get with a teacher or master of this stuff.

The MOST direct thing would be diving into a 3-pack or [Charisma
Makeover](#) with me where you KNOW you're getting results done.
This can literally release years of blockages and save you YEARS of time (you're going to pay a price anyways to transform in presence).
It's life-changing work when you're ready for it.

Or maybe you are ok with spending years of time to get more of that power and respect that money can't buy (I'd be honest with yourself and if what you're doing is or isn't working...I've seen men stuck for YEARS and years who 'did it on their own'...stuck in cycles of fantasy and anxiety around beautiful women, etc. let alone the hopes of a partner they really desire).

It's common for single men to attract a new girlfriend fast when/after working with me.

Doing it on your own if you're new to all of this would effectively get you nowhere. I've worked with men for over 15 years and have seen the trends of men staying stuck when I had the power and mastery to get them unstuck but they didn't choose it for themselves or wanted to 'figure it out on their own' and again - the price they paid was YEARS of wasted time.

If you're an influencer, you may want growth NOW...your timeline and legacy is also implicated...why be LESS influential if you're pumping out content anyways?

I had to study with other masters to become a master-student myself. Mantak Chia of the Tao Garden has some amazing chi kung work and educates more on the vitality aspect related with chi.

Other energy workers don't do the archetype and charisma transformation that I and the Muse Priestesses do (going public and available for services late 2024).

(In supporting your self-healing and movement of energies as a team with your guides, I/we can detox and open up chakras in seconds releasing often YEARS of stuck junk that is blocking you from being felt by others.)

I do recommend to be on a path of service or to a higher purpose or power. If you're an influencer, you probably already are in some way and this will help open your energy up for DE-PERSONALIZING YOUR FIELD which is what you want to have real, palpable charisma and its natural attention-getting.

I'd Align your VISION with your charisma growth. You don't have to 'fake it 'til you make it' or 'act' your way there.

That's Charisma Coaching 1.0 method-realm stuff...sure you can LOOK the part but this isn't just personal growth stuff. Proper charisma transformation shifts things on an identity and somatic-essence level of embodiment in all aspects of self-consciousness and how you show up. IT HANDLES THE BODY LANGUAGE STUFF with a few adjustments.

So...What archetypes do you feel match and resonate most with your soul-self if you could be fully expressed and free to do so?

I can help you consult with this once you book a package.

See....STARS open up to these greater charismatic essences b/c they are on a path of service (like to MILLIONS of people). So aligning your PURPOSE with your service and growth of consciousness is central. It'll start opening you up to more of the Reclamation of divine masculine power to embody and expression.

The more felt you are by more people who feel you (in stillness of presence), the more expanded your influence.

Like your favorite starlets and beauty influencers...

ESSENCE is the real premium value; it feeds, gives and nurtures...it radiates life like the sun. People bask in the sun for medicine, vitamin d, recreation and healing...it nurtures life. Your allure can nurture their spiritual, sexual and soulful life.

Essence is the gold...the currency...(and your soul essence, the real you to be communicated and felt through media and 'live'...it's more intimate and 'real').

So you can keep buying the next skin serum and conditioner, exploring color tones and make-up mastery; but you could grow old never still reaching true beauty in the expression of your multi-dimensional light (the truth of image); which is in all of your images as vibe-truth; that more people are aware of and yearn for something beyond skin deep where you can influence from the depths and heights of divine feminine consciousness.

But if you don't work directly, you may never get there...Some do indirectly, but why gamble more years? And can you afford those years if you're truly called to express your FULLEST soul truth and beauty?

I am CONFIDENT that allure consulting and transformation is literally with the future of professional performance entertainment as well (and Beauty) – it's this mastery. I'm taking that risk and gamble.

As an influencer, you have an opportunity to expand YOUR reach like a star.

This knowledge can shift your entire worldview about Beauty and influence and that's a big thing, so I hope this First Edition resource has been invaluable for you...maybe even life-shifting (or at least timeline shifting).

Why gamble and wait until charisma becomes 'the thing' when you can get results and growth NOW this week?

So here are some recommendations on how to get started.

First; if you were drawn to more about the Holy Grail and Hieros Gamos or Divine Union:

I'd continue exploring about that on my blog and facebook posts (by far most of the best stuff is friends only btw).

Following me and other recommended Grail Guides (listed on my fb wall search) would also make sense. You could also get the 'Calling of the Kingmaker' report on the site if you're called to that.

For more on celebrity readings, and allure transformation, the blog and fb posts as well as my fb story history.

Here's Idris Elba in 'Pacific Rim' with very grounded Warrior-Father archetypal power:

Sometimes people just want to explore more to start shifting their world-view before just diving in and getting real world transformation itself more directly.

For doing some self-transformational work, I'd get into Powerliminal attunements and/or other archetypal experience work.

Don't forget the Beauty attunements:

Beauty Meditation - Siddhic Beauty Essence Attunement 2

Siddhic Beauty Attunement 1 - Inner Beauty Meditation - {Gene Key 1} 4K

There was where I was mentioning the Dark Goddess Powerliminal above. That advice would fit here.

There's several powerful meditations related to cultivating your archetypes, allure or charisma on my channel.

Whether you're working with me or not, the Allure Attunement (2024) can start working some magic.

Even if you ARE working with me, that can further help integrate and constellate the emanation of your essences to be felt more.

Just getting your chakras breathing to EXTEND more than a few feet is going to increase your social influence b/c then it will be affecting people who are further away.

Want your presence to fill up the room and people to turn heads with your under-current of communication? Learn to extend your aura to fill the room.

The gist with Powerliminals (which can indirectly or directly help with VARIABLE results) is that they're meant to be the best archetypal meditations in the world and are unlike 'regular' meditations.

For some they work wonders, for others the charisma results are more questionable b/c it relies on your ability to be an alchemist and BE affected multi-dimensionally via the Law of Resonance (Activations are the surest bet).

You may also want to consider the 'dancing eros' concept or ie. goddess retreats and finding guides who embody their teachings.

AND...if you're SERIOUS about charisma/allure consulting and transformation for YOU...

The BEST and FASTEST way (hands down) that I could ever recommend is to work directly and potently on your energy body itself with me or a Muse Priestess (check my FB or on-site for when they're graduating).

Working directly, we can restore energetic health, biological anti-aging, reclaim and cultivate embodiment of your soul and other archetypal and siddhic Divine Feminine aspects that you would like to express as the true soul-centric radiant and alluring self. We get work done FAST for allure transformation and makeover this way.

We can also start working with your Gene Keys which gives you a preview and path of your fully expressed avatar-self allure.

There's no amount of make-up and hair mastery that is going to get you to where people weep in your presence by aspects of the Divine Feminine embodied Herself (mixed and filtered through your soul essence).

So how can you work with me?

Well, I've got several services available including a 3-pack of sessions to dive in but without a larger transformational commitment. They can be done remotely. About 95% of my sessions have been remote (zoom). There's other Q&A addressed on the main appointments page on-site (same link as above).

If you want more consulting time and a professional image ALLURE consultation; I've got the allure consulting with 1 activation session offer (75 minutes) also available on that main appointments page.

This is a great starter choice where we can do a lot of consulting and strategy (not just on your visuals).

There's also the Reclamation Makeover (for heavier trauma healing);

The Essence Therapy Replacement package and the Allure Makeover or Charisma Makeover package. If you're SERIOUS about a real transformation, I'd go with the AMP/CMP.

If you want to test the waters first but with real work, then I'd go with the Allure Consult w/1 session or a 3-pack (both on the main appointments page).

There's also the solo Biio-star session for powerful anti-aging and the Grail-Spring for direct reunification power support and evolution.

Some people choose to get the Soul Performance Growth Maintenance package for 6 months - all on-site. This ENSURES continual, progressive evolution for that time (which also works on your charisma/allure and essence cultivation for greater impact and influence as well as spiritual growth).

Mostly; things are centered around the 30 minute session format (appointment) where we can do your choice of allure, charisma (general), archetype, gift or siddhic (Gene Key related). We will consult on these and I can answer any questions. A few of the archetypes however, are at higher price points.

Yes; enough consulting is included (once we are in session) to know which session we are doing in the basic format to support your goals.

All sessions include growth maintenance detox energy healing and anti-aging. Some of the more alluring women in online business are ALREADY working with me in conscious circles; they already know that energy work is real and all of that. (Ask around!)

So whether you're already a successful spirit-led woman in business where YOU are the brand or whether you're an early adopter beauty influencer or someone who wants to just increase their RESPONSE and engagement ORGANICALLY with your social influence and marketing, I'd say that working on your charisma/allure directly like this is the BEST bet and way to go. It's the most assured way to GET RESULTS (and fast).

You can read more about me and my background onsite:

About Rion

I'm working on translating that value even more and will improve from here. I hope I'm doing a good job in spite of the codes onslaught.

You don't have to wait until the top celebs ARE doing this stuff! My previous clients were the early early adopters and we wouldn't be where things are now without them.

Once the rest of the world catches up with it; my prediction is that CHARISMA CONSULTING is going to become a VERY BIG thing. Thing is; the way things are operating out there, there isn't the conscious competence imo to really work with it directly (which is) energetically. So we'll see what happens from here...I'm in service. Other energy workers don't really do exactly what I do and many have value conflicts around beauty, sex, eros, status, pop culture, music, entertainment and social power in the midst of AUTHENTIC devotional holy grail divine union work.

Hey; this is Muse lineage work so the values are all aligned.

So to wrap up;

Social media is here to stay; it's often the main way we stay connected as social beings.

You have the opportunity to grow your influence and business like never before in history; so I hope you'll value charisma as a core component of your influence.

Charisma/allure is already the CURRENT and CURRENCY of what people are organically engaging with and responding to (even though ad algo-rhythmics can't see it yet)...esp. from visuals alone.

And if you're called to explore the Grail work more too, that's around. Working on that WILL improve your allure as well, but it's essentially something you have to be initiated into b/c it's NOTHING like traditional relationship, twin flames or soul mate consulting.

If you may be called to work with me, you don't have to take my word for. Ask around...I'm also a healer's healer and most of the leaders in the Grail movement have already worked with me as well as 100s of women (and a bunch of men) who have worked with me for archetype activations and charisma/allure transformation.

ALL OF IT is related with your consciousness, identity and professional image with real life changes and shifts (in the right direction); sometimes miraculous shifts (I've got lots of stories).

I've earned 100s of praise testimonials (available on-site) with new ones coming in all the time that I haven't updated.

If you're ready to really get started with deepening your allure, I highly recommend just getting session time with me for yourself. (Watch out for information overload or analysis paralysis).

Quantum breakthroughs are NORMAL working with me.

I've had people wait years and then were finally glad they just started working with me instead of taking that long (some of them suffering analysis paralysis or letting their shadows guide their decisions).

For some who are in tune with their soul more, even then it can take time to know WHEN is the right time. I am used to working with very conscious men and women (and one trans client so far) who are doing serious progressive work.

I think you have an idea what's at stake; not just more attention in an attention economy to grow your following; but your soul freedom and fullest expression is all implicated in living like the soul star/let version of yourself with deeper, rich INFLUENCE and engagement with your soul peoples.

We live in an Attention Economy, so how much longer can you go without expressing your fuller soul truth that people will respond to (knowing that it's an on-going evolution and journey into even greater fuller soul expression and mastery anyways)?

Just how much BEAUTY could you hold?!

And how can you afford not to have that level of soul truth, visual influence especially if you're in spiritual, conscious entrepreneurship, business and social influence?

Them seeing feeling and knowing you're the real deal instantly (and then verifying it with their entire brand experience and touch points of you) sells more and from visual stillness.

Consumers are awakening up to become more psychic, aware, intuitive and seeing through B.S. and incongruencies. If you're the real deal, you owe it to your people to be your best self.

How can beauty have such influence? Radiation like the sun-star...maybe it's YOUR time no matter what level you're at to take things into fuller visual mastery and quantum leap your influence.

I've this and other resources 'for free', but I'd love to help you directly if and when you are called. I don't chase clients – EVER. When they're ready, they come to me.

You know that Beauty sells and it's not just about looking pretty.

Allure (essenced, non-physical, feelable beauty) attracts, ENGAGES, manifests and can even magically transmute consciousness; even heal and transform people from its radiance. It templatizes deeper love and connection.

Many millions will continue working on their skin deep appeal and may hear about allure consulting from other influencers in the next coming years. I do plan on moving to Tulum and starting some events for Beauty influencers, kundalini workshops and stuff like that btw. You'll know when my Instagram debut is live from FB, but u can pre-follow me there.

(yet to debut at time of 1ED. Release)

So I hope I delivered on the premise of charisma is the gold CURRENCY (and underlying current) of social media influence and success.

We're just becoming aware of it more 'consciously' now.

The current is already thriving and HAS been a CORE component of movie, entertainment and star/starlet success and their legacy for quite some time.

And I don't think you're going to find all of your answers in the superficial stuff wherever it may fit (ai, hacking, algorithms, etc.) or soft-maxing tips.

This is the type of marketing gold in feminine, spirit-aligned business with already psychic and intuitive soul tribe prospects out there - is more important than glitzy, superficial marketer speak...they want to feel and know you are the real thing intuitively.

Allure (and cultivating more of your archetypal beauty) lets you communicate that. Charisma (and divine masculine reclamation) for men gets people responding to YOU even if you're not famous or a subject matter specialist.

"I went through this whole book aka 'power report' and you're telling me that I should be more charismatic in my visuals?"

Well, if you want more organic response, engagement and growth yes however - it's not about what you're 'doing' (and this is what the charisma coaches still can't really grasp)...it's about increasing the power of your BEING in presence sexually, socially (relating with the divine feminine without anxieties in high status women), emotionally, etc. and other people of true power WILL TEST YOU.

It's about the Power of PRESENCE for men and opening that channel of power up is charisma. You have to come at it from a somatic identity approach to save yourself YEARS OF WASTED TIME. Your inner game will never figure it out...the 'game itself' and divine game boils down to POWER and BEAUTY...you have to reclaim your SOUL and let loose your grip on your egoic self identity and constructed persona to embody real power that women and people can FEEL. All of the answers you seek are with that (and I was a TOP natural dating and attraction coach in the industry for YEARS).

Women want you to be powerful to hold true presence with them without disconnecting into fantasy and disembodiment...and going into your mind and getting nervous butterflies; that's not power. A great test of power is being PRESENT with a woman who you truly desire. It's with all of this power, presence and grace work. Men will fail for decades with other approaches (even seeking 'fame' for attention).

B/c true power in silence, in stillness has more influence from someone who IS powerful and radiating inner beauty vs. someone trying to act 'charismatic', 'self-confident' or boisterous (and then gets somatically thrown off into anxiety and nervous butterflies around TRUE BEAUTY embodied in a woman and how to relate to her goddess consciousness/presence.

This is the real charisma and divine masculine embodiment work that is the most direct.

True power doesn't have to do anything. It's about BEING. And that's PRESENCE...the power of presence. If you value that and have seen it in other men, it IS available 4u2, but you'll have to do something different or keep suffering the same results.

Charisma and allure have power in STILLNESS (b/c it radiates true power which is chi essence spirit-matter). It's not about mental self-confidence and 'doing' anything.

"Oh shit, then we haven't cracked the code

- Charisma Coaches 2024.

It's about true power and BEING powerful and embodied and then relating with other power and beauty as its worthy spiritual, social, sexual and psychic equal from there. It's a relational universe.

Your 'style' should only support this real work of presence. Many men reek (vibrationally/4D) of neediness and leechiness...they should work on their power of presence and then expression of their 'cool' detachment that doesn't have to get anything from women and then see what women are getting THEIR vibe-signs and responding.

Silence can communicate more true power than someone 'trying' to actively influence someone. Which simply = more power or beauty (chi) embodied in presence.

“Yeah; but how did you get this wisdom if not from other charisma coaches?”

Ha! Ironically I got it FROM the divine feminine working through the channels of allure of starlet/awakened woman (beyond their personal name or genre); not merely contemplating their designer brands and styling b/c the divine feminine consciousness SOURCES allure and is communicating on a different level real transformational influence.

Short answer; It's sum grandmaster alchemy shit. (Sourced in holy grail werk).

This is the currency; charisma. It's already the under-current so I hope with all of our examples you will start 'seeing' it in the world around you!

WITHIN Beauty and the EVOLUTION of humanity and social media, power and influence - allure/charisma is going to become THE hottest thing (I predict). It's the connection to the divine INTO OUR MATRIX.

Watch it happen as more early adopters start to consciously RECOGNIZE it. Wait until the excitement of K-pop agencies, artists and global celebs start being thankful that FINALLY we can work on this professionally with the aura and essences!

I hope you're one of them before it becomes famous! B/c I think you know beauty has been more than skin-deep all of this time.

And in spite of AI, you can access greater allure starting NOW to ENGAGE your followers, clients, fans and customers more deeply...even turn them into rabid 'must-follow-you' fans and clients.

Allure is where the trends must INEVITABLY point to because Beauty MUST evolve and people are seeking greater influence IN such a distracting and superficial economy.

There's all KINDS of 'pretty women' as influencers on Instagram but the FUTURE is headed towards more engagement and connection. Watch as people start realizing that having charisma is GOLD for having social influence success...this is very exciting also b/c you can BE THE ROCKSTAR of your own orbit in FULLEST expression. AND it's connected to your spirituality, relationships, fulfillment, etc.

So if you desire more organic influence from your visuals and to LIVE like the star/starlet version of yourself expanding your empire; it's pretty simple that professionally cultivating your charisma/allure is for you.

And yes, you can't put a price on the real gold and life transformation itself, but there is a cost to transform from where you are now in presence TO BECOME that embodied and shining signature soul starlet or star of who you really are and desire to be fully expressed as.

There's going to be SOME forms of major sacrifice. That's also why this work is a premium and saves you years of time.

Having more essence embodied and expressed in your chakras and aura allows people to FEEL THE CURRENT and CURRENCY of what they really value on the deeper levels which includes CONNECTION and belonging (on those higher band-widths that MOST influencers are really nourishing them on).

If you choose to work with me, we'll most likely be working with archetypal beauty and power...we'll customize it to YOU.

Archetypes EMPOWER your soul's ability to more fully BE and express itself from your true center (rather than more limited, egoic center which is more primed for corruption and distortion anyways).

If you want to get into biological anti-aging to be, feel and LOOK younger, allure (and maybe grail) work is for you.

If you want to REVIVE your light-beauty with ESSENCE if your estrogenic bio-essence dropped peri or post-menopause, you can work with CHI and allure work with the Essence Replacement Therapy would be perfect for you to remain, younger, vital and beautiful at any age (and explore the feminine archetypes and their beauty).

If you're a Def Leppard member who just wants some good energy body tune-up, anti-aging and smoother, palpable charisma before you go on stage for a show, I'm your guy.

Btw; Joe Elliott (here) has a lot of soul and life experience and some real King codes which you can connect to in his eyes. Lots of Rockstar King-Magician..even Sorcerer.

Remember; it's SOUL value and reading...style is secondary

(Almost done here, believe it or not Atreyu)

If you KNOW what I'm talking about when referring to your soul's desire for fullest expression is one of THE most important things in your life from here forward, then allure cultivation is for you.

If having more magnetic impact, gravitas and influence on people AS a male influencer, speaker, entrepreneur, icon, ...charisma cultivation is for you.

If you've already got it and are already 'high performance' with a large following (or are a celeb); we can working MASTERING it and taking things to NEW heights as an iconic legend.

Getting more (and DEEPER, compelled, organic) attention allows you to have more INFLUENCE and to grow your brand and business in all the ways.

MORE RESPONSE, MORE CLICKS, VIEWS, ENGAGEMENT.
PRICELESS on scaling your social media empire/influence's highest timelines.

I know you're aware of it; that there's SO much social media, instagram, youtube, tiktok, television, advertising and so forth that is VYING for attention.

Many signals that are vying for your attention and your ideal clients or fan's attention and TIME.

It can seem hard to 'stand out', but you will be more recognizable and noticed when you have THE EDGE when you work on your own charisma/allure directly (even to have qualities of some of your favorite stars who might otherwise seem 'separate' from you but we're all connected in the cosmos on the higher planes).

I think I've covered how you can 'enter the stream' of the real rockstar influencer stuff; the currency itself underneath that DRIVES engagement organically.

After all; we're talking about becoming a more influential BEAUTY influencer OR a man with a charismatic presence and brand that COMPELS people to follow you and all the good stuff.

This will amplify response from whatever scale of following you've built and it will ENDEAR soul tribe fans or clients TO YOU like me and my clients enjoy. DEEPER IMPACT even if you're on a smaller scale (plus higher retention rates and return clients).

And in such an attention deficit era; can you afford NOT to stand out in ORGANIC ways that compels them to follow or work with you?

You can let me know your feedbacks to this (ie. On FB DM). I can also answer questions about possible client work there (or you can email rion @ mindreel.tv .

Maybe I OVERSOLD the universalized and now professional working concept of allure and charisma transformation?

I dunno, but these codes had to get out and this blitzkrieg format (which is more of the exception).

I hope you can also start feeling and sensing the under-current and CURRENCY of Allure and Charisma itself with social media power and influence (as well as socially in general)!

How about cultivating more of your 'gold' (essence) itself as the TANGIBLE thing of exchange socially?! The world can be your metaphorical oyster.

So thank you for investing your time and I hope this is the start (or acceleration) of your social media LEGACY and SUCCESS as a star or starlet influencer (or beauty influencer)!
